Cupid's Advice:

Introducing your children from a previous relationship to your new partner is not only a big step in your relationship, but a big adjustment for your children. By focusing on your children and how they feel, you can help ensure a smooth transition into this new period in your lives. Here are some of Cupid's tips to introduce your kids to your new partner:

1. Introduce them in a group setting: By introducing your kids to your new partner in a group setting like a barbecue or at the park, this creates a no pressure atmosphere with your kids, so they don't have to worry about making a amazing first impression and vice versa. By meeting them in public group settings the first few times, this gives the kids more time to become acquainted with who your partner is, and will feel more comfortable down the line.

If they are having a problem with something, talk to them so you can work through it, and then you can move forward.

Food Trend: Seasonal Foods to Bring Spring Cleaning to Your Body

y Rachel Sparks

Spring means open windows, light breezes, knocking out the dust from every corner, and of course, getting ready for the dream beach body workout. Why limit spring cleaning to just your house? Your body has all of that sugar and fat leftover from decadent holiday foods, and the cold weather of winter made it pretty hard to keep up with your workout routine. Try these four easy food trends to cleanse your body and gear up for summer.

These seasonal food trends will bring spring cleaning to your body!

1. Green smoothies: Smoothies have been all the rage for celebrity diets for a long time now. If you have yet to jump on board with this liquid diet, you should really consider doing it now. Smoothies are an easy way to start your morning with lots of energy, but make sure you're looking up healthy recipes. Anything with berries, especially blueberries, and dark leafy greens cleanse your body, provide important antioxidants for repair, and give you a boost of energy. Gwyneth Paltrow, one of the healthiest foodies in the celebrity world, is all about juice diets!

2. Turmeric: This is a classic Indian trick that many people haven't quite accepted yet. Turmeric is that yellow stuff you see in a lot of curries (although distinct from yellow curry). Curcumin, the compound in turmeric that makes it yellow, helps with digestive disorders, liver issues, and inflammation. It's great for anyone with IBS or arthritis as a natural supplement, and that's in addition to the cleansing it does! Even Beyonce has used this detox to drop weight!

Related Link: Celebrity Diet: Get a Red-Carpet Ready Body & a Healthy Mind by Eating these Super Foods

3. Green Tea detox: Did you know one cup of green tea has more caffeine than a cup of coffee? The powers of green tea have been the latest rave, but for good reason. The chemical that makes green tea green, polyphenols, help rid the body of harmful chemicals. Studies have shown a cup of green tea a day helps reduce the risk of certain cancers, improves memory, and reduces belly fat. Maybe it's time to add green tea to the "apple a day" philosophy!

4. Lemon water: Lemon water is not being taken advantage of. If you're not starting your morning with a cup of lemon water (hot or cold) then you haven't felt utterly rejuvenated yet. Lemons contain antibacterial properties that purifies the blood and balances the pH of your colon. Nobody likes talking about the colon, but it really is quite dirty. Clean it up every once in awhile for much cleaner, easier, and healthier internal processing.

Celebrity News: Harvey Weinstein Lied About Having Intimate Relations with Gwyneth Paltrow

y Rachel Sparks

Harvey Weinstein's name has become a household warning. There's yet more celebrity news on Weinstein's decades long scandals. According to EOnline.com and The New York Times, Gwyneth Paltrow published a staggeringly long list of cover-ups and lies throughout Weinstein's career. One major lie Weinstein told was that Paltrow had consented to have sex with him in order to advance her career. Paltrow's name and Weinstein's lie was used as a weapon against other actresses in order for them to say "yes" to his advances.

This celebrity news has us cringing. What are some ways to ward off unwanted advances?

Cupid's Advice:

We all at some point will be in a position where we are made uncomfortable by unwanted advances. Male or female, someone with power can abuse their position to negotiate with you something you don't want to do. Cupid has relationship advice to help you when you're in these situations:

1. Call them out: Use your best judgement. Sometimes, calling out a person on their advances is exactly what it takes to end it. If a person thinks they can get away with something because they don't think you'll speak up, prove them wrong. Sometimes, though, the person making the advances is too aggressive and calling them out will anger them. Again, use your best judgement, but don't be afraid to speak up for yourself.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Reese Witherspoon Reveals She was Sexually Assaulted by Director at Age 16

2. Tell them to leave you alone, in no uncertain terms: If you firmly say you want nothing more, sometimes the person coming onto you will stop. If you say this in front of a group, the other people can hold the advancer accountable for their actions. But be careful, doing this makes it much more uncomfortable being alone with that person, so avoid alone time at all costs.

3. Report the behavior: If you've asked the person to stop and they haven't, told them to stop and they won't, called them out and they don't care, it's time to report this behavior. Telling an authority figure will likely mean someone steps in and protects you. There may be backlash, so don't be alone with that person. Stay strong.

In latest celebrity news, former celebrity couple, actress Gwyneth Paltrow and Coldplay front man Chris Martin, spent Thanksgiving together with their celebrity babies. This former celebrity couple is doing what's best for the kids. What are some ways to remain civil with your ex for your children?

Cupid's Advice:

It's important to always take the high road in life and to remember to stay positive. After you have split from your partner via separation or divorce, it can be very hard for you to be around your ex. It's crucial that you remain civil if there are children involved. Cupid has some tips:

1. Talk it out: Even though you are no longer together, you are still connected to each other because of your children for life, so you must get it together. It's good to talk to your ex about every aspect concerning the children's lives to make sure you are on the same page and know what's going on!

2. Showcase mature behavior: Divorces and separations are always hardest on the kids. When interacting with your ex, make sure that you put up a happy front for their sake(s). Don't argue or say anything passive aggressive. If the children see tension, then it will make them feel like they did something wrong, and they shouldn't be in a position where they feel pressured to pick sides.

3. Watch what you say: When talking to your relatives or friends, make sure your children can't hear when you are discussing their mother/father. If you are going to talk about your ex, do it when they are not around, or make sure they can't decipher who you are talking about. Remember, say what you mean – just don't say it mean.

Rumor has it that Paltrow is already part of a new celebrity couple. How do you know when you're ready to move on after a split?

Cupid's Advice:

Moving on can sometimes feel like you're climbing a never-ending mountain, but then one day, you finally reach the top, and you realize the view isn't half bad. When you feel that you have closure from your past relationship, the next step is moving forward. If you're wondering whether or not you're up to starting something new, consider these three pieces of love advice:

1. You physically feel better: Sometimes, emotional pain transitions into physical pain. There seems to be a never-ending pit in your stomach that leaves you feeling nauseous. When you've let go of past emotions and memories and accept that he isn't coming back, you feel lighter. The songs on the radio don't "speak" to you anymore; you aren't avoiding certain places you went together; and you find yourself forgetting to think about him from time to time. This weight that lifts is a sign that you don't have to be held back anymore. Paltrow has been able to let go of past grievances after her celebrity divorce, and they've even remained close friends. There is nothing keeping you in the past, so you can create your own future.

2. You've thought about dating again: When you're ready to move on, thoughts of dating cross your mind more frequently, and they usually aren't about your past significant others. Finding new men to reach out to can help stimulate the healing process and allow you to consider new avenues for finding love. Celebrity couple Paltrow and Falchuk both waited until the right moment to be together.

3. You've had complete closure: Closure is hard to come by, but when you finally have it, everything feels at peace. Though the truth about why things ended may hurt, it also allows you to feel more in tune to your senses. There won't be any more "what ifs" nagging at your mind before you go to sleep each night. You won't be analyzing everything that went wrong, and you'll be able to just have the memories of everything you did right. Use your past relationships and love to help you in the future.

The love is still there for Chris Martin and Gwyneth Paltrow. According to UsMagazine.com, the estranged spouses have remained friends, despite the announcement of their split back in March. The Coldplay frontman talked about the relationship between him and his spouse during an interview with Ryan Seacrest on Thursday, July 31st. "I'm not the best interviewee on this kind of thing," Martin said when asked by the 102.7 KIIS FM host how him and Paltrow are able to remain friends during their separation. "But we're friends and proud parents. There's lots of love, and that's it," he added.

What are some ways to remain friends with your ex post-breakup?

Cupid's Advice:

When you think of an ex, you don't always think of the possibility of being cordial with each other, let alone friends. Matter of fact, the first thing that may come to mind is despising one another. Despite the pages of history, whether good or bad, there is a way to actually become friends. Cupid has some advice to get you and your ex to that point:

1. Find your way to good terms: Communicate thoroughly with your ex-partner to gain a full understanding on why the relationship ended. If there is no chance of reconciling, at least you will be able to avoid a ton of confusion later down the road when you all are working on rebuilding your friendship.

Related: Chris Martin Blames His 'Issues' for Split with Gwyneth Paltrow

2. Control your emotions: Avoid harboring those ill feelings. They can lead to even more major problems between you and your ex. Do not expect to any progress if you are a carrying a load or two of baggage from the past. Unfortunately, it's not as easy as it sounds and will take some time to adjust. What's most important is that you give it a try.

Related: Source Says Gwyneth Paltrow and Chris Martin Look 'Genuinely Happy' in Hamptons

3. Move on: If you are able to do exactly this, your post-breakup friendship has the possibility of flourishing. The two of you are no longer concerned about what the other is doing, per se. You have turned the page and started a new chapter. Embrace it. Go out for lunch like regular friends would do (as strange as that may seem).
