

Celebrity News: Are Khloe Kardashian & French Montana Getting Back Together?

By Megan McIntosh

Though they were previously a thing, French Montana and Khloe Kardashian are not a celebrity couple, according to UsMagazine.com. After Kardashian's divorce from Lamar Odom, she moved on with French Montana, but admitted that she "was not in a good place" when they dated. Now, after her breakup with Tristan Thompson, she is currently "not thinking about her love life at the moment" and is instead focusing on her daughter, True.

In celebrity news, it seems this rumor is unfounded. What are some reasons you should think twice before getting back together with your ex?

Cupid's Advice:

It can be difficult to know when it's right to rekindle an old flame. How do you know you shouldn't take that step and try getting back together; that it's time to really let it go and move on? Cupid has some advice:

1. Nothing has changed: What was the reason you broke up with your partner? Is that still an issue between you two? If nothing has changed since you broke up, then there's no reason to get back together. The issue will only re-emerge and cause a future break up.

Related Link: Celebrity Break-Up: Adele & Simon Koneckis Call It Quits

2. The reason you're returning isn't a good one: Why are you getting back together with your ex? Is it because you genuinely have a connection, or is it because you want closure? Never return to an ex because you don't understand the break up. If you broke up, there must have been a reason. If that reason still stands, so should the break up.

3. It might be a rebound: Never rekindle an old flame for a rebound. If you broke up with someone, there's no reason to return to another ex as a rebound. If there's no emotional attachment, you can try to have fun. But, inevitably, feelings always pop up. If you want to rekindle with an old flame, it should only be you two involved in the why.

Iggy Azalea Clarifies Celebrity Relationship with French Montana

By Nicole Caico

Nothing to see here! After leaving together from Jennifer Lopez's All I Have show at Caesar's Palace, Iggy Azalea and French Montana were rumored to be headed for a celebrity relationship. According to EOnline.com, Azalea silenced dating rumors after the 2016 Maxim Hot 100 party saying, "No, we're [just] collaborating." So it looks like the rappers are not a celebrity couple after all.

Apparently there's no celebrity relationship to be found here. What do you do in the face of relationship rumors involving yourself?

Cupid's Advice:

Rumors spread fast, and it when a relationship rumor involves you, only you can shut it down. Here's how to end the rumors before things go too far:

1. Ally: A relationship rumor has to involve you and at least one other person. The first step to successfully shutting down a relationship rumor without hurting feelings is to contact all parties involved and get on the same page. If each person involved is disseminating the message that there is no real relationship, the rumor should die out rather quickly.

2. Use your resources: Giving your most talkative friend all the correct information can almost guarantee that the rumor will get shut down. When people want the gossip, they won't come to you directly; they'll probably chat up your closest friend. Feed your friend the right lines and that information is what people will run with.

3. Distract from the gossip: If all people are concerned with is your rumored relationship, give them something else to talk about. Make posts on your social media accounts that are about other bigger and better things you've got going on. Hopefully people will start talking about your new job or most recent vacation instead of the supposed relationship drama.

There may be a new celebrity couple in the works! What are some ways a one night fling can turn into a long-term relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

The number of people you know who ended up engaged because of a one night stand might be a very low number, but that doesn't mean a hook-up can't turn into a relationship! Here are some ways to turn your one night fling into an every night fling:

1. All about the follow up: Make sure you've got a name and a phone number, and once you, do don't be afraid to use it. Wait a day or two, then text or call your one-night-boo. Let her or he know you had a good time, and make plans to meet up again. If you don't contact your hook-up, there is no way a relationship will form between the two of you.

2. Make your intentions clear: Ideally this would have been done before the one-night festivities began, but it's never too late to define the hook-up. Let the person know that you may be looking for something long-term. Who knows? Maybe they are, too.

3. Play it cool: If you put yourself out there and the person you hooked up with isn't responding at all, drop it. Coming on too strong after a one night fling could freak the other person out. Give them some time before you get angry.

Celebrity News: French Montana Buys Kylie Jenner Roses

By Nicole Caico

Kylie Jenner documented part of her night out with rapper French Montana on her Snapchat story recently. Montana joked about Jenner's car choices, and also bought her roses from a street vendor. Montana first made his way into the Jenner/Kardashian circle as the boyfriend and other half of a celebrity couple with Khloe Kardashian. Khloe is currently single and focusing on her celebrity divorce from Lamar Odom, but Montana is part of the family circle. In the latest episode of Keeping Up With the Kardashians, Montana comfortably hangs out with Scott Disick in his new house. E! News reports that Montana doesn't just hang out with Jenner and Disick, but is also friendly with Kourtney and Rob Kardashian.

This celebrity news has us questioning just who is interested in French Montana! What are some ways to avoid crushing on the same person as your friend or sibling?

Cupid's Advice:

While it doesn't seem that any woman from the Kardashian/Jenner family is currently dating French Montana, never say never. Falling for the ex-flame or current crush of a friend or sibling tends cause issues, but in some cases can't be helped. Before you go falling for the same person as a friend or sibling, think about it:

1. This relationship will hurt your friend/sibling: Even when a friend or sibling plays it cool about you crushing on the same person they are or have in the past, they're most likely not okay with it. If you're crushing on the same person, chances are your jealous and competitive sides will be on full display. Think about the importance of your relationship with your friend or sibling, and realize that pursuing this romantic relationship will hurt the relationship you already have with your them. Chances are the crush isn't worth it.

2. History repeats itself: If you're crushing on the ex of a friend or sibling, do some research on the reason they broke up. If the person treated your friend or sibling badly at the end of their relationship, that should warn you to stay away.

3. Girl code: It can be as simple as this—who saw the person first? If your friend or sibling was crushing first, you should have the courtesy to back out. In situations like this, it's important to be open with your friend or sibling so you're on the same page and can avoid fights.

you reunite with an ex?

Cupid's Advice:

There is nothing wrong with a friendly reunion with your ex. However, when you reunite with your ex, you should be careful and prevent any disappointments from causing heartbreaks. Cupid has some dating advice for you:

1. Don't let your ego get to you: There may be a time where you were rejected by your ex and this caused you to have a "never-give-up" attitude on winning them back. Don't try to win them back and prove them wrong! Let your ex go and work on being friends.

2. Don't think sex is the solution: If you have sex with your ex, it is not necessarily a sign they want to be with you again. Intimacy can definitely play with your emotions, so it's probably best to stay away from it altogether unless you really decide to give your relationship a go again.

Khloe Kardashian Opens Up About Dating French Montana After Split from Lamar Odom

She went on to say that the rapper is a good person, but that right now, she needs to mourn the loss of her marriage.

How do you know if your current relationship is a rebound?

Cupid's Advice:

After the end of a relationship, it can be tough to know what to do with yourself, especially if you were with your ex for a long period of time. It can be lonely! That being said, it's important to begin a new relationship for the right reasons and not just so you can have companionship. So how can you tell if you're rebounding? Cupid has some ideas:

1. You don't care about the other person: Your new significant other makes you feel great and does all of the right things, for the right reasons, at the right time. Unfortunately, you don't feel a spark, and if they said goodbye tomorrow, it wouldn't be a big deal. If you're only in your current relationship because you like how you're being treated, but you're not interested in reciprocating, think about moving on.

2. Your eyes are always open: You want attention and the assurance that you've still got it. If you're constantly seeking the approval of members of the opposite sex, even though you're in a new relationship, you might not be ready to settle down just yet.

What are some ways to decide whether to give your ex a second chance?

Cupid's Advice:

Second chances are a tricky business because most of the time there was a valid reason why the relationship came to an end. But if you want to try again, here is some advice on how to decide:

1. Review the results: Although it is good to not dwell on the past, in this particular situation you should go back and remember what went wrong and what went right. From there, determine whether it could work moving forward.

Khloe Kardashian Says French Montana is Too Needy

By Sarah Batcheller

Eight months into what has been somewhat of a controversial relationship, Khloe Kardashian and rapper boyfriend French Montana are taking a break, according to UsMagazine.com.

Montana was previously scrutinized by Khloe's family and fans when he admitted he was capitalizing on all the attention he began to receive when he started dating the youngest of the Kardashian princesses. Now, he is apparently behaving in too much of a needy and dependent fashion, as Khloe has decided to take a breather from their intense relationship.

How do you know when you need to step back from a relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

1. You've been having the same arguments repeatedly: If you and your boo are continuously arguing over the same topics, it may be time to clear your head, and find out if these arguments are even worth having. If you're always entangled in the same issue, you probably don't even know where your feelings and/or opinions stand anymore, so you definitely benefit from some "me time". That way, you can step back into the relationship with a reinvigorated sense of self, and determine whether or not your love is worth fighting for.

Related: Dating Deal Breakers

2. You never have time for the rest of your loved ones: If your partner is constantly nagging and guilt-tripping you into seeing them, and you're sick of not spending time with anyone but them, you may need to give them a reality check by asking to not spend time together for a while. It's unhealthy to not spend quality time with family and friends, especially when the cause is that you're being choked to death by your significant other. If you're losing the rest of your life over a relationship, re-examine your priorities.

Related: How to Move On After Heartbreak

3. Your lover never has time for YOU: We are all all-too-familiar with the agonizing pain of staring at a phone screen with an unanswered text, or going two weeks without going on a date with your partner. If you feel you're not getting the time with them that you deserve, you may want to take a break to see what it's like to not expect anything from them. This way, you may either realize that you both just have busy schedules you need to manage, or that you don't matter to them much after all. Either way, only some time to yourself will provide you with the clarity you need.
