

Celebrity News: DeAnna Pappas Hints At Clare Crawley's Relationship Status with Dale Moss

By Carly Silva

In the latest celebrity news, DeAnna Pappas hinted at Clare Crawley and Dale Moss' relationship status when she appeared on the "Almost Famous" podcast earlier this month. According to UsMagazine, the reality TV star confirmed that Bachelorette Clare Crawley is apparently still smitten with Dale Moss, one of the contestants on Crawley's season of the Bachelorette.

In celebrity news, DeAnna Pappas referred to Clare's relationship status multiple times in a recent podcast episode. What are some ways to keep outside chatter about your relationship from affecting you?

Cupid's Advice

When gossip and rumors are circulating about your relationship, they can put a major damper on the excitement of being in love. If you're looking for ways to keep outside chatter about your relationship from affecting you, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Address it: The most direct way to handle gossip regarding your relationship is to address it directly. This may mean confronting those spreading rumors in person, or even acknowledging haters online. While this may be an intense way of stopping the noise surrounding your relationship, it will definitely make it clear that you want the chatter to stop.

2. Go private: Another way to avoid letting the negative rumors about your relationship affect you is to make your relationship less public. It will be extremely difficult for people to comment on and critique your relationship if they don't know anything about it. Try to limit how much you express your relationship on social media and start to enjoy your time with just your partner.

3. Switch your focus: The best way to stop chatter surrounding your relationship from affecting you is to switch your focus to what really matters. Instead of listening or responding to the rumors and gossip, try focusing on your partner and your relationship instead. Don't spend your time caught up in what other people are thinking, and channel that effort towards nurturing your relationship.

Celebrity Baby News: ‘The Bachelorette’ Alum DeAnna Pappas Welcomes Second Child

By Jasmine Igwegbe

Having a baby is a blessing! In celebrity baby news, The Bachelorette alum DeAnna Pappas and husband, Stephen Stagliano, are expecting a baby boy. Celebrity couple Pappas and Stagliano are thrilled to welcome their second child into this world. According to UsMagazine.com, Pappas expressed her feelings for her first child Addison, stating, "I'm obsessed, really, is the right way to put it. I just love her so much, words don't do it justice." The pair proclaimed 7 months ago that they were planning on enlarging their family. On Friday, February 26, she announced on Twitter, "Oh, why hello there #DueDate but #imstillpregnant." This celebrity couple is soon to be expecting their celebrity baby.

This celebrity baby news is joyous! What are some ways to prepare your relationship for the birth of a second child?

Cupid's Advice:

The littlest feet can make a significant footprint in one's life. Ensuring that your relationship is ready and stable for a child is important. Cupid has some advice to share with you:

1. Be more organized: Having a planned schedule may be the best way to stay organized. While having two children, a job, and other extra activities going on in your life, there is the possibility of your day becoming hectic, so it is important to be organized to avoid any obstacles. This can include creating a calendar and posting it in your kitchen or downloading a useful scheduling app on your phone.

New Born Baby Bonding the Love Between Bachelorette
DeAnna Pappas and Stephen
Stagliano

By Laura Seaman

A newborn baby girl has brought DeAnna Pappas Stagliano and husband Stephen Stagliano closer than ever. The couple, married in 2011, told People about their love as parents: “I didn’t know that you could love like this. Obviously I love DeAnna to pieces and we have a wonderful marriage, but the love that a parent has, it’s just different,” said Stagliano. The now 5-month-old baby Addison Marie Stagliano has brought a happy and completely new experience to the couple. “Nothing can really prepare you for what it’s like to have a child and how your life will change, but I will say we’re really good at it,” said the new mother. “We’re a really good team.”

How can a child bring you and your partner closer together?

Cupid’s Advice:

Being in love with your partner is one thing, but being in love with your partner while raising a child is another. The process of raising a child puts your relationship through situations to which nothing else could even compare! Through all the dirty diapers, walks in the park, and 6AM wake-up calls, your relationship can become stronger and more wonderful than ever before. Cupid has some advice:

1. Working together to raise a child makes you a team. If you've ever worked on a project with your partner, maybe you know a bit of what this feels like. Raising a child requires a lot of work on both ends, so when small achievements like a first step or a first word start happening, you can be proud together and know that all the wonderful things your baby accomplishes are due to the great bond of you and your partner.

2. Sharing the love for your baby is powerful. A love for one's child is unique, but one other person can truly understand; your partner. You both have this strong, amazing love for your child and that shared love is something nobody else can have. It's like a wonderful secret only you two know.

DeAnna Pappas Stagliano Talks Motherhood: “It’s Seriously the Best Thing I’ve Ever Done”

By Maria Darbenzio

New mother and The Bachelorette alum DeAnna Pappas Stagliano and her husband Stephen Stagliano welcomed a beautiful baby girl into their family on February 6th. The former reality star recently caught up with Celebrity Baby Scoop to share an inside look at Addison Marie’s nursery and to talk about how she's adjusted to being a mom.

CBS: Congratulations on the arrival of your daughter Addison Marie! How is she doing? And how are you adjusting to new motherhood?

DPS: "Addison is doing amazing – already sleeping through the night! Such a big girl. The past two months have just flown by. It's like I blinked and she grew into a baby instead of a newborn. So crazy.

I am loving motherhood – it is seriously the best thing I have ever done with my life. I'm obsessed with her – I can't stop staring at her or kissing her. Motherhood is such a blessing and I am so grateful to be experiencing this. The transition has been flawless. Sometimes I wake up in the middle of the night and I miss her so much even though she is just in the next room in her crib. The magnitude of the love I feel is so hard to put into words."

CBS: How did you come up with Addison Marie's name? Was it a tough decision for you and Stephen?

DPS: "Stephen and I loved the name Addison way before we were even thinking about getting pregnant. The name is just so beautiful and sophisticated. Her middle name, Marie, is passed down. It was my grandmother's, my mother's, and my middle name. It is something I wanted to share with my own daughter. I wanted her to know and have a piece of my mother."

CBS: Tell us all about baby Addison's beautiful nursery. What was the inspiration behind the soft pink and gray room? Have you always had a nursery like this in mind for your first child?

DPS: "Addison's nursery is our favorite room in the house! When we were planning out her nursery, I knew I wanted to decorate it in soft pink and soft gray. The gray took some convincing with Stephen, but once he saw it, he loved it too. Choosing the bedding with Carousel Designs made it all complete. It was so easy when making the decision because we used their online tool. They had the perfect pink and gray chevron bedding that we just fell in love with. I found some vintage pieces of furniture that Stephen and I restored for her room that just fit perfectly.

CBS: What's your favorite component/piece in the nursery?

DPS: "Speaking practically, I love her Poopoose changing pad. It is 'mom invented' which I love. The changing pad has a belt to strap Addison in so she doesn't roll off and get hurt. I'm also a huge fan of my Bobee diaper dispenser. It makes storing diapers easy and stylish so I am not cluttering up Addison's dresser or drawers with all the extra diapers."

Stephen and DeAnna Pappas Stagliano Reveal Baby Daughter's Name

By Louisa Gonzales

It's official! The baby name of Stephen and DeAnna Pappas Stagliano has been announced. The beautiful couple has named their baby girl Addison Marie Stagliano according to People. The Bachelorette star and her husband named their daughters middle name after DeAnna's mother, who died of cancer when she was 12. The duo welcomed their baby to the world on Thursday, February 6 and the Bachelorette alum's husband was quick to tweet the good news. The lovebirds pregnancy was first announced in August, and the starlet even joked about how the baby would be her gift to her husband. The lovers couldn't be happier and are grateful for all the warm wishes they have received.

How do you compromise with your partner on baby names?

Cupid's Advice:

Welcoming a baby into the world is an exciting event. Babies can bring couples together or pull them a part. Discussing and picking out your baby's name can be difficult, especially when you both have specific names in mind. How can the two of you find a way to civilly pick out a name? Cupid has some advice on how to compromise with your partner on baby names:

1. Remember you want to pick a baby name not pick a fight:

There is a way to peacefully pick out baby names, you just have to know how to pick your battles. If the baby name is truly important to you, your partner will most likely understand and agree to a compromise, but before you go there ask yourself how important is the name to you really? More important than your marriage? These are questions you need to ask yourself, when you're set on a name, but your beau is against it.

Related: Former 'Bachelorette' DeAnna Pappas Stagliano Is Pregnant

2. Be together on this: Couples who are a team and work together have stronger relationships than those who don't. Sit down, maybe go through a baby names book or make a list of possible baby names together. If your lovebird is against certain names you really like ask if they are willing to agree on an alternative. It could be fun to find a baby name together, just make sure it's a name you will both love and be happy with.

3. Be reasonable: When choosing baby names be fair. Don't suggest random or odd names that have no real significance to you or your significant other. You don't want to look back later in life and not be happy with your choice of baby name nor do you want to look back and say, "yea maybe we should have gone with your suggestion". If you are both honest and willing to be smart about the potential names it will make deciding on one much easier.

'Bachelorette' Alum DeAnna Pappas Welcomes a Baby Girl

By Louisa Gonzales

Congratulations to the happy couple, 'Bachelorette' alum DeAnna Pappas and her hubby, Stephen Stagliano for the birth of their first child together! According to UsMagazine.com, the news of their baby girl being brought into the world was announced to the world via Twitter on Saturday, February 8th. Proud papa, Stagliano, was delighted in the welcoming of their daughter to the world, expressing in his tweet how he now has “two loves in his life!”. He also thanked all his fans for all the support and love. Pappas, 32, showed her gratitude also and retweeted the message.

What are some ways you can support your partner through pregnancy?

Cupid's Advice:

Pregnancy is one of the many wonders of this world and is a special time for a couple to experience. Finding out you're pregnant can be exciting, exhilarating, and nerve-wracking. For a lot of couples, it's the start of a new chapter. Cupid has advice on ways you can support your partner through pregnancy:

1. Go with your partner to prenatal doctor appointments: Both you and your partner are soon to be parents, even though only the mother is carrying the child. Show your support and let them know you are in it together, by going with your lover to their prenatal doctor visits and check ups. Experiencing pregnancy things such as finding out the baby's gender, listening to their heartbeat can be a great memory to share as a couple as well as a family. Going to the doctor's can be scary and stressful, being able to hold your lover's hand and show your love is helpful to both the mother's and the baby's health as it can help keep her calm, happy and stress-free.

Related: Former 'Bachelorette' DeAnna Pappas Stagliano Is Pregnant

2. Attend birthing classes and do research together: Signing up and going to pregnancy related classes together shows your lovebird you care and that you'll be there throughout the entire process. Many changes come with being pregnant and being prepared can help with transitioning into this new chapter of your lives. This means reading and researching on what being pregnant means, what you should do to be ready and how to make it as smooth sailings as possible. It's good to do things as a couple still because it shows the other you love them and they're not alone.

3. Make sure the mother to be is as healthy as she can be: This means eating right, exercising, and keeping her away from anything that can be harmful to both her and the baby. This includes things like stress, which can weaken the immune system. Keeping the mother happy can keep her healthy and the baby. Help her stay healthy by doing it together. For example, both of you can change your diets and exercise together, you doing it too will make it easier for the expectant mother. Also, make sure your honey gets enough sleep and stays away from harmful substances such as alcohol. If you want your baby to be born healthy you both have to put in the effort.

DeAnna Pappas Stagliano Celebrates Her Baby Shower

By Maria Darbenzio

Former star of The Bachelorette's fourth season, DeAnna Pappas Stagliano, joined friends and family to celebrate the soon-to-be mother. A baby shower was held at her mother-in-law's Los Angeles home on January 12th. The get-together was hosted by DeAnna's sister-in-law, best friend, and Good Carma Studio with a theme of Pretty in Pink. You guessed it: Her and husband, Stephen Stagliano, are having a baby girl! Celebrity Baby Scoop had the opportunity to talk with the 32-year-old about her first child.

As Pappas Stagliano showed off her baby bump in a gorgeous royal blue dress from A Pea in the Pod, guests enjoyed an array of organic foods that included fresh juices and yogurt parfaits. The soiree also included a candy table created by Mabel's Labels, including organic sweets of sugar, spice, and everything nice. They were even treated to foot massages, thanks to MANLY HANDZ.

“I’ve been trying not to stress over the actual birthing process,” she shared. “We’ve decided to just head to the hospital and let the doctors do what they know best. I’ll have an epidural and put my trust in the brains that know best.”

She’s excited to welcome her little bundle of joy, who is expected to arrive in early February around the same time as her husband’s birthday. “A healthy, happy baby girl is all we care about,” she went on to say.

Because the couple shared the baby’s gender, they’ve decided to keep their name decision a secret until she arrives. Their daughter will be welcomed with a beautiful nursery designed by Carousel Designs. Although they don’t have an overall theme for the nursery, the couple decided on a color scheme and the perfect bedding to go along with it.

As the baby shower came to an end and guest began to leave, they were handed goodie bags that included a variety of awesome party favors. It sounds like the pregnant star had a blast!

Former ‘Bachelorette’ DeAnna Pappas Stagliano Is Pregnant

By Petra Halbur

The former Bachelorette, DeAnna Pappas Stagliano, and her husband, Stephen Stagliano, are expecting their first child! DeAnna confided to People that she and Stagliano had been trying to get pregnant for a year now. The baby is due in February and the happy couple have decided to find out the gender. “I kind of wanted it to be a surprise,” DeAnna said, “but Stephen wants to be prepared.”

What are the advantages to finding out the baby’s gender in advance?

Cupid’s Advice:

Thanks to the wonders of technology, expecting couples have the option to learn the gender of their baby beforehand. This, like any decision, has its pros and cons. Cupid is here to present the upsides to finding out the sex in advance:

1. Baby names: Why write two lists of boy AND girl names when you can just write one? This might seem to be a trivial reason to find out the gender of your baby but if you and your partner are really struggling to agree on names, it might be a good idea to learn the gender so you only have one name to argue over rather than two.

2. Color-coordination: While your plan to clad your baby in exclusively gender neutral colors is admirable, a quick trip to Babies R Us will make you realize how many more baby clothes there are in blue and pink than yellow and green. Learning the baby's sex would certainly give you a greater variety of clothes, accessories and toys to choose from.

3. Expectations: You really, really want a girl and you're worried that if you have a boy your first moments with your baby will be colored by disappointment. The benefit to learning the gender in advance is that you find out you're expecting a son, you'll have time to warm up to the idea before your bundle of joy arrives.

Did you decide to learn your baby's gender in advance? Tell us why or why not below.

Former 'Bachelorette' DeAnna Pappas Ties the Knot

DeAnna Pappas and Stephen Stagliano have officially tied the knot! Stagliano, a high school teacher, who met The Bachelorette season 4 star at the 2009 party for The Bachelorette: The Men Tell All special, wed in the Serenbe community of Palmetto, GA, on Saturday. “We’re so ecstatic to be husband and wife and we’re thrilled to be sharing this day with all our family and friends,” the couple told UsMagazine.com. Although Pappas ended up with Jesse Csincsak after her season of the hit reality show, it didn’t end up working out and the duo broke off their engagement.

How do you keep hope for marriage alive after a split?

Cupid’s Advice:

After a split, it’s tough to move on, and you may think that you’ll ever find, or even wed, “The One”. Here are some ways to keep hope for marriage alive after a split:

1. Meet new people: After you’re done healing from the break-up, go out and meet new people. Otherwise, you’ll never find the right person.

2. Think positive: Avoiding thinking negative thoughts about the opposite sex and figure out what you're searching for in a future spouse.

3. Behavior changes: Once you know what you want in a marriage, find someone who is compatible with you. Don't settle until you do.

As we anxiously wait for the new season of ABC's The Bachelorette to begin, several of the former contestants are spending the hiatus having fun mingling and mating up. One of the most talked about events was in Breckenridge, Colorado last month at the semi-annual Bachelor and Bachelorette reunion. Hosting the shenanigans as always was former contestant, Jesse Csincsak, who received the final rose in Season 4 from DeAnna Pappas. Although Jesse and DeAnna's relationship didn't result in a lifelong romance, Jesse did find love through The Bachelor and married Season 13 contestant, Ann Lueders.

A cold sore ruins
romance.

One dab, eruption prevented!

We had the chance to speak with Jesse and he shared his thoughts on life as a new husband and dad, The Bachelor reunion parties and of course, this season's Bachelorette, Ashley Hebert! Check out what he had to say:

First of all, congratulations on being a new dad! How has your life changed since being on The Bachelorette?

After coming off The Bachelorette, life took a huge turn. I wanted to fall in love. I knew it was possible after I came off the show, so I started hosting reunions with Bachelor alums. I wanted to bring people together, and in turn, I met my wife. I met her at a reunion. Next thing I knew we were getting married and having a little bambino. My son Noah is the light of my life and I couldn't ask for more. The show brought me to everything I wanted in life – it's amazing!

You coordinate such great reunion weekends for the former contestants. The buzz during last month's party centered around Vienna Girardi and Kasey Kahl. What can you tell us about them as a couple?

They have been dating for a little while. I think the reason their relationship works is they are both happy-go-lucky, carefree people who want to have fun. I think they'd both also be a great fit for the Bachelor Pad, I'd love to see them on that show.

We're getting excited for next week's premiere of The Bachelorette. Recently, show creator Mike Fleiss was quoted saying Ashley will be a "different kind of bachelorette" because of her career ambitions. What do you think?

Ashley is very young-hearted. She's still in school. She will need a guy who is comfortable enough in his own skin to know she is her own person and she'll be going to class with lots of young, hot guys, but she will come home to him. If they can find a guy who is confident in his own skin and knows she has a lot going on, she will have herself one heck of a relationship. She is one of the youngest bachelorettes they've ever had, and I think that will make for an interesting season.

Do you think the new contestants will be scared off by Ashley's independence?

The announcement that Ashley would be the bachelorette came very early, so the guys know who she is. It's not tough these days to Google someone to figure out about their past. What is tough is that a lot of people come on the show with ulterior motives. You have to be careful of the knuckleheads to find the diamonds in the rough.

What tips would you give the men this season?

You don't realize the demographic the show reaches – it's syndicated in Europe, and even when you go overseas, people recognize you from the show. I didn't realize that it would affect everyone in my family with my surname. Don't go on the show because you want people to know who you are; go on the show for the right reasons. Be yourself. Don't let anyone convince you to do something you wouldn't otherwise do. That way, when you're off the show and your life has moved on, people say "you're just like you were on the show." I was lucky – I was me no matter what, and it worked out for the best.

The time period between when the show wraps and when it airs for the public, seems to be the most trying time for the Bachelor/Bachelorette couple. Given your experience, what advice can you give Ashley and her new guy to keep their relationship alive during these months?

Go into hiding and get to know each other. Do as many get-togethers as the production company will let you and really take the time to get to know the other person. Do things out of the ordinary that will test your patience with one another. In my relationship experience, that's how you really start to understand how someone is going to be down the road. Another thing to observe is how the other person talks to their parents. If they are respectful when they speak to their parents, that's likely how they will talk to you.

Are you planning for the next Bachelor reunion yet? When and where will it take place?

There will be a reunion this summer. I can't tell you the location yet, but it will be in the warm weather and plans are underway. And we're in talks to do an online competition so one lucky fan would be able to join the reunion with the Bachelor alums for a weekend. I can promise you, this will be the biggest reunion of all-time!

Thanks Jesse, we can't wait! And, thanks for taking the time to speak with us. To read more about Jesse's take on the upcoming season of The Bachelorette, check out his website at www.jessecsincsak.com or visit him on Facebook.

'The Bachelor' Season Premiere Tonight with Brad Womack!

By Krissy Dolor

Your feet may be dragging at work today since it's the Monday after your New Years celebrations, but who cares? ABC's The Bachelor returns tonight with the man who has broken hearts before – Brad Womack. In tonight's season 15 premiere, Brad will select a group of 20 women from a pool of 30 bachelorette contestants. He'll even face DeAnna Pappas and Jenni Croft, the two women he rejected at the end of his first stint on the show. Whether you love Brad or hate his guts, you know you'll have to watch! It airs Monday, 1/3 at 8 PM/7 PM Central Time. And remember to stop by tomorrow for our recap of the episode! Happy watching!

Meet the 30 Contestants for 'The Bachelor' Season 15

By Krissy Dolor

Now that you've read all about Brad Womack, we know you're dying to meet the ladies that will compete for his heart in this season of ABC's The Bachelor. Despite the intense backlash, Womack is back. And while there are no cheerleaders, like Jenni Croft, or real estate agents, like DeAnna Pappas, there is a Radio City Rockette and a real estate broker. Here's a brief rundown of the women in store for the season 11 heartbreaker:

Median age: 27

- 7 blondes
- 16 brunettes
- 6 brunettes posing as blondes
- 1 strawberry blonde bordering redhead
- 2 nannys
- 2 teachers
- 25 tattoos
- 3 tramp stamps
- 2 Ashleys
- 2 Lisas
- 2 Sarahs
- 1 "J" (does she think this is the Jersey Shore?)
- 1 manscaper (what a profession!)

Lots of the girls love the Fourth of July (fireworks, anyone?) and Halloween. A bunch like to drink Diet Coke (watching their figures?). More than half have pets. Four women are from California, three are from Washington and Florida, and two are from Colorado and Texas. These are your contestants from New York and New Jersey. And everyone swears they're a romantic.

But does this mean the public dumper will find love the second time around?

Many of them look like the beauty pageant variety, but who knows if their in-house demeanor will match their picture-perfect head shots – or be a fit for Womack's finicky heart. It's too early to call the shots on these ladies, but only a few more days until we get to see who makes the first cut!

Want more on these gals (or just want to nitpick)? Follow

Cupid and check out ABC's in-depth look here. Think 30 bachelorettes are too much to remember? Download ABC's Cheat Sheet (Cupid will, too!) and stay on top of your game. And be sure to come back next week for our first recap of this season's premiere on Monday, Jan. 3rd at 8 PM/7 PM Central Time.

5 Things You Need to Know About the New 'Bachelor' Brad Womack

By Kari Arneson

The most controversial Bachelor ever is back Jan. 3! Whether you're new to the series or are already a devoted fan, here are some things you need to know about Brad Womack before tuning in:

1. He's a self-made man: Born in Atlanta, Brad was raised alongside his two brothers in a single-parent home. At the age of 28, he bought his first drinking establishment. He currently owns and operates several bars and restaurants in Austin, Texas.

2. He's not new: As the season 11 Bachelor in 2007, Brad Womack had a choice between Jenni Croft and DeAnna Pappas in the season finale. For the first time in Bachelor history, he chose neither woman and ended up where he started: single. In season 15, Brad is now back for a second chance at love.

3. He has to prove himself: Brad earned the ire of millions of women when he rejected DeAnna and Jenni during the finale. By choosing to return, he'll need to prove that he's ready to commit and win the trust of the bachelorettes on the show.

4. He's looking for a friend: When asked what kind of woman he's looking for, he said he's "been there and done that." He just wants a friend and someone he can be himself around.

5. He's wiser: Since he's already been the Bachelor, Brad has learned what to do – and what not to do – so he won't make the same mistakes again. He's also spent the last three years in intensive therapy that led him to personal revelations about his commitment issues.

Is Brad Womack Back for More 'Bachelor'?

After infamously dumping both DiAnna Pappas and Jenni Croft on the 11th season of The Bachelor, Brad Womack may be given a second shot at love. According to Us Magazine, Womack is being considered for the 15th season of the popular dating show. "Brad is very sincere and believes in the show," a source close to the series says. "That's why he didn't pick someone last time. He was never in it for the publicity. He wants to find a wife." Along with Womack, producers are rumored to also be considering bachelors Ty Brown and Chris Lambton for the show. The official word will be delivered today on Dancing With the Stars. The question is, who would you rather?

Does your guy have a fear of commitment?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes singles can find themselves still hurting from a past breakup or afraid to get out of their comfort zone and try something new. Cupid has a few tips on how to tell if your beau is afraid to find love:

1. He's hesitant to put himself out there: Although he's outgoing and has no problem having a good time, he seems unavailable for anything more than fun and parties.

2. He won't take the plunge: Is your guy refusing to meet your family? If so, he might be hesitating because he's leery of taking the next step in your relationship.

3. Worst-case scenario: If you've decided your beau truly has a fear of commitment, try to stay reasonable. Talk some sense into him by laying down the facts. Let him know that the worst that can happen is that you break up sometime in the future, but that the best that can happen is that you're incredibly happy together. It's a small risk to take when the result could be a lifetime of true love.
