By Hope Ankney

In the latest celebrity news, Gavin Rossdale and Gwen Stefani have had a challenging time co-parenting their three sons together during isolation. According to UsMagazine.com, Rossdale says that it hasn't been easy to align their schedules to ensure their kids are staying safe between the two of them. "I think it's ok for now," he continued, "but it's a really big dilemma for parents and kids with split custody."

In celebrity news, these exes are having a tough time co-parenting their children together in quarantine. What are some ways you can spend time with your kids during this period of isolation?

Cupid's Advice:

With the lockdown, it has caused kids to be home more than usual since schools have let out. That can get boring rather quickly, so it is important to try and keep your children as engaged as possible. But, it can be harder than you think to not run out of activities to do with them. If you're having a hard time coming up with new ideas to do with your children right now, don't worry! Cupid has some parenting advice on ways to freshen up this isolation period for both you and them:

1. Zoom family calls: Whether it be with their other parent or just members of the family, it can be fun to get the kids talking to others outside of just you. It gives them an outlet to socialize with people, and they can even do certain activities with them through the screen! I'm sure their grandparents would simply love to just color with them over the call!

2. Tie-Dye: Tie-dying can be a quick way to freshen up the activities you do with your children. If you're tired of being cooped up in the house, this gives you the perfect opportunity to get outside. The supplies can easily be bought at the store or online, and you can get to work on creating some cool patterns. Not only will this give them an opportunity to engage with art, but they'll even have a fun shirt to rock afterward!

3. Create an original story: A great thing to try with kids is to have them create their own story. You can buy blank storybooks off the internet easily, and then your kids can begin filling them in! Once they're finished, you can add a quirky bio/photo of the author and have a new story to read that is unique to them! Not only that, but it can act as a cute souvenir to keep as they get older.

This celebrity news has us curious. What are some non-traditional ways to vent about your past or current relationships?

Cupid's Advice:

Bottling things up inside just isn't healthy, but it can be tough to know the best ways to vent your frustrations and feelings. Cupid has some tips:

1. Paint splatter: Art has been a creative way for many people to vent about life's experiences. Why not use it to vent about a relationship? Whether it be a glue stick, a pencil, or balloons filled with paint, grab the supplies and start creating. Art has a calming effect that allows you to take a situation and create something beautiful or meaningful. The best part is that you don't have to be a professional artist to do it.

2. Kickboxing: A frustrating day can turn out to be a very productive day in the gym. Not only are you whipping your body into shape, but you are also giving all the pent up energy a way to release. Exercise releases endorphins, which can significantly alter your mood into a more positive one. Kickboxing is a great way to take out aggression on the equipment, and at the end you will feel less tense and ready to take on the world.

2. Put pen to paper: Telling someone how you feel is not the easiest task. There are so many thoughts and emotions that overwhelm us when it comes time to share what is in our hearts. When all else fails, write down the thoughts as they come to you. This is a really great way to gain some clarity and prepare you for what you want to profess. Some find it helpful to tear up the pages once they are written to exert any negative energy that may have spewed out. Find a way that writing can help you express yourself.

Celebrity News: Gwen Stefani Says She's 'Only Had Two Boyfriends'

By Jessica DeRubbo

In latest celebrity news, it turns out that Gwen Stefani doesn't have a type, because, well, she's only had two boyfriends, ever! According to UsMagazine.com, Stefani said, "You know I've only had two boyfriends, right? So I'm not like – when you say that, it just sounds funny. It's just so limited. Blake Shelton's current love was in a celebrity relationship with and married to Gavin Rossdale for 13 years (whom she apparently doesn't count as one of her two boyfriends). Prior to both Shelton and Rossdale, she dated her bandmate Tony Kanal for seven years.

This celebrity news is pretty surprising! How do you know when you've begun dating around too much?

Cupid's Advice:

There are definitely merits to playing the field, but then again, too much of a good thing doesn't usually turn out positively. Cupid has some signs that you've been dating around too much:

1. You can't name your last three dates: If you're having a hard time remembering who you last went on a date with, and who was before that, and who was before that, you might have an over-dating problem. If you're looking for a relationship and aren't just dating around to date around, consider taking things a little bit more slowly and trying to get to know your dates prior to going out with them.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Are Gwen Stefani and Blake Shelton More Than Friends?

2. Kissing has begun to lose its meaning: At the end of most of your dates, you're no doubt giving them a kiss goodbye, if there's at least a little spark of attraction there. If this is just run of the mill for you and no big deal, then it's probably time to take a step back and reassess your dating life. Kissing should be meaningful!

3. He never called, and you didn't notice: If, after a date, someone doesn't call you, usually you're hyper aware of that. If you don't even notice, that's a bad sign! It means you're not invested in the dates you go on and you're just playing the field for no reason. Consider pumping some feeling back into the game!

If you choose to develop a friendship with your ex, here are some things to remember:

1. Mourn the loss of the relationship you once knew: You've ended your relationship. For whatever reason, you're no longer romantically together. Now is the time to stop the fighting and blaming and get on the path to recovery. "Give each other time to mourn the death of the relationship," advises Ami Angelowicz in the article "The longer you two were together, the longer it will take before you're ready for friendship. It could be two months or two years – feel it out. You'll know when the time is right because both of you will feel ready for it. Let hearts heal and flames fizzle out before hopping on the friendship train." You'll have challenges along the way, but you'll find that healing and forgiveness will bring you new insights. Once you step away from the negative thoughts, you'll find yourself a new person who is able to renew your old friendship with your ex.

2. Set clear boundaries: Recognize that you're now at a different stage in your relationship with your ex. All couples have their own song and dance, but now is the time to change yours. This new dance could bring back what you miss about your lost friendship. "The same rules don't apply anymore, so toss out old expectations," advises Dr. Gabrielle Morrissey, a sex and dating expert for bodyandsoul.com. "Setting clear and defined boundaries means that, when you become attached again, you'll have an emotionally healthy relationship with your ex." Why not treat your ex like your other friends, acknowledging their strengths and weaknesses? Focus on your ex's friendship strengths, but keep the relationship at an appropriate level. Just because you're rekindling your friendship doesn't mean you're looking to rekindle your romantic relationship.

3. Move forward: Be angry. Be jealous. You can even spend time feeling hurt. Then move on. It's essential for you to date other people and make new friends in different social circles. "You might not realize it, but keeping your ex around as a friend after a break-up can keep you from moving on," observes writer Karley Sciortino in the article "Breathless: Should You Be Friends With Your Ex?" "Moving on is hard, and the impulse to keep your ex in your life can be really strong – we all get it. But you first need to give yourself a window to move on physically and emotionally."

Reaching out to a former love certainly has its rewards. You need to allow yourself time to mourn the loss of the relationship and embrace new parameters as well as set clear boundaries as to what those parameters include. Then, after moving forward by welcoming opportunities for love to become a part of your life, you can enjoy the support of a former partner who knows you better than anyone else while you gain strength and focus on finding a new path to personal happiness.

Cupid's Advice:

Not all couples are meant to last forever. Sometimes people can be better off going in different directions if the relationship is not working. Cupid has relationship advice:

1. Excessive fighting: If you and your significant other can't seem to get along, the end might be near. Fighting will just cause stress and rift within the relationship. Certainly there's no relationship where fighting doesn't happen ever, but when you fight more than you get along, that's a red flag.

The designer wedding dress, the insane guest list, the mile high wedding cake, and more! Celebrity weddings, what's not to love, right? Even if we can't throw as big of a wedding bash as Kim and Kanye, it can be fun to imagine what our own lavish wedding would look like. Below are 10 of our favorite celebrity weddings.

1. Kim Kardashian and Kanye West: Of course they're number one; their wedding was plastered everywhere, and the pictures from it were some of the highest viewed photos on Instagram...ever! The party started a week before the actual wedding date (Saturday, May 24) in Paris where Kim, Kanye, and a few of their family members relaxed before the big day. Their "I do's" were exchanged outside in Italy next to a giant wall of flowers. Guests such as LaLa Anthony, Joyce Bonelli, Monica Rose, and more were in attendance.

3. Kendra Wilkinson and Hank Baskett: The former Playboy Playmate and NFL star were married on the front lawn of the Playboy Mansion in June 2009. Wilkinson wore a $20,000 duchesse-silk gown (that she co-designed) that had more than 55 yards of fabric and was covered in 1,200 crystals with R-Mine Bridal's Armine Ohanessian. Talk about glitz and glamour! Their guest list included Hank's teammates from the Philadelphia Eagles, Hugh Hefner, Holly Madison, Bridget Marquardt, Jon Lovitz, and more famous faces.

4. Katie Holmes and Tom Cruise: In November 2006, seven months after the birth of their daughter, Suri, the two actors were married at the 15th-Century Odescalchi Castle outside of Rome. The bride and groom both wore Armani, and their guest list included Victoria Beckham, Jennifer Lopez, Mark Ronson, and others.

5. Celine Dion and Rene Angelil: Back in December 1994, the singer married her manager at the Notre Dame Basilica in Montreal, Canada. Dion wore a Mirella and Steven Gentile gown that included a 20-foot train and took over 1,000 hours to complete. Oh, we almost forgot to mention Dion's seven-pound tiara that was made of 2,000 Australian crystals...

6. Nicole Kidman and Keith Urban: The couple was married on June 25, 2006 in an all-candlelight ceremony that took place just after sundown in Sydney, Australia's Cardinal Cerretti Memorial Chapel on St. Patrick's Estate at Manly. Kidman wore a dress by Nicolas Ghesquiere for Balenciaga. The black-tie event included friends such as Russell Crowe, Hugh Jackman, Naomi Watts, and Rupert Murdoch.

7. Gwen Stefani and Gavin Rossdale: These two rockers had not one, but two weddings back in 2002! First, they were married in London and then had their second ceremony two weeks later at a private home in L.A. Stefani wore a dip-dyed silk faille gown that was created specifically for her so she could show off her girly, yet punk, personality. Brad Pitt and Jennifer Aniston were among the many stars in attendance.

8. Khloe Kardashian and Lamar Odom: Who could forget Kim's sister Khloe's crazy nuptials to LA Laker, Lamar Odom? The couple tied the knot just one month after they started dating! The ceremony took place at a private residence in Beverly Hills, and the couple said their vows in front of triple arches of white roses created by celebrity florist, Mark's Garden. The bride wore a Vera Wang gown and was walked down the aisle by her step-father, Bruce Jenner.

9. Katy Perry and Russell Brand: When the singer and actor wed back in 2010, it was nothing short of magical. Perry wore an Elie Saab Haute Couture gown and $7,000 Casadei heels to their ceremony at Rajasthan, India's Amani-i-Khas resort. And, don't forget! The two entered their ceremony by riding on top of an elephant! How's that for extravagant?

10. Ellen DeGeneres and Portia De Rossi: The talk show host and model/actress wed in 2008 at their home in L.A. among their closest family and friends. Although the couple didn't have their wedding in an elaborate location, certain items included on their special day sure made for an elaborate event! Both brides wore designs by Zac Posen and Mark's Garden provided the candles and flowers. Later that evening, all guests dined on an all-vegan menu prepared by the couple's personal chef, David Silberkleit.

Gwen Stefani Welcomes Third Son with Husband Gavin Rossdale

By Louisa Gonzales

Gwen Stefani's kingdom just gained a new heir. The No Doubt singer and husband Gavin Rossdale, welcomed a new family member, a baby boy and their third son, on Friday, February 28, according to UsMagazine.com. Rossdale was proud to announce the birth of his son, Apollow Bowie Flynn Rossdale, and even tweeted it to the world on Saturday, March 1. The proud papa also revealed how the child's name was derived from his and Stefani's mothers' maiden names. The news of the baby gender was first announced back on January 17, in a tweet by the starlet, she joked in the tweet about being surrounded by boys and how she will remain the "queen of the house". Congratulations to the happy couple.

How do you prepare for a third child versus your first and second?

Cupid's Advice:

Having children is a beautiful thing and for many couples a great new adventure in their relationship. Having children is great, but it can be hard, especially when you already have a couple of kids under your belt. You've already done your research on pregnancy and have experience with kids, but that doesn't mean there aren't still new things for you to learn or prepare for. Cupid has some advice on how to prepare for a third child:

1. Prepare for change: With the birth of your third child, change will come for your whole family's dynamic. You can still learn about all the ways it can change and prepare for it by doing research, read up on how it will affect your other two children and your relationship. Each child needs attention and you'll need to figure out how you're going to divide the time up between them. Also don't forget about each other, couples need time to spend together to keep their bond and love strong.

2. Let your kids know: Help your kids understand there's going to be a new addition to the family soon. The third child arrives in to an already established family with pre-formed relationships. There will be power struggles between your kids, but you can help ease the change of gaining a new family member, by casually mentioning it from time to time. Both you and your partner can try mentioning it at dinner or at the park when you see other families, you could say, “soon our family” will grow.

3. Discuss and make plans together: Before the third child arrives you need to set up a game plan of how things are going to run. You may already have baby things from your previous kids, but you will most likely need some new things, especially if you don't want to let the third child feel less important than the others by only getting handy downs. Money issues and work schedules will also need to be discussed, and you'll need to work together to compromise and establish all the things you need to do to for your growing family.
