In celebrity baby news, Phil Robertson is coping with the news that he has an adult daughter he never knew about. What are some ways to welcome a child (baby or adult) into your family?

Cupid's Advice:

Families come in all shapes and sizes. No matter who you're bringing into your family, it's important to welcome them with open arms. If you're unsure how to seamlessly expand your family, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Tell extended family: Whether you're having a baby, adopting a child, or reuniting with an adult family member, it's important to make sure they feel welcome. That starts with the entire family being excited to meet them, not just the parents.

This celebrity vacation involves celebrating a new marriage. Where are three great places to spend your honeymoon?

Cupid's Advice:

Celebrating your marriage by taking in a vacation is a good way to enjoy each others' company. Your honeymoon does not have to be extravagant. As long as you both agree on the place that you want to go, then it should be enjoyable. Cupid has some advice on some great places to visit:

1. St. Lucia: This tropical island has many sandy beaches and nice weather, but will also test the bond between you as newlyweds. Consider taking day trips and going rock climbing at Pitons. Spend your time as a new couple going sightseeing, snorkeling or for a ride on a speedboat.

2. Florence, Italy: If you're a fan of Italian cuisine, then this would be the best place for your honeymoon. Florence has a lot of museums to walk through hand-in-hand. At the Loggia dei Lanzi in the Piazza della Signoria, you can see sculptures and other forms of art. The museum has a seating area and café where you two can relax and talk.

3. Savannah, Georgia: This is a good idea if you're trying to save some money. Get the southern experience from this city with its "easy living" feeling. Become a Disney character when you ride around the city in horse and carriage. Even though you are not on a tropical island, you can still swim with dolphins. If you travel to Tybee Island, you can get a taste of ocean life.

There's a new teenage celebrity couple making news! What are some ways to know your teenager is ready to date?

Cupid's Advice:

Want to know if your teenager is ready to date? Cupid's has some advice that can help:

1. Can your child handle it?: If your child is expressing interest in wanting to start dating, it's important you recognize if your teen is mature enough to handle the ups and downs that can come with a relationship. If your kid is easily anxious or upset by things, adding a boyfriend or girlfriend into the mix can just make things more stressful for your teenager.

2. No pressure: It's important the reason your kid wants to date isn't because everyone else is. Talk to your teenager and make sure it's clear there is no need to hurry into dating and he or she shouldn't start dating just because of feeling left out.

3. Your teen will talk to you: If you have a really open relationship with your son or daughter, then them entering the dating world won't be so scary. A trusting relationship between you and your child will ensure your kid will come to you if they have any griefs in their own relationships.

Duck Dynasty's Miss Kay Reveals She Birthed Her First Child Before Marriage

By Shannon Seibert

Duck Dynasty's Robertson family has always talked of their traditional morals and happy family values, but Miss Kay recently admitted that her first son Alan was born before her marriage to Phil was legalized. The stars of the A&E show have been happily married for over 50 years, and their love continues to grow stronger each day. According to UsMagazine.com, the mother of four also says that her loyal hubby is true to their marriage vows and still makes her breakfast in bed.

If you're pregnant, how do you decide whether to get married before or after the birth of your child?

Cupid's Advice:

Decisions, decisions! Pregnancy is a beautiful thing, and so is marrying the love of your life. The question is: Which comes first? This decision is a big one because every bride wants to feel like a princess on her special day, but bringing a bundle of joy into this world is a gift all in its own.

We've gathered three questions to consider in making your choice as to whether or not you should wait to walk down the aisle.

1. How far along is the pregnancy? Watching your tummy grow with the miracle you've created is one of the most wonderful sights – unless it prevents you from fitting into your wedding dress. Some brides embrace their baby belly and float happily down the aisle, showing it off. Other brides, however, want to look slim and like “their best self” on their wedding day. If you think you'd have to make too many alterations, it may be best to put off the wedding. However, if you can coordinate a wedding before the bump forms, there isn't any reason why you shouldn't celebrate now.

2. Do you want to stress about a wedding while caring for a baby? Stress is never good for an expectant mother. The added anxiety of a wedding can heighten emotions for the bride and mother-to-be. In turn, do you want to be worried about the health and care of your baby while you're picking out your wedding cake? It all depends on how you as the bride want your wedding day to be.

3. How much planning will your wedding require? Weddings are a big to-do. Brides have to coordinate meals, guests, invitations, cake, venues, and many more small details that can become extremely overwhelming. Depending on your wedding style, waiting to have an official ceremony may be the best thing. If you want an elaborate and traditional wedding, it'll probably require months of planning. If you just want a small get together with your closest family and friends, that may be more doable under a time crunch.
