

Celebrity Baby News: Diane Kruger Is Expecting First Child with Norman Reedus

By Rhodesia Williams

In celebrity news, celebrity couple Diane Kruger and Norman Reedus are expecting their first child together. According to UsMagazine.com, Kruger, 41, and Reedus, 49, began dating early last year. They kept this celebrity baby news quiet initially, but not quiet enough. The actress has been showing all the signs of pregnancy; from not consuming alcohol to hiding her baby bump at the Cannes Film Festival to also posting a telling picture on Instagram.

In this celebrity baby news, Diane Kruger is expecting with boyfriend Norman Reedus. What are some ways to strengthen your relationship prior to having a child?

Cupid's Advice:

While having a baby is a happy time, it can sometimes be stressful on a relationship. Cupid has some advice on how to strengthen your relationship prior to having a child:

1. Date night: Date night is a fun way to spend time together and remind each other just how much you care for each other. It will bring back those cute memories of when you first met, or that time you accidentally tripped and fell because you were nervous. Either way, this cute gesture is a stress-free activity to enjoy. This is your time together; spend it wisely.

2. Communication: Communication is one of the most essential tools when it comes to having a strong relationship. Communicating with your partner can literally make or break your relationship. If nothing else, make sure you communicate, because a simple misunderstanding can take a turn for the worse. On the positive side, it is good to know what's going on in your partner's world when you aren't around. You also don't want them to feel like you don't care, because ultimately, they will find someone else to talk to. We all know the saying, "If you won't, someone else will."

3. Listen: Listening is important; it shows your partner that you are there for them. Everybody wants to be heard, including you, so give each other that time. Having someone listen to you often gives validation that what you have to say is important, and sometimes people need that. More importantly, when you are in a relationship, you are supposed to also be a friend; what kind of friend would you be if you didn't listen?

Celebrity News: Joshua Jackson Caught Making Out With Mystery Woman Post-Split from Diane Kruger

By Cortney Moore

It appears that 38-year-old actor Joshua Jackson has moved on! The young Hollywood star was seen kissing a mystery woman at the Sundance Film Festival this week in Park City, Utah. This celebrity news comes six months after his separation from Diana Kruger, who he had been with for 10 years. According to UsMagazine.com, an eyewitness said, "Joshua was dancing with this girl. They were all over each other on the dance floor and then were making out. They left together around 2 a.m." Another source said Jackson has been spending a lot of time with 36-year-old Revenge actress Margarita Levieva, and that the pair has been staying in the same condo together. Could Levieva be the mystery woman Jackson was kissing? They would certainly make a good looking celebrity couple! Hopefully the transition into dating goes smoothly for Jackson. During an interview on The Ellen DeGeneres Show, the Fringe actor shared his apprehension about entering the dating scene, saying, "Things have changed a little bit since the last time I was single."

In celebrity news, Joshua is single and ready to mingle! What are some ways to voyage into the dating scene when you first find yourself single?

Cupid's Advice:

Dating again after ending a relationship can be an exciting experience. Although meeting new people can be fun, dating can be tricky business. Let Cupid help you figure out what you should do when you first find yourself single:

1. Be yourself : Don't pretend to be something you're not. Be honest with your potential partners and yourself. There's no use starting a relationship under false pretenses. Eventually you'll find someone who accepts you just as you are.

Celebrity Exes Joshua Jackson & Diane Kruger Embrace at Airport After Split

By Stephanie Sacco

Joshua Jackson and Diane Kruger were together 10 years before they became celebrity exes this past July. In celebrity news, the pair have split, but are still remaining friends, as evidenced by their embrace at the airport recently. According to UsMagazine.com, this wasn't the first instance the celebrity couple was spotted together. They were seen together in L.A. purchasing a bottle of wine a few days prior proving that men and women can be just friends.

These celebrity exes are remaining close. What are some challenges to remaining friends after a break-up?

Cupid's Advice:

Staying friends with an ex isn't for everyone. When you have a messy break-up, the last thing you want to do is keep in touch. Cupid is here to help with some dating advice:

1. Lingering feelings: It's really hard to stay friends if one of you is still in love with the other. Don't try to be friends if it's harmful to half the relationship. Only make it work if it's what you both want.

Celebrity Couple News: Diane Kruger Opens Up About Meeting Love Joshua Jackson

By Nicole Caico

In an interview for the August issue of Town & Country magazine, Diane Kruger opens up about the positive impact her celebrity relationship with Joshua Jackson has had on her life. According to People.com, Kruger told the mag, “Meeting someone like my partner, who has a very different perspective, who likes to travel in a different way and be open to various experience, was so important.” This celebrity couple started dating in 2006, and they seem to be as strong as ever.

This celebrity couple news has us smiling. What are some ways a good relationship can change your life for the better?

Cupid’s Advice:

While being on your own can be extremely rewarding, being in a relationship that helps you grow can be equally rewarding. Getting into a relationship is always a risk, but when things go well the pay off is huge. A good relationship can change your life for the better:

1. Expanding your horizons: Much like Kruger expressed, being in a relationship with someone who is different from you can help you gain new perspective. From hobbies to political views, you never know what you might learn when you let your guard down and let the person you’re dating talk.

2. Help me help you: A good relationship provides a feeling of security. Feeling support from the person you are dating will allow you to try new things on your own. Whether it’s taking a new job, getting a new haircut, or realizing something about yourself the support from your SO can help get you over the hump of hesitation that has been holding you back from your true potential.

3. Get excited: A good relationship doesn't mean you have to soul search and have some sort of major epiphany. If it does, awesome. If not, fine. The major perk of being in a good relationship is that you get to be who you are, and get excited to do things with someone else. A good relationship can change your life for the better by simply making everyday activities more fun because you're sharing them with someone else. Revolutionize food shopping or binge watching Netflix by sharing it with the person you love.

Hollywood Couple: Diane

Kruger Adorably Freaks Out Over Longtime Boyfriend Joshua Jackson's Golden Globes Win

By Rebecca White

Happy celebrity couple alert! According to UsMagazine.com, the latest celebrity news took place at the Golden Globes when Diane Kruger showed her support for longtime boyfriend Joshua Jackson. When his show, The Affair, won Best Television Series – Drama, Kruger appeared more excited than anyone by jumping to her feet and kissing Jackson. One way to build a strong relationship is to show support for your partner's career. Even famous couples have to do this to keep their relationships strong, like Kruger did at the Golden Globes.

What are three ways to support your partner in their career like this Hollywood couple does?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes, partnerships can be tricky, but one of the best ways to enhance your relationship and love for your significant other is to support their career in the best way you can. Always remember that a happy work life makes for a happy home life! Cupid has some advice on how to support your partner's career:

1. Be there when it counts: Just showing up to work functions, such as parties, ceremonies, speeches, retreats, or even concerts, will show your support and love for your partner. Being present in the many aspects of their life is important to any relationship.

Joshua Jackson Says Guys Should Pay On Dates

By Katie Gray

Whoever says that chivalry is dead, clearly hasn't heard of Joshua Jackson. The Affair star recently claimed to his fellow men, "You should always pay the bill." According to USMagazine.com, the actor divulged the most recent gentlemanly thing he did for girlfriend Diane Kruger the National Treasure star, stating, "Well, I am flying to Paris tomorrow to go see her for the weekend. That's pretty nice, if I do say so myself." Actor alumni of Dawson's Creek, Joshua Jackson is a true gentleman. Actress Diane Kruger is one lucky girl!

What are some traditions to take into a dating situation?

Cupid's Advice:

It's always a good thing to have traditions and to keep them going. When you're dating, it's nice for each partner to have a shared set of goals, expectations, standards and traditions. Cupid has some ways you can incorporate traditions into your dating situation:

1. That's Amore: There are certain things in life that are universally loved by everyone. Some wonderful examples of this are receiving flowers and other tokens of affection or having someone's true feelings expressed to you. This doesn't have to include spending a lot of money either, there are ways to show your love to your partner without breaking your bank account. Example: writing them a poem, jotting down a sweet note for them, making them dinner and so forth. Just show them that you care and that you remember things that they tell you!

2. Chivalry isn't dead: In this day and age, chivalry can seem like a long forgotten way of life – but it doesn't have to be only a thing of the past. There are still many people out there who believe in chivalry. People who use manners, proper etiquette and have respect. Talk with your partner and determine things you both like done, such as: the guy opening the car door and going to the front door to pick up a girl for a date. Doing all of the cooking, cleaning, and raising of children on your own. If you incorporate this into your dating life, you will be very happy with the results!

3. Manners matter: There are some traditions that are too sweet to go out of style. When your partner asks your father for permission to marry you, spending the Holidays with family members and creating your own special traditions, and establishing with your partner when you're officially in a relationship and are 'going steady.' It's also good to ask permission for things and be polite at all times when dating.

Reports Say Joshua Jackson and Diane Kruger Are Close to Getting Engaged

By April Littleton

Joshua Jackson and his girlfriend of seven years Diane Kruger might be saying their I Do's very soon. A source told UsMagazine.com, "Josh and Diane are very close to getting engaged. They decided they're ready for the next step. They're excited!" Although they insisted marriage wasn't in the cards for them, Jackson is set to propose to Kruger sometime this summer. Kruger was previously married to French actor and filmmaker Guillaume Canet from 2001 to 2006.

What are some ways to know it's time to get engaged?

Cupid's Advice:

Getting engaged is one of the biggest steps you can take in a relationship. Spending the rest of your life with someone is the ultimate expression of love and you want to be sure that you're making the right decision at the right time. Cupid has some advice:

1. You want the same things: If you and your partner see eye to eye on most of the crucial aspects of your lives, you might be ready for the final commitment. The two of you don't have to be on the same page on everything, but it's very important that you have similar wants and desires when it comes to the issues that will affect the future you two will eventually have together. For instance, if one of you isn't ready for children, it may not be a good idea to start talking about marriage either.

2. Your lives intertwine: It may be time to start thinking about getting engaged if you've already starting building a life with your significant other. Do the two of you do everything together? Have the same group of friends? If you already have a daily routine going, then you might as well continue to do it with a set of wedding bands on your finger.

3. You're in love: You've been with your love for awhile now and you can't imagine being with anyone else. You're the happiest you've ever been in a relationship, and you feel like you can be completely open and honest with your partner. There isn't a single secret you haven't shared with them and when you think about the future, you think of them. This is the sign you've been looking for. You're ready to pop the question and start living the rest of your lives together.

Find Out What Joshua Jackson and Diane Kruger Like Most

About Paris

Longtime couple Diane Kruger and Dawson Creek's Joshua Jackson have been busy promoting Kruger's new movie Farewell, My Queen. However, they still managed to set aside time to enjoy the beauty of Paris, where they share an apartment together. Jackson tells People that the pair finds romance by "just walking around and being immersed in the city." He adds "the most romantic part of our day is waking up in our own neighborhood and going down to a café and just having breakfast." The couple has been mixing business with pleasure in the City of Lights, as Kruger has been taking this time to further promote her new film.

What are some of the most romantic things to do in Paris?

Cupid's Advice:

Paris is one of the most romantic cities in the world, so a visit with your significant other is definitely something to try. Here are some romantic things to do on your stay:

1. A couple's chocolate massage: Yes, you read that right. At the Four Seasons George V Hotel, you and your partner can enjoy an "All About Chocolate" spa treatment. A chocolate-mint body scrub is followed by a Swiss chocolate and toffee body wrap, and completed with a deep tissue massage using cocoa oil. It's sure to be a unique and romantic experience you and your beau will never forget.

2. Take a walk: As simple as it sounds, a walk around Paris is unlike any other. The Luxembourg Gardens is an ideal walking area at only about a mile long with beautiful scenery and rentable toy boats along the pond. After your walk you can stop by any nearby café for some wine and lunch to maximize your romantic day.

3. Tour of Paris by boat: Touring Paris via the Seine River is one of the most romantic things to do in Paris. After all, even Audrey Hepburn and Carey Grant did it. You'll see the city's most beautiful monuments and buildings while cuddling with your partner and lazily gliding down the river.

Joshua Jackson and Diane Kruger Show the Love at After

Party

This weekend, typically-private Diane Kruger came to the Broad Stage in Santa Monica to support her boyfriend Joshua Jackson, who was appearing in The 24 Hour Plays. Though they refrained from PDA during the red carpet event, the two were very passionate during the after party, spending time together in a quiet corner. A source told People that the two appeared to be “totally in love” and were “really sweet” to watch, making engagement rumors seem even more likely.

How do you show your partner you care in public?

Cupid's Advice:

We all want to let the people we love know that we care about them. However, the ways to show this are very different in public than they are when you're at home. Kruger and Jackson set a great example of simple ways to share your feelings when you and your partner are out:

1. Simple PDA: Though it's best to save the sloppy makeout sessions for the privacy of your own home, there's nothing wrong with some simple and sweet kisses and handholding to show you care. Even just a glance into your beau's eyes can say a lot about how you feel toward them without disturbing others.

2. Support them: Just as Kruger came out to support Jackson in The 24 Hour Plays, you should make an effort to go to the events your partner feels are important. Being there for your partner shows both your sweetie and the rest of the world that your relationship is important to you.

3. Make time for yourselves: Even at a crowded party, there are ways that you and your partner can find a bit of privacy. Though it's great to be with a large group of people, try to spend some alone time with just your beau. Whether it's sitting in a secluded corner or taking a trip outside, making a little bit of time for just the two of you can show you care.

3 Ways to Know He's Just "That Into You!"

By Dr. Tranquility – Lydia Belton, PhD, Ct. H.A.

Once you're in a relationship, it can be hard to tell if you and your partner are on the same page as far as your wants and needs for the future. You may question the strength of his feelings toward you, even if he's quick to say, "I love you." It's one thing to take a first date and move it into a relationship, but how do you know when your partner is ready to move even further forward?

As a woman, you most likely want more time and more involvement from your mate. You're ready for a commitment, whether that means moving in together or perhaps marriage. Regardless, the bottom line is that your relationship now comes with a view to the future as opposed to plodding along day-by-day. It's time to connect in a way that you can't put into words, so here are three ways to know he really is "all that into you":

Related: What Attracts Us to Bad Boys?

1. He can't bear to be without you.

If you find your partner refusing to go a day without talking to you and he is always making future plans, he's probably feeling that his life isn't complete without you. If you want a celebrity comparison, think Matt Lanter and Angela Stacy. The 90210 star just popped the question to Stacy in June, and the two have nothing but smiles on their faces.

2. He invites you to travel with him.

When a man invites you on a trip with him, he wants to spend quality time with you. The fact is, men don't invite women they won't want to be with to travel with them. Think Blake Lively and Ryan Reynolds in this situation. The two have been spotted all over the world, even in Vancouver where Lively met Reynold's family.

Related: The 5 Most Traveled Celebrity Couples

3. He's showing more than lust after the third date.

After the third date, if communication between you is still great, he should be making a point to create a space for communication and bonding. Despite the spanx and Victoria's Secret lingerie, he is ready for emotional intimacy and no distractions. Just look at the happiness that Joshua Jackson and Diane Kruger bring to the celebrity world. Although the pair are notoriously private about their relationship, you can tell they're in love even when they're not all over each other in public.

So, if your beau seems to fit the above characteristics, chances are that you don't have to question his feelings about you. Although they may not be able to overtly express their feelings the way that you do, it's time to let loose and trust his motives. It's time to go all in and see what happens!

Diane Kruger In Glamour: 'I Don't Believe In Marriage'

Diane Kruger has learned her lesson when it comes to marriage:

it isn't for everybody. The German actress, who was married to French actor and director Guillaume Canet for five years, told Glamour that once is enough for her. "Without sounding pessimistic, I learned that I don't believe in marriage. I believe in a commitment that you make in your heart. There's no paper that will make you stay." The Huffington Post reports that while Kruger may not want to walk down the aisle, she is looking forward to having kids one day with TV star and long-time boyfriend Joshua Jackson.

Is tying the knot actually necessary?

Cupid's Advice:

Some people need to say "I do" to make a commitment, while others believe it's unnecessary. Cupid has some tips on how to know if marriage is right for you:

- 1. Complete your fairy tale: If you've always dreamed about your wedding and starting a family with a spouse, then marriage is necessary for you. Go for it if you don't feel right not making it official.
- 2. Don't do it to please others: Get married for yourself. It may sound selfish, but if you're taking a walk down the aisle because someone else wants you to, you'll regret it.
- 3. You don't need a piece of paper: Getting hitched is not required to make a life-long commitment. If committing "in your heart" is enough for you and your mate, then tying the knot isn't necessary.
