Reality Star Bill Rancic Defends Wife Giuliana Rancic After 'Fashion Police' Controversy

By Maggie Manfredi

They don't call them partners for nothing! According to UsMagazine.com, The season one Apprentice winner Bill Rancic spoke out on the recent drama pertaining to the comments made by his celebrity wife on Fashion Police. Reality star Giuliana Rancic got some serious heat for her comments made around Zendaya's hair at the Oscars. She said that the dreadlock look might smell like patchouli oil...or weed. Later she came forward clarifying this was a hippie joke, but ultimately the damage was done and the Rancics decided to ride out the storm. Bill spoke to their celebrity marriage during the chaos, saying, "We made a plan. We were gonna just kinda weather it. We've got a strong marriage. We love each other. And we knew that she didn't do anything wrong. And obviously these situations bring us closer together. They can either tear you apart or bring you closer together, and we're a team."

These reality stars are sticking up for one another. How do you stand up for your partner in important situations?

Cupid's Advice:

This reality star power couple really shows how partners can be stronger together. Cupid has some ideas on how you can be there for your partner:

1. Be a listener: Whether it's a bad day at work or family problems it is important to be the rock for your partner. Let them vent, let them release fully so they know you are there and supporting.

2. Take a back seat: Sometimes even when your partner is in a negative light it can still be in their best interest for you to back down. Bill could have jumped all over the press and fought for Giuliana but instead he let her make a statement and he waited until the storm blew over to comment.

Giuliana and Bill Rancic Support Each Other Through Surrogate Miscarriage

By Shannon Seibert

In devastating news, E! stars Bill and Giuliana Rancic face a surrogate miscarriage. The couple has been struggling to have another child, who would be a sibling to their son Duke, born by surrogate in August of 2012. The Rancics have a loving, supportive relationship with their surrogate, Delphine, who had an unexpected miscarriage at about nine weeks along. Giuliana herself had undergone a miscarriage years before, which only aided the heartbreak of the circumstances, according to UsMagazine.com.

How do you support your partner through pregnancy troubles?

Cupid's Advice:

1. Don't ask questions you already know the answer to: Questions such as "Are you okay?" may seem supportive, but in reality are just plain aggravating. Asking is just trivial, especially when the circumstances are clearly not okay. Listening goes hand in hand with this idea, meaning that you have to look for the meaning underneath the words and tune into what they may not be saying. Something as simple as holding your love's hand at the right moment can make all of the difference.

Related: New Celebrity Couple Alert: Bethenny Frankel Is Dating Marcus Lemonis

2. Support with more than just words: Saying you'll be there for your partner, and actually being there for your partner are two different animals. Being at doctors appointments, making crazy food runs, and supplying the foot rubs will go miles beyond any words you speak. What people forget is pregnancy does involve two parties, although only one of them carries the child. Pregnancy still takes an emotional toll on both partners, which is why it takes a strong partnership to maintain a foundation of support.

3. Therapy is not just for the crazies: Point blank, we all need someone to talk to, and therapy is a great place to get an impartial third party opinion. Couples' therapy has proven beneficial over recent years, allowing a safe place for the couple to open up and talk about issues at home. Even if there is just an aura of stress going around, therapy is a great place to dive into the root of the problem, and fix it under a united front.

Brooke added: "I also make it a point to tell all my mommy friends how incredible they are, because no one really knows how hard, demanding, beautiful, exhausting, and painfully rich motherhood is, except another mom."

'Ready for Love' Host Giuliana Rancic Says, "Having a Strong Marriage is the Greatest Example You Can Set for Your Child"

By Whitney Baker Johnson

Giuliana and Bill Rancic have a relationship that many of us admire, so it only makes sense that the couple was tapped to host NBC's upcoming dating competition show Ready for Love. They've opened up their personal life to fans on their own reality show Giuliana and Bill on the Style Network, and now, they'll be taking on a new role in front of the camera. "We absolutely love working together," Giuliana says of the experience. "We banter back and forth quite a bit, but it's all in fun."

She adds that deciding to host the show was a no brainer. "We're always traveling and working apart, so it was the perfect opportunity for us to not only be a part of such a great show with amazing people but to spend some time together while doing it."

The premise of Ready for Love is different than other dating shows. The three bachelors – Ben Patton, Tim Lopez and Ernesto Arguello – were each paired with twelve ladies by three matchmakers, Amber Kelleher-Andrews, Tracy McMillan and Matt

Hussey. Giuliana knows firsthand that Ready for Love is the real deal. “By using relationship experts, the compatibility between the bachelors and each girl is really tested,” she explains. “This is, by far, the most realistic dating reality show I’ve ever seen.”

So did the Rancic’s share any of their wisdom and experiences as a madly-in-love couple with the single men? “Well, the matchmakers are experts, and they don’t necessarily need help from us, but we did throw in little pieces of advice to the guys here and there. You’ll have to tune in to find out!”

That’s not to say that the couple didn’t get to know the bachelors both on and off the set – Ben and Ernesto even came to their baby shower! “We really bonded with each of them and truly rooted for them while they searched for love,” the host says. “They are all such great guys.”

If the men had asked for their advice, the twosome believes that communication is most important for a successful relationship. When they’re in different cities for work, they’re “always checking in and trying to put each other first – that’s what keeps us strong.”

Of course, they have a new member of the family who they have to make a priority too: their seven-month-old son, Edward Duke. Even so, becoming parents hasn’t changed their relationship. “If anything, it’s just brought us closer. We’re both so happy and grateful.”

“Baby Duke is so adorable, and we’re loving every minute of parenthood” the first-time mom adds. “Every ‘first’ he has is the greatest moment in the world.”

For new parents who are struggling to fit romance into their lives, the television personalities say spending one-on-one time together is a must. “It’s so important to stay connected to your spouse as a new parent,” Giuliana shares. “Having a strong marriage is the greatest example you can set for your child.”

Be sure to check back next Monday, April 8 for our interview with Ben Patton and Tuesday, April 9 with Matthew Hussey! Catch the premiere of Ready for Love on Tuesday, April 9th at 9/8c on NBC. For more information about Giuliana, you can follow her on Twitter and watch her on E! News.

LeAnn Rimes Discusses Her Affair with Eddie Cibrian: What Her Non-Verbal Cues Tell Us

By Jared Sais

It's been a tumultuous three years for LeAnn Rimes, a timeframe that includes her divorce from ex-husband Dean Sheremet and her very public affair with – and subsequent marriage to – Northern Lights co-star, Eddie Cibrian. Despite the fact that Rimes and Cibrian will celebrate their two-year anniversary in April, questions still persist as to what really happened during one of the most epic celebrity cheating scandals of the decade. But never fear: CupidsPulse.com's very own celebrity detective is here to analyze this clip from a recent interview with Rimes and E!'s Giuliana Rancic.

Author's Note: The video begins with an often overlooked aspect of television interviews: music. Music can be a very powerful instrument and one that greatly affects the emotional experience of a visual event (that's why the best soundtracks are inseparable in our minds with great moments in television, film and, of course, music videos). It's crucial to ignore the music and focus only on Rimes's non-verbal expressions and body language, which are quite revealing on their own.*

Related Link: J. Lo and Casper Smart: What Their Body Language Says About Their Love

(0:09) After Rimes is asked, "Why act on it when you're both married and you both have families?," she responds by saying that it's a "huge question" and flashing a masking smile, which differs from a fake smile in that its purpose is to mask a different emotion – in this case, sadness.

(0:10) A second later, a melancholy Rimes shoots her head down, exhibiting the number one sign of shame as she thinks about her role in the scandal and the after effects that she and Cibrian might still be experiencing.

(0:13) With her head still down, Rimes shows a micro-expression of fear: lips parted and the corners of her mouth widen. She's most likely worried about how she will look if she is not careful in her response to this difficult and personal question.

(0:15) Before she raises her head to answer the question, she licks her lips, which can be an indication that a person is about to tell a lie. When we lie, our body is forcing itself to do something unnatural, so it goes into a state of stress; one's mouth will often dry up, which is usually countered by licking the lips. Keep this in mind because the next thing Rimes says is "I never, ever in my heart want to hurt anyone." Immediately after answering, she looks to Rancic to see if what she said has been positively received. This is a key giveaway that either what she just said wasn't true or it was prepared since she needs to gauge whether or not it was accepted.

(0:26) Hand gestures can mean many things, but Rimes mainly uses her hands to tell us a story about her and her ex. By bringing her hands far apart when she says "separate," she indicates both emotional and physical distance with Sheremet. Her hands then become interlocked when she says "super-connected," which tells us that she did not feel that way in her first marriage.

(0:44) Rimes's hands continue to tell the story of her relationship to Sheremet, even doing a folding or "breaking" motion when she says the word "break." She believes what she is saying, making a confirming head nod and moving her hands up and down when she says, "You can't break what's broken."

(1:00) Rimes starts to cry, and if you look at her left hand, it remains in the "break" position. This action could be her remembering a specific instance of something negative that transpired in their relationship, or it could represent what she is feeling at this moment.

Related Link: LeAnn Rimes Breaks Down Over the Ending of Her First Marriage

(1:02) Certain non-verbal cues have crossed-over into the general consciousness of people to the point where it is essentially part of our known behavioral language, and "the raised index finger" is one we all know. It means, "Wait, I need a moment," and Rimes uses it as she gathers herself. She then tell us that nobody could possibly know how much anguish they all experienced throughout this process – something that she seems to regret.

(1:03) Here, Rimes exhibits the prototypical facial expression for sadness: inner eyelids are raised, a little bulge appears in the middle of her eyebrows, lip corners are pulled down, and the chin is a bit dimpled. This look is followed by Rimes putting her hand in front of her face with her fingers pointing upwards. This gesture is commonly thought to be an indication of lying, but to be more accurate, it is both a blocking mechanism – she physically uses her hand to mask what her face can no longer hide (sadness) – and a gesture to muffle whatever is about to come out of her mouth.

Conclusion

Rimes is clearly upset, but her lack of actual tears makes the exact reason why unclear. It seems like she is more upset at the result of the scandal (her rocky relationships with her ex-husband, Cibrian's ex-wife and perhaps even Cibrian). In the end, I think she might be a little broken herself and is simply trying to cope with the situation as best she can. Ultimately, if she is truly happy with Cibrian, all this strife will have been worth it. However, if she isn't and their relationship goes sour, her theory that "only unbreakable relationships are unbreakable" may have unfortunately been proven right again.

Giuliana Rancic Faces End of Maternity Leave: “It’s Hard”

By Jenny Schafer for Celebrity Baby Scoop

After three months of a blissful maternity leave with her newborn son Duke, E! News host Giuliana Rancic is returning to work.

“I could give you the Hollywood answer and just say it’s been great going back to work,” she tells Life & Style. “But the real answer is, it’s hard. What’s important now is different from what was important a few months ago.”

“The other morning, I was having the best time with Duke, and he was making faces that I had never seen before, and he was being so cute. Then I looked at the clock and I had to go to work,” the new mom, 37, adds. “So I keep thinking, am I going to miss something?”

To help calm her nerves, doting hubby Bill Rancic regularly sends smartphone videos of their son throughout the day. “It’s one thing to look at pictures,” she says. “But when I see video, I feel like I’m with him.”

Bill, 41, says he’s never seen this side of Giuliana before. “It’s remarkable to see how the baby has changed her,” he shares. “Just the devotion the little guy evoked and the motherly instincts that kicked in.”

But the self-professed workaholic says she’ll work hard at balancing work and family life.

“I’ll make it work,” she says. “I’m going to make sure I don’t sacrifice anything.”

Giuliana Rancic Says Son is a Mini Version of Husband Bill

By Jennifer Ross

In an episode of STYLE's Giuliana & Bill that was filmed just before baby Rancic was born, Giuliana and Bill Rancic discuss naming their first born and his possible traits. Giuliana, 37, was keen on naming their son William, after her very own husband. Bill, 41, wasn't too thrilled with the idea, "I've never been a fan of the 'junior.' I want to give him his own identity." As names like Luke and Zack are weighed upon, the couple considers naming their son after their own fathers. Giuliana explains, "Your dad is Edward and mine's Eduardo. We could name him Edward." The conversation then continues on to what Giuliana most looks forward to when finally meeting baby Rancic – his personal traits. "I want to look at him and see you. I want him to be a 'mini Bill.' Honestly, I want him to be just like you."

How do you work as a couple to instill values in your children?

Cupid's Advice:

Everyone wants their children to grow up becoming successful adults with great values. Yet, no child has ever come with a manual to accomplish this. Fortunately for parents, you won't have to figure it all out on your own. Here are a few key steps to start you on the process of instilling values:

1. Action: Instilling values into children must start with you and your partner showing by examples. From the day they are born, their little eyes are watching your every move. So remember to be compassionate, courageous, honest, reliable or whatever it is you want them to be.

2. Practice daily: Since we, as adults, cannot be perfect all the time, it is safe to say your children won't be either. Therefore, use those moments of mistakes in each of you to kindly practice the right way to do things. Also, you and your partner can practice supporting each other in the learning process as another example of good values.

3. Praise: Praise or celebrate the times when your children show trustworthiness or sympathy or love. If someone outside the family witnesses the children showing great behavior, make them aware that others are watching and how proud you feel. They will feel the pride too.

How did you and your partner work together to instill values in your children? Tell us below.

Giuliana Rancic: I Want Duke To Be A Mini-Bill

By Kirsten Mirtich for Celebrity Baby Scoop

When it came to choosing a name for her first born son Edward Duke, mama and reality television star Giuliana Rancic wanted to name him after his proud papa Bill Rancic. However, her hubby wasn't as keen on the idea as she was.

"I've never been a fan of the 'junior.' I want to give him his own identity," the 41-year-old father reasons in a clip from the November 13th episode of Giuliana & Bill – which was filmed just prior to Duke's August 2012 arrival. "If he wants to name his son after me, then I've earned it."

Although the couple considered names such as Luke and Zach, they ended up agreeing on a name that paid tribute to their own fathers.

"Our fathers are great men – your dad is Edward and mine's Eduardo. We could name him Edward,” Giuliana comments in the preview clip as the couple finally settle on what to name their son.

Since his arrival, the couple have taken to calling him Duke – his middle name – which they chose because it means leader.

After they decide on the name, Giuliana reveals that she most looks forward to having a constant reminder of the greatest man in her life – her hubby of five years.

“I want to look at him and see you. I want him to be a ‘mini Bill,’” she says on Tuesday’s Giuliana & Bill. “Honestly, I want him to be just like you.”

“He’ll be better!” replies Bill.

Giuliana & Bill airs Tuesday at 8 p.m. (EST) on STYLE.

Giuliana Rancic: “Everything Feels Complete Now”

After a long road to parenthood, Bill and Giuliana Rancic are “loving every minute” with their 5-week-old son Duke. The proud new parents have teamed up with CBR (Cord Blood Registry) and “Healthy Futures” to talk about the importance of saving cord blood stem cells.

Giuliana opens up to Celebrity Baby Scoop about “savoring” moments with her “dream baby,” fighting over midnight feeds with Bill, and “enjoying being on maternity leave and spending as much time with Duke” before her return to work in November.

CBS: Congratulations on the arrival of baby Duke! What kind of baby is he? Are you getting any sleep?

GR: Thank you! We are thrilled to have Duke in our lives and could not be happier parents. Life with Duke is great – he has been a dream baby! We are getting some sleep but we’re also waking up every few hours to feed him and change him... Bill and I sometimes fight over who is going to get up with him because we both want to savor every single moment with Duke.

Related Link: Giuliana and Bill Rancic Welcome Baby Boy.

CBS: Tell us about teaming up with CBR® (Cord Blood Registry®) and “Healthy Futures,” to educate expectant parents about the value of cord blood stem cells.

GR: We went through a lot of health struggles before finally being able to announce we were pregnant. Infertility, a miscarriage, and then a breast cancer diagnosis – it was quite a journey. Because it was hard for us to get Duke into this world, we wanted to make sure we did everything we could as parents to make sure he had the best life possible, and that included banking his umbilical cord blood with CBR (Cord Blood Registry). When preparing for a new baby, every parent always makes a list of things they need to do before the baby comes. Cord blood banking should definitely be one of those ‘checklist’ items. Cord blood is full of millions of stem cells that could change or even save a child’s life one day.

Related Link: How Raising a Child Can Bring you Closer Together as a Couple.

CBS: We saw that you’ve already returned to work (at the recent Emmy Awards). Was it hard to leave baby Duke?

GR: I did return to work for E!’s Live From The Red Carpet for the 64th Emmy Awards. It was incredibly difficult to leave Duke and I can empathize with working moms. The night before I left, I was actually sobbing into Bill’s arms because I didn’t want to leave him... As Duke gets older, Bill and I are going to make it a priority to find a balance between work and our family.

CBS: It sounds like your experience with a gestational carrier was very positive. Are you planning to hire another surrogate in the near future? Or maybe you’ll try for your own pregnancy? Or adoption?

GR: We had an amazing gestational carrier that we cannot thank enough for all that she has done for our family. As for the future, we are not ruling anything out, but for now we are focusing on enjoying Duke and savoring all of these new moments with him.

Giuliana and Bill Rancic Welcome a Baby Boy

By Nicole Weintraub

Edward Duke Rancic was welcomed into the world on Wednesday by parents Bill and Giuliana Rancic, according to People. This is the first child for the couple who have had difficulties with infertility. Following a miscarriage and breast cancer, Guiliana was able to announce her pregnancy via gestational surrogate and shared the baby's sex this past June. The newest addition to the Rancic family weighed in at 7 lbs, 4 oz. The couple is ecstatic to be gifted with a little one.

What are some ways having a child can bring you closer as a couple?

Cupid's Advice:

Deciding to have a child is a decision that should be made when both partners feel they are ready. Although children are a large responsibility, it can bring you and your partner closer together:

1. Working together: The responsibility of raising your child rests on both you and your partner. Decisions and choices must be made together which means communication is key. Working together as a team is a vital element in having children. When a couple is blessed with a child, they have another commonality in their lives and the relationship with your child's other parent is an important one. Making decisions together will also bring you closer as a couple.

2. Adding to the family: One of the most rewarding things you can do with a person is start a family with them. Feelings continue to grow since you have shared this experience with your partner. The two of you will be sharing new experiences and memories that neither of you have had before, especially if this is your first child. Sharing these new feelings and experiences with one another will further to develop your feelings for each other.

3. Leaning on one another: You cannot do this alone and that is what your partner is there for. There will be wonderful days and there will be rough days. They are there to support you and to hold your hand through not only the good days, but the bad days as well. What are some ways to prepare your relationship for a baby?

Cupid's Advice:

The first thing to be sure of when you and your partner are having a child is that you're ready. You should be at the happiest and strongest point in your relationship in order to give this new life everything you both have.

1. Prepare together: Things can easily get frustrating if one partner is putting more care and concern into the baby on the way than the other. You both should be reading the baby books, helping one another out and getting the nursery ready together. It's an exciting time for each of you so take a trip to Babies R' Us together instead of going out on solo missions.

2. You know each other inside and out: With a baby on the way it's important to know every detail about one another. Know what makes your partner tick and what always proves to get your love out of a bad mood. These small details about one another will help you both resolve issues quicker or at best, keep fights from happening at all.

3. Trust: Having complete trust in your partner is what's going to help you both the most when it's time for the baby to come. You are one another's support system and if you each have total and complete faith in one another then you know that you're going to give this child the most amazing life together.

Preparing for the birth of your child is stressful no matter how they’re born. Here are some ways to prepare yourself for having a child via surrogate:

Giuliana and Bill Rancic Surprise Guests with a Baby Shower Surprise

This weekend, Style Network stars, spouses and parents-to-be Giuliana and Bill Rancic hosted a baby shower—appropriately on Father’s Day. After months of trying to conceive, the couple is finally expecting their first child via a surrogate mother. They surprised their friends and family by revealing the sex of their baby by releasing blue balloons from a box, according to Celebuzz.

What are some ways to reveal the sex of your baby to friends and family?

Cupid's Advice: Having a baby is an exciting moment for you and your partner, as well as for your other loved ones. Revealing the baby's sex can be just as thrilling as revealing that you're having a baby in the first place. Here are some tips to share that surprise with your friends and family:

1. Send the sonogram: There's no better way to share the joy of revealing your child's gender than by letting everyone see for themselves. Send out a copy of the sonogram with a message saying "It's a boy!" or "It's a girl!" and your loved ones can have a memento of this incredibly special time.

2. Throw an "unrelated" color party: Throw a dinner party that seems to be themeless, but cater it to the sex of your baby through your outfits, decorations and refreshments. You and your significant other can be decked out in pink or blue while everyone else wears white. At the end of the night, tell everyone what the real theme is!

3. Make it a competition: Invite your friends and family over for a little competition. Have them cast votes as to the gender, then present a cake frosted in neutral colors. When you and your honey cut into it, the pink or blue cake inside will tell everyone what you're having!
