Celebrity Parents: Eva Mendes & Ryan Gosling Are Running Into Trouble Teaching Their Daughters Spanish

By Bonnie Griffin

In the latest celebrity baby news, celebrity parents Eva Mendes and Ryan Gosling are discovering that children learn the language they hear the most. According to EOnline.com, Mendes, who is Cuban, wants her children to learn Spanish, but the actress is finding that what the children are actually learning is Spanglish. Mendez told The Talk that she speaks “Spanglish, and that’s what they’re picking up. So it’s adorable, but it’s technically not a language.” Even celebrity children say the darndest things.

Even celebrity parents have issues with various parenting efforts! What are three tips for teaching your child a foreign language?

Cupid’s Advice:

Teaching children a foreign language can be difficult, but if you start when they are young and remain consistent, you can teach them to be bilingual. Cupid has some advice:

1. Start teaching them while they are young: Young children have minds that absorb knowledge like a sponge. If you teach your child both languages from the beginning, they will learn quickly. When children are first learning to really speak, typically at ages 2 to 3, they can learn words quickly, even in two languages.

2. Teach them one word at a time: While formal lessons are an option, they are not a necessity to teach your child a foreign language. Use pictures and objects to teach them one word at a time, teaching them that the object or picture can be called two different things – one in each language they are learning.

3. Communicate with them in the second language: Choose specific times throughout the day where you communicate using the second language. Another option for this method is to have one parent communicate in English while the other communicates with their child in the foreign language they are learning. Consistency is key when your child is learning another language.

Cupid's Advice:

Life has a way at chipping away at a relationship. Cupid has some ways to keep the romance alive in your marriage.

1. Make date night a priority: Dating is what made you fall in love in the first place. So, it would make sense to keep at it to stay in love. But as we know life gets in the way. So, remember date night does have to elaborate or over the top, it could be something simple as a picnic. Just set aside time for each other each week for just the two of you to reconnect.

2. Don't give up: A relationship is a roller coaster, full of ups and downs. Romance in marriage is about choosing each other again and again. It's also about learning, growing and forgiving. It's about falling in love with each other over and over again no matter how hard it gets. Love only weakens when we stop giving it our all. So never stop.

3. Never lose the PDA: At the beginning of a relationship, you probably couldn't keep your hands off each other. Constantly holding hands, sneaking in an extra kiss or two, cuddling. Ask yourself how affectionate are you now? After a long period of time and kids' things can get a little trickery when it comes to the PDA. It's important to maintain that closeness that PDA provides. Physical touch should happen on a daily whether it's a peck on the cheek, holding hands or a slight pat on the butt. By maintaining the PDA you will be able to keep the romance alive.

Parenting Advice: How to Manage Being a Working Parent

By Dr. Jane Greer

The push and pull between holding down a job and taking care of a home is an ongoing struggle. It can be hard to balance taking care of the kids, pursuing a career, and getting all of the daily housework and chores done. If a mom is going back to work after taking time off to start a family, it can be even harder to transition into the workforce again. Eva Mendes has opened up about her struggles as a working mother of two. She talked about how difficult some of the simple things can become when you are juggling so much, even just getting dressed.

So what, if anything, is the answer to managing the tug of war and the potential chaos that comes with working and being a parent?

There are two things going on when a mom decides to go back to work after spending time at home with children. The first is something Eva touched on, getting the logistics into place. The second, and this one can often be even more difficult to deal with, is the guilt and longing that can go along with the decision to return to a job, and the transition of actually doing it. Not only might you want to be with your kids, but you also might feel you are not doing the right thing by leaving them with a nanny or at daycare. The hope is that you will be able to find a middle ground so you are not consumed by these feelings, and you are able to enjoy your work and be present there.

Related Link: Relationship Advice: Get the Birthday Gift Right

There is no one answer for all women, each one has to find her own way and her own balance. Here are a few things to keep in mind, though, as you navigate your way. The first is that while you may not be able to spend all day with your child anymore the way you are used to doing, know that research has shown that what is most important is the quality of the time you spend together, not the quantity. In other words, it is better to have one or two meaningful hours together a day, which you may be able to find before or after work, when you are completely focused on what your child needs, than it is to have all day every day when you are frazzled, possibly unfulfilled, and not paying full attention to your son or daughter. People often falsely equate the idea that being the “good enough mother “ means being with your child all the time. However, the term, used by Winnicott and other developmental theorists, in fact means setting aside your needs in order to be available and responsive to those of your kids, and in this way you are completely attuned to them, which ensures promoting their emotional well-being. This can be achieved in many different ways, and, in reality, it is how you spend the time you do have together, no matter how much it is in a given day, that really counts. With this knowledge, you may be able to set a few realistic goals which will help ease the transition back to work. For example, you might be able to carve out a chunk of time in the day or night when you can really tune in to your child, whether it be reading together, singing, or even having fun choosing an outfit for the next day.

Related Link: Relationship Advice: How to Cope with a Loved One Who Is an Addict

Some women, though, become so consumed with being a stay-at-home mom that it can really color the enjoyment of the job. Of course, sometimes there is a hard and fast financial element to deciding to go back, and if that is the case know you are doing exactly what your family needs, and keep in mind that the research is on your side. If you are more flexible, though, and it won't interfere with your sense of self, see if you can delay the return to work so you can continue to be physically and emotionally present for your children for a while longer. Some people choose to never go back to work. Making that choice really comes down to determining how crucial the work is to your well-being. If you know you will regret it and resent not being at work more, explore the possibility of finding a compromise, and try to come up with a plan where you are not away from home all day, maybe you can work part time or a few days a week.

It sounds like Eva is finding her way with that and doing what every mom has to do – confronting that fork in the road and looking at what will be the most meaningful and viable way to move forward for her and her children. Ultimately, that is all you can ask of yourself.

Source Says Ryan Gosling Cooks for Eva Mendes and Baby

By Laura Seaman

Yet another celebrity baby is on the way, and father Ryan Gosling is ready. The handsome Notebook actor has been caring for pregnant girlfriend Eva Mendes by both shopping and cooking for her. The couple first met in 2011, back when Gosling was quoted about wanting to have children. Now that it's happening, he seems just as excited. A source tells UsMagazine.com, "Ryan has already stepped into the role of caring father-to-be."

What are some ways to support your pregnant partner?

Cupid's Advice:

Pregnancy is a unique, magical experience. However, sometimes it can feel less than magical to the mother. Some tasks are harder and everything seems to drain your energy a little faster than usual. That's why it's so important to have a supportive partner around! Here are some ways to support your partner during their pregnancy:

1. Take the time to be there. If you want to show that you'll be a supportive parent after the child is born, show your support for your partner by being there here and now. Take some days off work, put your phone aside, and spend quality time with your partner. Talk about what they're feeling, what you're feeling, and what you can do to help them out on a day to day basis.

2. Read the books and go to the classes. Preparing for a child, especially if it's your first, can mean reading a lot of pregnancy and parenting books or going to birthing and parenting classes. It shows dedication if you actively take part in these prepping activities and your efforts won't go unnoticed.

3. Do some extra work around the house. Even if it's the seemingly small task of dusting a room, cooking a meal, or getting some beautiful flowers to put on the kitchen table, these are small things your partner doesn't have to do and will thank you for noticing. Parenting means teamwork, and this is an amazing start for you.

Eva Mendes and Ryan Gosling Are Having a Baby; Pregnancy Revealed

By Sanetra Richards

Yes, you read the headline right! UsMagazine.com reveals a source has confirmed that pregnant Eva Mendes and longtime boyfriend Ryan Gosling are expecting a bundle of joy. The news was verified shortly after rumors circulated around the web about the 40-year-old actress' seven month pregnancy. This will be the first child for the Mendes and Gosling. In an interview with Ellen Degeneres at the beginning of the year, the Hitch star joked about the pregnancy rumor frenzy that was happening: "It's so ridiculous," she said. "It all started because I didn't want to go through the scanners at the airport. You know those X-ray scanners, which are really creepy? They basically see you naked, right? And not only that, but there's a radiation aspect to it, so I always opt out."

What are some ways to keep your pregnancy under wraps?

Cupid's Advice: Expecting a baby is quite exciting! You are bringing a tiny human into the world, and there's no feeling that could possibly compare. For now though, you and your partner don't want anyone else to know your big news. Cupid has some tips to help you hide your baby-to-be:

1. Don't tell a soul: If you are waiting until you're further along in your pregnancy to break the news, your best bet is to keep your lips sealed. You can tell a couple of close friends and family members; however, everyone else is off limits!

For today's column, let's take a look at three celebrity couples that are on top of the media's radar— whether it's because of an odd pairing, an on-and-off-again relationship, or a surprising new coupling:

Mary-Kate Olsen and Olivier Sarkozy: The former child star turned fashion designer is rumored to be engaged to the banker, although she has yet to officially confirm the news. When this engagement was first announced, there was a collective “ew” heard around the world.

Olsen is 27 years old, while Sarkozy is 44 years old – but one can say that Olsen has experienced a lot in her 27 years.

Therefore, their 17-year age difference shouldn't be a major factor in this relationship. It's the visual of seeing them together that makes people stop and ponder a bit. She's a petite youthful-looking pixie, while he's over a foot taller than her and looks every bit of his four decades. In other words, he looks more like her daddy than her fiancé. Seeing the two of them with his teenage daughter definitely makes you do a double take!

Since Sarkozy and Olsen have been together, she seems to be completely drama-free. The two already live together in a six-million-dollar home in New York City, and the fashion designer has shown how she will be as a stepmom to Sarkozy's two children. So the next step appears to be marriage. I can see them getting married secretly and having a baby together before the relationship hits a major bump.

Eva Mendes and Ryan Gosling: Are they together or not? That's the question. The two of them haven't been photographed together for over three months. In the midst of the break-up rumors, she has been seen walking his dog, while he has been seen driving her car and peeking over her fence. One report even had the actor rekindling his relationships with his The Notebook co-star Rachel McAdams, who he admitted was his first love.

Maybe the twosome are just having fun and like to keep us all guessing. It could also be a way to get people interested in Gosling's directorial debut How to Catch A Monster, which Mendes stars in.

In looking at their relationship energy, I feel like these two can't figure out what they're doing. Either they commit to each other 100 percent and get married or buy a house together, or they split and move on. Part of why they're staying together is their comfort level.

Also, might I add that it looks like things in the bedroom are quite fabulous. Let's keep it real: Good loving will make anyone stay around a little bit longer!

George Clooney and Amal Alamuddin: It has finally happened: Clooney is dating a woman who has beauty and brains. This isn't to throw any shade at the lovely ladies he has dated in the past, but his new girlfriend has some major girl geek credentials. Alamuddin's resume includes a career in international law, fluency in French and Arabic, and a degree from Oxford. Plus, she's an author.

Some say that she's way out of Clooney's league. While the actor is no Oxford grad, he is deeper than some of his former dating choices. Let's not forget that he normally makes his intellectual statements in the movies that he produces and directs.

There is speculation that he staged the recent photos of the couple in New York because he's upset that his ex Stacy Keibler got married and is expecting a baby less than a year after their break-up. I won't go so far as to say that Clooney cried over Keibler's big news, but it bruised his ego a bit. He's used to his exes looking a little pitiful in the press when he drops them, whereas the beautiful blonde rebounded with a win.

His relationship with Alamuddin will have a typical Clooney run. She will accompany him to events, vacations, and other high-profile outings. However, she will bore of him versus him getting bored with her. She's a woman of many layers; Clooney picked a lady who will give him a run for his money.

What are some important characteristics to look for in a mate?

Cupid’s Advice:

For your own sanity of mind you should look for some characteristics above others. You need to evaluate the aspects you idealize in a partner and make those a priority. Though these are some essential examples of what you should focus on:

1. Similar values: It’s important to be aware of your partner’s priorities. Are they the type who can enjoy a monogamous relationship? Even if you’re just casually dating, you should make sure you're both on the same page. At the very least, any relationship should have honesty and trust.

2. Upfront attitude: As you grow closer, it's natural that you'll learn more about your partner's life. Eventually you should have a good idea of how your significant other spends their day. If you're often surprised by your partner's actions, then you should question how much you know. For your own dignity you shouldn't invade your partner's privacy, but if they should not be resistant to communicating, and dispelling your doubts.

3. Demonstrates respect: No matter how you've tailored your relationship dynamic, it should include respect. When you feel your significant other's respect, trust comes more easily. Your partner should treat you well in public, and consider your feelings when acting.

What are some unique travel destinations for new couples?

Cupid's Advice:

New couples dream of a getaway for some one-on-one time, but finding the perfect destination can be difficult. Here are some unique travel destinations so that your vacation doesn't fall into the 'been there, done that,' category:

1. Ice hotel in Quebec: If you have already been to Quebec, experience it like you never have before by staying at an ice hotel called the Hôtel de Glace. Your room and even your bed is made of sculpted ice, giving you and your partner a chance to cuddle in an arctic sleeping bag together to keep cozy.

2. Madagascar: Madagascar, just off the Eastern Coast of Africa in the Indian Ocean, is a perfect isolated getaway for new couples to not only relax, but to explore. Whales can be seen from the beaches, and ninety percent of its native plant life is found nowhere else in the world, giving new couples a chance to experience new things together.

3. Mosquito Bay: Mosquito Bay is a bioluminescent bay located on the shore of the island of Isla de Vieques, Puerto Rico. The bay illuminates in a bright blue light due to organisms in the water being shaken. A tour on this bay would be a magical night and a once in a lifetime experience for new couples.

Eva Mendes Gets Giggly Over Ryan Gosling on 'Ellen'

Actress Eva Mendes appeared on the Ellen DeGeneres Show, and she managed to keep her rumored relationship with heartthrob Ryan Gosling under wraps – sort of. The talk show host didn't exactly assume that the couple was dating or that they'd ever even met, but she did get Mendes a gift to give to the Crazy Stupid Love actor in case she happened to run into him. Supposedly the two movie stars have something in common, and that's their love for onesie pajamas. "Because he likes them so much, when you see him – if you see him, if you run into him – I've got a gift that I think both of you would have fun [with]," DeGeneres joked, according to People. "[This could] especially [work] as an icebreaker when you meet him for the first time."

What are some ways to keep a new relationship a secret?

Cupid's Advice:

You wouldn't want to spoil a new relationship by letting word get out too quickly! Cupid has some tips to keep things quiet until you're ready to go public:

1. Location: If you're going out on a date, don't pick a hot spot where you know there's the possibility of seeing friends or family. It will be fun to explore a new area and go to a restaurant that you've never been to before as a couple.

2. Rumor mill: The best way to prevent rumors is to withhold any kind of information that can get the mill churning. If you have friends or co-workers that you know are nosey-nellies, avoid talking about your new found crush in front of them.

3. Play it cool: When you start dating someone new it can be the only thing that's on your mind, but if you want it kept a secret, you have to learn to be subtle. If people question you, reply with a friendly answer and nonchalant tone to make it seem like it's not a big deal.

Reduce Stress and Maximize Romance this Winter

By Lindsay Kriger

During the hectic holiday season, it's easy for stress levels to rise, which can sometimes equal the downfall of romance and intimacy.

To ensure you and your sweetie don't turn sour on each other, here are some of my personal tips for relaxation that you and your partner can practice to help keep you breathing easy this season:

1. Devote a little time to indulging in like-no-one's-watching fun.

Newlyweds Nikki Reed and Paul McDonald are known for loving to hit the dance floor. They've been seen together at many a club cutting a rug. That said, it's time to take their lead and relax with your mate by going out dancing. You'll not only enjoy an intimate evening due to sensual physical contact, you'll also melt away stress and raise your serotonin levels with all that great exercise. And you'll burn lots of calories to boot – by shaking your booties!

2. Share spiked hot cocoa by a fireplace.

If no fireplace is at the ready, light lots and lots of candles. Bring some blankets into the mix. A touch of quiet flame-lit togetherness will soothe your addled nerves, and it's has been known to seriously soften the mood.

3. Get outdoors with your sweetheart.

Take a cue from lovebirds Ryan Gosling and Eva Mendes, who were recently photographed strolling around Paris hand-in-hand. Even if Paris isn't in the cards this winter, getting outside and breathing in some chilly fresh air might be an invigorating and rejuvenating move. Leaving your phone at home, put on your coats, hold hands and walk together – even if it's just around your own neighborhood. It'll enable you to devote time to connecting, talking and truly listening to one another – all of which are essential steps to strengthening your bond.

4. If it's too cold to venture outside, stay in and cook together.

Learn how to bake apple pie from scratch. Rolling and punching dough is fantastic stress relief – plus it's kind of sexy. Also, studies have shown vanilla and cinnamon to be some of the ultimate aphrodisiac scents, so be sure to mix lots of these flavors into your recipe.

5. Take a hot bubble bath together.

While you're at this indoor-activity stuff, since the weather is foul, climb in a hot bubbly bath together. Lots of delicious-smelling products and lots of physical intimacy are your ticket to a stress-free night. It's like a free couples' therapy session.

6. Do yoga – and strrrreettttttccchhh the stress out of your body.

On your own, yoga is great for your mind and body and can really help reduce the anxieties of everyday life. Bringing your partner into the experience is great, too, as it adds in a touch of sensuality. After all, it's always wonderful to have the opportunity to touch and be touched by your partner.

As you each help the other to move your bodies in new ways, it might even give you new ideas for how to move your bodies once you're off that yoga mat. Yep, a few good downward-facing dogs and you may both find yourselves feeling refreshed and energized for romance in no time!

Eva Mendes Meets Ryan Gosling's Mom

It seems as though Ryan Gosling brought in the New Year right with his two leading ladies by his side. After spending some quality time together earlier during the day on Sunday, Gosling and his mother, Donna, met up with Gosling's girlfriend, Eva Mendes at an AMC movie theater in uptown Manhattan. A source told People that Gosling and Mendes seemed very happy as the trio hung out and went to the movies together.

How do you prepare to meet your partner's parents?

Cupid's Advice:

Meeting your partner's parents is a big deal; sometimes their feelings about you can give your mate the final seal of approval ... or at worst, denial. Cupid has some advice:

- 1. Dress appropriately: When it comes to meeting your mate's parents, especially for the first time, it's always best to wear something respectable and not so revealing. You want them to focus on getting to know you instead of giving a bad first impression as soon as you set foot outside of the car.

Think classy instead of tacky.

2. Be social: Sure, meeting the parents for the first time can cause you to become a bit nervous, but make sure to remain calm and cool. Ask questions and casually keep the conversation going to show them that you're just as interested in getting to know them as they are in getting to know you.

3. Be you: There's nothing worse than being fake, and it's pretty obvious when you're doing it. The important thing parents want to know and see when they meet you is why their son or daughter fell in love with you. Be honest and confident.

Ryan Gosling and Eva Mendes Take a Morbid Tour of Paris

Death has never been this romantic for Ryan Gosling and Eva Mendes. The couple spent their date night Friday evening touring Paris' famous Pere-Lachaise, or "City of the Dead." The area is the final resting place of celebrities such as Jim Morrison, Oscar Wilde and Edith Piaf. Following their tour, Gosling, 31, and Mendes, 37, went down to the city's famous Catacombs of Paris, a location where over 6 million Parisians are buried. Despite all of the death, the couple stayed close. "They were holding hands and there was a lot of tenderness between them," an observer told People.

What are some creepy, yet romantic, date ideas?

Cupid's Advice:

Although rather unorthodox, a scary date may help you and your love interest push each other outside of your comfort zones to a place of bonding. Cupid has a few suggestions:

1. A deathly hallway: A haunted house is a great way to spice things up on a cool evening. It will keep you both close and give you both a few laughs and scares later on.

2. Scary movie marathon: No, we're not talking about satirical slasher films. On a night in, watch some movies that scare you both a bit, and cuddle up to each other for comfort.

3. Cemetery walk: On the surface, a stroll through a cemetery may seem weird, but a night walk is always a great way to talk, and with no loud distractions near you, it'll be easier to listen. It may even be peaceful.
