By Katie Gray

Celebrity couples are just like any other couples, which sometimes entails being in a long distance relationship. Celebrity relationships can nail the long-distance aspect when they have good communication, are both dedicated and put in extra effort. Whether these celebrities send photos, write love letters or FaceTime, they have found the secrets to making long distance work. For some, it's only a temporary situation and for others, it is sporadic sequences.

Cupid has compiled five celebrity couples who are nailing long-distance relationships:

1. Sarah Michelle Gellar & Freddie Prinze Jr: Sarah Michelle Gellar and Freddie Prinze Jr. got together in 1997 and have been happily together ever since. They've even appeared in the Scooby-Doo films together! They are one celebrity relationship that find a healthy balance between work and play, privacy and publicity. It's evident that they make it work while they have to be apart. To this day, they post sweet photos together and are still very much in love.

2. Tom Hanks & Rita Wilson: Since they were married in 1988, Tom Hanks and Rita Wilson have been making their marriage work. They are both successful actors and that entails having different filming schedules. In addition, they have to have travel for appearances and events. Hanks and Wilson are genuine people and are a positive relationship to emulate. They have been together well over 20 years. We love them!

3. Elton John & David Furnish: Elton John has been with his partner David Furnish for over two decades. The music superstar has to tour for his concerts, therefore; sometimes there is bound to be distance. The celebrity couple got married when same-sex marriage was legalized. They have traditions together, such as sending one another a card every single Saturday. How sweet!

Elton John and Partner David Furnish Marry in England

By Katie Gray

Music legend and superstar, Elton John, tied the knot this weekend with his longtime partner, David Furnish! The duo got a civil partnership in 2005 and have been together for 21 years. They married in England, where same-sex marriage was recently legalized. According to UsMagazine.com, John said, "We'll do it very quietly. But we will do it, and it will be a joyous occasion, and we will have our children [there]. For this legislation to come through is joyous, and we should celebrate it. We shouldn't just say, 'Oh well, we have a civil partnership; we're not going to bother to get married'. We will get married."

How do you incorporate your kids in your wedding?

Cupid's Advice:

If you have children, you'll no doubt want to include them in wedding festivities. Cupid has some ideas:

1. Tie the knot with family ties: When tying the knot, it's wonderful to be able to include children in the celebrations! Whether that means your own children or children of family members, it's a beautiful thing. Include the children in the wedding by simply inviting them to all of the events and festivities on the big day as well as the parties leading up to it. They'll simply be happy they're there with the adults.

2. Walk it out: A great way to involve kids in a wedding is by letting them be in the wedding party! Have them walk down the aisle as a flower girl, ring bearer, junior bridesmaid, or junior groomsmen. Let them hold the bride's bouquet during the ceremony or have another kind of task to make them feel important.

Elton John Welcomes a Baby Boy

By Meghan Fitzgerald

Zachary Jackson Levon, Elton John and David Furnish's first child welcomed a beautiful baby brother on January 11 via a surrogate in Los Angeles, reports People. Weighing in at 8lbs, 4 oz, the loving couple is more than thrilled to have two beautiful and healthy children. In June of the past year,

John discussed with the Guardian about wanting to have another child. John went to discuss how he wanted his children to have a sibling, mostly due to his childhood parented by unhappy parents. He says, "I think it's difficult to be an only child, and to be an only child of someone famous. I want him to have a sibling so he has someone to be with."

What are some ways to announce the birth of your child to your family and friends?

Cupid's Advice:

After the excruciating labor you just sat through, you may have to go through some more pain ... telling your family and friends about your new baby. All exaggeration put aside, the news of your child is waiting to escape out of your mouth and inform the entire world. Typically, new mothers are ecstatic to get the word out about their new child. Here are some ways to do it:

1. We welcome...postcards: Who doesn't find joy when they receive a beautifully crafted postcard welcoming a baby girl or boy into this world? These postcards are a relatively easy and fun way to introduce your child to your family and friends. Not only are these postcards adorable however, they will be hung up on the fridge so others can see and you can thoroughly get the word out.

2. Christenings/religious ceremonies: Getting the family together is never a problem when there is a new addition to the family; a small, gentle, nuzzling, and angelic child. Having your family and friends around allows your panic levels to subdue for which, you have the most important people in your life by your side.

3: Facebook: Expressing news on social media may not be your cup of tea, which is understood due to it not being entirely personal. Although, it may not be ideal for all new mothers out there however, everyone and their grandmas are on Facebook these days. You can take a photo shoot with your child, post an adorable picture of your new child and the family, post a quirky caption and enjoy the outcome. You will receive praise and joy from the child you are welcoming in to the world. Also, all the experienced, older mothers will send their wisdom and much needed tips for becoming a new mother.
