The relationship was really toxic toward the end, but G-Eazy has been healing through his music and has been spending his quarantine time in his home studio writing and recording. In his new songs, he isn't afraid to mention how crazy he believes Halsey to be.

These celebrity exes clearly didn't part on good terms. What are some ways to turn your rough break-up into a positive experience?

Cupid's Advice:

When a relationship ends, no one can promise that it'll end on a good note and even though you might be in a slump, it's important to pick yourself back up. If you are looking for ways to have a more positive outlook on life after a bad break-up, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Take time for yourself: In times like these the only person that can really pick up your energy is you. Spend time in your own thoughts, reflecting on how you'll move forward from this experience. Direct your focus to things that are most important to you at this moment.

Celebrity Break-Up: Halsey Opens Up About Split from G-Eazy

By Lauren Burczyk

In celebrity news, Halsey opens up about her celebrity breakup from G-Eazy. The duo, who performed “Him and I” together, split up in July after being together for one year. The off-and-on couple decided to fix their issues and get back together one month later. According to EOnline.com, a source has said that by the end of October, the couple had broken up once and for all. Avoiding public backlash, Halsey never made a public statement regarding the split, but it is now speaking out about the end of the relationship. Halsey claims, “the biggest lesson I learned is to make art, not headlines,” she added, “because it can become quite easy, in the social media generation, to go from being a musician to becoming a personality.”

Celebrity dating can get just as messy as our own romantic lives. What are some ways of preventing the public backlash from getting you down after a breakup?

Cupid's Advice:

The last thing anyone wants to deal with after a rough breakup is societal backlash. We have some ways to prevent getting hurt by adverse reactions from the public:

1. Avoid new romantic opportunities right away: Let's face it, if someone says something hurtful, it's hard to ignore it. It's important to not give the public something to talk about and give yourself some time to heal before getting involved with someone new.

2. Take a break from some of the activities you do in town: It's good to keep participating in things you enjoy following a breakup, but it's not necessary to force yourself to see people who are going to ask too many questions. Pick and choose which activities you still want to participate in and take a break from the others for a bit.

3. Don't feel bad about having to avoid certain people: If it seems too difficult to keep in close contact with your ex's friends and relatives, who you've become close to, then take a little break from them. They may have their biases considering they're people you met through your ex-partner. You can avoid talking to them if you want to protect yourself from any negative comments that will ultimately hurt you.

The two single celebrities started rumors after openly flirting on Instagram. The singer shut down romance rumors with a single tweet: "I just had a ground-breaking idea. What if...we let female artists ...have friends...without assuming that they are sleeping together?" she wrote. "I know, I know. It's like, completely ambitious but like, imagine if we like, tried?" This comes shortly after her celebrity break-up from G-Eazy. Mayer has been in a number of celebrity relationships with numerous women such as Jessica Simpson, Jennifer Love Hewitt, Taylor Swift and more.

In celebrity news, Halsey denies she's dating John Mayer with a snarky remark on social media. What are some ways to shoot down false rumors about your relationship??

Cupid's Advice:

Rumors have a way of catching fire once lit; it's information that can't be trusted. Rumors give room for doubt in a relationship. Cupid has some ways to shoot down false rumors about your relationship:

1. Confront the source: If you know who spread the rumor, you should talk to them. Be civil and keep your head high and talk to this person honestly. If you don't want to face them alone bring a few friends. Don't put yourself in harm's way or a dangerous situation if you know that talking to this person in question will try to do you no good.

2. Broadcast the rumor: Verbalize the rumor in a bold way. By acknowledging the rumor, you're taking away some of its power. People spread rumors to gain social status and they only have that if they have the inside scoop. By broadcasting their inside info, this person loses credibility and motivation to spread the rumor. Because Everyone will already know. Sometimes talking about is the easiest way to prove how ridiculous the rumor is.
