

Fashion Advice: 3 Secrets to Finding the Perfect Dress for a Formal Event

By Rayne Parvis

Do you have a wedding out of state, red carpet event, gala or other formal occasion that you want to look top notch for? If you hate shopping, you may be overcome with fear and anxiety. Don't panic!

Follow my three secrets to finding the perfect dress while having a pleasant shopping experience.

1. Do your research:

What will the weather be like? Is it a day or night event? If it's a day event, start with lighter colors. If it's a night party, shop for the darker colors. I always find it strange when it's a hot summer day and you see ladies sporting a long sleeve black dress. In my opinion, it's just too heavy of a color. In contrast, you'll see pastels being worn on the red carpet at night and they don't seem to pop as well as bright jewel tone colors. In addition, you want to enjoy your evening and not worry about being too hot, cold or uncomfortable.

2. Wear the Perfect Shapewear and Undergarments:

Whether you are smoothing your post baby bod, camouflaging those extra holiday pounds, are a size 2 with a few lumps here and there or want to look 5 -10 pounds slimmer there is a shapewear for everyone. Celebrities of all sizes like Cate Blanchett, Emily Blunt, Oprah, Miley Cyrus, Katherine Heigl, Miranda Lambert, Brooke Shields, Tina Fey all swear by Spanx on the red carpet. When trying on dresses wear the undergarments you will be wearing with the dress. A bad panty or shapewear can make the dress not look as great. Therefore, taking longer to find a flattering fit.

3. Take a Selfie:

Before you buy that gown, take a selfie from the side, front and back. It's hard for us to see ourselves as the world sees us when we are looking in the mirror. When you take a photo and then look at it you are getting a subjective view. Most formal events have a ton of cameras! You want to make sure the dress is accentuating you and all your favorite parts from every angle.

Fashion Advice: ‘Wow’ the Crowd with Color

By Rayne Parvis

We all remember the infamous little black dress in “Breakfast at Tiffany’s” that Audrey Hepburn wore. She looked classy, irresistible and sophisticated. And from that point on, the LBD was our go-to pick. However, if we were to see that same dress in on one of our favorite red carpet stunners, we would be unimpressed. When choosing the perfect colored dress or outfit, celebrities’ color analysis- trained fashion stylists and everyday people who have an educated style, know black isn’t always their friend. They want their dress or outfit to pop and ‘wow’ the crowd.

In latest fashion advice, follow these three steps to wearing color and you'll be rockin' :

1. Go Monochromatic: Choose different hues, tints and shades of the same colors. Gigi Hadid, Kendall Jenner and Rihanna have all tried the outfit magic of monochromatic.

2. Know Your Skin Tone: Are you warm or cool? Everyone resonates with one of our four seasons: winter(cool), spring(warm), summer(cool) and autumn(warm). Wearing colors from your color palette/season will definitely make you look younger, vibrant and refreshed. In contrast, colors opposite of your palette will make you look drab and not so fab. If you are warm toned, you probably look better in gold, have a yellow tint to your skin and have green veins (look at your wrist). If you are cool toned, you look better in silver, have a pinkish tint to your skin and have blue veins. For example, if you are a spring and when you wear pastels or black by your face you'll look washed out and sickly. Jewel tones over the cool color palettes will complement your skin tone.

3. Choose Tans, Olive Greens and Dark Blues Over Black for Neutrals: Unless another part of your outfit has black in it, black can be very hard to match and can overpower your outfit. Choosing a different shade of neutral will add a stylish element as well as tame any bold color.

You may not be on the big screen or on the red carpet but that doesn't mean you can't look chic. If you're confused read Chapter 3 in Ultimate Guide to Style: From Drab to Fab!.
