

Drew Barrymore Is Engaged To Will Kopelman

Drew Barrymore is already having a very happy new year. Barrymore's rep confirmed to UsMagazine.com that Barrymore and her beau, Will Kopelman, 34, are now engaged. An art consultant, Kopelman popped the question in Sun Valley, Idaho, sometime during the holiday season, according to a source. The newly-engaged twosome, who was first spotted as a couple around February last year, briefly dated in 2010, but split up at the time, only to reunite later.

What are the advantages of getting engaged on a special occasion?

Cupid's Advice:

There are quite a few advantages of getting engaged on a special occasion. Cupid has a few:

1. Family get together or party: Depending on the occasion, proposing in front of family and friends can make the event even more special to your partner and to your loved ones. What a way to celebrate uniting love than with the people who love you the most.

2. Anniversary: Imagine both you and your love taking a much-needed vacation for your anniversary. Not only is your mind right and ready for some relaxation and quality time to celebrate your relationship, but you're also ready for some romance. It would be perfect timing to propose.

3. Birthday or holiday: By getting engaged on one of your birthdays or on a holiday you both love, you're already excited for the occasion before it's made even more special.

5 of the Sweetest Movie Moments

By Tanni Deb

Whether we admit it or not, we all enjoy a good love story – the ones that make our hearts beat, our pulses race, and the tears flow. We love getting caught up in the magical moments and gushing over romantic scenes. You probably have your own top Sweetest Movie Moments, but join us as we count down some of ours:

5. A Walk to Remember: If you're a hopeless romantic, this movie and its leading characters, Landon Carter (Shane West) and Jamie Sullivan (Mandy Moore), will leave you sobbing at the end. After a dangerous dare goes badly wrong, rebellious Landon is made to do community service, where he seeks help from bookish and religious Jamie – the girl he eventually learns to love. When he discovers the secret she's been carrying for two years, he plans a date at night to star gaze. He asks her to search for a specific star, and when she questions him about it, he says he had it named after her. The scene is sealed with a kiss.

4. 50 First Dates: When Henry Roth (Adam Sandler) meets Lucy Whitmore (Drew Barrymore) in a café, they decide to meet again the following day. However, when Henry returns, Lucy doesn't have a memory of him, or their previous meeting. When he's told that since the day she got into a car accident she's been unable to retain new information, he devises new ways to meet her every day, hoping that one day she'll remember him and will return his feelings. The sweetest – and most powerful – scene in the film comes when Henry discovers that Lucy has been singing, and she might remember who he is. He runs to the hospital and asks her if she recognizes him. She says “no,” but explains that she has been dreaming of him every day. When she leads him into her studio, it is filled with paintings she drew of him! Believing that this is proof of their love, they reunite.

3. You've Got Mail: If you think you can't find love online, then this is the movie to watch. Joe Fox (Tom Hanks) and Kathleen Kelly (Meg Ryan) are business rivals who began writing emails back and forth, without knowing each other's identities. Over time, romantic feelings develop, and Joe later realizes that the person he's been writing to the entire time has been Kathleen. At the end, they decide to meet, and Kathleen is not only shocked, but also excited to know that her cyber friend was him all along. She admits that she was hoping it was him, and the two passionately kiss.

2. The Notebook: This love story is one you'll watch repeatedly with a box of Kleenex next to you. It's the tale of small-town boy, Noah Calhoun (Ryan Gosling), who falls in love with rich and beautiful Allie Hamilton (Rachel McAdams). Even after Allie is diagnosed with Alzheimer's disease and fails to recognize her family, or him, he never leaves her side. Instead, he decides to grow old with her in a nursing home and attempts to bring her memories back. Sure, this romantic film has many sweet moments, but perhaps the scene that makes you realize how much he truly loves her is when, many years later, his children ask him to leave the rest home and return home with them. He says, “Look guys, that's my sweetheart in there. I'm not leaving her. This is my home now. Your mother is my home." Quick, pass me one of those Kleenexes.

1. The Wedding Singer: This is another romantic comedy film, once again teaming Adam Sandler and Drew Barrymore together, who always manage to create some of the most romantic movie scenes. In this film, Sandler is a wedding singer who falls in love with Barrymore – a waitress. When he discovers that her fiancé is cheating on her and doesn't plan on stopping after marriage, he attempts to pursue her. There are plenty of sweet moments in this movie, but the one that will make your heart melt is at the end, when Sandler sings a song for Barrymore on an airplane. Who wouldn't fall for a man like that?

Drew Barrymore Is Not My Type

By David Wygant

I get emails all the time asking me, “You live in Hollywood. You must meet famous people, right?” Let me tell you a little bit about the way I think about famous people.

I don’t see them; I see dead people. Oops! That’s the wrong movie. That’s from “The Sixth Sense.” I really don’t see famous people. I mean, I do see them, but people have to point them out to me.

A few months ago when I was walking down the street with my black Labrador, Daphne, this cute blond was walking towards me with three other black dogs. She said, “Look at all the black dogs!”

I thought, ‘Wow, she’s observant. She is flirting with me.’ So I said, “Look at those three dogs! Are they yours?” The cute blond said “No, I’m working at the rescue place today.”

The blond was wearing a sweatshirt, tennis shoes and a pair of jeans. She had no makeup on, and she had her hair pulled back. She looked really cute. The voice sounded really familiar. The face looked familiar. The only thing missing was E.T. What I realized then was that I was standing face-to-face flirting with Drew Barrymore.

So, we started talking. We talked for about 10 minutes about dogs, about birthdays ... It was a random conversation. She was really friendly, really cute, and really flirtatious, but I just wasn't feeling it on my end. Now, granted, it would have been fun to hang out with Gertie from E.T. I'm sure she had some great stories to share!

So here was the end of our conversation:

Drew: What's your name?

DW: David. [Then playing dumb] What's your name?

Drew: Drew.

DW: Oh, I thought you looked familiar. It's nice meeting you, Drew.

Then, I walked away.

It doesn't matter to me whether a woman is a celebrity or not.

If I'm not feeling the chemistry on my part, I don't care who the woman is or what she does. I don't care if it's Drew Barrymore or Jennifer Aniston . . . well, maybe I'd care if it were Jennifer Aniston.

The publicity would have been great. I can see it now. Drew and I photographed by the paparazzi in Hawaii. Drew and I walking our dogs grabbing a couple Starbucks. I would finally make it into the "Stars Like Us" page in US Weekly.

Living here in L.A., I've had plenty of interaction with celebrities. I've flirted with Naomi Watts. I have chatted up Dennis Quaid in line at a coffee shop. I sat for 20 minutes with Michael Richards from Seinfeld and had a conversation. I've even had some fairly famous clients from the entertainment business. Honestly, they are all just people like you and me.

Drew Barrymore Says Justin Long Makes Her “Giggly”

It seems Drew Barrymore is happy in love these days. People reported that Barrymore couldn't stop gushing to Harper's Bazaar about Justin Long, her on-again off-again boyfriend of three years. "He's the cat's pajamas," said the Going the Distance star. Barrymore, 35, has endured a lot of the typical trials of a young actress in the spotlight. But now she seems happier than ever, especially when talking about her actor beau. "I couldn't love, respect, admire and enjoy that individual more than I do. It would be physically impossible for me to have any more giggly joy at this person." Why is laughter important in a relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes life can seem like anything, but easy. The best way to forget your troubles is to laugh, and your partner can help. Cupid has some ideas on why having a partner who makes you laugh is so important:

1. Lighten up: A lot of women try to be perfect: perfect career, perfect apartment, and perfect boyfriend. But don't take yourself too seriously – laughter can remind you to lighten up and be happy with what you have!

2. Have a lasting relationship: Laughter helps get a couple through the hard times in a relationship and makes the good times even better. As far as Cupid is concerned, the couple who laughs together, stays together.

3. Laughter is forever: While you may be interested in dating Brad Pitt more than Will Ferrell, keep in mind that looks fade. If he has a sense of humor, he can keep you smiling for years.

Movie Review: Going the Distance

For a new twist on long-distance relationships, check out Warner Bros. new movie, Going The Distance. Garrett (Justin Long) and Erin (Drew Barrymore) fall in love one summer in New York City, but never meant for it to happen – especially knowing that Erin will be heading back to San Francisco in six weeks. The couple plans on staying casual, but it doesn't take long for their love to ignite a passion they can't escape. Follow these two real-life lovers on their coast-to-coast romance.

How can you make a long-distance relationship less challenging?

Cupid's Advice:

You can't control who you fall in love with, or where they live. If you unexpectedly find yourself in a long-distance relationship, Cupid offers a few ways to help shrink the distance:

1. Stay in touch: Technology has come a long way. Gone are the days when you could only use the postal service, or had to pay huge fees for phone conversations. Now you can text, email, Skype, and even talk on the phone for little to no money at all.

2. Old school: Although it's easy to spend hours chatting and texting, it can be much more romantic if you compose some old fashioned snail mail and send it to the one you love. The sentiment will not be missed.

3. Getaways: With the savings on communication, why not plan a romantic interlude with your sweetheart. Take a weekend getaway in your respective cities, or choose somewhere in between and meet halfway.

Drew Barrymore Loves Working with Justin Long!

Spotted! At a red carpet event in celebration of her Nylon cover, E! News interviewed Drew Barrymore about her costar Justin Long. “He, by the way, is the most wonderful person to work with” the star gushes. Barrymore and Long have been in an on-again, off-again relationship for awhile, and although she refused to comment on their current status, the two have teamed up for the new movie, Going the Distance. While rocking a vintage dress, Barrymore added, “I’m so excited about this movie. As a girl, I relate to this movie and the boy in me loves the comedy in this movie. It is a very good date movie!”

Is it a good idea to work with your significant other?

Cupid’s Advice:

Being in a relationship with a co-worker can lead to office gossip and the possibility of blending business with pleasure. Cupid has some ways to keep things from overlapping and work alongside your partner:

1. Alone time: Being together for most of the day can cause some tension. Find some type of outlet that will get you away for a couple of hours a day, like a separate group of friends or a hobby.

2. Less arguing: Keep an open line of communication, and listen to your partner's feelings. You can minimize fights by frequently checking in with each other to see how their professional and personal lives are doing. This will also lessen the chances of blending the two.

3. Limit convos: Don't let work take over your personal life. If you notice that all you talk about at home is the office, then bring up new subjects, like vacation ideas, what to do this weekend, or even the weather, as long as it gets you out of that same-old topic of conversation. This applies vice-versa as well. Don't bring arguments or discussions from home into the workplace.
