

Drew Barrymore Says Justin Long Makes Her “Giggly”

It seems Drew Barrymore is happy in love these days. People reported that Barrymore couldn't stop gushing to Harper's Bazaar about Justin Long, her on-again off-again boyfriend of three years. "He's the cat's pajamas," said the Going the Distance star. Barrymore, 35, has endured a lot of the typical trials of a young actress in the spotlight. But now she seems happier than ever, especially when talking about her actor beau. "I couldn't love, respect, admire and enjoy that individual more than I do. It would be physically impossible for me to have any more giggly joy at this person." Why is laughter important in a relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes life can seem like anything, but easy. The best way to forget your troubles is to laugh, and your partner can help. Cupid has some ideas on why having a partner who makes you laugh is so important:

1. Lighten up: A lot of women try to be perfect: perfect career, perfect apartment, and perfect boyfriend. But don't take yourself too seriously – laughter can remind you to lighten up and be happy with what you have!

2. Have a lasting relationship: Laughter helps get a couple through the hard times in a relationship and makes the good times even better. As far as Cupid is concerned, the couple who laughs together, stays together.

3. Laughter is forever: While you may be interested in dating Brad Pitt more than Will Ferrell, keep in mind that looks fade. If he has a sense of humor, he can keep you smiling for years.

How can you make a long-distance relationship less challenging?

Cupid's Advice:

You can't control who you fall in love with, or where they live. If you unexpectedly find yourself in a long-distance relationship, Cupid offers a few ways to help shrink the distance:

1. Stay in touch: Technology has come a long way. Gone are the days when you could only use the postal service, or had to pay huge fees for phone conversations. Now you can text, email, Skype, and even talk on the phone for little to no money at all.

2. Old school: Although it's easy to spend hours chatting and texting, it can be much more romantic if you compose some old fashioned snail mail and send it to the one you love. The sentiment will not be missed.

3. Getaways: With the savings on communication, why not plan a romantic interlude with your sweetheart. Take a weekend getaway in your respective cities, or choose somewhere in between and meet halfway.
