

Celebrity Exes: Brooks Laich Steps Out Without Wedding Ring After Julianne Hough Split

By Ellie Rice

In the latest celebrity news, Brooks Laich was spotted out in Los Angeles without his wedding ring. The sighting comes after his recent split from Julianne Hough. The pair wed in mid-2017 and had been the source of multiple breakup rumors in recent months. We wish these two nothing but the best on their separate journeys!

This celebrity ex is letting his newly found single-dom be known. What are some small steps you can take to move on right after a split?

Cupid's Advice:

Break-ups are tough and moving on can feel impossible. If you're looking for ways to get that train rolling, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Unfollow them: If you know you'll be itching to stalk their social media profiles and constantly check-up on what they are doing, unfollow them. During this process, it's important that you are focusing on yourself and doing what's right for you. Wasting your time on their socials will only make moving on more difficult and longer. Try taking a break from social media all together! Detox from your screen and work on your self-care routine instead.

2. Cut the communication: While you may be thinking reaching out and continuing to seek closure is a beneficial thing, it will only hurt you in the long run. Once you break up make sure you understand what went wrong and why. After you receive this closure, don't continue asking to talk, it will only sour the split. By cutting off the communication, you will be able to completely focus on yourself and spend time working on your personal growth. Use this time to better who you are whether that's in your career or with your loved ones.

3. Turn to your support network: Nothing heals a wounded heart better than spending time with your friends and family. Tell them what's happening with your split and allow yourself to be vulnerable around them. Try planning a wine night with your girlfriends or a dinner with your family! Surround yourself with love and people who care about you and it will be a step in the right direction.

Celebrity News: Dua Lipa & Anwar Hadid Celebrate First Anniversary

By Ellie Rice

In the latest celebrity news, Dua Lipa and Anwar Hadid are celebrating their first anniversary as a couple. The pair made headlines last year as they were spotted kissing at a music festival. According to UsMagazine.com, Lipa and Hadid have been quarantined together in the U.K. during the pandemic. We love to see this kind of news!

In celebrity couple news, Dua Lipa and Anwar Hadid are celebrating one year together. What are some ways to make your anniversary special as the nation reopens?

Cupid's Advice:

After a long few months, we bet so many people out there are excited to take back their dating lives. Whether it's your first date or your engagement, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Get outdoors: After a few long months stuck inside, you're both probably dying to get outside and spend some time with Mother Nature. Take a look at your calendar and if you're anniversary is coming up like Dua and Anwar, then find a way to make it special. If your significant other loves to hike or hit the beach, then plan out a day for the two of you to explore and spend time together. This anniversary will definitely be one for the books, so think of what will make your partner really happy.

2. Go for a bite: Many places around the country have reopened their restaurants with the opportunity for outdoor seating. If your favorite spot has opened back up, then plan an anniversary meal! Surprise your partner with a day full of food and fun, it's definitely something many people have been missing. Maybe after your morning walk or hike you can head over to enjoy a delicious brunch. If you're both still not quite comfortable going that far, then take it to-go and head back home. Quiet time indoors with some great food works too!

3. Stay cautious: Just because things are starting to open up and become semi-normal again, doesn't mean that you should stop social distancing or wearing your face mask. Be cautious of your surroundings and make sure you are a safe distance from others. While you know where you and your loved one have been, you can't say the same for someone else! Don't rush out anywhere that you think may be overcrowded or highly populated. Be smart and continue checking in on your county's guidelines.

Celebrity News: Scott Disick Seen Dining With Kourtney Kardashian Amid Sofia Richie Split

By Ellie Rice

In the latest celebrity news, Scott Disick was spotted dining out with ex-Kourtney Kardashian and their kids. The sighting has fans on high alert as Disick and longtime girlfriend Sofia Richie's recent split was said to be because of his former flame. According to UsMagazine.com, Disick's focus was always on Kardashian and their kids rather than Richie. We hope all these celebrity exes can get along!

In celebrity couple news, Scott Disick was seen out with ex-Kourtney Kardashian amid his split from Sofia Richie. How do you know if you're still hung up on an ex?

Cupid's Advice:

Missing an ex is a common and sometimes inevitable occurrence. If you're wondering if you may fall into that category, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. You're constantly thinking about them: If the one thing that seems to always be on your mind is your ex, then chances are you're not over them. Think about the good and bad within the relationship and why it ended. If you went your separate ways for reasons that were fixable or poorly timed, then maybe reconciliation is in your future. For those whose relationship ended for valid and critical reasons, then you need to remember why the split took place. Nostalgia plays a selective highlight reel through our memory and focuses on the highest of highs, don't let this cloud your judgment.

2. You stalk their socials: Are you glued to your phone and constantly checking in on your ex's profiles? If that sounds like you, then you're probably not over them. This definitely isn't a healthy step in the moving-on process or any for that matter! Once you've split, unfriend and unfollow your partner. Cutting off this visibility is crucial for you to embark on the next stage of your life. Constantly checking in or stalking their pages isn't going to do you any good and may lead to your feelings getting hurt all over again.

3. You're still reaching out: Closure is a crucial part of the breakup process. It's important that the two of you have an open and honest discussion about why things ended so you're both walking away without any lingering questions. Once this has happened, it's important that you move forward with your life and work towards finding your own happiness. Stop trying to rehash the past or continue to ask your ex what went wrong. Accept that it wasn't the right path and focus on yourself.

Celebrity News: Prince Harry's Ex Cressida Bonas Feared Being Labeled 'It' Girl After Split

By Ellie Rice

In the latest celebrity news, Prince Harry's ex Cressida Bonas has opened up about life post-royal-split and how the relationship held her back. According to UsMagazine.com, Bonas feared her reputation would leave her branded as an "it" girl once the duo broke up, but she now has found the confidence to pursue her passions. The pair amicably went their separate ways in 2014 but remained on friendly terms as Bonas attended his wedding to Meghan Markle.

In celebrity news, Cressida Bonas was afraid of what people would think of her after her split from Prince Harry. What are some ways to keep your break-up from causing gossip and rumors?

Cupid's Advice:

Gossip and rumors can cause quite a rift in any relationship, often leading to a break-up. If you're wondering how to navigate the post-split waters without any of that negativity, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Stay on the same page: Break-ups are tough for both parties, even when they're amicable. Moving on from a relationship and person that's held such a prominent position in your life is challenging. If you're worried about people gossiping and starting rumors about your relationship, then you need to have a conversation with your ex-partner. Let them know how you're feeling and get on the same page about what's going on.

2. Be respectful: The last thing you want is to sour your split and have it turn messy. Once the two of you have gone your separate ways, be respectful. Honor the memories you shared and understand that it's now time to embark on a new chapter in your life. Unless your ex has done something awful, there's no need to soil and tarnish their reputation in the public sphere. You wouldn't want them speaking negatively about you without cause either!

3. Redirect: If you're finding yourself surrounded by gossip about your relationship, set the record straight, and then move on. Understand why it ended, respect the feelings and decisions within the relationship, and then move forward. Redirect the conversation to what you're doing with your future and the other stuff that's happening in your life. The ins and outs of your relationship are nobody's business but yours and your former partner's.

Celebrity Couple News: Scott Disick and Sofia Richie Are on a Break Post-Rehab

By Ellie Rice

In the latest celebrity news, Scott Disick and Sofia Richie have decided to take a break from their relationship. Sources exclusively shared with UsMagazine.com that Disick needs to get his act together before getting involved with their relationship again. Disick was seeking treatment to work through his past traumas, but left the facility after photos of him in attendance were leaked. We wish nothing, but the best for these two and hope they can work it out!

In celebrity couple news, Scott Disick and Sofia Richie are on a break after his latest stint rehab. What are some ways to support a partner or ex-partner recovering from addiction?

Cupid's Advice:

Supporting a loved one recovering from addiction can be difficult and emotional. If you're looking for a little guidance, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Take it slow: The recovery process is a long and continuous road for your partner and your relationship. Don't expect everything to change overnight, as your significant other is on their own healing journey. As they find their inner strength, so will your relationship. Be supportive and communicative with them by creating an open and honest environment at home. Allow them to transparently convey their emotions and feelings towards you, so you both can understand where your relationship is at. If you have an ex-partner going through recovery who is still a part of your life, be supportive of them as well. Check-in with them and spend time together participating in fun and lighthearted activities.

2. Build a support network: Letting your partner know that you support them and are with them every step of the way is so important. They need to feel love and care on the homefront. Remove any triggers from your home environment that you think could get in the way of their recovery process. Take them to their meetings or try engaging in couples therapy to continue rebuilding your relationship. Have family and loved ones provide support as well to show your partner how important they are.

3. Get adventurous: Come up with fun and exciting activities to go out and experience with your partner! Finding ways to celebrate each other and rekindle your relationship by engaging in substance-free activities is crucial. Go for a walk down the beach or go take a hike. Create a list of things or places that make you both happy and go from there. Rebuilding your relationship in alcohol and substance-free environments will be a great way to strengthen your bond and help your partner on their journey.

Celebrity Divorce: Judge Rejects Mary-Kate Olsen's Emergency Divorce Filing from Olivier Sarkozy

By Ellie Rice

In the latest celebrity news, Mary-Kate Olsen and Olivier Sarkozy are headed for divorce. According to UsMagazine.com, Olsen's emergency divorce filing was denied because of its "non-essential" categorizing. Olsen cited that she was afraid Sarkozy would force her out of their living space as her reasoning behind the emergency filing. The pair had been married for five years prior to the split, after meeting back in 2012. We hope these two are able to peacefully go their separate ways!

In celebrity divorce news, Mary-Kate won't be a single woman for a while yet, as her divorce filing wasn't deemed essential. What are some ways to navigate the transition from married to single amid a divorce?

Cupid's Advice:

Going through a divorce signifies a time for new beginnings and change. If you're curious about how to move forward and navigate this transition, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. One step at a time: Feeling comfortable in this new chapter of your life will take some getting used to. It's important that you acknowledge what went wrong and understand your emotional needs. Divorce is a serious and final solution to a relationship that isn't working out. By recognizing what led to its demise, you will be able to learn from it and move forward with your life. Seek professional help or group therapy if you are having trouble figuring your path out!

2. Build your support network: Surrounding yourself with loved ones and people you care about is crucial during this period of adjustment. There is nothing more powerful than the love of your friends and family, especially when moving on from a former lover. They will be there for you throughout this process to help you move on and live your wonderful life. Not only will your network be supportive while you're going through pain, but also when you feel ready to embark on the dating world once again! Don't be afraid to lean on these people and let them know just how you are feeling.

Celebrity Couple News: Kim Kardashian Needs Space From Kanye West

By Ellie Rice

In the latest celebrity news, Kim Kardashian has reportedly had enough of quarantine with husband, Kanye West! According to UsMagazine.com, Kardashian desperately needs space from her man as he is more focused on work rather than helping her with their three children. After six years of marriage, we hope West can compromise some of his time for the sake of his leading lady!

In this celebrity couple news, Kim Kardashian feels like she needs some space from husband, Kanye West while in quarantine. What are some things to do when feeling suffocated by your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

Feeling like you need a little break from your partner is normal. If you're curious about what to do when you're feeling like this, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Let them know: Your partner may not understand that they are making you feel suffocated, so letting them know should definitely be your first step. Sit them down and express how you're feeling so they understand how their actions are affecting you. People show love in different ways, so be honest with them about what makes you feel comfortable and supported. If you are requesting changes from your partner that they don't feel they can make, it's time to move on. Staying in a relationship that is emotionally suffocating will not benefit either of you or your mental health.

2. Make a change: Similar to Kim K, maybe you just need some space from your partner. Try taking a break by spending time with your friends and family, rather than just your significant other. Have a girls night or grab dinner with your parents! By minimizing the annoyance and anxiety you're feeling at home, you'll start to feel better about your partner. Encourage them to do the same by hanging out with their friends or loved ones. It's healthy for any relationship to take time away from each other to focus on the other people in your lives that you care about.

Celebrity Couple News: Hilary Duff Shares Heartfelt Tribute to Matthew Koma on Engagement Anniversary

By Ellie Rice

In the latest celebrity news, Hilary Duff posted a series of Instagram photos honoring her husband, Matthew Koma, to celebrate the anniversary of their engagement. The pair had been dating three years prior to the engagement and share a daughter together. According to UsMagazine.com, the happy couple met back in 2015 while Koma was producing one of Duff's music albums.

In this celebrity couple news, Hilary and Matthew are reflecting on the day they got engaged. What are some ways to make your engagement personal and memorable?

Cupid's Advice:

Aside from your wedding day and the birth of your child, getting engaged is one of the most special days of your adult life. If you're curious about how to make it memorable, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Capture the moments: Whether you are the one proposing, or you've just been proposed to, capturing this special moment is so important. Hire a photographer or enlist a friend to help make this time extra special and something you both can always look back on. If you've just been proposed to, take pictures of the ring and the two of you, so this day can last forever. You can show the pictures at your wedding, and take a page out of Hilary Duff's playbook and reminisce on social media!

Celebrity Break-Up: Kristin Cavallari & Jay Cutler Reach Temporary Child Custody Agreement

By Ellie Rice

In the latest celebrity news, Kristin Cavallari and Jay Cutler's divorce grows more complicated by the day. The pair announced their split last week after being together for over a decade. According to EOnline.com, Cavallari was blindsided by the divorce filings even though the pair have reportedly been having issues in recent months. They have now reached a temporary custody agreement which allows them both time with their three children. We hope these two can work it out and go their separate ways!

In celebrity break-up news, Kristin and Jay have at least agreed temporarily on how to take care of their children amid their split. What are some ways to compromise when it comes to your kids in a relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Once you become a parent, having to put your children's needs in front of your own is a must. If you're looking for ways to do that while maintaining a healthy relationship, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Set up a plan: In order to keep your relationship strong while trying to parent, it's important that you are always communicating. Having open and honest lines of communication with each other will allow you to work as a team. Set up a plan to establish what is happening for the weeks or months ahead. By doing this you'll be able to see what kinds of scheduling conflicts or personal events are taking place and who needs to cover what. Organization is key! Not only will this eliminate stress, but you will feel more connected to your family unit.

2. Think of your partner: If there's something coming up that your partner has really been looking forward to, be sure you are listening to them and acknowledging their desires. Make a compromise and offer to take care of the kids so they are able to do their thing. In the future, your partner will definitely offer to do the same. Even if it means that you're missing something you may have wanted, it's important to think of your relationship.

3. Respect their decisions: Before having children, think about some of the awesome experiences you'd like to check off your bucket list with your partner. Once children enter your life you'll be compromising a lot of time and money for years to come. Take this into consideration when family planning and try enjoying yourself for a little longer! Once you welcome children into your lives, make a plan with your partner for a vacation a few years ahead. Setting up a timeline will give you both something wonderful to look forward to with your kids.

In celebrity baby news, Anderson Cooper is a proud new dad to a baby boy! What are some ways to prepare your life for a child?

Cupid's Advice:

Becoming a parent is a joyous and momentous occasion that many look forward to in their lives. If you're looking for ways to prepare for this next step, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Make sure you're ready: The first step in gauging your preparedness for pregnancy is checking in with yourself. Taking care of your mental and emotional health is crucial before having a child. If you feel ready to become a parent and prepared for all of the wonderful yet challenging years ahead, then go for it. For those not quite there yet, take your time. This is not something to rush into! Many women invested in their careers or still exploring their lives have frozen their eggs, so do some research if you feel that might be an option for you.

According to UsMagazine.com, Hadid has always had her eye on motherhood and starting a family with Malik. We can't wait to see what the future holds for these two!

In celebrity baby news, this beautiful couple are expecting. What are some ways to strengthen your bond as a couple before welcoming a child?

Cupid's Advice:

It's important to strengthen your relationship and cement your love for one another before welcoming a child into your lives. If you're looking for ways to do this, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Explore: Once you begin your pregnancy journey, the next few years of your life will be chaotic and full of sleepless nights. Take this time before that happens to travel, adventure, and check some things off your bucket list! These experiences will strengthen your relationship and bond with your partner, so when the time does come, you will both be rock solid in your commitments.

In the latest celebrity news, Bachelor Nation's Victoria Fuller is rumored to be quarantined with her new man, former Bachelor Chris Soules in his hometown in Iowa. According to UsMagazine.com, the speculation intensified when the pair posted similar photos of a plowed field to their Instagram accounts on April 21. We love to see new relationships blossom during this uncertain time!

Bachelor* fans are really trying to figure out what's happening with Chris Soules and Victoria Fuller. What are some reasons to keep your relationship under wraps at first?

Cupid's Advice:

Navigating the rocky waters of the dating scene can definitely be challenging and once you've found someone, you won't want to let go! If you're debating whether or not to go public with your new relationship, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Listen to your partner: There are two people in your relationship and you always have to remember that. Even though you may have strong feelings towards a certain subject, your partner's opinions should be taken into account as well. Allow them to share their thoughts on publicizing your relationship or keeping it under wraps so the two of you are on the same page. If you are still exploring each other and your emotions, that's definitely a reason to keep it private.

Related Link: Relationship Advice: Susan Trombetti Talks Love & Dating Amid COVID-19

2. Think about the family: Take a new relationship slowly and move at your own pace. If you're not ready to share your relationship with your family, that is okay! Maybe they weren't too fond of your ex and that's left you wary of introducing them to someone new. Or they can be a bit overprotective and might scare off a new partner. Whatever the case may be, remember this is your life and you make the decisions.

Celebrity Couple News: Kate Beckinsale Defends New Relationship with Goody Grace

By Ellie Rice

In the latest celebrity news, Kate Beckinsale had to defend her new relationship with singer, Goody Grace from internet hate this past weekend. According to UsMagazine.com, an Instagram user tried to throw shade at Beckinsale and her rumored new beau, but she clapped back and stood up for her man. Beckinsale's dating choices have been a cause for controversy because of her past dating much younger men. We love to see a strong woman taking charge of her relationships!

In celebrity news, Kate Beckinsale isn't afraid to stand up for her relationship. What are some ways you can stand up for your partner in situations that call for it?

Cupid's Advice:

Just as it's important to stand up for yourself, you should feel confident protecting your partner as well. If you're wondering how to do that, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. To the family: If your family has a lot of critiques for your significant other or hasn't always been fond of your relationship, it's time to change their mind. Instances related to family are definitely one of the leading situations where you would need to stand up for your boyfriend or girlfriend. Don't be afraid to take charge of the situation and explain that this conversation will not continue unless you can be on the same respectful page. Explain to them how your partner makes you feel and the love you have for them. It might just take standing your ground for them to back down and understand your boundaries.

2. With your friends: Just because you joke around or vent about your relationship doesn't make it okay for your friends to do the same. If you feel like they are continuously crossing the line with their comments about your partner, then you need to have a conversation about it. Your friends just want the best for you so they may be coming from a place of worry or ignorance to their actions. Reassure them that their love for you is validated, but their behaviors have gone too far. Open and honest conversations are the best solution.

Celebrity Marriage: Michael Buble's Wife Luisana Lopilato Defends Their Marriage After Fans Slam Him for Elbowing Her

By Ellie Rice

In the latest celebrity news, Michael Buble's wife, actress Luisana Lopalito, defends the singer after a video of him appearing to elbow her creates a stir on social media. According to UsMagazine.com, the actress took to Instagram to address the claims and deny any sort of marital abuse had taken place. The pair met in 2009 and share three children together.

This celebrity marriage is strong, despite fan speculation. What are some ways to keep rumors about your relationship from affecting it?

Cupid's Advice:

Rumors spread quickly and inaccurately all the time. If they are factoring into your current relationship, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Address it with your partner: Sit down with your partner and openly talk about what's going on. Maintaining transparent and honest communication is crucial for any successful relationship. If the rumors that are hearing about your relationship are completely false, then talk them through with your partner and then brush it off. Unsubstantiated claims and falsehoods should not come between you two.

In celebrity news, celebrity exes JLo and Diddy reunited on social media for his dance-a-thon fundraiser. What are some ways to know you're ready to be friends with an ex?

Cupid's Advice:

Rekindling any sort of relationship with an ex is tricky, whether getting back together or developing a friendship. If you think you're ready and want to be friends with an ex, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Your feelings are platonic: If you feel as though you have completely moved on from any lingering emotions and heartache that one was, a friendship could be your next step. Understand yourself and your heart first and foremost and only embark on this path if you are truly ready for it. You don't want to fall right back into romantic love and wind up heartbroken again, so take it slow!

2. You've set boundaries: Understand that even though you are developing a friendship with this person, they are still your ex. The history that you share with this former partner was once very intimate so make sure you are setting boundaries for yourself and them. Sit down with your ex and establish the do's and don'ts of this newfound platonic union.

3. You've moved on romantically: If you've been with or at least thought about being with other people since the split, this is a sign you are ready for the path of friendship. Feeling yourself move on romantically from your previous relationship is a wonderful and freeing experience so be sure that you're ready for this interesting step. Many people won't develop a friendship after a breakup because they still have lingering feelings for their former partner, but if you miss this person in a platonic way, go for it!

Celebrity News: Former 'Bachelor' Peter Weber Breaks Silence on Kelley Flanagan Dating Rumors

By Ellie Rice

In the latest celebrity news, former Bachelor Peter Weber and Kelley Flanagan have sparked dating rumors after the pair were spotted together in her hometown, Chicago. Speaking openly on Nick Viall's podcast, "The Viall Files," Weber explained that while they are not currently dating, he would love for it to happen in the future. According to UsMagazine.com, the pair have been quarantined together in her apartment along with Bachelorette alum Dustin Kendrick.

In celebrity news, Peter and Kelley aren't dating, but they may be on their way to dating! What are some ways to get to know someone well before jumping into dating them?

Cupid's Advice:

Getting to know someone before you dive into a relationship is crucial. If you're looking for ways to get to know a potential partner, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Explore your feelings: If this is a potential partner that you've met on a dating app, try keeping it virtual for a while. Continue talking via texting and phone calls to build a layer of trust before you jump into a relationship. By getting to know each other on this level, you can be open and honest without it getting physical or too much too soon. Be aware of your emotions and move forward when you are ready.

3. Go on an adventure: Get to know this potential match by going on dates with them. Go for a hike or hit the beach! Explore the outdoors while enjoying each other's company. Spending actual time with someone and getting to know them on this level will help you decide if you see a future with them. Just because you are going on dates with them doesn't mean you are committing to anything, so be sure you are taking everything at your own pace.

2. Keep your independence: Even though you are in a committed relationship and sharing a lot of things with your partner, that doesn't mean that everything has to be done together. It's important to keep your individuality when in a relationship so you are growing personally and together. Be sure you're making time for your friends and hobbies as these are important aspects of your personal life.

Celebrity Couple News: Ben Affleck Is 'Very Supportive' of Girlfriend Ana De Armas

By Ellie Rice

In the latest celebrity couple news, Ben Affleck and Ana de Armas are still going strong! Their new relationship took off after costarring in their upcoming psychological thriller, Deep Water. According to UsMagazine.com, these two are quarantined together and enjoying exploring their feelings for each other. We hope to continue to see more of this blossoming relationship!

In celebrity couple news, this new duo is happy and quarantining together. What are some ways to know you're ready for a serious relationship with your new partner?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes finding the one can be a challenging journey. If you're unsure about seriously committing to a new partner, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. You see a future: If you look at your new partner and can envision a life together, this person is worth making a commitment to. Building a future with someone is a special part of life that every couple wants to commit to, but finding the right person can be a challenge. Be sure you are moving at your own pace and taking things slow, as these next steps will be huge for your relationship.
