

Celebrity News: Queen Elizabeth Is 'Disappointed' Prince Harry & Duchess Meghan Won't Be at Christmas Festivities

By Meghan Khameraj

In celebrity news, Queen Elizabeth II is disappointed in Prince Harry and Duchess Meghan's decision to spend Christmas with the Duchess' mother. According to a source for UsMagazine.com, family drama is one of the reasons the royal famous couple decided to spend the holiday away from the rest of the royal family. Prince Harry and his brother Prince

William have grown apart during the last few years. Harry and Meghan want to make this holiday special as it is their son, Archie's, first Christmas. The source also states that "the drama surrounding the couple has caused a huge amount of stress. They're making their family their No. 1 priority right now."

In celebrity news, Queen Elizabeth isn't happy that Harry and Meghan won't be celebrating Christmas with her. What are some ways to balance family obligations during the holidays?

Cupid's Advice:

Although they are royalty, Prince Harry and Duchess Meghan still deal with holiday family drama. The holidays are a great time to be with family, but they can also cause an unnecessary rise in tensions. Cupid has some advice to help you balance family obligations during the holidays:

1. Take turns: This is the easiest way to avoid any holiday drama. There are enough holidays for you to spend some with your family and some with your partner's family. Once you spend a holiday with your family, spend the next one with your partner's and so on.

2. Prioritize: Some families value certain holidays over others. Discuss with your partner which holidays are the most important to your family and ask which are the most important to theirs. You can prioritize who you spend the holiday with based on how important it is to both of your families. This also helps if there happen to be any cultural differences regarding holidays between you and your significant other.

Celebrity News: Queen Elizabeth Fuels Feud Rumors By Removing Photo of Duchess Meghan & Prince Harry

By Meghan Khameraj

In celebrity news, Queen Elizabeth reportedly removed a photo of Duchess Meghan and Prince Harry from Buckingham Palace. According to UsMagazine.com, the photo was first spotted in 2018 when the Queen met with Conservative leader Boris Johnson. Recently, the Queen was photographed with the High Commissioner for Grenada, Lakisha Granta, but this time the photo of Duchess Meghan and Prince Harry was mysteriously missing. Tensions have been brewing amongst the royal family after the famous couples' names were pulled from Prince William and Duchess Kate's charity. Prince Harry stated, " ...we're brothers, we'll always be brothers. We're certainly on different paths at the moment, but I'll always be there for him and as I know he'll always be there for me."

In celebrity news, the rumors are alive and well when it comes to a feud between this royal couple and their royal family. What are some ways to handle a rocky relationship with your in-laws?

Cupid's Advice:

Prince Harry and Duchess Meghan have been the center of a lot of discourse among the royal family and overall British population. Though Harry and Meghan understand their relationship is subject to public opinion, Cupid has some relationship advice to help you mend a rocky relationship with your partner's family:

1. Talk to your partner: Be sure that your partner is aware of the issues at hand. It might be ideal for them to discuss the problems with their family members before you actually get involved. Sit down with your significant other and establish the best way to address the problem.

Celebrity News: Why Prince Harry & Meghan Markle Want to Live in Africa

By Ahjané Forbes

In celebrity news, Prince Harry and Duchess Meghan want to move to Africa! After being attacked by many British media outlets, Meghan has been having trouble adjusting to royalty. According to UsMagazine.com, a source describes the celebrity couple home in Kensington Palace, saying, “The critics have made their lives ‘absolute hell’ and they’d get more privacy in Africa – they won’t be hounded by photographers around the clock.” The source also adds that Prince Harry believes that having their celebrity baby Archie surrounded by nature will be great for him.

In celebrity news, Prince Harry plans to build a home in Africa. What are some ways to decide where to live with your partner?

Cupid’s Advice:

Planning to move in with each other can be a big step for your relationship. To benefit the needs of your partner or yourself, you may have to relocate. Cupid has some advice on what to consider when choosing a place to live with your partner:

1. Show your partner the places that you like: Start the conversation by explaining the reasons why you like this area. Remember to mention things that they are interested in as well. If they like to go the gym, tell them about the local fitness center down the street.

2. Find a compromise: You won't always agree on everything, but it is important to reach a mutual agreement. Don't assume that they will love everything about the place you want to live. Try to consider the problematic areas: distance from work, school system for your children, and the nearest family member. Don't say that "it will all work out", rather, try to make the transition a little easier.

Celebrity News: Prince Harry & Duchess Meghan Are Considering Moving to Canada

By Ahjané Forbes

In celebrity news, British royalty may be moving to Canada! According to UsMagazine.com, Prince Harry and Duchess Meghan are considering a move to the Great White North, where Meghan Markle used to film the Suits. The celebrity couple plan to stay in Kensington Palace for now with their celebrity baby, Archie.

In celebrity news, this royal couple is considering a move to Canada. What are some ways to compromise with your partner about where to live?

Cupid's Advice:

Getting serious in a relationship means that you will have to start making choices with and for the benefit of your partner. This may mean considering a relocation for career or family reasons. Cupid has some advice on how to help make the discussion a smoother one:

1. Listen to their reasons: You don't have to be fond of moving to another state or country. It is normal to feel this way. Changing your environment is a huge adjustment, but hear your partner out. Ask them: how will this help us or our family? Weigh the pros and cons, and try to remain reasonable.

2. Let them know your concerns: If you feel that you won't get enough money in the location being discussed for work, tell them this! Also, share your thoughts on cost of living, school systems, and transportation (if needed). Work on focusing on common ground. Show them what you are looking for in a place you want to call your home.

Celebrity Couple News: Duchess Meghan Comments On Her Relationship with Prince Harry to Pharrell

By Bonnie Griffin

In the latest celebrity couple news, Duchess Meghan Markle opened up to singer, Pharell, about the difficulties of having her relationship always in the spotlight. According to UsMagazine.com, Meghan said “They don’t make it easy,” seemingly referring to the constant public scrutiny her and Prince Harry’s relationship is always under. Every relationship has its own complicated parts, and this celebrity couple clearly states that having all of your personal life on display for the world to talk about isn’t easy.

In celebrity couple news, Duchess Meghan was honest about having a relationship in the spotlight. What are some ways to handle scrutiny of your relationship?

Cupid’s Advice:

Whether your relationship is constantly in the public eye like the Duchess and Prince, or you find your family and friends nitpicking your every move, it’s no fun being scrutinized by others. Cupid has some advice on how to handle the scrutiny of your relationship:

1. Ignore it: The number one thing to do is just ignore what others have to say about your relationship. If they are not a part of your relationship, then their scrutiny does not have to hold any bearing on how you and your partner feel for each other.

Celebrity Parents: Duchess Meghan Plans to Take Baby Archie to NYC Over the Summer

By Mara Miller

The royal celebrity couple has been adjusting to life as celebrity parents well: Prince Harry is on diaper duty! In the latest celebrity news, Duchess Meghan and Prince Harry plan to take royal celebrity baby Archie to New York City this summer, according to UsMagazine.com. They have plans to visit with the Duchess' mother, Doria Ragland, and friends in America.

These celebrity parents are brave to travel internationally with an infant. What are some tips for traveling with a baby?

Cupid's Advice:

The standard recommendation is to wait until your baby is at least one month old before traveling, although some doctors recommend waiting until your little one is four to six months old so his or her immune system has enough time to become strong. Cupid has gathered some tips that might help if you do decide to travel:

1. Breastfeed if you can: Breastfeed your baby when he or she gets hungry. You don't need to be shy about where you breastfeed and you won't need to lug around any extra gear.

Celebrity Baby News: Duchess Meghan Has Been 'Very Emotional' Since Welcoming

Baby Boy

By Mara Miller

In celebrity news, celebrity couple Duchess Meghan and Prince Harry welcomed their new baby boy on May 6th. According to an exclusive source from UsMagazine.com, Duchess Meghan has been very emotional since welcoming her new bundle of joy! “This is definitely my first birth,” Prince Harry said. “I am so incredibly proud of my wife and as every father and parent would ever say, your baby is absolutely amazing, but this little thing is absolutely to die for, so I’m just over the moon.”

In royal celebrity baby news,

Duchess Meghan was 'very emotional' after welcoming her son into the world. What are some ways to support your partner's emotions after the birth of your child?

Cupid's Advice:

Emotions can be all over the place after you go through the birth of a child, and it's important that your partner supports you. Cupid has some tips:

1. Let her cry or get emotional: Don't try to fix it. If she needs to cry, let her cry. Comforting her is the most important thing you can do. She needs time to process what happened during the birth and her feelings over becoming a Mom.

Celebrity Baby: Meghan Markle Reveals Due Date

By Mara Miller

In the latest royal celebrity baby news, Meghan Markle revealed her due date during a walkabout in Hamilton Square with Prince Harry, according to EOnline.com. Markle is currently six months pregnant; the celebrity couple is expecting their first baby between April and May. The Duchess and Prince have decided to wait to find out the gender of their baby. This is the closest confirmation of her due date available since Kensington Palace previously announced the baby is expected in Spring 2019.

Meghan Markle and Prince Harry are about to have their first celebrity baby. What are some ways of announcing your due date to the world?

Cupid's Advice:

Announcing your due date isn't something you need to keep a secret if you don't want to. What are some ways you can tell your family and friends your exciting news?

1. Photographs: You could do a mini photo shoot with the ultrasound picture and baby shoes. If you have an older child or a pet, include them in the announcement photo. You could have your older child standing next to a chalkboard with something that says, "Big (sister or brother) starting (insert due date)". For your pet, you could do something like taking a picture of their paws next to baby shoes. Have fun and get creative!

2. Announce to immediate family: Announcing your pregnancy and due date is an exciting time for you and your partner, as well as for your family and friend. If you don't want to immediately let everyone on social media know before your close circle does, plan unique announcements for each group! Don't let the pressure of sharing your due date stress you out; it doesn't have to be extravagant. A phone call to your mother (instead of texting) means more because it's personal. Or maybe a cup that says, "World's Best Grandma/Grandpa/Uncle/Aunt" and a picture of the ultrasound with the due date will be more memorable for years to come.

3. Make something special (or have something special) made to celebrate: You can go beyond having a cup made when you announce your due date. If you're creative with programs like Photoshop, you could create a movie poster with the due date or make a small trailer with a video editing program (like iMovie or Windows Movie Maker). If you create the movie poster, you could put it in the baby's room once they're born.

What are some ways you have seen someone announce their due date?
