In celebrity news, Dwayne Johnson is convinced Justin and Hailey will have a baby in 2021. How do you decide when the right time is to have kids?

Cupid's Advice:

Once you've tied the knot many people will be looking a baby right afterwards, but if you and your partner aren't ready then it shouldn't be something that you should rush into. If you and your partner aren't sure if it's the right time to have kids, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. You're ready for the commitment: Having a baby is huge commitment because once you bring this baby into the world there's no turning back, this baby is yours forever. Not only do you need to be committed to your baby, but you have to be committed to each other as well. Once you and your partner have a baby together you'll be tied together forever as you both share a child. So preparing yourself for commitment is key.

2. It can be a demanding job, recovering from a serious injury or illness, or taking care of your parents, these are things you have to consider before determining if its the right time. Decipher whether or not you have time to commit to a baby right now.

Celebrity Wedding: Dwayne 'The Rock' Johnson Secretly Marries Lauren Hashian in Hawaii

By Ashley Johnson

In celebrity wedding news, Dwayne “The Rock” Johnson and Lauren Hashian tied the knot! The movie star may have been calling the Garcia Companies CEO his wife for years, but it was not until Sunday, August 18th the two made it official in true celebrity style. According to UsMagazine.com, the celebrity couple had a secret Hawaiian wedding, accompanied by traditional leis and a classic sunset. The wedding was picture-perfect, as the newlyweds posed in front of the waterfront after their nuptials and posted to Instagram, which caught the attention of many other celebrities, such as Tom Brady and Kevin Hart.

This celebrity wedding was a big surprise! What are some benefits to keeping your wedding under wraps?

Cupid’s Advice:

Getting married can be one of your most special moments in life, and you can feel very pressured in making sure that your big day is perfect for you and your partner. That being said, sometimes big life moments do not have to be such an event, but rather the moment itself is special enough. Sometimes getting carried away with a big guest list and making excessive plans can ruin the special moment, so Cupid has some advice on the benefits of keeping your wedding under wraps:

1. Fewer opinions: When fewer people know about your wedding or are invited to your wedding, it can put a lot less pressure on you and your partner. Everyone is going to have an opinion on something: the dress you are wearing, the food being served, the music being played at the wedding, etc., so it is best that you focus on yourself and your partner's needs/wants rather than those of numerous guests. It is yours and your partner's special day, and no one else's!

2. Less money: If you are keeping the big day just between you and your partner then you certainly have no one but yourselves to impress. You are free to make whatever arrangements you want to for your wedding and do not have to worry about it being so extravagant for a big group of people. Anything like food, drinks, or seating will be completely up to you, as there will be very few or no guests in attendance.

3. More special: Your wedding could be a whole lot more special with just your dearest friends and family. Big extravaganzas can be fun, but they will not be as intimate as a small wedding with a select guest list. When your closest loved ones are there to watch you and your partner make vows to each other it can make the moment feel a lot more special, as opposed to inviting a list of guests you have no direct relationship with.

Congratulations to Johnson and Hashian!

There’s another celebrity baby on the way! What are some ways to prepare for your second child differently from the first?

Cupid's Advice:

A second baby is very exciting! While you certainly are more of a parenting pro the second time around, there are still some considerations to keep in mind. Check what Cupid has to say:

1. Talk to the future big sis/bro: Your first child is used to garnering all the attention from you and your partner, so another kiddo will be an adjustment for them. Make sure you take the time to talk to the first-born so they know what to expect. Make it clear that you still love them just as much, and that nothing will change your relationship.

2. Utilize your hand-me-downs: You've probably got a lot of old clothes and necessities lying around the house somewhere, so use them! This helps keep your finances in check and is also makes it feel as though you're getting your money's worth. The toy that your first-born child played with one time will feel brand new for your second kid!

3. Take inventory of what you have and need: Sure, you have most of the necessities already, but before baby #2 arrives, get together with your partner and assess your current staples. Get rid of/donate anything you don't use or anything that is worn out. Then, make a master list of things you need and things that need to be replaced! Out with the old, in with the new.

Famous Couple Dwayne 'The Rock' Johnson and GF Lauren Hashian Are Expecting First Child Together

By Mackenzie Scibetta

The celebrity baby news this week features none other than Dwayne 'The Rock' Johnson and his girlfriend Lauren Hashian, who will be parenting their first child together! UsMagazine.com reported that the famous couple will be adding a baby to their home, which is already full with two French bulldog puppies, Brutus and Hobbs. This Hollywood relationship has been going strong for nine years and, according to a source, they “are so excited” for the baby. This will be Johnson’s second child.

This famous couple is preparing to jump into parenthood. How do you know if your relationship is ready for a child?

Cupid’s Advice:

Bringing a child into the world is not a job that should be taken lightly. Consider all of the consequences, good and bad, before making such a lifetime commitment with your partner. A baby will undoubtedly change your life so Cupid is here to help you decide if you’re ready for that drastic change:

1. If you can re-frame your relationship: Take into account that once you add another person into your relationship the dynamic will change and the relationship you love now will go through a metamorphic transformation. If you both can accept the idea of adjusting to a new format for your relationship then you’re one step closer to having a baby.

2. If you have an open communication system: If addressing your problems with each other is difficult now, then having a baby will only make it harder. You need to be able to talk about absolutely anything with your partner, from how revoltingly dirty a diaper looks to complaining about the left-over dishes in the sink.

3. If you have similar expectations: Understand how you both want to raise a baby, what type of punishment will (and won't) be used and how engaged you both will be in the baby's life. Make sure you both are on the same page with why you want a baby. Do not just have a baby because you can.
