By Bonnie Griffin

In the latest celebrity news, Grammy winner Ed Sheeran finally broke his silence on the drama between Taylor Swift and Scooter Braun. Sheeran, a known friend of Swift, had been receiving backlash from fans online for not openly sharing his support of Swift after the singer/songwriter called out Braun for buying out her master lists when he purchased Big Machine Lable Group. According to UsMagazine.com, Sheeran finally opened up on Instagram responding to one fan's comment saying, "I have been speaking directly to her, like I always do." Sheeran may not have openly gone to the internet to say he was taking Swift's side, but he made it clear he's been there for her in person and that is what's important in a friendship.

In celebrity news, Ed Sheeran finally spoke out about the drama happening between Taylor Swift and Scooter Braun. What are some ways to support your partner through dramatic situations?

Cupid's Advice:

No matter how hard we try, life sometimes comes with drama. When that happens, we need our friends and our partner to be by our side, be a shoulder for us to lean on. Sometimes it can be hard to know the best way to support the people we care about when they are upset and drama is surrounding them. Cupid has some advice to support your partner when drama comes their way:

1. Listen: Sometimes when drama comes into your partner's life they just need someone who is willing to listen. Maybe they need to vent to get out their frustrations, or they need to cry on someone's shoulder. Whatever they need to say, or how they need to get their frustration off their chest just listen and let them vent. In the end, just listening can be the thing they needed most.

2. Support them, but don't add to the drama: The hardest thing to do can often be to do little or nothing at all.

Instinctively you might want to jump in the middle and protect your partner from those lashing out at them, but it's important to think before you dive into the fold. Often times, if ignored, the people bringing the drama will get tired and move on, so jumping in can cause the drama to escalate and make a stressful situation worse for your partner and yourself.

3. Talk to your partner: Before you jump in to defend them, talk to your partner and ask them what they need from you. How can you help? They may want you to defend them, or they may want you to whisk them away and take their minds off the drama that has them upset.

Relationship Advice: How Far Will You Go for a Relationship?

Dr. Jane Greer

Singer Ed Sheeran found true love on another continent. When he first started dating girlfriend Cherry Seaborn, she lived in New York and he lived in England. The two, who met in school, made that work for a while before Seaborn moved to England to be closer to Ed. The latest buzz is that Ed plans to propose to her soon, sealing the deal that has seen a lot of miles traveled to build their relationship before finally ending up in the same place. This is not an unusual scenario.

Since celebrities and singers are so busy on set or on tour, they often meet and even strike up a relationship with someone who lives far away.

You certainly don't have to be a celebrity or songwriter to travel the world to find love. Sometimes, if you're lucky, work will take you to another place where you might meet someone you feel a connection to, and then you find yourself trying to stay in touch with the hope of building a relationship. Other times you might be forced to become more creative in your pursuit of finding a romantic partner. Whatever the case, while long distance is never easy, it is much more doable these days with all the social media that keeps us connected and has bridged that gap that might literally be between you. With Skype, Instagram, Twitter, Facebook, email, and even a good old-fashioned phone call, people can interact and feel like they are together even when there is a great distance between them. This allows couples to not only feel close, but also to actually get to know each other and begin to date when they aren't in the same town or, in some cases, the same country.

So if you are contemplating broadening your horizons, what is the best way to go about it, especially if your job is not going to take you someplace new? Consider this relationship advice. This might be particularly timely now that Valentine's Day is over and spring is right around the corner, both which might spark your desire to step outside your comfort zone to meet that someone. Here's how to proceed. Use a dating app, which is a great tool in this process. Many people flinch at the thought of doing so, because they have tried it and it didn't work out, or they had a negative experience, or they feel they should be meeting someone spontaneously instead of in this formalized way. Consequently, they have tried it and won't use it again, or are reluctant to use it in the first place. However, one bad date doesn't translate into all dating apps being useless. Proceeding that way would be like having a cut on your wrist and amputating your arm. By excluding them from your options you could wind up missing out on a terrific way to meet a great person who could be your friend or even more.

So instead of generalizing all dating sites, consider them individually. If you are ready to go abroad, AnastasiaDate.com, AsianDate.com, and AmoLatina.com are the apps for you because they specialize in international dating both in Europe and Asia. In using these apps you expand your search far and wide, give yourself the chance to experience the culture of another country, and create the opportunity to build travel into your lifestyle as well, all while achieving your main goal of finding love. Best of luck to Ed Sheeran and his girlfriend. They are the perfect example that absence makes the heart grow fonder.

Ed Sheeran's New Girlfriend is Taylor Swift-Approved!

By Sanetra Richards

Ed Sheeran's new girlfriend is Taylor Swift-approved. According to UsMagazine.com, the 24-year-old country turned pop singer has already been introduced to Sheeran's new love interest. Although he has managed to be very discreet about disclosing too much information on his latest partner, Sheeran did tell Us that she "works for a food company – well not a food company, she works for a chef." So, how exactly did Swift get to meet Ms. Anonymous? "We went for dinner in London," said Sheeran. "She likes her." He added that the secret girlfriend is indeed Greek and can whip up "anything Greek."

What are some ways to keep your relationship under wraps?

Cupid's Advice:

Whilst some choose to announce their new relationship right away, others choose to maintain that bit of mystery for a little while. But exactly how do you manage to keep it under wraps until you are ready to spill the beans? Cupid has some advice:

1. Lips are sealed: Before any other step, you and your new partner must agree to keep it a secret (unless you want to tell a limited number of close family and friends). However, if you really want to keep it all undisclosed, telling absolutely no one is the way to go. It is completely understandable because you and new love are fresh and wanting to see how things go before jinxing the relationship.

2. Avoid PDA: Holding hands and kissing is certainly the way to blow your cover. Everyone knows “just friends” are not that affectionate with each other. Save it for the private areas if you want to keep the whole secrecy mission going.

3. Play it cool: Try not to become too wrapped up in your partner, otherwise, people will notice. Your family and friends will begin to tell if you are becoming distant . . . and that is when the questions will begin. Balance your time with each until you are ready to announce the big news.

New Celebrity Couple: Selena Gomez is Hooking Up with Ed

Sheeran

By Petra Halbur

Rumor has it that Selena Gomez has moved on from Justin Bieber and has started seeing singer-songwriter, Ed Sheeran. "They are hooking up," a source told UsMagazine.com. Though Sheeran said that he was single at the MuchMusic Video Awards on June 16, he admitted that he "wouldn't complain" to being paired with a pop star. A second source explained that Gomez is attracted to Sheeran's independence and maturity. "She got sick of having to take care of Justin [Bieber] like he was her child. This is a nice escape from the drama," the source said.

How do you know when it's time to move on from an on-off relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

You can only put up with an on-again-off-again relationship for so long. Eventually, you have to decide whether or not to just move on. Cupid has some advice:

1. The situation isn't improving: If you keep breaking up over the same issues, then chances are those problems are not going away- ever. If these aren't flaws that you can live with, then you need to break things off now.

2. You're attracted to someone else: If you've noticed someone else who you think could offer you a more stable relationship, that might be a sign to end things with your current partner.

3. You're unhappy: You don't need a long, articulate excuse to justify ending your relationship. If being with your on-off partner isn't making you feel good, then that's validation enough to call it quits.

How did you know when to end your on-off relationship, tell us below.
