Celebrity News: Diplo Fires Back After Katy Perry Knocks His Bedroom Skills

By Marissa Donovan

Diplo is not okay with getting third place by his celebrity ex Katy Perry. In celebrity news, Perry had a live stream interview with The Late Late Show's host James Corden and made a list from worst to best on her most recent sexual partners. The DJ responded to article on Twitter saying that he doesn't remember having sex with the pop singer during their 2014 fling. Perry tried defending the list during the live stream by saying she would sleep with all of them once she ended her many live stream videos.

In this celebrity news, Diplo isn't taking Katy's criticism lightly. What are some ways to keep rumors from affecting your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Gossip about your relationship can be hard to hear. Don't let swirling rumors get the best of your relationship with these tips:

1. Confront your partner: Let your partner know what you have been hearing. You can come together and bring down the rumor or you can let it blow over. Being on the same page with your partner will make it easier to deal with.

has been spending time with his son and Lockhart but is supported by his girlfriend Katy Perry. Recently, Diplo was also caught up in some celebrity gossip involving Taylor Swift and Perry.

With the support of Perry, Diplo is willing to get along with his celebrity ex for his newest celebrity baby boy. How do you support your partner's obligations as a parent?

Cupid's Advice:

In a relationship, it is important to support your partner, and that includes respecting their past. For Perry, that means being comfortable with her man's celebrity ex, the mother to his children. No partnership is perfect, but you can do your best to navigate rough waters by being honest, kind, and patient when it comes to your partner's obligations:

1. Understand if there's distance: Depending on how long you have been together or where you stand in the relationship, your partner might not be ready to introduce you to their kid. Remember that this is okay and everyone moves at their own speed.

When should you start dating again?

Cupid's Advice:

Dating after a breakup is complicated. When is it OK to test out the waters again? How do you know when you're ready to get back out there? Cupid is here to help:

1. Time: Don't rush into your next relationship just because you're afraid of being on your own for awhile. Take the time to get over your ex, and figure out what you really want out of a romance. You want to get things right the next time you fall in love. Repeating all of your old habits and mistakes won't do you any good.

2. Trust: If you can't trust the next person you're seeing, there's no reason for you to try to spark up a relationship with him/her. The ability to trust again doesn't come easy, and it might take you awhile to get there. If your potential love interest is willing to be patient with you, you might have a keeper on your hands.

3. You're comfortable: You have to be comfortable with yourself before you can handle being with anyone else. Are you at that stage of life where you can have fun being alone and single? Or do you feel as though you constantly need to depend on someone else? Find yourself, and realize that you can and will do spectacular things without a partner.
