Sources Say Elin Nordegren Doesn't Approve of Tiger Woods Dating Lindsey Vonn

 By Kristin Mattern

Despite a recent six page report that Elin Nordegren approves of ex-husband Tiger Woods' girlfriend, Lindsey Vonn, UsMagazine.com claims that a source close to Vonn has told them this is simply not the case. The insider points out that Nordegren can't say anything to disparage Woods in the press or she will lose some of the $100 million she won in the divorce. "She still despises Tiger," the source commented. "As time goes on, it probably gets easier, but she definitely doesn't like having Lindsey around her kids." Another insider was quoted as saying: “[She] hates Lindsey Vonn and everything about this romance.” Apparently, the former model didn’t approve of Woods’ new girlfriend from the beginning.

How do you deal with jealousy over your ex’s new relationship?

Cupids Advice:

Getting over an ex is never easy, and when you ex has found a new lover, jealousy can blossom. The fact that your ex is happy and moving on with someone new can chafe at the lingering feelings you might still have, or simply be irritating if you aren’t in the same place. Cupid has some sage advice for getting over those jealous feelings your ex and his new boo are causing you to feel:

1. Be real with yourself: Pinpoint the true cause of your pain frustration over your ex-lover. This will take some soul searching, but ask yourself the real reasons you are feeling the way you are. Do you really miss your ex-sweetheart, or are you just jealous of the happiness you see him experiencing? It might not be him you want back, but the feelings your relationship once evoked. The more truthful you are with yourself, the faster you can begin to overcome your jealous feelings and move on.

2. Talk it out: Speak with friends and family about the way you are feeling. People who love you and know you the best can speak sincerely and candidly to you. If you are having trouble figuring out where your emotions are coming from, those closest to you might be able to hold up the mirror of truth for you, and perhaps offer some advice for how to get over the pain you are experiencing.

3. Know you will find love again: As the old cliché goes, there are more fish in the sea. While it sounds corny, believe that you will find love again and be just as happy as you see your ex being now with his new honey. Know that you are an amazing person, and that you will find someone else to care for. When you're ready, go out and have fun with your friends, when you're happy, you will attract others to you.

How Do You Handle Your Ex's New Partner?

 By Jane Greer, Ph.D. for GalTime.com

Some people are better at romance recovery than others. Recent reports suggest that Elin Nordegren is struggling to accept the new partner of her ex-husband, Tiger Woods. Though it has been rumored that he has been dating Olympic skier Lindsey Vonn for many months, they only recently went public with their romance, stating they are "happy" together. Elin and Tiger divorced in the summer of 2010. Their marriage ended in scandal when it was revealed he'd had multiple affairs, and was soon after treated for an apparent sex addiction.

Elin has been connected to billionaire Chris Cline, but that reportedly hasn't seemed to make it easier for her to accept the fact that Tiger's girlfriend is spending so much time with their children, and comments have been made about restricting his custody access. Though the trio managed to be civil at the kids little league games, it's not difficult to imagine why there may be some tension behind closed doors. What can people do to ease that tension, leaving those bad feelings behind and trying to finally let them go?

Related: Dating Advice: How to Introduce Your Kids to Your New Partner

Being betrayed is so traumatic, and then having to face feeling replaced by someone who is now taking the spot you used to occupy with your husband and children can be even harder to take. In some cases, your ex's new companion may even look like you, perhaps just younger. Adding to that, now you have to share your children with the last person on earth you would want them to be with. Sometimes betrayals are an outgrowth of unaddressed conflicts that were there for a long time and may have created a large enough rift for someone to get in between you. However, regardless of what might have been a catalyst for the infidelity, it doesn't diminish the intensity of the loss you have to face. Finding the maturity and emotional muscle needed to deal with this difficult experience can be a challenge.

Friends and family might respond by suggesting you just get on with it, and leave the other person in the past where he or she belongs. Even if that is hard to hear, it is the goal you want to strive for. Continuing to focus on your ex can unwittingly keep you stuck in your anger. Even if you have moved into a new relationship, all that negativity can hold you back and run interference in your life and with your current partner.

Related: Can You Date Your Friend's Ex And Keep Your Friend

Instead of using your anger and sadness to launch an attack that keeps you mired in the past, use it to disengage. Put boundaries in place: formalize the necessary times to see each other, be it for picking up belongings or dropping things off; begin to build up new support systems rather than looking to your ex when you have a problem in the house, a flat tire or too much laundry; if there are kids, limit communication with your ex to discussing only necessary subjects surrounding the logistics of their caretaking. Wherever you can, fill in and replenish the areas of your life where you feel the most loss. The more you do that, the less resentful and angry you are going to be.

None of this is easy, but if you become aware of how you direct your energy, you might be able to turn things around. Unfortunately for Elin, “hating” Lindsey Vonn, or any future partner or spouse to Tiger, will not heal the wounds inflicted by a devastating divorce. That effort could be better spent investing in herself and her new life.

Is Tiger Woods Capable of Being Monogamous with Lindsey Vonn?

 By Susan Trombetti, CEO of Exclusive Matchmaking and Relationship Expert

The breaking news this week is that pro golfer Tiger Woods and popular skier Lindsey Vonn are officially dating. Many are skeptical of this situation, as Tiger is still getting over his reputation as a cheater stemming from the scandal with his ex-wife, Elin Nordegren. Well, let me just say that Tiger has so many cheating scandals in his history that I doubt he could be faithful again unless there are some drastic changes involving his inner circle, lack of opportunity to cheat, and possible therapy.

Related: Kourtney Kardashian and Beau Get Therapy

Why, you ask? For one thing, he is surrounded by “yes” people who’s financial situation is dependent on Tiger. I don’t see them becoming moral against all odds and tying him up when he has the urge to cheat. They are loyal to him and will enable what isn’t good for him just to make him happy. They may rationalize: “It’s just women, and boys will be boys.”

Other celebrity examples of this is Anna Nicole, who was surrounded by enablers like her attorney, and Michael Jackson, who was backed up by his doctor. These are drastic examples, but it’s hard to say “no” when your boss says “jump”. In Tiger Woods’ case, he has his inner circle and his mother enabling his addiction to cheating. Plus, he has a history of it, as his dad cheated in the past. This is all he knows. In my opinion, what he really needs is some therapy or a 12 step program to become fully aware of the reasons behind his bad behavior and poor choice in so many trashy women. Then, Lindsey may have a chance.

Here are some signs that a guy might be a serial cheater and unable to commit:

1. He excludes the word “faithful” in his marriage vows and takes issues with it like South Carolina governor Mark Sanford.

2. He tells you he cannot be faithful to any one woman. Let's face it, that is what they are saying when he tells you he cheated on all his exes.

3. They have an addiction to cheating like David Duchovny.

4. They have cheated in the past, like Eddie Cibrian or Bill Clinton.

5. They are powerful men who think the rules don't apply, like Silvio Berlusconi and Arnold Schwarzenegger.

6. They are men with big egos, deep pockets, and lots of opportunity, like Kobe Bryant and Tiger Woods.

7. They tend to go for the "bad boy" or "bad girl" like Sandra Bullock did with Jesse James.

Tiger Woods and Elin Nordegren Reunite for Sake of Children

 By Jessica Conigliaro

Tiger Woods and Elin Nordegren finalized their divorce back in the summer of 2010—and not on the best of terms. They have made the mature decision to stay on good terms for the sake of their children. People reports a member of Woods's crew saying, "He's not getting back with Elin. That's never going to happen. They are co-parenting the children. Like any other mature adults, they have set aside their differences and are striving to be the best parents they can possibly be."

What are some ways to set aside your differences for your children?

Cupid's Advice:

Divorce can be messy no matter what the circumstances are. The love you once shared with you spouse turns to hurt and resentment. Your kids will surely be affected by this drastic family feud. Cupid offers some advice on how to keep them from feeling the burden:

1. Let go of the past: Spending time with your ex is inevitable if you have kids. Your son has a baseball game that both of you will be attending; things like that will always come up. Don't rehash on old arguments—especially not in front of the kids. It's in the past and will only hurt everyone involved when brought up again.

2. Be friendly: We all know how intuitive children can be. They notice everything around them. When their parents are fighting, kids become upset as well. Befriending your ex husband will not only make it easier for you to be around them, but will also make your children feel comforted knowing their parents can act civil around each other.

3. Do things as a family: For their whole lives, your kids spent most of the time with both a mother and a father. Now that you are divorced, it is safe to say that will change for them—but it doesn't have to completely. Invite your ex to the park next time you go, or plan family dinners. Your child will be happy to have his/her family together again—even if just for a meal.

Tiger Woods Parties the Night Away with Multiple Women After Golf Tournament

 By Jennifer Ross

Tiger Woods is back to his partying ways. On Dec. 1, the pro-golfer danced all night long at California's Westlake Village Inn right after his 14th Annual World Challenge Golf Tournament. An eyewitness reports to UsMagazine.com that Woods, 36, was surrounded by gorgeous women for most of his time on the dance floor. "Tiger was dressed in jeans and a beige sweater...At one point he was surrounded by a group of six women on the club's dance floor!" To further get into the partying mood, Woods requests the DJ to play, 'Tonight I'm F-ing You' by Enrique Iglesias. This set the mood just right as the ladies loved his persuasive music choice. As Woods enjoys his single life, ex-wife Elin Nordegren is busy creating her dream home on the coast in North Palm Beach, FL.

How do you know when it's time to stop serial dating and settle down?

Cupid's Advice:

The single life is a wild ride, full of meeting new people and partying nights. No matter what day of the week, you can easily find a hot partier for the evening or several evenings, always keeping true love at arm's length. Yet, something has changed and you no longer want to be single. To help you cross over to the monogamy side, here are a few clues telling you

it's time to settle down:

1. Being alone: You no longer feel the need to fill every spare minute of your single life with party time. Instead, you now enjoy being alone with your own thoughts. Feeling comfortable in your own skin with no one around is a good sign that you might be ready to share that time with just one person.

2. Slow party nights: On the nights that you do go out, your main interest isn't how many hot random people you can meet for future play dates. Instead, you now prefer to have a slower, quieter night out with a few good friends in a relaxing atmosphere. Clubbing all night just doesn't appeal as much anymore.

3. Open mind: When you spend time with potential mates, you are more open to understanding their quirks instead of comparing them to your "perfect mate" list. Matter of fact, sometimes you even leave the list at home and let yourself simply have fun exploring each other's personalities.

When did you know you were ready to stop serial dating and settle down? Tell us below.

Valentine's Day Duos: 5 Hollywood Relationships That Spiraled Out Of Control

 By Katanya Royster

Relationships can be hard work, and they require a lot of effort to be put in from both ends. When you both commit, it makes it all worthwhile- in most cases. While many relationships start off on a high note and continue on the path of blissfulness, others plummet to a place of irreconcilable differences, physical altercations and repeated infidelity. They end up heading straight to Splittsville. In fact, all you have to do is ask the following couples:

1. Chris Brown and Rihanna: Typically, the phrase “first love” invokes visions of butterflies, sunsets and all things untainted. But, in 2009, we saw an ugly side of first love. Singer, Chris Brown, was accused of assaulting his popstar girlfriend, Robyn “Rihanna” Fenty. At the time of the assault, Brown was 19 and Rihanna was 20. After pictures of Rihanna’s badly beaten face surfaced, fans immediately took sides. Some were ready to dismiss Brown’s actions as a forgivable misstep, while others were relentless in their criticism of him. Either way, it was the worst possible ending to a seemingly beautiful love story. Or was it? Recent tweets make it seem as if reconciliation may be on the horizon.

2. Russell Brand and Katy Perry: A shocked public let out a collective gasp when Russell Brand filed for divorce from his wife of 14 months. Failed Hollywood marriages are no surprise, but for some reason, we thought these two would be different. So what if Brand is a recovering sex addict and Perry is the daughter of evangelical ministers? We still thought this couple had a fighting chance. Brand’s boredom with the couple’s sex life and his inability to be alone, may have contributed to the couple’s marital problems, reported US Weekly.

3. Kim Kardashian and Kris Humphries. Many thought Kim and Kris' lavish wedding was a publicity stunt. So, when Kim filed for divorce after only 72 days of marriage, no one was shocked – except maybe Kris. The NBA star claimed he was surprised by Kim's actions and that he wanted to make the couple's marriage work. After the split went viral, Kim was embarrassed and, in a rare move, retreated from the public eye while her ex-hubby was booed in NYC during a basketball game. Thus, if the marriage was a publicity stunt, it may have been the worst one in history.

4. Kobe and Vanessa Bryant: In 2003, Kobe was accused of sexually assaulting a 19-year-old hotel employee. Kobe proclaimed his innocence, but admitted to infidelity and famously apologized to his wife, Vanessa, with a $4 million ring and a custom-made Lamborghini. It seems that Kobe's relationship patchwork was a bit like someone putting a Band-Aid on broken leg – a nice gesture, but it didn't actually fix the problem- a cheating husband. In 2011, after 10 years of marriage, Vanessa finally filed for divorce citing "irreconcilable differences,". Either way, a woman scorned, plus a husband worth $150 million dollars, minus a prenup, equals trouble. With that kind of money up for grabs, this downward spiral may have only just begun.

5. Tiger Woods and Elin Nordegren. Tiger Woods' fame had just as much to do with his clean cut image as it did with his amazing golf game. However, a one-car accident near Woods' and Nordegren's Florida home changed his reputation forever. A parade of women subsequently emerged and admitted to having affairs with the golf pro. In an attempt to save his marriage, the father of two spent six weeks in a rehabilitation program for sex addiction. Nonetheless, Nordegren filed for divorce granted on the basis that the couple's marriage was "irretrievably broken." Nordegren was awarded an undisclosed settlement amount thought to be in the neighborhood of $100 million dollars.

Tiger Woods' Ex Elin Nordegren Is Dating Again

Tiger Woods cheated, and it's time that his ex-wife moves on. For the first time after her recent divorce, Elin Nordegren is back on the scene, only this time, Woods isn't by her side. Nordegren has been spotted dating Jamie Dingman, a 31-year-old American financier. Nordegren and Dingman were found on July 12, kissing and hugging in Sweden, as reported by People. As of right now, there's no stamp on their relationship, but who knows what the future may bring.

What are some ways to “go with the flow” in a relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Forget the hassle of preparation, high hopes and constant wondering of where your relationship is heading. What are some good ways for you to go with the flow? Cupid has some tips:

- 1. Have fun, with a light heart: Relationships don't always have to be so serious. Let loose a little. It'll help you and your partner to bond on a fun-loving level.
- 2. Don't take anything too serious or personal: If you take everything to heart, there won't be any room for enjoyment. Over-analyzing things can sometimes cause a lot of issues in relationships.

3. Treat it like a friendship: Friendships build great foundations for almost all relationships. Kissing and hugging doesn't mean that your partner can't be your friend. With a friendship base, going with the flow might be a little bit easier.

Can being labeled as a "single" destroy your chance for romance?

Cupid's Advice:

Being known as an eternal single can actually be a hindrance to finding a serious relationship. Cupid has a few reasons why being sans boyfriend or girlfriend could keep you single:

1. Commitment-phobe: Male or female, when you bounce from one relationship to another without finding anything permanent, people might think you are afraid of commitment. If you're chronically single, you may also give the impression that you're a player and therefore unlikely to settle down.

2. Undesirable: While it can be fun to be single with no attachments, the opposite sex might think it's because there's something wrong with you. Even if that's not the case, people may jump to conclusions or tread with cautiousness if you're always riding solo.

3. Not serious: If you've never been in a serious relationship, it may send a message that you lack emotional maturity. Someone looking for a serious partner may not want to put their heart out there if they feel that the other person isn't able to sustain a long-term relationship.

How should you best come to terms that your marriage is over when it's time to split the assets?

Cupid's Advice:

Most couples are not dealing with the dollar figures that Woods and Nordegren are, or dealing with the public eye.

However, divorce is divorce, no matter how you slice it.
Cupid is here to help:

- 1. Face reality: Realize that the marriage didn't work out, and that life will now have new challenges. While there's no way to work through pain quickly, seek counseling, as well as help from family and friends during this difficult time.
- 2. Communicate: Whatever the reason for divorce, it will be hard on the both of you. Talk with a lawyer to review the assets in question, though the process may be easier if you and your ex try to work out what is best first.
- 3. Don't put the children in the middle: Speak with a lawyer to understand all custody options, including legal custody, child support, and visitation. As Cupid has mentioned in the past, it's important to try and maintain the lifestyle your child has become used to.
