Cupid's Advice:

There is so much excitement around expecting a child with your partner, and the last thing you want to consider is the possibility of having a miscarriage. Unfortunately, many couples do experience miscarriages during their pregnancy journeys. If you are looking for ways to support your partner and relationship through a miscarriage, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Relieve any guilt: Miscarriages are one of the most emotional events a couple can experience when trying to have a child. Despite following all of the pregnancy guidelines and visiting doctors regularly, an issue such as miscarriage can still occur. It is important to remove any guilt or blame surrounding a miscarriage, and assure both partners that neither of them are at fault.

2. Develop a plan: Deciding on the next-steps following a miscarriage are painful but necessary. These types of events can be emotionally exhausting in a relationship, and it is important to discuss how both of you wish to move forward together. Having a conversation about if and when to try again, as well as the possibility of exploring other options can help relieve some stress and provide a new sense of hope in the relationship.

3. Attend to the family: After a miscarriage, a majority of the attention goes to the woman who was pregnant. While it is essential to support her through this process, it is also important to tend to the rest of the family. Both partners and any existing children were all likely looking forward to welcoming a new child into the family, and will all have their own grief processes following a miscarriage.

Penn Badgley and Domino Kirke Sport Jorts on NYC Date Night

By Laura Seaman

Penn Badgley and girlfriend Domino Kirke had a date night in New York City with both wearing casual jean shorts. The couple went for an evening walk around the city and grabbed a bite to eat while just sitting on a city bench. The two have been an item for a while, according to UsMagazine.com and have quite a few mutual friends.

What are some ways to influence your partner's style?

Cupid's Advice:

Nothing says 'cute couple' like coordinating outfits. As Badgley and Kirke have shown, even the most casual of matching outfits can look adorable. If you want your partner to start showing how stylish they can be, here are some tips to let them know without being obvious:

1. Go shopping with them and lend your opinion. If you're with your partner at the mall or at the store, point out pieces of clothing that you like and encourage them to try it on. Tell them how great certain clothes would look on them and encourage them to let you buy it for them, or to buy it themselves.

2. Give them clothes as gifts. Even if your partner isn't with you when you see that perfect shirt or amazing pair of pants, that doesn't mean you can't buy them. Just give it to them as a gift! Say you were thinking of them when you saw it, and you just had to get it for them. Just remember to keep the receipt!

3. Compliment the clothes you like. If something in your partner's wardrobe looks particularly great, let them know! Tell them how that shirt makes their eyes pop, or those pants fit them just the right way. Maybe even get your friends to tell them how amazing they look in that outfit.
