Jennie Garth has made the latest celebrity news again, and this time it's for her celebrity wedding which we've all been celebrating this week. According to UsMagazine.com, Garth planned the entire affair by herself. The Beverly Hills, 90210 star, didn't even have an event organizer helping her! Her groom, David Abrams, also took elements of the celebrity wedding into his own hands as well. Apparently, Abrams said vows to all three of Garth's daughters before exchanging them with her. How cute is this Hollywood couple!

Celebrity weddings involve hands on work, but they aren't all planned by the celebs involved like this one! What are some benefits to saying "no" to a wedding planner?

Cupid's Advice:

Although planning a wedding can be hard on a relationship and love, both you and your fiancé should have an active role in organizing the event. See below for our love advice on the benefits to saying "no" to a wedding coordinator:

1. Everything is how you want it: The best part of arranging the ceremony and reception yourself is that you truly know this will be the happiest day of your life. Everything from the decorations, to the DJ, to the vows will have your own mark on them and be unique to your nuptials.

2. You'll grow closer to your fiancé: If you're meant to be together, then planning a wedding should be a breeze. There shouldn't be much arguing or disagreeing throughout the process. Make sure you watch Bride Wars and learn from the characters mistakes.

Jennie Garth Celebrates Celebrity Wedding to David Abrams

Courtney Omernick

UsMagazine.com reported that celebrity couple David Abrams and Jennie Garth tied the knot on Saturday, July 11th. The celebrity wedding took place at Garth's home in California at 7 p.m. Many pals of Jennie were in attendance, such as Tori

Spelling and Miguel Pinzon.

This celebrity wedding took place at sunset. How do you decide on the timing of your wedding?

Cupid's Advice:

While this celebrity couple decided that sunset was the best time for a wedding, not everyone will agree. See below for our love advice on when to tie the knot:

1. Consider your personality: If you're thinking about the time of day, consider if you're a morning person or an evening person. It might be too much to have the wedding earlier in the day and the reception later at night. Decide if you'd rather stay up later or get up earlier.

2. Consider the holidays: If you're trying to pick a date, think about what holidays might be close to your wedding day. Seeing as how many people travel to see their families during the holiday season, don't expect a ton of people to show up if your big day is right around Christmas time.

3. How long have you been engaged?: If you want a larger, more elaborate wedding, it's going to take some time to plan. If you've only been engaged to the person of your dreams for a month, don't expect to have every detail squared away immediately.

Cupid's Advice:

Engagement periods vary depending on the couple. Regardless of the length make sure to get some quality time in together as fiances:

1. Have a celebration: You are going to tie the knot! Get together all the people you care about and celebrate this milestone with a party. Have it at home or go to one of your favorite spots as a couple to commemorate the occasion.

2. Capture the moments: Since, in the grand scheme of things, the engagement can be a rather short period of time in the relationship, document the moments. Have a cheesy photo shoot post engagement, enjoy all the date nights and don't be afraid to take the "usies."
