Cupid’s Advice:

It shows great maturity to support your ex after a break-up. Cupid has some tips on how to keep things amicable post-split:

1. Open communication: While your first instinct after a break-up might be to block your ex on every outlet of social media while ceasing any interactions, it’s sometimes better to keep the channel of communication open. Don’t be afraid to contact your ex to tie up loose ends. Just because you aren’t in a relationship anymore doesn’t mean your ex doesn’t have to be in your life!

In celebrity news, Kendra Wilkinson is appealing to her fans for advice one month after filing for divorce from Hank Baskett. What are some ways to know you're ready to move on after a split.

Cupid's Advice:

Deciding when to move on after a split is tough, because you want to make sure your heart is ready. Cupid has some tips:

1. You've stopped internet stalking your ex: It's okay to admit it, we all do it. After a tough break-up, it's natural to be checking up on your former lover on social media. A surefire way of knowing if you're over your ex is if you lose the urge to see your old flame's latest picture on Instagram or their most recent tweet. If you've moved on, you shouldn't care about what your ex is up to.

2. You're okay on your own: After a break-up, you can often feel pretty lonely and isolated without having your significant other around all the time. Before hopping into another relationship, it's important that you're able to be independent and are confident in yourself. This way, you can make sure your next relationship is a genuine one and not a rebound from your last!

3. The prospect of dating excites you: Being single can definitely be a freeing thing, but if you can't help but start picturing yourself coupled up with potential suitors, then you're probably ready to try dating again! You don't need to rush into anything, but follow your instincts. If you feel the time is right, go for it!

In recent celebrity news, Kensington Palace released a statement in response to Meghan Markle's father, Thomas Markle, backing out of attending the royal celebrity wedding. On behalf of Prince Harry and Meghan Markle, a Kensington Palace spokesman said on Monday, "This is a deeply personal moment for Ms. Markle in the days before her wedding. She and Prince Harry ask again for understanding and respect to be extended to Mr. Markle in this difficult situation." According to EOnline.com, the statement is in response to Markle's father announcing he would no longer be attending the celebrity couple's special day.

Even when it comes to the royal celebrity wedding, family drama

happens. What are some ways to keep family drama from affecting your big day?

Cupid's Advice:

Even royals aren't immune to family drama. Cupid has some tips of keeping family drama from affecting your wedding:

1. Establish boundaries: While we know pushy relatives are only trying to get involved in the wedding process because of how much they love you, it's important to make it clear to your family that it's your special day. Talk to your parents, in-laws and everyone else about how all decisions are ultimately up to you and your partner, even though you appreciate their input.
