

Beauty Tips: Colored Eyeliner

By Melissa Lee

The beauty world is constantly changing, and sometimes it feels a little difficult to keep up. On top of that, it can get easy to get super bored with your every day makeup routine. A solution to both of these worries comes in the form of 2017's hottest beauty trend – colored eyeliner! While it may sound a little intimidating, don't worry. There are plenty of ways to rock this look, regardless if you're looking to go bold or subtle. Head below to check out ways to wear colored eyeliner this season.

Check out some of Cupid's beauty tips on how to rock colored eyeliner below!

1. Start light: If your every day makeup look is relatively neutral, try starting with white eyeliner. This look has been rocked by celebs like Kerry Washington, who made white eyeliner look super classy on the red carpet. Paired with a natural eye look, line the your eyelids with white eyeliner. If you're feeling a little bolder, try a cateye by adding small flicks to the ends.

2. Blue is the new black: Lady Gaga is notorious for ditching black eyeliner for blue, and has been showing this look off on her tours. Take a page out of Gaga's book with this neon dream. Sweep a fun eye shadow color over your lids (green, pink, even purple) and pair with neon blue eyeliner on your waterline.

3. Multicolored: Looking for something even crazier? Try this out: multicolored liquid eyeliner. Emily Ratajkowski showed this amazing look off at this year's Met Gala and it was a hit! Her makeup artist blended together two different liquid eyeliner colors (blue and green) and lined her lash line. Extend the eyeliner a little past your lids for a cute cateye look and you're all good to go!

4. Reverse it: Dianna Agron tried reverse eyeliner out on the red carpet last year and we're obsessed! She lined her lids with regular black eyeliner (a cateye, of course), but made a bold statement by sweeping neon pink eye liner on her waterline. This graphic look is guaranteed to stand out, especially when paired with neutral lips and face makeup.

A reason relationships and love sometimes fail is because things are rushed. Keeping a relationship casual – like this celebrity couple – can be a fantastic idea, especially when it's new. Cupid has some love advice to consider:

1. No pressure: When people are dating, they often feel unnecessary pressure from their partner, their family and friends, and even themselves. There is no need to rush into marriage though; you should go at your own pace!

What are some ways to find a partner with similar beliefs?

Cupid's Advice:

The timing is really important in a relationship, as well as making sure you don't change for them. It's always better to find someone who shares similar beliefs. Cupid has some hints:

1. Look out when volunteering: If you like volunteering or any particular activity in your free time, you'll most likely find people most similar to you at these events. If they are volunteering, they also most likely have kind hearts. Keep an eye out for someone in whom you could potentially be interested.

2. Attend family parties: Most of the time, you share the same values and beliefs as the rest of your family. Try attending more family events where friends of the family will also be. You'll probably find a lot of people similar to how you and your family are.

'Glee' Star Dianna Agron: Terrified of Ex-Boyfriend Alex Pettyfer?

It's another messy Hollywood breakup. Sources are saying that Glee star Dianna Agron is "terrified" of her "psycho" ex-boyfriend, Alex Pettyfer, according to E! Online. News that the couple, who were dating for less than a year, called it quits broke last week. Friends of Pettyfer calls the reports “absolute nonsense,” and a source close to Agron says, “Things have definitely been intense, and Alex certainly can have quite the temper, but I don’t think she’s ‘terrified’ of him.”

Why do breakups turn nasty?

Cupid’s Advice:

Breakups are never a pleasant experience, but why is it that former couples so readily turn against each other after a split? Cupid has some ideas:

1. Hurt feelings: The most obvious explanation is that one or both parties is extremely hurt by the split. Sometimes hurt feelings can manifest themselves as anger. With anger, comes drama.

2. Built-up issues: Sometimes during a relationship, we keep our thoughts and feelings from our partner to avoid arguments. Now that the relationship is over, it’s easier to tell your former mate how you felt all that time. That said, it’s not a healthy way to deal.

3. Family and friends take sides: After a breakup, friends and family are quick to support their respective side of the duo in question. Sometimes, they might be angrier about the split than you are, and it rubs off on you. Try to keep a cool head, and reassure your supporters that you’ll be OK ... eventually.

‘Glee’ Star Dianna Agron

Splits From Alex Pettyfer

Dianna Agron is now single following her recent break-up with Alex Pettyfer, according to UsMagazine.com. The duo's split became official following Agron moving out of their shared home last week. The couple, who were set up by director D.J. Caruso while filming the movie I am Number Four, recently avoided speculations about an engagement being in the near future. They only dated for less than a year.

Who should move out of your shared home after a split?

Cupid's advice:

Moving in with your mate is a tough decision in and of itself. The question of who gets what is something you should unfortunately keep in the back of your mind when deciding to move in, just in case things go south. Cupid has a few things to consider when figuring out who moves out and who keeps the castle:

1. Financial stability: Whoever has a better chance of paying the rent or mortgage by themselves should have the place, plain and simple.

2. Friends or family are a plus: If you have friends or family to lean on until you get back up on your feet, then consider moving out. Having the extra support makes things easier.

3. Have a heart: Even if things are really awkward, do your best to continue living with your partner until one of you finds a new place to stay. Kicking someone out should be reserved for the most drastic cases.

Cupid's Advice:

Constant dating can become routine for many, but it's important to know when you have genuinely struck gold. Here are a few signs that your relationship is on the right track:

1. It's easy to make plans: If the two of you seem to be able to plan dates efficiently and with little delay in between, it's a sure sign that both you and your partner are clearly interested.

Dianna Agron Introduces New Beau to Pals

Glee actress Dianna Agron just tackled an overwhelming task: introducing her guy to her pals. Agron and beau, British actor Alex Pettyfer, stopped by the Glee set, reports

People. Pettyfer instantly bonded with Jayma Mays' husband, Alex Campbell. Mays explained, "[Alex] came on set, and my husband was there that day, so we introduced the Brit to the Brit. Brits hang tight. That's how they are." Pettyfer succeeded in charming all of Agron's costars and friends. "He seems like a really nice guy. He's really cute and she's beautiful," said Mays.

What's the best way to introduce your partner to your friends?

Cupid's Advice:

Introducing your new beau to the important people in your life can be nerve-wracking. Cupid has some suggestions to make the introductions less painful:

- 1. Set limits: Don't introduce your partner to all of your pals at once. Try introducing him to only a few of them at first. A week or so later, have him meet some other friends. Take it slow, so you don't overwhelm him (or your nerves).
- 2. Pick and choose: Try having your most friendly pals meet your mate first. Pick outgoing friends that you're sure will strive to include him in conversation. When your man is up to the challenge, bring in the friends that are harder to impress.
- 3. Relax: It's hard not to get nervous, but remind yourself that your partner is probably as nervous as you are. Try to be confident, and he'll be less nervous as well.
