Drake References Drunk Texting Ex J Lo in 'More Life' Playlist

By Christa Ganz

In latest celebrity news, Drake unveiled his long-awaited playlist project "More Life" this past weekend. The 30-year-old rapper from Toronto gave fans a 22-track playlist through OVO Sound Radio. To no surprise to his fans, Drake starts his playlist with a reference to his most recent ex, Jennifer Lopez. The opening track, "Free Smoke," suggests that Lopez changed her number without notifying her ex. In the song, Drake raps "I drunk text J.Lo / Old number, so it bounce back." According to UsMagazine.com, the couple had split after just two months of dating, claiming their relationship had “died down a bit” shortly after the start of Drake’s European tour. Clearly Drake had his 47-year-old ex on his mind throughout the formation of his whole playlist. Further down on the track list, he samples Lopez’s 1999 hit “If You Had My Love” in his appropriately titled song “Teenage Fever.” Not long after going public as a celebrity couple in December, Drake and J Lo hinted the possibility of a collaboration. After listening to his new track, Drake’s fans are disappointed to see the song “Get It Together” on the playlist, with vocals replaced by Jorja Smith. We see that Drake is dealing with his break up the best way he knows how, by referencing it in his music.

This celebrity news has us lamenting the passing of this high profile relationship. What are some ways to help yourself get over a recent break-up?

Cupid’s Advice:

Breaking up is never easy, regardless of the reason. There is no magic cure for getting over a break up, but with a little help you can get back to feeling like yourself in no time.

1. Stay busy: Join a workout class, start a new hobby, catch up with old friends for lunch. Try to keep your mind occupied with positive behavior to fill up gaps in your schedule. Don’t overdo it, but frequent breaks throughout your day will cause your mind to wander.

Celebrity Break-Up: Jennifer Lopez and Drake End Their Whirlwind Romance

By Whitney Johnson

And just like that, it's over. Jennifer Lopez and Drake, who first sparked dating rumors in December when the rapper was spotted at her Las Vegas show (twice!), have called it quits. According to People.com, the celebrity relationship was "never very serious." Prior to their celebrity break-up, the pair collaborated together in the studio and were just "having fun." As a source explained late last year, "They are spending a lot of time together and really enjoying each other, but right now, it's about the music." That's not to say things didn't get serious fast: The former celebrity couple spent New Year's Eve together, and the pop star even introduced her rapper beau to her kids, Max and Emme. Reports of a celebrity break-up first appeared earlier this month.

Although we're saddened by another celebrity break-up, it sounds like this celebrity relationship was never very serious. What are some signs that it's time to call it quits with your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

As soon as the fun stopped, this celebrity couple decided to go their separate ways. But for many pairs, knowing it's time to end a relationship isn't that easy. Here are three signs that it's time to call it quits:

1. The annoyances are piling up: It's normal to have a pet peeve or two, but if everything your partner does is bothersome to you, you shouldn't ignore your feelings. It's one thing to be annoyed by the way he chews his food; it's another to be bothered by how he's always late, the way he never fixes his hair, the way he throws his dirty clothes on the floor...

2. Your lives don't mesh: You're always busy with work and your girlfriends. He never wants to spend his free time with you. You can't compromise about what movie to see or what to cook for dinner. You should want to be together. If life keeps getting in the way of that, it's a clear sign that your relationship is over.

3. You can't see a future together: You want your relationship to have staying power. If you start to feel like you're only living in the now and have no chance at a future life together, it's time to say good-bye. Don't waste your time with the wrong guy; instead, go searching for Mr. Right!

This celebrity relationship has yet to be labeled. What are some things to consider before labeling your relationship?

Cupid’s Advice:

“DTR,” also known as “defining the relationship,” is an important step in any coupling. Whether you’re trying to start something serious or just enjoy a fling, there has to be a conversation about what you both are to each other so you’re both on the same page. Cupid is here to help you with labeling your relationship:

1. Determine wants: Before you decide to have this specific talk with your partner, you need to figure out what exactly you want out of this relationship. Do you want monogamy? Or do you want your relationship to be casual, with the ability to see other people? Figure out what you want before you go asking your partner to change the status of your relationship.

Related Link: New Celebrity Couple? Rihanna & Drake Spotted Getting Cozy at Concert Afterparty

2. Compatibility: Of course wanting to be with someone isn't enough, you also need to make sure your partner is compatible to your lifestyle. Take into account whether you both have similar likes and dislikes, hobbies or upbringing. For a lasting relationship you need to find common elements that bond you together, if you can't find those, maybe you should just enjoy time with each other the way it currently is.

Related Link: Celebrity Couple Predictions: Drake, Eva Longoria and Lea Michele

3. Ask questions: And last but not least, you need to ask questions! Your partner should have equal input on how or what the relationship will be labeled. How else do you expect to find out whether or not a relationship is worth pursuing if you have no input from your partner? Depending on the questions you ask and the responses you get, you'll finally know for sure if you should pursue things further or run for the hills.

Celebrity Couple Predictions: Drake, Eva Longoria and Lea Michele

By Shoshi

In the latest celebrity news, three famous couples have caught the public's attention, whether it be Drake and Rihanna's rumored celebrity relationship, Eva Longoria's third celebrity wedding, or Lea Michelle's next shot at love. Who's stepping out in Hollywood this time around hand in hand? Join me as I look into the crystal ball of relationships and love. Below, I share my predictions for these celebrity couples.

Celebrity Couple Predictions: Celebrity Relationships That May or May Not Last

Drake and Rihanna: It seems like nobody believes that Drake and Rihanna are just friends. Who doesn't twerk their booty on a friend any chance they get? It's time to let this rumor go! They aren't a secret couple, contrary to the anonymous sources that keep popping up in the press. Recently Drake was asked point blank if he was dating RiRi and his answer was that they are just friends. That is not to say that they do not practice being friends with benefits from time to time. Why shouldn't they? They are both attractive adults, so why not help each other maintain pleasure when necessary? It would be nice to see these two in a relationship with each other, or with whoever makes their heart skip a beat. It looks like Drake and Rihanna aren't making time for romance, though. They are both working, traveling, and involved in their careers. However, look for Rihanna to be in the relationship by the end of the summer.

Eva Longoria and Jose Baston: Looks like the third time's the charm for Eva Longoria. She walked down the aisle with Jose Baston, President of Televisa, Latin America's largest media company. This is Longoria's third marriage and it looks like her last. The celebrity couple was married in Mexico in front of A-list guests. It would seem Longoria has hit the jackpot with Baston. He sees her as his equal and loves that she is a strong and passionate woman. After two failed marriages, Longoria knew exactly what she was looking for in a partner. She has definitely found the right one this time around. Before the wedding, they had already been calling each other husband and wife. I see a new dog in their future and a discussion about children. Right now a baby is a possibility, but if Longoria is not pregnant by next year, more than likely the couple will not have children together. Either way, they will continue to be just as happy as ever.

Lea Michele and Robert Buckley: Lea Michele has not been so lucky in love. That is not to say that she isn't trying. She dated that so-called model/actor and ex-gigolo Matthew Paetz, who allegedly broke her heart. Then there was her boyfriend and Glee co-star, Cory Monteith, who died of a drug overdose. Most women would have locked up their heart and thrown away the key. Despite these negative experiences, Michele is currently dating actor Robert Buckley, and says that she is very happy. That's definitely good news. It's nice to see her find love again. Where is it all going? That remains to be seen. Michele wants to be married with kids but not necessarily right now. It looks like it's on her mind. Buckley may not be the guy she walks down the aisle with, but he is getting her ready for when the time is right.

Rihanna and Drake Are Off-Again

By Sanetra Richards

AubRih is over, once again. According to UsMagazine.com, after working out their differences a few months ago, Rihanna and Drake decided to give the dating thing another try – only for it to lead to a breakup. “Rihanna and Drake had another fight,” says a source. “He is too in love with her, which has always been the problem. They have been fighting, but that could all change any day now. It is how it always is with them.” The two stars were first spotted as a re-emerging couple in Paris back in February and by March the couple seemed to be hitting it off pretty hard again. However, at Rihanna’s Met Gala after party, her actor turned rapper [ex] boyfriend was not in attendance. A source added that the artists are “currently on yet another break.”

How do you know whether to get back together with an ex?

Cupid’s Advice:

There comes a time when the post-breakup emotions start to roll in and you find yourself contemplating whether or not you and your ex belong together. Cupid has a few things for you to keep in mind while considering:

1. The factors: Think about the reason why you and your ex parted ways. Was it because of infidelity? Was it because you could not agree on anything? Chances are, these problems will not go away if you decide to go another round – they are the reason why you all are not together today. Remember the saying, if you want different results, do something differently.

2. The feelings: A lot of times, people allow their hearts overpower their intelligence. If you know for certain your ex is absolutely terrible for you, do not put in the effort trying to reconcile. Replay the good versus bad instances throughout your relationship. Question whether the good outweighs the bad. This could possibly lead you to the answer on if you and your former lover should work things out.

3. The change: One of the most important conversations to have with your ex before reuniting is how will the relationship change? If you two have not grown enough individually, then you should not want to risk it again. It will be a repeating cycle: same differences, same arguments, and same outcomes. Think about the failed relationship’s faults and create methods to better them for the next time.

They chatted, danced a little, and seemed close.” The two had also been spotted grabbing dinner together the night before. How do you keep rumors from affecting your budding relationship?

Cupid’s Advice:

There’s nothing that stirs up trouble at the beginning of a relationship like gossip. Cupid has some tips:

1. Establish trust: Trust might be the most sacred part of a relationship. Make a commitment early on that you will both be open and honest with one another, and hold to it.

Kim Kardashian and Kanye West Bring Baby North to Funeral

By Kerri Sheehan

What are some ways to involve your child in important family functions?

Cupid’s Advice:

It’s hard to decide when you should begin including your child in more adult family events. Let Cupid help you weigh your options.

1. Start early: Depending on the type of parent you are coddling your child may seem silly to you. Therefore, involving your kids in family functions from the get go is perfectly fine.

2. Play it by year: With something as heartbreaking as a death, it may be best to leave your child at home. Kids are fragile and being exposed to death so young might not leave them with happy memories.

3. Ask them: Once your offspring gets to an age where they can make decisions, let them. If your child wants to be involved in the adult affairs of your family then there’s no reason why you should shield them from that.

What do you if someone you're interested in has another admirer?

Cupid's Advice:

It's always hard when a crush seems to have feelings for someone else, but if you approach the situation carefully, you'll find that you're very capable of winning out or moving on. Here are some tips for doing those:

1. Sort out your feelings: When you realize that someone else likes the same person you do, take the time to rethink your situation. Do you genuinely want to be with your crush, or are you just pining for them because they might become unavailable? If you're only acting out of jealousy, it's time to move on to another person.

2. Approach your crush: If you've realized your feelings for someone are strong and genuine, then the easiest way to ensure they end up with you and not someone else is to ask them on a date. Don't sit around and wait for them to come to you if you really care about them. If things go well, you shouldn't have to worry about their other admirers.

3. Be ready to move on: When someone has another admirer, there's always a chance that they will end up with them instead of you. Make sure you remember that there are always other people out there if things don't work out.

Justin Bieber Tells Selena Gomez She's 'Very Beautiful'

While Canadians rioted over losing the Stanley Cup last week, American girls continue to riot over losing Justin Bieber to Selena Gomez. UsMagazine.com reports that the 17-year-old pop sensation, who tied for Best International Video by a Canadian with Drake at the Much Music Awards, went up to receive his award from no other than his girlfriend. He then proceeded to fake a kiss, and instead, went for a hug. "Selena, nice to meet you. My name is Justin," he said in a fake introduction. "You're very beautiful. Maybe we can go out sometime!"

What are the best ways to flatter in public?

Cupid's Advice:

Flattery is a great way to show affection for your partner. Cupid has a few pointers for some great ways to do so in public:

1. Poke war: This doesn't have to be limited to Facebook poking! Expand your touchy-feely ways between yourself and your guy with a game of footsie under the table.

2. Fake intro: Similar to what Bieber did to Gomez, 'randomly' meet your partner while out and strike up a conversation, reintroducing yourself. It's a cute way to spice things up in your relationship.

3. Flash mob: Flash mobs, where random people seemingly come out of nowhere and start to synchronize dance in public spaces, is becoming ever more popular. Take a cue from this bold gesture and get some of your friends to 'flash' your love while at the mall or beach. While it may sound silly, it definitely shows your other half – as well your friends and tons of innocent bystanders – how much he or she means to you.
