

Beauty Tips: Everything You Need to Know About Shampoo for Healthy Hair

Healthy hair is something most people strive for, but you don't always know how the wrong shampoo can impact the overall look, feel, and health of your hair. With the rise of social media beauty influencers and bloggers, it's become even easier to be misled by false information. Luckily, we have some beauty advice to help you have the healthiest hair possible.

No matter your hair type you have, here are some beauty tips to help debunk common shampoo myths to keep your hair healthy.

How Long Can I Use the Same Shampoo?

Despite the rumors, there's really no science behind your shampoo losing its effect after frequent use. That's not to say that you may have noticed your shampoo has stopped giving you the results you're used to seeing. What may be happening has less to do with the shampoo and more to do with the condition of your hair. If the condition of your hair has changed, it may have different needs now. We recommend trying out a new brand every few years.

Will Frequent Shampooing Strip my Hair of its Natural Oils?

Every person is different, so it's hard to say exactly how often someone should wash their hair. We like to suggest starting off with a weekly wash and pay attention to how your hair responds. Chemicals like coloring and change in the seasons may mean tweaking your hair care regimen to support continued growth.

The type of shampoo you use will also affect your hair's health. Certain brands have harsh cleaning agents in them that can strip the hair and scalp of the oil we need to protect our hair and keep it moisturized. The key to making sure shampoo does not dry out your hair also has to do with your technique. Instead of spreading the shampoo evenly throughout your hair, focus primarily on cleaning your scalp. This will increase blood circulation, which also encourages hair growth.

Will Frequent Shampooing Dry Out My Hair?

The ingredients in your shampoo can make all of the difference. You want to look for formulas that contain a balance of cleaning and moisturizing agents. If you are struggling with hair loss, you want to focus on a shampoo that contains a DHT blocker. DHT can be credited with causing hair loss because the hormone binds to the healthy hair follicles and deprives them of proper oxygen and nutrients.

Will Frequent Shampooing Make My Hair More Greasy?

Believe it or not, the opposite may happen. Sebum is produced by the glands near your hair follicles. Factors like your genetics and your hair type decide how much or how little sebum we each produce. Our glands will continue to create around the same amount of sebum to protect the hair or scalp, regardless of how often you use shampoo. You can trust that your shampoo will only wash away the dirt, oils, products, and dead skin cells that build-up on the scalp.

Will Frequent Shampooing Make My Hair Fall Out?

We naturally lose around 100 hairs a day, but we don't usually notice it. Even though the strands have been dislodged, they may still be hanging on near the follicle. When we shampoo, we tend to dislodge hair that was probably already detached. The longer you go between washes, the more time you're allowing loose hair to dislodge and wait until your next wash. Eventually, when you do wash, you're technically losing the same amount of hair, it's just all coming out at once.

If you need some celebrity inspiration, Rihanna or Kendall Jenner are always changing up their 'dos.

Colorful tresses took over NY Fashion Week, see if you can take inspiration from some of these bright celebrity hairstyles!

Steel Blue: English singer and songwriter Louisa Johnson isn’t afraid to dabble in icy tones. The smokey pastel blue color helps to bring out her lovely features. Her blunt cut and soft layers also add a hint of sophistication to this punky color. What's even better? She achieved this look with L'oreal box dye!

Pretty in Pink: American model Hailey Baldwin mixes femininity and edge with this rosy pink hair color. Loose body waves give this style a youthful appearance, so be wary if you're trying to achieve a mature look with your hairstyle. Pastel tones are also a pretty and playful contrast with tan skin.

Galaxy Colors: Demi Lovato does much more than sing, she can also paint the colors of the galaxy! Dying a whole head with multiple colors can be high maintenance and difficult to upkeep, so take a page out Demi's book and try colorful extensions or dip-dyed ends in purple, blue and pink.

Pastel Rainbow: Some might say Kylie Jenner is the queen of changing hair colors. She stunned fans at Coachella last year with multicolored locks. The pastel touch adds a modern twist to rainbow hair. However, it's important to note that this look is very high maintenance.

Designer Jeremy Scott sent model Olesya Ivanishcheva down the catwalk with neon pink hair, while ADEAM let model Mae Lapres walk down in electric blue. So it seems that celebrities are onto to something with their out-there hair trends.

By Cortney Moore

Need a a dramatic change for 2017? Maybe these hair trends are just what you need in your life! Sometimes all you need is a different style, color or cut to make you feel brand new. Learn about the latest celebrity style and how you can achieve these fashionable trends with the following beauty tips.

Beauty tips that will keep your hair up to date!

1. A touch of orange: Ladies no longer have to be afraid of brassy tones. Orange hair is becoming a popular trend this year. There are so many shades you can try: copper, rose gold, peach bellini, blorange (the new strawberry blonde), creamsicle and much more! Go out and take a risk; maybe redheads are the ones who have all the fun.

2. Low maintenance cuts: Boys aren't the only ones who can rock short hair. Cropped tresses are here to stay for 2017. This look is perfect for those who want to bring out their bone structure or add edge to their style. That's not to mention how low maintenance these cuts are, so you'll save a lot of time on your beauty regimen. You'll also save a bit of money on styling products compared to your long-haired companions.

3. The faux-perm: Big curly hair has made a comeback! Chunky spiral curls can be achieved with a flexi rod set. Don't worry if your curls don't come out perfectly uniform. A little frizz or varied texture gives your hair more definition and looks chic. The fluffier the curls, the better. Enjoy bringing the 80's out with this unique hairstyle.

4. Denim everything: Another popular hair color trend for 2017 is denim hair! Much like the granny trend, the shades for this style vary from subtle to bold. Sneak in a pop of color to dark hair by adding a bit of indigo, or go the acid wash route with pastel blues, purples and greys. If you're really daring, you can add drama with a blend of these colors altogether.

Tabatha Coffey Says That Staying True to Yourself Is Important In All Aspects of Life

By Kerri Sheehan

Australian hairstylist, salon owner and television personality Tabatha Coffey sure has a solid resume. She has been in the hair industry for over 30 years, and in 2007, she was voted the first ever Fan Favorite on the Bravo network's reality series Shear Genius. Since then, she received her own spin-off series, Tabatha's Salon Takeover, in which she helps failing salon owners turn their businesses around. After three successful seasons, Coffey has moved on to sprucing up a variety of small businesses on her newest reality television endeavor, Tabatha Takes Over.

“I just had such an overwhelming, positive response from everyone writing to me and saying, ‘I really love what you do. I wish you could help me, but I’m not a hairdresser. I really need help with my business.’ It seemed like a natural progression to be able to go into other businesses and help them turn things around,” says the reality star sensation.

The current season of Tabatha Takes Over is the second of its kind, and Coffey hints that viewers will have quite a lot to look forward to. “We still have some salons that I’m going into, and for a lot of people, the salons are still the favorites. We have a lot of non-salons that we’re going into as well, and I know a lot of people enjoy that too. It’s a lot of fun. There’s a nice balance with both.” Coffey also alludes to the return of some of the show’s alumni. “We may check in with some past favorites,” she says.

After seeing her in action, it’s no surprise that the hairdresser loves filming the show and helping people turn their lives around. “I get so emotionally invested with every business that I go into that I take the journey with the owners and the employees.” Her favorite times on the show are when she is really able to help the business owner and employees turn over a new leaf. “I always enjoy any time that I see success, that I see people turn their business around. When we’re able to save a business, that’s my favorite because that’s ultimately what I hope for every time.”

Related Link: Celebrity Couples Who Have Turned Over a New Leaf

Of course, her life isn’t all work. Coffey has been in a committed relationship with her partner for more than a decade. She cites communication as the key to keeping her love a priority despite her hectic schedule. “It’s hard for everyone to find a balance because I think we all get so busy and get so into our own things,” she explains. “So if I’m travelling, I make sure that I’m sending a text and seeing how everything’s going. It’s important to check in and not just be concerned with what’s going on with me.”

As someone who is open about being gay, the television personality shares some tips to anyone struggling to be honest and open about their feelings: “It’s easy to become wrought with the fear of having to tell the truth to your family and friends, but you have to really believe in yourself and be true to yourself. It’s your life, and you have to live it and be happy with who you are and be honest about who you are. You can’t live inauthentically.”

Coffey believes that staying true to yourself is vital in every facet of life, especially when it comes to your primping rituals. When asked about hairstyles for different events, she thinks the best rule to follow is to be you. For a first date, she says, “It’s great to glam it out a little bit and, you know, put a little bit more makeup on or dress your hair up a little bit, but you should also be true to who you are. If you’re going to go overboard and really glam it out and that’s just not you, then you’re really not letting your date see who you truly are.”

Related Link: Four Dates and a Wedding

For a more glamorous night, like a romantic dinner, she thinks that it’s okay to do something fancier with your locks. “I’m sure that the dress you’re going to wear is a little bit sexier, and your hair should follow suit.”

More likely than not, your spouse has a strong opinion about how they like your hair. “Let’s say your guy likes your hair when it’s curly, but that’s not your favorite thing. Maybe then, your romantic date night is the time to indulge your significant other. Make sure that you play into their opinion a little more and do what they like.” Whether it’s wearing your hair up, down, slicked back or with some extra texture, show your partner what he wants to see.

As for a wedding day, Coffey urges readers to not stray from what they know works and says, “Never make a drastic change before your big day!” The weeks before a wedding are always heavily laden with emotions, so a bride may feel like she’s being spread thin. Therefore, a major change can lead to disaster. When you feel out of control, the one thing you can control is hair, so it’s never a good time to change your hair when you’re engulfed in emotion. “Stay true to yourself because a lot of brides go crazy and do something that they normally wouldn’t do with their hair. When they look at their pictures, they don’t even feel like themselves anymore.”

You can catch Tabatha Takes Over on Thursdays at 10/9c. If you can’t get enough of Coffey on Bravo, you can catch her speaking tour called Meeting with Tabatha, which will begin in Connecticut before it heads to Los Angeles and Arizona. It will give business owners tips for turning their business around and allow them to have an up-close-and-personal questions-and-answers session. You can also follow Coffey on Twitter and Facebook.

Giveaway: Do It Yourself Beauty- Say “Yes” to Shaving Less

This post is sponsored by Silk'n SensEpil.

When I first received the Silk'n SensEpil laser hair removal device, I had a little hesitancy about using it. As a woman who doesn't really mind shaving, I wasn't interested in embarking on a new technological adventure. I just wanted to stay in my little shick and bic disposable world. After all, I had been shaving my legs for 20+ years and never had a problem with it.

For a few days, the device sat on my desk staring at me in its pretty pink box. It also sat there staring at the team of young ladies working with me. Everyone was enthralled and wanted to test it out. Even my brother, Frank who had been visiting from out of town asked me about the product. "I haven't actually tried it yet," was my response. "However, I do need to test it out this week."

That evening, while I was cooking dinner, Frank decided to open the box, and read the instructions for me (I think he secretly wanted to test it out-lol). He set it up, so that all I had to do was put it on the area I wanted to treat and go! To my surprise, it was easier than I thought. Actually, too easy. I turned it on, waited for the indicator light to illuminate and began the process of testing it on my leg.

I even snapped a few before photos to showcase the results but unfortunately, they didn't come out so well. I guess that's what happens when you try to take close-ups with a blackberry. Again, it all goes back to being too lazy to buy a new camera and read the operating instructions. It's just not my thing. But, here's a photo that did come out well.

One of me using the device:

It was so easy to use the Silk'n SensEpil laser hair removal device. You put it on the area you want to treat, and hit the button. A light flashes, a quick pulse of heat touches the surface of the area and bam...it's done. It's virtually painless. It did take some getting used to the heat but it goes away before you can even really register that it happened. A full leg takes about 15 minutes. At first, I thought it would be inconvenient to use this but considering that most of my morning is spent shaving my legs and underarms, this is definitely worth the time it will save me in the long run. And, the cost is so reasonable, at $499.00, it not only beats the spa treatments by a large margin but razor blades can add up pretty quickly too.

Once I got past the fact that I had to learn a new technology (which was nothing to worry about), I was excited about the experience. More time, less money and smooth legs. There's really no reason not to use it, buy it and love it.

Special Discount:

From September 1st through December 31st, 2011 you can receive an extra 20% off your purchase of Silk'n SensEpil products ($200 minimum purchase required). To redeem this offer use this code: "Beauty20." Don't miss out on this great opportunity for rapid, beautiful, hairless results.

All you had to do was submit your very own humorous or horrific hair removal story. The contest ended on September 23 at 12:00 p.m., and we had a great story come in from Melissa Cabellero. Melissa, who was sick and tired of waxing her boyfriend's back was struggling for an easier solution when she heard about our contest. Well, Melissa...your wish was granted. Congratulations!

You're riding the elevator with the hottie you've been eyeing in Apartment 12B when he spontaneously asks you to grab a drink downstairs in 15 minutes. As you get off at your floor and fumble for your keys, you not only realize that you have nothing to wear but that you haven't shaved your legs in days.

In a panic, you grab your razor and do one of those "dry shaves," only to be left with little red bumps everywhere.

What a nightmare!

If only you had cashed in on your local spa's painless laser treatment promotion that came to your inbox last week. Then again, the thought of laser treatment is just a mere dream as you calculate the expense, inconvenience and time. What's a girl to do?

Our Solution:

Well, Cupid wants to share a little secret with you: there's now a home laser device that's simple, quick and clean with minimal set-up required. Silk'n SensEpil is the answer to your shaving frustrations. It takes only minutes for you to get started and you can do it in the convenience of your home.

You don't have to worry about squeezing a laser appointment into your already crazy schedule. And, Silk'n SensEpil covers a larger area of skin than other competitors so an entire male chest or set of female legs can be treated in 15-20 minutes. Yes, you heard that correctly!

Cost:

Worried about spending a fortune? Not with Silk'n SensEpil.

Professional spa treatments can cost up to $2,000 for one area, but this device covers all areas of your body for a quarter of the price. And, unlike those conventional laser treatments it's approved for facial hair too. Wow!
