In celebrity news, it looks like the relationship between Meghan Markle and her dad may not be repairable. According to UsMagazine.com, during a celebrity interview, Thomas Markle had a lot to say about the royal wedding. Although there was a lot of celebrity gossip going around about Markle, in the interview he cleared things up. Markle was upset because he did not receive a formal invitation nor was he allowed to make a small speech congratulating the new celebrity couple. As much as Duchess Meghan would like to fix her now famous relationship with her father, it looks like it will be a long time before that happens.

In celebrity news, additional details are coming out about Duchess Meghan's dad's involvement in the royal wedding. What are some ways to keep family drama out of your big day?

Cupid's Advice:

As exciting as your big day is, planning it can often be stressful because of family drama. Cupid has some advice on ways to keep family drama out of your big day:

1. Plan smart: The most proactive way to eliminate any possible problems on your big day is to plan ahead. If Uncle Louie doesn't like his ex wife, don't have them sit near each other. While you can't control who will sit near who during the ceremony, the reception is easily where you have more of a handle on what happens. Although it is your big day and you want to enjoy it the way you want, sometimes you have to bite the bullet and compromise on some things. It's safe to say you rather get to have a wedding with family rather than a wedding turned WWE Smackdown match.

2. Set everyone straight: An aggressive yet proactive way to deal with family drama spilling onto your big day is to simply address it. Let your family know that you will not tolerate any issues on your big day. With emotions running high during a day like a wedding, it is important to speak to anybody who may pose a threat to your big day. Remember keep it short, sweet and respectful. Sometimes people need to be reminded that it's YOUR day and not theirs.

3. Be prepared: Not only mentally, but physically prepare yourself. It may sound negative but depending how much drama you have, you may need to prepare for the worst. As funny as it sounds, it may help to even ask a few trustworthy people to help out incase any unforeseen issues arise. It is your big day and sometimes there are those few that don't remember that. With this, you can keep it mostly to yourself and be able to deal with it without interrupting your festivities.

This week, celebrity news outlets explored that idea as Disick has been apologizing to everyone, especially Kourtney, after his fourth visit to rehab. According to UsMagazine.com, Disick is really committed to his therapy treatment and his top priority is winning back his old flame. An insider revealed that he also wants to make a reappearance on Keeping Up With the Kardashians as “he needs the money.”

It seems Scott Disick is always in # celebrity news lately. What are some reasons to forgive your ex for their mistakes?

Cupid's Advice:

Once you have lost trust, forgiveness is hard to give. However, sometimes finding in your heart a way to be compassionate is the right path to take. The inevitable mistakes that humans make should not always be punished with hatred. Cupid has a few reasons why forgiving an ex just might be the right move for you:

1. It allows you to release difficult emotions: Unless you acknowledge your irritable feelings of blame, guilt and anger then you will never be able to feel better. Forgiving does not mean forgetting and it also doesn't mean you have to let their actions slide. Forgiving does allow you to clear your mind and heal.

2. It teaches us to keep our standards reasonable: Sometimes we become so engulfed in an argument that we don't even realize how we are overreacting. We cannot be right 100% of the time so giving your partner the benefit of the doubt might help save your relationship and also show that we are setting the bar too high.

3. Forgiveness leaves room for love: Even if you and your partner can't find a way to make it work together, you can still have a feeling for love for them as a friend. Forgiving them allows you to keep that bond and blossom into something new and possibly better!
