

Celebrity Parents: Exes Drew Barrymore & Will Kopelman Reunite for Daughter's Graduation

By; Emily Green

In the latest celebrity news, actress Drew Barrymore and ex-husband Will Kopelman reunited for their daughter Frankie's graduation, according to UsMagazine.com. This celebrity couple split in 2016, but they have remained on good terms while co-parenting their two daughters, Olive (6) and Frankie (5).

These celebrity parents are focusing on making co-parenting successful. What are some things you can do to enhance your co-parenting situation?

Cupid's Advice:

Just because you and your partner are no longer together doesn't mean your family is broken. By staying on good terms with your ex, you can ensure that your children adjust well to a new family dynamic. Here are some of Cupid's tips to ensure a successful co-parenting situation:

1. Communication is key: By actively communicating with your ex, you can ensure that you are both on the same page regarding your children. If one of you has concerns about something, you should be able to sit down and talk it out. Even just asking one another about their day, or what has been going on in their lives is a great step toward having a friendly relationship.

2. Be open and flexible: Different situations pop up all the time, so if your ex has to cancel a day because of an impromptu meeting, try to schedule another day so your children can still see them! Remember to put your children first, and work your parenting schedules around what will make the kids happy.

Celebrity Divorce: Drew Barrymore Says She Was In a 'Very Dark and Fearful Place' After Divorce

By Jessica Gomez

In celebrity news, Drew Barrymore opens up about the hardship she went through after her divorce from Will Kopelman. According to UsMagazine.com, she will not be acting any time soon. The former celebrity couple's divorce had a big impact on her. "I personally was in a very dark and fearful place, and then this script came along, and I was like, 'Yeah, I don't think it's a good time,'" she said. "I was not looking for a job," Barrymore continued. "I had actually stopped acting for several years because I wanted to raise my kids, but then a shift happened in my life and I was separating from their father and it was just a very difficult time." We sure are glad Barrymore is no longer in that dark place!

This celebrity divorce was not easy for Drew Barrymore. What are some helpful tips to coping with the divorce process?

Cupid's Advice:

We know that divorce is not easy. And unfortunately, for some of us, it's a time where we undergo a deep sadness. Cupid has some tips on getting through a hard divorce, and most of it is mental:

1. Know that you are sure about the divorce: Sometimes love can blind us, but it is important to know the reason for the divorce and that it is in fact the right decision. Try your best to skip any denial stage to make it easier for yourself. Think things through, analyze and examine your situation. But don't overdo it to the point you're blaming yourself or driving yourself crazy.

2. Think of the positive outcome: It is hard to see the light during a time as dark as going through a divorce – but it is essential that you do find it. Things can look hopeless and that can drag you into a downward spiral. It is important to find the good in all the bad situations we're in, no matter how small it may be. Just know that you are going through a hard time right now that will make you stronger, and the future holds something much better. Positive thinking goes a long way.

3. Take care of yourself emotionally and physically: Make sure you eat well and exercise. Both eating and exercising are essential to your health and make you feel better after. As for emotionally, don't overwork yourself mentally. Give yourself a break to relax. Also, if you don't want to be alone during this time, then don't be. Reach out to family and friends. It's okay.

Parenting Tips: 5 Tips for Co-Parenting

By Rachel Sparks

As if being a parent isn't enough stress, actively parenting with an ex can be a high stress situation that seems to have no silver lining. You ended your relationship with that person for a reason, yet you have to find a way to keep things not only civil, but open and respectful for the sake of your child(ren). How can you rock co-parenting as well as celebrity exes like Drew Barrymore and Will Kopelman?

Check out Cupid's parenting tips for co-parenting like a rockstar!

Cupid's Advice:

Remember that even in a marriage, people make sacrifices for their children. Being a parent is about focusing on the needs of your children before your own. Arguments, even among couples living together, should not be in front of children. A lot of the practices you had as a couple parenting together are still the same now that you co-parent with your ex, with a few additions. Here's our parenting advice:

1. Pick your battles: We've all heard this, but it's worth a reminder. Heck, put a stick note on your mirror with this on it every morning, it's that good. As much as your ex may grate your nerves, is every battle worth fighting with them? The end goal is the same for everyone, including the children and the exes: everyone wants to have a good time with their family. Is that little insult really worth the fight?

Related Link: Former Celebrity Couple Kate Hudson & Matt Bellamy Reunite for Son's Birthday

2. Share info about the kids: Too many times one parent stops communicating with the other. Remember even the non-custodial parent wants to know how the kids are doing in school. Share important things like doctor visits, grades, and important dates to ensure both parents know what's going on with their kids. The children will appreciate it more than they will ever tell you.

3. Don't use your kids as messengers: Kids shouldn't be asking who they're spending the holiday with, if they can get money for school clothes, or if they're in trouble for their bad grades. Basically, kids shouldn't be the ones delivering this news. Always communicate with your ex, even if you dread it. Let the kids be kids.

4. Respect the kid's time: Look, as parents we tend to be pretty nosy. Ultimately, we want to make sure our children are having a good time, but are also safe and learning the best lessons. If you don't necessarily trust an ex (they are an ex for a reason) it's normal to want to pry into the time the kids had with their other parent. Don't. That's special time they have and that should be respected. If there is anything wrong, more than likely, they will let you know on their own.

5. Single parent means alone time: There's a lot of challenges to being a single parent. Even if you do remarry, there's a whole new set of challenges. Co-parenting offers a unique opportunity to have the highly coveted alone time, something so allusive to most parents. Enjoy the precious moments you have to yourself while the kids are with your ex. You will value yourself and your time more, the time you do have with your children, and likely even your ex for allowing you to have time alone.

Love & Libations: Autumn Date Night Ideas Inspired by Celebrity Red Wines

By Yolanda Shoshana

Pumpkin spice isn't the only thing that arrives during Autumn. The season brings in the cold weather, making it the perfect time to snuggle up to your boo and enjoy some red wine to keep you warm. It's been said that red wine is an aphrodisiac for love. According to Euripides, the Greek tragedian who was a wine connoisseur, "where is no wine there is no love."

Here are some celebrity reds and date night ideas to enjoy during the crisp and cold months:

LVE Cabernet Sauvignon, Raymond Vineyards

Soul singer John Legend has a collection of wines called LVE produced in Napa Valley. His Cabernet Sauvignon has notes of blackberries, dark chocolate, and black tea. Can't you imagine Chrissy Teigen making a dish from her cookbook for Legend and pairing it with some of his wine? File that under relationship goals! Put on some of Legend's slow jams, sip some LVE, and make it a very romantic night.

Marilyn Merlot, Marilyn Wines

You know you are an icon when you've passed away and you end up with your own wine. Marilyn Merlot is inspired by none other than Marilyn Monroe. If Monroe's sassy attitude could be put in a bottle, this wine would be the answer. It's easy to assume this wine is mainly for fun, but it's actually a high-quality wine produced in Napa Valley that's been going strong since 1981. Vanilla and tart cherries will flirt with your palate. When you are feeling extra frisky, maybe even a bit adventurous with your partner, this wine is the one.

Pinot by Tituss, PBTB Wines

If you have ever watched the Netflix hit, The Unbreakable Kimmy Schmidt, you are probably familiar with the character Titus Andromedon, played by Tituss Burgess. In season one, his character sang a song called "Peeno Noir." The song became a viral hit, which led to Burgess creating a Pinot Noir wine. The actor has said that the wine is meant to be enjoyed by all the fabulous “Kings and Queens.” This fun and fruity wine is great for a Netflix and chill night or some hold me, let’s Hulu.

The Director’s Merlot, Frances Ford Coppola Winery

Coppola has been in the wine game for a while. His wines tend to be inspired by the art of storytelling and filmmaking, so they have unique names to reflect that. The Director’s Merlot is a juicy and succulent red that is a good example of a wine from Sonoma. Coppola has probably won more awards for his wine than his films. This Merlot is perfect to enjoy while relaxing by the fire and having a nice conversation with your love.

Drew’s Red Blend Pinot Noir, Barrymore Wine

Drew Barrymore is the perfect celebrity to have a wine. She knows how to have fun and live it up. She created her line of wines with the help of the California-based Carmel Road Winery. Her red blend is meant for every day sipping. Since it has notes of tobacco, spice, and fruit, it would be good paired with meat or something from a slow cooker. Long story short, when you are home for a nice, quiet meal with your partner, this is the perfect wine to choose.

Celebrity Style: Which Celeb

Body Do You Most Resemble?

By Rayne Parvis

Do you wish you had the secret to looking your best in your clothes like your neighbor, friend or iconic movie star? Knowing what styles work for your body shape is essential to getting the best overall appearance. When you look at your favorite character from television or a movie, notice how they wear the same few silhouettes. This is because their glam celebrity style squad knows what to buy so they'll always look their best.

Find the celebrity your body most resembles and get stylin'!

Drew Barrymore, Jessica Simpson and Jennifer Hudson: You're wider on top than the bottom and are considered to have an apple body type. You most likely have a full bust and slender legs. Create a balance by wearing more subdued darker patterns and colors on top—and brighter hues and textures on the bottom. This balances out your shape. V-necks are your friend too!

Jennifer Lopez, Beyonce and Kelly Clarkson: You have wider hips, narrow shoulders, smaller bust and are bigger on the bottom. Your body type can be described as pear shape. Create a balance in your shape by wearing your brighter patterns and colors up top. Minimize your bottom half with darker colors and simple bottoms.

Gwyneth Paltrow, Nicole Kidman and Keira Knightly: You have an overall thin frame with an undefined waist, little curves like a rectangle. You can indulge in most necklines and can create the appearance of a curvier figure with full circle, trumpet and flared skirts and feminine tops that cinch at your waistline creating a hourglass shape.

Marilyn Monroe, Kim Kardashian and Christina Hendricks: You have a defined waist and your hips and bust are noticeably wider imitating an hourglass shape. Emphasizing your waist is key! Make a friend with a tailor. Most of your wardrobe will need to be taken in at the waist. Wrap dress and styles that have a built in waist will pair well with your body type.

Oprah and Melissa McCarthy ladies are considered extra curvy in addition to one of the shapes above. Always create a waist and go for v-neck necklines. You can create an illusion of a smaller waist with belts– or buying styles that already have a seam that makes one for you–like A wrap or body seamed sheath dresses.

The common goal for all body types is to create and enhance your waist like the sex symbols of the 1950's. You can implement these simple tips to feel fab at any size.

Celebrity Divorce: Drew Barrymore Talks 'Girlfriend Time' Post-Split

By Stephanie Sacco

Another day, another celebrity divorce. This time it's Drew Barrymore and Will Kopelman's celebrity relationship that took a turn. According to UsMagazine.com, Barrymore admitted on Chelsea Handler's Netflix show Chelsea that her celebrity divorce felt like a failure. However, she has been blessed to have the support of the people surrounding her. Barrymore stated, "What I do want is girlfriend time." In celebrity news, Barrymore is trying to be positive in the aftermath of her divorce, and sometimes all you need is your friends to get you through it.

Amid celebrity divorce, Drew Barrymore just wants to hang with friends. What are some other ways to cope with a fresh break-up?

Cupid's Advice:

Divorce is nobody's goal when they get married. Unfortunately it just happens sometimes. Couples don't always last. Cupid is here with some love advice:

1. Me time: Spending some much needed time alone is important after a break-up. Do what you like, wear your hair the way you like, watch what you like. Don't let anybody stand in your way of finding yourself.

Celebrity Divorce: Drew
Barrymore Calls Herself

'Common Denominator' in Failed Relationships

By Dena Linzer

Relationships get tough, and often times unfortunately end in break-ups or divorce. Although heartbreak is hard to get over, accepting and understanding are key ways to develop healthier relationships in the future. In latest celebrity news, Drew Barrymore talks her celebrity divorce and various celebrity breakups. According to UsMagazine.com, Barrymore calls herself the “common denominator” in failed relationships.

It's sad to see this celebrity divorce come to fruition. What are some ways to determine what went wrong in your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Divorce is difficult to deal with, but realizing the issues within your relationship can help in the future with yourself and others. Lucky for you, Cupid has some relationship advice for learning and understanding what went wrong:

1. Be honest: Being honest with not only your ex, but with yourself as well, will help you accept what went wrong. Admitting that you were not perfect is realistic, and will benefit you when understanding why you two did not work out.

Drew Barrymore Says She 'Couldn't Be Better' After Second Child

By Louisa Gonzales

Drew Barrymore gave birth to her second daughter, Frankie, on April 22 and the transition period of bringing her home has been “great” according to UsMagazine.com. At a recent press conference for Barrymore’s latest film, Blended, a comedy she stars in with fellow actor Adam Sandler, she couldn’t hide how “happy” she is as everything is “really good” in her life at the moment. The star actress, 39, also recently celebrated a casual mother’s day with her husband, art advisor Will Kopelman, 36, and 19-month-old daughter Olive with, “Sweatpants, Games of Thrones, takeout”.

How do you strengthen your relationship after having a second child?

Cupid’s Advice:

Your life and relationships can go through a lot of changes once you start having kids. For a lot of couples having children can be a wonderful time in their lives, but it can also be challenging and difficult at times. Cupid has some advice on how to strengthen your relationship after having a second child:

1. Do family time together: To celebrate your new growing family try doing family activities together. It can be fun to do more things as a family, like go on a family vacation, go to an amusement park or go to the park together, there are many options for families to spend fun, quality time together. The word family is more than just a word to really qualify as family you need to be willing to put in effort, time and energy, but that doesn't mean it can't be fun.

Related: Drew Barrymore Is Engaged To Will Kopelman

2. Schedule time for just the two of you: Make sure that you make time just between the both of you. Having two kids can be handful and requires you to spend a lot of time and energy with them, which can be a fun and enjoyable thing, but that doesn't mean you shouldn't still have "alone" time. To help with not getting or feeling overwhelmed, quality time between the two of you is essential not only for a breath of fresh air but, to help keep your romance alive.

Related: Will Kopelman to Drew Barrymore: 'I'm Excited!' to Meet Our Baby

3. Communicate: Communication is key for every good relationship, that includes the one between you and your partner, but also the one between you and your kids. With your growing family things are bound to get more hectic, so it's good to be on the same page on things. Don't assume your lovebird or child is a mindreader, talk to each other and make sure you both understand what you want in your relationship and for your children.

Celebrity Couples: What True Love Looks Like

By Jared Sais

The start of a new year gives everyone a renewed sense of hope, and with this thought in mind, I decided to consider three celebrity couples who are happy in love.

Amanda Seyfried and Justin Long: These lovebirds have become a paparazzi favorite lately. In many photos, the couple appears surprised at their picture being taken. You'll see their eyebrows and eyes raised and their mouths just a bit open. Note that surprise is one of the seven micro-expressions that people make to indicate an emotion.

In another recent photo, we see the actress leaning towards her man, either for a kiss or to whisper something to him. This behavior shows how comfortable they are with each other. When people feel comfortable, they tend to get even closer into your “personal space bubble.” It’s an easy way to identify if two people are dating or just really close friends.

Related Link: Amanda Seyfried and Justin Long Bond Over Her Dog

As a side note, when flirting, if you’re talking to someone you’re interested in, whisper something every once in a while so the person has to lean in to hear you. It’s a great trick for getting closer and making a move.

Notice Seyfried’s eyes in many photos of the couple. They’re often locked on Justin’s lips; this is what desire looks like. As she gives a slight grin and looks at her man’s wanderlust smile, there is nothing but attraction and lustfully gazing eyes. Likewise, the actor has a very loving smile with deep eye contact, which tells me he is very romantically invested in the blonde beauty.

You can also see the lack of space between them in the photo above and other photos, which indicates a romantic relationship or at least a very close trusting relationship.

Drew Barrymore and Will Kopelman: We have something special here: best friends and lovers. They have a dynamic that many couples strive for. You can tell they are truly happy in many of their photos; the facial expression of smiling is categorized as high cheeks, crows feet in the corners of the eyes, and raised outer corners of the lips. Sometimes, this body language is easier to see in photos than in live action. But knowing the difference between a true smile and a fake smile can make the difference between catching someone in a lie or knowing if your partner is truly interested in you.

When people are comfortable with someone, they usually talk with the cup in their hands; put the cup down and continue to use their hands in a conversation; or put the cup to the side of their body. In a picture of Barrymore and Kopelman at a sporting event, we see the actress talking with her cup in her hands, showing us that she's very comfortable in her husband's presence. She also leans in towards him, putting her weight on him – another sign of trust and love.

Related Link: Drew Barrymore Goes Public with Second Pregnancy

Heidi Klum and Martin Kirsten: You'll often see this pair walking at the same pace with locked hands or their arms around each other. This body language is considered mirroring each other, and all signs tell you that their relationship is going strong. They are a very real couple; they run together and share that interest. There's nothing better than an early run and coffee in the morning with your loved one.

Listen up, guys: Real men wear pink or hold their woman's purse. Yes, Kirsten often holds his girlfriend's purse, showing us what a gentleman he is. He is confident with himself and their relationship. Plus, it reveals just how close they are as a couple.

Top 10 Hollywood Couples of 2013

By April Littleton

The year 2013 is slowly drawing to an end, and it's only fitting to look back at some of the most memorable celebrity couples to grace the television screens and magazine covers.

Here are Cupid's top 10 favorite famous lovebirds of this year:

1. Jessica Biel and Justin Timberlake: The former 7th Heaven star began dating Justin Timberlake Jan. 2007. The Hollywood couple briefly split in 2011, only to reconnect in the fall of the same year. Timberlake proposed to Jessica Biel in Jackson, Wyoming in Dec. 2011. They married at the Borgo Egnazia resort in Fasano, Italy in Oct. 2012.

A Celebrity Relationship That Started in College

2. Prince William and Kate Middleton: The Duke of Cambridge started seeing Kate Middleton in 2003 when the two were university flat mates. The famous couple became engaged in Kenya in Oct. 2010. In April of the following year, the long-time lovebirds had a celebrity wedding in Westminster Abbey, London. The newlyweds welcomed their first child, a baby boy named George, on July 22, 2013.

3. Jay-Z and Beyoncé: The Love on Top singer secretly married Jay-Z in New York City on April 4, 2008. Since then, the Hollywood couple have been more relaxed about the status of their relationship. Beyoncé announced her celebrity baby news on live TV during the 2011 MTV Video Music Awards while performing one of her singles. She said, "Tonight, I want you to stand up on your feet. I want you to feel the love that's growing inside of me." After her performance, the singer dropped her microphone and revealed her growing baby bump. The couple's daughter, Blue Ivy Carter, was born on Jan 7, 2012.

4. Brad Pitt and Angelina Jolie: Everyone should know the story of how these two met. Remember the movie Mr. and Mrs.

Smith? The famous couple have been together for eight years now, welcoming three biological children together as well as three adopted kids.

5. Nina Dobrev and Ian Somerhalder: The Vampire Diaries co-stars confirmed their celebrity relationship in 2011. Two years later, the duo called it quits, and Nina Dobrev began dating Dancing with the Stars professional Derek Hough. Just six weeks after the famous couple went public, the two went their separate ways, saying the relationship “played itself out.” Since then, celebrity dating rumors about Ian Somerhalder and Dobrev rekindling their romance have been spreading.

A Hollywood Couple Who Waited for Same-Sex Marriage Before Having a Celebrity Wedding of Their Own

6. Kristen Bell and Dax Shepard: More than three years after announcing their engagement, the happy celebrity couple finally got married. Kristen Bell and Dax Shepard began dating in late 2007 and got engaged two years later. Wedding plans were postponed when the pair decided to wait until same-sex marriage was legal in California, which happened in June. To celebrate, the former Veronica Mars star tweeted, “@daxshepard1 will you marry me? Xo #marriageequality #loveislove.” The married duo also welcomed their first child, daughter Lincoln, in March.

7. Drew Barrymore and Will Kopelman: Drew Barrymore began dating Will Kopelman in 2011, and the two became engaged a year later. Married since June of last year, the famous couple had a daughter, Olive Barrymore Kopelman, and are expecting baby number two!

8. Kristin Cavallari and Jay Cutler: The Hills star married

Chicago Bears quarterback Jay Cutler a year after the birth of their son Camden Jack, who was born in 2012. In Oct. 2013, Kristin Cavallari announced she was pregnant with their second child.

A congratulations is in order for Drew Barrymore and her husband Will Kopelman, who just announced that they're awaiting the arrival of their second child. "Last time I never commented on it and people just stalked me the entire time," Barrymore told People. "So yes, it's happening, it's true. I tried to keep a secret for as long as possible." The happy couple are already parents to daughter, Olive.

How do you know when to announce your pregnancy?

Cupid's Advice:

You and your honey just found out that you're pregnant, but now you have the nerve-wrecking taste of telling your family and friends. Do you tell them right away, or do you wait it out for a little while? Ultimately, the decision is up to you, but Cupid has some useful advice:

1. You're starting to show: When you start to get a bit of a baby bump, it might be time to spill the beans. Many couples like to keep the pregnancy a secret until they're sure that both the mom and the baby are out of harm's way (possibility of miscarriage). Plus, the longer you wait to tell your family and friends, the more time you'll have to make some important baby decisions without the hassle of your loved ones getting involved.

2. Your partner wants to share the news: Sometimes it's hard to keep something as exciting as a pregnancy all to yourself, and your significant other may want to spread the word sooner rather than later. Don't feel pressured to do or say anything you're uncomfortable with. The decision to share the news should come from both of you, not just one.

3. People are getting suspicious: You want to be the first to let all of your loved ones know about the baby. So, if the people you care about are starting to wonder if you're pregnant, then you might want to go ahead and let them in on your little secret. It won't be much of a surprise if everyone figures it out before you say anything.

Drew Barrymore Steps Out with Will Kopelman and Their Daughter Olive

By Nic Baird

Actress Drew Barrymore stepped out with husband Will Kopelman and infant daughter Olive in NYC, Saturday, UsMagazine.com reports. The actress held her man's arm as they walked casually in jeans, sweatshirts, and warm coats, pushing the baby girl in her red stroller. Little Olive had a fleece onesie to keep her warm in her stroller, as well as a monkey stuffed animal to keep her company.

What are some ways to introduce your new child to the world?

Cupid's Advice:

While you may be excited to tell a few people in person, how do you let everyone know you're having a child? Besides wearing a sign, you should take a methodical approach to inform the people in your life. They'll want to know, and here's how you tell them:

1. Picture postcards: Anyone interested by the news that you had a child will want to see a picture of the baby. A shot of the newborn with family is something people will stick on their fridges. If you're having a baby shower, you could use the postcards to get the details out.

2. Baby shower: Civilization designed baby showers as a template to announce an upcoming child. Once you've told your inner circle of friends and family, you can send out baby shower invitations to everyone else. If you haven't been caught by surprise, you should have ample time to plan your baby shower by scheduling it closer to the due date. The invitations will serve to let the word out, and you'll probably get some gifts out of it.

3. Other rituals: Baptisms, and other religious ceremonies have friends and family congregating. Any sort of family ritual is a good opportunity to assemble the important people in your life for such an important day in your life. Cigars are a traditional way for a new father to spread the word to friends, and perhaps work colleagues. It's just something you can give out, besides cupcakes.

What are some signs that it's time to go out after having a baby?

Cupid's Advice:

When you first have a baby, you want to spend all of your time at home with them. Though, you can't forget about your relationship time. Here are some ways when you know it's time to head out after having the baby:

1. Claustrophobic: If you are beginning to feel suffocated or claustrophobic from spending so much time indoors with the same routine, it's time to call the babysitter. It's healthy to go out as a couple every now and then, even if you have a baby at home.

2. Déjà vu: Have the sense of déjà vu all of the time? If you feel yourself doing the same thing over and over again day in and day out, it's time to break up that routine a little bit. Go out for dinner or catch a flick with your partner; something that is out of the house.

3. It's been months: If it has not been weeks but rather months since you and your partner have gone out, it's time to put down the remote and go outside. It is not healthy to live like a hermit. Regardless of how busy you are, you need to take time out to refresh yourself.

5 Celebrities Who Found Love After Rehab

By Daniela Agurcia

We've all witnessed several celebrities succumb to the dark side of fame and fortune and end up checking into rehab. For some of them, rehab has been the end of their career as we know it, while for others, it's been their breakthrough. Even better, some celebrities managed to find true love after recovering. Maybe romance was just what the doctor ordered. Here are five celebrities who found love after rehab:

1. Britney Spears: Against all odds, Britney Spears has made a comeback. The pop star has been in and out of rehab, even spending some time in the psychiatric ward after a series of breakdowns. It's been a bumpy road for the singer, but she has since been successful in her career and is now happily engaged to her former agent, Jason Trawick. Unlike her unsuccessful marriage to Kevin Federline, Spears and Trawick seem to have discovered true love as the star climbs her way back to the top.

2. Drew Barrymore: Drew Barrymore is a celebrity with an infamous history. She spent her life growing up in and out of rehab due to her drug addiction, but has since bounced back from her faults. Today, you'd never expect the beautiful actress to have had such a rebellious past. Barrymore not only got herself together for her career, but has even found love with Will Kopelman. The recently married couple couldn't be happier and are expecting their first child.

3. Nicole Richie: Nicole Richie had a bad-girl reputation which eventually landed her in rehab after getting DUIs in 2003 and 2006. Richie's life turned around for her, especially when she landed in the arms of current love, Joel Madden. Since then she's been happy and healthy with Madden, abandoning her old rebellious ways, and creating a family. The couple has two children together, and Richie has been beaming in love and joy since.

4. Kirsten Dunst: Kirsten Dunst checked herself into rehab after falling into depression in 2008. Ever since checking out, she's been living a healthy and happy life with her current boyfriend and On The Road costar, Garrett Hedlund. The actress seems to have had a successful recovery, and has been spotted with a huge smile across her face and in the arms of her beau. There's nothing a little love can't resolve.

5. Kate Moss: Stunning model Kate Moss checked into rehab in 2005 after she was caught in possession of drugs. She split from then-boyfriend Pete Doherty when he checked out of rehab after failing to better himself. Moss on the other hand left rehab healthier and happier, finding love with The Kills guitarist Jamie Hince. Since then, she has gotten married and has remained in love and more beautiful than ever.

How do you know if your partner will be a good parent?

Cupid's Advice:

Becoming a parent can be scary. However, if you and your partner are a good team, parenting can be a lot easier. Here are some ways to know if your partner will be a good parent:

1. How they treat you: If your honey is sweet and fair to you, they'll be the same way to your child. Take a look at how they approach your obstacles as a couple and think about how their reactions could apply to raising a child.

2. If they're fun: Does your partner make your dates memorable and creative? Being able to use your imagination and find entertainment in the smallest things is important in keeping a child entertained.

3. Responsibility: Every parent needs to be responsible. Take a look at your partner's track record. If they're usually reliable and trustworthy, that will go a long way as a parent. Just remember not to expect perfection.

Where are some romantic locations to spend your wedding night?

Cupid's Advice:

Your wedding night is the perfect time to experience something new before the honeymoon even begins. Here are some places where you can have an exciting, unique wedding night:

1. A cabin on the beach: Is there anything more romantic than watching the sun rise on the beach? After an intimate night with your love, round up in the morning to cuddle on the shore. It will be a morning you'll never forget.

2. Anywhere near a diner: Chances are you were so busy during the wedding you didn't have time to relax (or eat). Head out to a diner where you can fill up, have a coffee to wake you up, and experience your first date as a married couple. Take some time to flirt and wind down before you head to the hotel for the night.

3. At home: If the two of you share a home, this is the perfect place to spend your first married night together. After sharing highlights of the day, curl up together where the two of you are most comfortable.

Drew Barrymore and Will Kopelman Celebrate Pregnancy and Engagement at Shower

Actress Drew Barrymore and her fiancé Will Kopelman have a lot to plan for with a wedding and a baby on the way! The couple of one year are excited for both dates to come quickly, and they celebrated the coming events with some of their closest friends with a baby shower and engagement party. “Everyone was doting on pregnant Drew and asking her how she is feeling,” a witness told UsMagazine.com. “She is so thrilled to be expecting, and also really excited about the wedding.”

What are some unique ways to celebrate your engagement?

Cupid’s Advice:

Getting engaged is one of the most exciting moments of your life, and this is when you and your fiancé begin a new chapter in your life. Cupid has some tips to make it special:

- 1. Getaway: You and your new fiancé should take a weekend vacation together where you can celebrate your new status together and flaunt your hubby or wifey-to-be on your arm. This way you can have a little fun along with rest and relaxation before the stressful planning begins.

2. Surprise announcement: You'll hardly be able to hold the news inside, but if you can stand it for a couple of days, surprising your parents and closest friends at a dinner or party would be a great way for everyone to get really excited and celebrate together. A more unique approach might be putting a video together on YouTube and breaking the news on the web.

3. Make memoirs: Don't wait to get your engagement pictures because you'll be glowing with excitement and you want to be able to capture that. It's also a good (and maybe cheesy) idea to write love letters to each other including details of the proposal. Keeping a journal of your life together will be something you'll appreciate having later when you can look back and reminisce about your journey.

Rumor: Is Drew Barrymore Fighting Morning Sickness?

Rumors are still flying around about whether Drew Barrymore is pregnant or not. Although Barrymore and fiancé, Will Kopelman, aren't commenting on the allegations, the Big Miracle actress has been dropping small hints that she may be expecting. Barrymore was photographed carrying a box of Premium Saltine Crackers to lunch in L.A. Could she be battling morning sickness? According to UsMagazine.com, a source confirmed that the couple are excited to welcome their new baby. It looks like "moms" the word ... for now.

How do you support your partner when pregnancy gets tough?

Cupid's Advice:

Pregnancy involves mood swings, morning sickness and physical changes. It's definitely hard, but it can be even harder if your partner has to go through it alone. Here are a few things that you can do to support your partner when pregnancy gets difficult:

1. Healthy eating: Sometimes pregnancy cravings can cause moms to over eat and feel guilty afterwards. Eat healthy foods with your partner so that you both stay fit and feel amazing, inside and out.

2. Be understanding: Mood swings can cause arguments during pregnancy, but being understanding of the hard work your partner is undergoing emotionally and physically will ease the tension.

3. Become a massage therapist: Carrying around a growing baby isn't easy on the back, legs or feet. Invest in some lavender massage oils and lotions, and never wait for your partner to ask for a massage.

Rumor: Is Drew Barrymore Pregnant?

After being spotted leaving a doctor's office holding a sonogram, as seen on [TMZ.com](https://www TMZ.com), it is rumored that Drew Barrymore and her fiancé Will Kopelman could be expecting their first baby. According to [People](https://www People.com), the couple would like to become parents. "Drew is so motherly. Will would like to be a dad. Family is so important to him," said a source. However, Barrymore's rep had no comment regarding the pregnancy. In 2006, Barrymore told People, "I definitely feel the beginnings of a tick-tock. Whether I have children or adopt, whatever form a family comes in, I would absolutely love to have it." Recently, Barrymore has been seen wearing loose fitting clothing whenever she was in public.

What do you do if you find out you're pregnant before your wedding?

Cupid's Advice:

Discovering you are having a baby is a special moment in your life. Knowing your baby can be present at your wedding only makes the whole experience more special. Cupid has some tips:

1. Tell your friends and family: Share the news with the ones you love, especially those who will be attending the wedding and might notice a baby bump. This surprise should only make the wedding more exciting.

2. Cut back on wedding costs: Having a baby is costly. Rather than spending big bucks on extra flowers and candles, think about all the diapers you are going to need. As for wedding gifts, add things that can double as baby gifts to your registry.

3. Take belly into account when dress shopping: When looking for your gown, keep in mind what your belly will look like on the big day. It will be a blessing to share this day with your baby; however, looking like a princess will be a tad bit different than you may have imagined.
