What are some reasons to take your new husband's last name as your own?

Cupid's Advice:

Getting hitched means you've found the love of your life, but sometimes it can mean losing who you are in the process.

Taking your husband's last name can feel like you're erasing part of yourself. Here are some things to consider:

1. You won't lose who you are: Changing your name will not take away the accomplishments you achieved under your maiden name. Think of the change as a new chapter in your life.

2. The name game: When you decide to have children, it will keep confusion to a minimum.

3. Your hubby will thank you: Traditional men often like to build their families as a unit. They want their children and their wives to carry the same last name as a courtesy. Plus, if you change your name, he owes you some chores around the house!

How can you deal with legal trouble as a couple?

Cupid's Advice:

Run-ins with the law can cause serious strain on your relationship. Cupid has some suggestions:

1. Be open and honest: As soon as problems crop up, spill the truth to your significant other. Your trust in each other won't be shaken if surprises come up over the length of the legal battle.

2. Try to keep it separate: Try as hard as you can to not talk about your legal troubles when you're away from the courtroom. You'll keep your problems from overwhelming your lives.

3. Remember what's important: If you and your partner are involved in legal trouble together, remember that love is more important than a lawsuit. On the other hand, if it involves a person you've been dating for two weeks, you may want to put your sanity and well-being as top priority.
