

Relationship Advice: Prepare for Unexpected Love Like Blake Shelton & Gwen Stefani

By Dr. Jane Greer

Country star Blake Shelton revealed that his current love, Gwen Stefani, was “the last person” who he expected to have his back after his celebrity divorce from Miranda Lambert. They’ve only been a celebrity couple for six months, but already he’s crazy about her. This is a great example of a couple finding love when they least expect it. Sometimes when you aren’t actively looking for it to happen is exactly when love may find you.

These pieces of relationship advice will dive into the unexpected love found between celebrity couple Blake Shelton and Gwen Stefani.

When you are getting over a betrayal or heartbreak, as both Blake and Gwen were after their respective marriages ended, it is hard to imagine yourself in another relationship. At that point, the last thing you want to do is take a chance and risk being wounded again by someone else. But if you can trust yourself in turning to someone who is supportive and there for you, not only can you start anew, but it's even possible that a new romance could blossom.

It can be difficult to talk about what you've been through and share your pain with a friend. A lot of times people want to shut down, and are not always comfortable reaching out and asking for support. They might feel embarrassed, humiliated, or unsure about trusting that the friend won't gossip about their story and private thoughts with someone else. However, you may find that in expressing your situation to a friend, and giving them the chance to offer empathy, you might begin to feel understood in a way that makes all the difference in the world.

The tendency is to shut down when you've been hurt, but letting yourself remain open can become the first step in the process of healing. They're able to see the best in you, and help bring out that side of you, so that you can move forward feeling stronger and better about yourself. This is a key piece of relationship advice of falling in love, which is being made to feel valued, terrific about yourself, desired, and, especially on the heels of losing all that when you are dealing with a break up, it can be an elixir of the heart. In fact, Blake was quoted as saying Gwen saved his life. There is no underestimating companionship – it can feel lifesaving.

While you may have only seen this person in one light – strictly platonic – that can shift as your circumstances and interactions with each other change. If that does happen, it can be a bonding experience and bring you together in a way that feels like a gain, where before you felt only lost and alone. With this in mind it can be positive to share your emotional pain with someone, rather than remaining closed off and keeping the heartache to yourself. It's natural to feel vulnerable if you suddenly find yourself being drawn to this person after everything you've been through, but it is worth it to let the relationship go forward. A good piece of relationship advice is to not be afraid to let these feelings naturally progress.

The celebrity couple recently sang a duet together on The Voice called, "Go Ahead and Break My Heart." Blake explained that they chose that title and the words to go with it because they are smart enough to know at this point that all relationships will have ups and downs. So why not just put it out there? They've been through it before, and they know there will be good and bad ahead, but right now they are so happy they found each other and they will deal with what's ahead. After a celebrity break-up or any kind of break-up, sometimes you just need someone there for you.

While Blake and Gwen are singing about it, it is equally beneficial to talk about it. Though it can feel scary, being involved in this relationship, facing your fears and acknowledging your insecurities can actually make you stronger. While you want to protect yourself and might typically look to keeping these feelings private, if you can instead be honest and genuine with someone you feel has your back, who knows where it might lead you, maybe even to a new love.

1. Paint splatter: Art has been a creative way for many people to vent about life's experiences. Why not use it to vent about a relationship? This celebrity news is pretty surprising! How do you know when you've begun dating around too much?

Cupid's Advice:

There are definitely merits to playing the field, but then again, too much of a good thing doesn't usually turn out positively. Cupid has some signs that you've been dating around too much:

1. You can't name your last three dates: If you're having a hard time remembering who you last went on a date with, and who was before that, and who was before that, you might have an over-dating problem. If you're looking for a relationship and aren't just dating around to date around, consider taking things a little bit more slowly and trying to get to know your dates prior to going out with them.

2. Kissing has begun to lose its meaning: At the end of most of your dates, you're no doubt giving them a kiss goodbye, if there's at least a little spark of attraction there. If this is just run of the mill for you and no big deal, then it's probably time to take a step back and reassess your dating life. Kissing should be meaningful!

3. He never called, and you didn't notice: If, after a date, someone doesn't call you, usually you're hyper aware of that. If you don't even notice, that's a bad sign! It means you're not invested in the dates you go on and you're just playing the field for no reason. Consider pumping some feeling back into the game!

Unfortunately, Williams tends to keep her personal life to herself, so it may a while before we get the true scoop on this pair.

This relationship looks like a casual one, though it could very easily turn out to be the real deal. They're both at the top of their field; they both have their own money; and they're both good-looking. It's a grand slam.

Shoshi's Prediction for Celebrity Exes Nicole Scherzinger and Lewis Hamilton

Nicole Scherzinger and Lewis Hamilton: These two make one hot famous couple. When they walk a red carpet, people have to fan themselves. That being said, it's not all hearts and flowers between them. They have broken up and gotten back together so many times that they probably don't know which date to use as their anniversary.

Related Link: Nicole Scherzinger and Lewis Hamilton Become Celebrity Exes Again

Besides their six-year age difference, there seems to be a lot of physical distance. Scherzinger lives in Los Angeles, while Hamilton lives in Monaco. It's being said that the distance is causing a strain on the relationship and love. Plus, there's the fact that Hamilton won't marry Scherzinger. Put all of that together, and it screams hot mess.

One of them is going to have to put an end to all of the celebrity break-ups and make-ups. From what I see, it will have to be Scherzinger. It looks like they want different things from their relationship. If no one is willing to move to make this relationship work, it doesn't stand a chance.
