

Celebrity Couple News: Hilary Duff Shares Heartfelt Tribute to Matthew Koma on Engagement Anniversary

By Ellie Rice

In the latest celebrity news, Hilary Duff posted a series of Instagram photos honoring her husband, Matthew Koma, to celebrate the anniversary of their engagement. The pair had been dating three years prior to the engagement and share a daughter together. According to UsMagazine.com, the happy couple met back in 2015 while Koma was producing one of Duff's music albums.

In this celebrity couple news, Hilary and Matthew are reflecting on the day they got engaged. What are some ways to make your engagement personal and memorable?

Cupid's Advice:

Aside from your wedding day and the birth of your child, getting engaged is one of the most special days of your adult life. If you're curious about how to make it memorable, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Capture the moments: Whether you are the one proposing, or you've just been proposed to, capturing this special moment is so important. Hire a photographer or enlist a friend to help make this time extra special and something you both can always look back on. If you've just been proposed to, take pictures of the ring and the two of you, so this day can last forever. You can show the pictures at your wedding, and take a page of out Hilary Duff's playbook and reminisce on social media!

2. Share the news: One of the beauties of social media is its ability to quickly spread information. Family and friends from all over the world can be reached at the click of a button. Share the news of your engagement across your platforms, only when you're ready of course, so everyone you love can celebrate with you! Call your friends and family as their excitement for you will be out of this world. Years from now you will all be able to reminisce on the happiness of this occasion.

Celebrity News: Matthew Koma Calls Hilary Duff 'Wife' Sparking Marriage Rumors

By Hope Ankney

In the latest celebrity news, Matthew Koma has, seemingly, sparked rumors that he and Hilary Duff have secretly tied the knot. According to UsMagazine.com, the musician referred to Duff as his “wife” in an Instagram post shared on Saturday night. In the photo, you can see the actress mid-laugh as she’s dressed to the nines. Many fans began speculating about a possible wedding ceremony, but neither party responded. Instead, Duff posted a photo to her own Instagram the same night of the two, detailing that they were attending the AdoptTogether’s 2019 Baby Ball in Los Angeles.

In celebrity news, is it possible that Hilary Duff and Matthew Koma tied the knot in secret? What are some benefits to keeping your nuptials on the down-low?

Cupid's Advice:

It's not uncommon for celebrity couples to secretly get married. Their entire lives are handed to the public on a silver platter. Privacy is something they don't take for granted, so it's understandable that there are some aspects of their world that they would like to keep separate. But, this isn't just helpful for celebrity relationships. It can be just as beneficial for anyone to keep their private life... well, private. Here are some of Cupid's best relationship advice on why getting married on the down-low can actually be a good thing:

1. Filtered social media: The advancements in the visual aspect of social media has changed how we get attention from our peers. However, if you become obsessed with recognition and likes, it can negatively affect your relationship. It begins to blossom when a couple notices that they're more in love with the idea of their relationship being flaunted online than they actually are being in the relationship. Keeping your marriage private can help in keeping both of your motivations pure as you step into the next part of your lives together. It's important to note when you're in a partnership with another because you have a genuine bond versus when you love the views that social media gives you for that partnership.

2. Fewer riffs due to privacy: When you share almost every waking moment of your marriage online or with others, it hinders the relationship from having a bond that should be shared only with each other. Most spouses aren't exactly excited to know that the majority of their relationship is exposed to third parties. This can cause drama and unnecessary issues in your marriage when others know about problems or complications that are normally kept quiet.

Related Link: Celebrity Wedding: Justin Bieber & Hailey Baldwin Tie the Knot for the Second Time

3. Less opportunity for exes to meddle: No matter what, it seems like some exes just don't allow you to ever be happy. The only thing worse than friends or family being in your marriage's business is if an ex is meddling in it as well. This can damage your relationship if your marriage isn't built on the strongest of foundations. Disclosing information to your ex or those who know your ex can be harmful, and it should be something that isn't taken lightly. Don't allow yourself to be vulnerable, and always be wise.

What are some ways that you've found being private with your marriage has been beneficial? Let us know down below!

Celebrity Interview: Actress Haylie Duff Talks Thanksgiving Meals and Marriage

Interview by Lori Bizzoco. Written by Courtney Shapiro

Between being a mom, an actress, and a blogger, Haylie Duff has her hands full. With the holidays fast approaching, she needs to find recipes and meals that are quick and delicious for her family.

In our exclusive celebrity interview, we chat with Duff about her favorite Thanksgiving memories, while she gives us some great advice for preparing easy meals during this time of the year.

Celebrity Interview with Haylie Duff: Thanksgiving Dinner Advice, Family Traditions, and Life with Two Kids

Duff loves spending Thanksgiving with her family, and when asked about her favorite memory, she didn't hesitate to share. "One [memory] that really comes to mind is we were thawing our big turkey, for the big day, out on our front porch when we lived in the hill country," she said. "Somehow our neighbor's two dogs got a hold of it while it was thawing out in the hot air of the South." Duff says that the disappearing turkey was a great mystery for her and her family that year. She recounts that she didn't really even care about the turkey; she was just happy to celebrate with loved ones.

While talking about Thanksgiving dishes, the mom of two tells us that she would rather do all of the prep work before the big holiday meal, so that she can spend more time with her family. That's part of the reason the actress partnered with Libby's during this busy time of year. "I really love using Libby's canned vegetables because they're pre-sliced and they're pre-chopped," she admits. Not to mention, "They are also celebrating their 6th annual getbacktothetable.com/cansgiving sweepstakes and I'm all about giving back and thinking about the things I'm thankful for," she said.

After being the only one in her family who lacked cooking skills, Duff decided to start The Real Girls Kitchen blog. "It was time for me to learn how to cook for myself," the blogger said. "I started posting things online that I did well on and that I made mistakes on." She loved that her readers were learning along with her and that sometimes the mistakes turned out to be good surprises. She shares with us that her go-to side dish is baked sliced carrots and beets with maple syrup and seasonings, bringing a colorful, tasty addition to the table.

Before wrapping our celebrity interview, we had to know if marriage to Matt Rosenberg, Duff's fiancé and father of her children, is expected in the future. "We talk about it all the time, but show me a free weekend," she laughs. Being a mom of two kids along with a job, a clothing line, and a blog can make it very difficult for this celebrity couple to find time to settle down.

Celebrity Style: Distressed Denim Looks

By Karley Kemble

Denim is the best because it is never off-trend. Seriously. Whether you dress them up or dress them down, they are effortlessly versatile! With so many different colors, washes, and styles, there are endless ways to rock your jeans, denim jackets, or chic chambrays. One denim style that is always in style is distressed denim, probably because it manages to look both edgy and laid-back. Perfect for a casual date night or to pack in your bag for a romantic getaway, you can never go wrong with a pair of distressed denim jeans.

If you're looking for new ways to wear your distressed denim, you need these celebrity style tips! Cupid promises you'll turn heads.

1. Long cardigan: When paired with a long cardigan, distressed jeans look super casual, but amazingly cute and put-together!

Throw on a tucked in tee shirt and slip on a pair of ankle booties. Sofia Vergara has been seen sporting this combo, and it's honestly the perfect daytime outfit for Sunday brunch with the girls, or doing some retail therapy!

Food Trend: Our 5 Favorite Cleanses for a Physical Spring Cleaning

By Rachel Sparks

Spring is a time of rebirth. We're shedding those chunky knit sweaters for v-neck tees and choker necklaces. Our hair is coming out of its perpetual bun and our we're dredging our skin of dead layers and thick moisturizers. While we're thinking about the next celebrity beauty trend, we need to also consider how to keep our inner workings clean so that our skin and hair will have a natural glow. In addition to celebrity fitness tips, these five food trend cleanses are what celebrities like Vanessa Hudgens, Amber Rose, and Hilary Duff use to boast about their hot celebrity bodies! Before you know it, you'll feel confident enough to walk out in the latest celebrity styles.

This food trend is all about bringing spring cleaning to your body!

1. Herbal teas: Drink more tea, seriously. Most herbs will help target specific concerns. Cinnamon and turmeric, for example, are well known for their anti-inflammatory properties. If you're wanting to relieve some of the aches in your body and encourage weight loss, this flowery, lightly spiced tea is all you need. Brew hibiscus, ginger, willow, dandelion, and high mallow in water.

2. Apple cider vinegar: If it sounds weird, you're not wrong. While it might take some getting used to, this classic is made from items that are likely already in your cupboard. ACV boosts your immune system and jump starts your metabolism for a preventive and weight-losing concoction. The classic apple cider vinegar drink recipe typically contains apple cider vinegar, lemon juice, water, cinnamon, and cayenne pepper.

3. Ayurvedic tea: If you don't know what Ayurvedic means, you're not alone. An ancient form of Indian medicine falls under this name, but the term is often used for referring to natural remedies. This classic tea uses some well-known spices that help with inflammation, digestion, and headaches. For a natural cleanse with an Eastern twist, mix turmeric ginger, coriander, cumin, and fennel. Trust us, don't go for the jarred spices; invest in roots or high quality dried leaves.

4. Target specific organs: If we listen to our bodies we can often tell where the issue is. While a full-body cleanse has its benefits, targeting concerns can help alleviate symptoms faster. For your liver, try turmeric, dandelion, and ginger tea. It's a great detox after a binger. Ginger is best known as a digestif. Licorice treats headaches. Before you know it, you might become an herbalist.

5. Vegetable juice: When most of us think detox, we think of juices and smoothies. Guess what, there's truth to that. The best thing you can do for your body is provide it with a multitude of fresh fruits and vegetables in all their variety. Leafy greens are notorious for their cleansing properties, but not everyone wants to eat them. Try out some fun recipes to make it delicious. Our favorite: apples, carrot, lemon, ginger, turmeric, beetroot, kale and cilantro.

Food Trend: Foods to Help Fight Springtime Allergies

By Rachel Sparks

Springtime is incredible. We can finally shed those extra layers, the greenery is coming back, the world is colorful from thousands of blossoms, and all the animals and birds come back. It's a time of life and renewal, until allergies kick in. What can ruin a magnificent springtime? Itchy eyes, a runny nose, and an incessant cough. Hilary Duff, Jessica Alba, and Tori Spelling are all known for their suffering from allergies. Cupid has the best food trends to help kick your allergies to the curb.

These food trends will help you survive the dreaded allergies of springtime!

1. Probiotics: You've heard of the wonders of probiotics. They're great for balancing bacteria in your belly to make sure that your insides work without any issues. Guess what else they do: fight allergies! Studies have shown that babies who feed on breastmilk where the mother took probiotics during and after pregnancy are less likely to have eczema and other forms of allergies. The good news for adults: we can skip the milk and go straight to the probiotics for some relief.

2. Sinus clearing spices: Spices like anise, fennel, horseradish, and mustard act as natural decongestants. If you're feeling stopped up in the nose, eating or drinking some of these spices help break up the congestion in your nose so you can breathe a bit easier.

3. Bioflavonoids: Say what? Bioflavonoids are proven allergy relief because they act as mast-cell stabilizers, which decrease the number of cells that react to allergens. Fewer cells reacting means fewer allergy symptoms. Where can you find these miracle workers? In apples, onions, tea, and red wine.

Related Link: Celebrity Diet: Get a Red-Carpet Ready Body and a Healthy Mind by Eating These Super Foods

4. Omega-3's: Yup, that fish oil trend you've heard about for years is legitimate and well worth jumping on the band wagon. Along with happy vitamins that help balance your emotions and the memory-boosting elements, your swimmer friends contain EPA and DHA. Both EPA and DHA reduce allergic reactions. The best source: cold water fish, such as salmon, sardines, trout, tuna, bluefish, and herring

5. Local Honey: Our personal favorite: honey! It's sweet and delicious, great in dessert, teas, or even on a spoon. If you've ever had a cough, your mom may have made you drink tea with honey. The honey sticks to your throat, calming any irritation. But it gets better. Local honey uses local pollen, the very thing that causes your allergies. Ingesting this is a natural way of boosting your body's resiliency against local allergens.

Celebrity News: Rape Charges Against Hilary Duff's Ex Mike Comrie Dropped

By Marissa Donovan

Hilary Duff's ex husband and co-parent Mike Comrie has been dropped from his rape charges. Back in February, the retired NHL player was under investigation for alleged sexual battery by The Los Angeles Police Department. According to UsMagazine.com, his accuser claimed the sex was consensual, until Comire engaged in an act the woman did not consent to. Duff has not commented about the case, but remains close with Comire.

In this celebrity news, Hilary Duff's ex isn't up against nasty charges anymore. What are some ways to deal with your partner getting in trouble with the law?

Cupid's Advice:

Like Duff, you may find yourself caught in the middle of your partner's allegations. Consider this relationship advice when your partner is in trouble with the law:

1. Listen to your partner's perspective: Your partner obviously has something to say about his current circumstances. Listen to what he has to say. You are allowed to agree or disagree with his statements, but it is valuable to hear his side of the story.

Celebrity Couple: Hilary Duff & New Boyfriend Matthew Koma Make First Red Carpet Appearance

By Cortney Moore

It is now red carpet official! Hilary Duff and new boyfriend Matthew Koma made their first public appearance at Entertainment Weekly's pre-SAG Award party. The new celebrity couple coordinated matching black outfits and looked effortlessly chic while they partied the night away. According to a source from UsMagazine.com, the pair "had great chemistry" when they collaborated on Duff's 2015 Breathe In. Breathe Out. album, so it shouldn't be much of a surprise. The musically-inclined couple first made celebrity news earlier this month over their coffee date. "They were leaning in and laughing a lot. They had their arms linked and kissed at one point," an insider told Us at the time; but this latest outing confirms that this celebrity couple is here to stay.

This new celebrity couple is making it official! What are some ways to debut your new relationship to family and friends?

Cupid's Advice:

When you've finally found the one, the next step is to introduce them to the other important people in your life. It can be a nerve-racking experience, but it doesn't have to be. Cupid is here to provide you with creative ideas on debuting your new relationship:

1. Send a cute picture: Nip all the questions in the bud by showing your family and friends pictures of your new beau. This will provide a face to the name you provide them. It also prepares them in regards to who they'll be meeting soon.

Celebrity News: New Couple Hilary Duff & Matthew Koma 'Had Great Chemistry in the Studio'

By Whitney Johnson

Hilary Duff has a new boyfriend – and it sounds like this celebrity couple had great chemistry long before they coupled up. According to the latest celebrity news on UsMagazine.com, the pop star first collaborated with Matthew Koma on her 2015 album Breathe In. Breathe Out. “They had great chemistry in the studio,” a Duff source reveals. “Hilary thinks Matt is very talented and cute.” Earlier this month, the musical pair put their celebrity relationship on display during a long weekend at Santa Barbara’s San Ysidro Ranch – the same spot where the Younger star spent her August 2010 wedding night with then-husband Mike Comrie. Despite their romantic getaway, the new celebrity couple is taking things slow: “It’s pretty recent. They’re seeing where it goes,” the source added.

In celebrity news, Hilary Duff has a new musical boyfriend! What are some benefits to having hobbies in common with your partner?

Cupid’s Advice:

If you and your boyfriend, like the couple in this celebrity news, have similar hobbies, consider it a good thing! Sharing common interests will bring you closer together and make your relationship even stronger. Below, Cupid reveals three benefits to having the same likes and dislikes as your partner:

1. You’ll be happier: Research suggests that couples who try new things and share common interests, particularly active pursuits, are happier. When you share hobbies with your partner, it’s like having a built-in sounding board. You can bounce ideas off one another, and the time you spend together will be even more worthwhile.

Celebrity News: Hilary Duff Speaks Out on Divorce, Marriage, Monogamy and More

By Kayla Garritano

This star is coming clean! In celebrity news, Hilary Duff opened up about divorce, marriage, monogamy and more while discussing past relationships and her current love life. According to UsMagazine.com, Duff and her Younger co-star, Nico Tortorella, sat down for a casual interview with the podcast show, The Love Bomb. "All of my relationships have been in the public eye. Whether people care or not, that's a different story," Duff brought up to co-star Nico Tortorella. "But enough people seem to have cared that it's talked about." Despite her problems, Duff never took love as a joke. Her first serious relationship happened at the age of 16. She then met Mike Comrie in her early 20's and they were married in 2010, having a child in 2012. Although divorcing, these celebrity exes still remain friends. Now, she is currently dating personal trainer Jason Walsh. Although she doesn't "feel the need to get married again," she is open to the idea if it is important to her significant other.

In this celebrity news, Hilary Duff finally opens up about her relationships. What are some ways to keep an open mind in your relationships?

Cupid's Advice:

Relationships can be tricky, but it is good to always have an open mind when you're with someone. Cupid is here with some relationship advice:

1. Act, don't react: If your partner is trying to confront you about a problem the two of you are facing, it is best to act upon it instead of getting upset over it. Reacting in a negative way can cause a fight, and you don't want that happening! Maybe there's something you can do to change for the better, as opposed to getting defensive.

2. Be flexible: In a relationship, not everything is going to go as planned. You can walk in with high expectations of how you perceived your partner to look and act, but they may not always be who you planned, and that's okay. When you meet someone new and you feel a connection, don't judge the other person based on a preconceived notion of what you wanted.

New Celebrity Couple Hilary Duff & Jason Walsh Go Public with Relationship on Instagram

By Kayla Garritano

It's social media official! Hilary Duff officially announced her new celebrity relationship with Jason Walsh by posting a picture on Instagram. The picture shows the celebrity couple sharing a kiss on Sunday, October 16 with a black and white filter. According to UsMagazine.com, Hilary's new romance with her personal trainer sparked rumors after the duo stepped out together earlier this year, but this marks the first time their relationship has been displayed for the world to see.

This new celebrity couple is making it social media official! What are some benefits to announcing your new relationship on social media?

Cupid's Advice:

Congratulations on your new relationship! Now all you want to do is show it off to everyone, and that's what social media is for. There are many apps and sites that will help you announce the news, and Cupid is here with some dating advice:

1. Show them off: You really like your new partner, and all you want to do is show them off to everyone. Putting pictures on social media of your new relationship shows everyone how happy you are and displays how happy they make you feel. You get to easily say, "This is my boyfriend; isn't he great?" or "This is my girlfriend, isn't she amazing?" in a picture. Be proud to show them off!

Former Celebrity Couple Hilary Duff & Mike Comrie Vacation in Hawaii After Divorce

By Jasmine Igwegbe

The best thing any parent can do for their child is to bring them up in a loving environment. In celebrity news, former celebrity couple Hilary Duff and Mike Comrie secured their celebrity divorce last week, but takes a trip to Hawaii together one week later for the love of their son, Luca. According to UsMagazine.com, "The parents will have joint custody of Luca and neither will receive spousal support." These two are not letting their celebrity divorce come in the way of their family.

This former celebrity couple isn't letting their lack of marriage get in the way of family time. What are some ways to focus on family in the face of divorce?

Cupid's Advice:

A twisted marriage does not need to result to a twisted family. It is important to ensure that your family remains stable even after a divorce. Cupid is here to share some ways with you:

1. Go on outings: Take your family on an outing to the movies, the beach, water parks or even a trip to Hawaii would be exciting. Participate in activities to get the whole family involved. These create family memories that can be cherished years later.

Celebrity Divorce: Hilary Duff & Mike Comrie Finalize Divorce 2 Years After Split

By Mary DeMaio

The final chapter has come to an end for Hilary Duff and Mike Comrie as husband and wife. According to UsMagazine.com, the former celebrity couple finalized their celebrity divorce on January 28, after initially splitting up in January of 2014. These celebrity exes had been married for three years prior to their split and will have joint custody in efforts to create an environment that is healthy for their son Luca.

This celebrity divorce is official. What are some ways to determine whether divorce is the answer?

Cupid's Advice:

It can be hard to hold on, but sometimes even more difficult to let go of the life you built with someone. You shouldn't always assume the grass is greener. Cupid is here to share some ways with you:

1. Go back to what brought you together: Travel to that place in time of when and how you first fell in love. Try to resurrect that special spark in your relationship and see if the feelings are still there.

Relationship Expert Talks About Helping Kids Through Divorce

By Debbie Bartashius-Ceresa

Whose divorce is it? Perhaps this sounds like a strange question when talking about the Hilary Duff and Mike Comrie custody dispute or the battle of where Jodie Sweetin and Morty Coyle's little Beatrix will attend pre-school. But as a relationship expert, I know that a divorce can cause many losses, especially for the children.

Relationship Expert on Losses of Divorce

There is truth that divorce is a family matter, but in the end, it's the couple who is ending their relationship and love together. The kids are merely in the midst of a war zone, and the damage to them can be immense. Divorce, like death, creates losses for everyone involved. Children can experience any or all of the following:

Related Link: Expert Dating Advice: Should You Give Your Ex a Second Chance?

1. Loss of expectations: We teach our children to love, trust, and be loyal to us. Children think that their family will always be together. Think about the many stories you've read to your kids; most of them have a family that stays together. Children are also exposed to the vows and commitments parents make to each other through movies and religion. Try to imagine how confused a child feels when they're told that their parents can no longer keep this pledge.

2. Loss of trust: Children have a difficult time dealing with the conflicting feelings of love and divorce. These emotions tend to cause the child to believe that their parents are distrustful.

3. Loss of familiarity and routines: A divorce sometimes causes a move from one home to another or a change of schools. Everything that was familiar and routine in the child's life is disrupted.

4. Loss of safety: What makes you feel safe? Most of us feel stable when we are in our day-to-day routine and our comfort zone. Oftentimes, children caught in the battle lose their sense of safety.

Expert Love Advice For How To Help Your Child Through Your Divorce

As a relationship expert, I look at celebrity divorces, such as the Duff-Comrie and Sweetin-Coyle cases, and see that they create an awareness of how to understand the effect of break-ups on our children. My expert love advice, whether you're dealing with a divorce of your own or someone close to you, is to focus on the kids. The following can help your child:

Related Link: Romantic Relationship Advice: From Roadkill to Recommitment

1. Don't "fix" feelings: Be there to listen to your child without trying to tell them how to feel. Every child is different and reacts to a divorce uniquely. The problem with emotions that are sad, negative, or painful is that we try to fix them. We don't try to change or fix good feelings. Remember that feelings are feelings.

2. Find a safe zone: Give your child a place to express any happy, sad, or painful emotions. You need to be able to listen, hear, and acknowledge their feelings. This safe zone also means not taking sides with the other parent.

3. Complete your own emotions: The world isn't perfect. Divorce happens. Every divorce is unique; your feelings are unique. Taking actions to complete your own emotions with your divorce will give you the ability to hear and listen to your children.

Famous Couples Share How They Celebrate Mother's Day

By Courtney Omernick

While so many celebrity couples will be celebrating Mother's Day this year, either for the first time or for the 8th time, Cupid got to take a look inside a few famous couples' Mother's Day festivities.

Here are some ways our favorite famous couples celebrate Mother's Day:

1. Jessica Alba and Cash Warren: Jessica, Cash, and their daughter, Haven, keep things casual on Mother's Day. This family loves going to brunch.

3. Hilary Duff and Mike Comrie: Who knows what's in store for Hilary this Mother's Day, as she is newly single celebrity. But, typically, it's a warm Mother's Day for the celebrity mom. Hilary and her son, Luca, were spotted soaking up the sun's rays in Mexico last year.

4. Channing Tatum and Jenna Dewan-Tatum: Channing and his wife, Jenna, keep this special holiday a family affair. They spend their time with their daughter and Channing's mom.

5. Halle Berry and Olivier Martinez: This celebrity couple spends Mother's Day enjoying lunch with her children in sunny Los Angeles.

How do you and your mom spend Mother's Day?

Hilary Duff's Celebrity Ex Mike Comrie Fights for Joint Custody of Son Luca

By Maggie Manfredi

Another Hollywood custody battle? According to E! News, Mike Comrie is going for joint custody of son Luca, though Hilary Duff's initial file was for primary custody. Comrie was originally set to have visitation rights. The singer filed for her celebrity divorce from the retired hockey player in February, but the celebrity exes had been separated for almost a year prior. This news comes as a surprise because these celebrity exes have been the epitome of co-parenting, even attending events together and having public lunches.

Things aren't looking good for this celebrity ex couple! What are some ways to compromise mid-break-up when it comes to your kids?

Cupid's Advice:

When you have a child with someone, you are bonded for life, for better or for worse. So if the relationship and love doesn't work out you still have to be a team for the sake of the kid. Here are some ways to compromise with your ex:

1. Third party help: If you are arguing or having trouble seeing eye to eye don't be afraid to reach out for assistance. Whether it be a counselor or a third party with no personal interest in the matter, you will want someone unbiased and knowledgeable to make this time easier for everyone.

3. Pick your battles: Issues such as custody and visitation rights, definitely worth the fight; but not every little issue is worth making it into a world war. It can be hard not to get into it on little things, especially if things in the relationship ended poorly. Do your best to have a clear head and an open heart.

Hilary Duff Says She Loves Her Post-Celebrity Baby Body

By Meranda Yslas

Two years following the birth of her son celebrity baby Luca Cruz, Hilary Duff is loving her post-celebrity baby body, according to People.com. The actress admitted that getting back into shape wasn't easy, and her body isn't the same as it was before her celebrity pregnancy. "My body is never going to be what it was," the 27 year old celeb shared. "I have stretch marks, my boobs are different- much different! And that's fine and I'm happy with them."

Even celebrity babies cause their moms to struggle with getting back in shape. What are three ways to get secure with your post-baby body?

Cupid's Advice:

Having a baby changes a woman's body and it is can be difficult or even impossible to get the body you had before the pregnancy. You may see things that weren't there before, like stretch marks or some permanent weight gain. These aren't the end of the world and Cupid can offer some self love advice on how to be comfortable in your post-baby body:

1. Say it out loud: For the most part, coming to terms with your body is something you have to accomplish in your mind. Standing in front of the mirror and saying, "I love my body" everyday for awhile just might make you believe it.

2. Talking with other moms: It can be hard for friends to try and console you about your post-pregnancy body insecurities if they haven't been through a pregnancy themselves- they don't understand the changes. Try talking to other women who have gone through a pregnancy and see how they got comfortable with their body.

3. Flaunt it: Sometimes pregnancy may make you gain weight in places like your bust or your butt. Rather than try to hide your new attributes, show them off! Wear some great jeans that make your post-pregnancy booty look awesome.

Hilary Duff Throws a Celebrity Baby Shower for Sister Haylie Duff

By Jenna Bagcal

You've probably heard the saying, "First comes love, then comes marriage." But what that old adage doesn't include is what comes in between the wedding and having the baby ... a baby shower! In the latest celebrity news from UsMagazine.com, Hilary Duff held a baby shower for her sister Haylie Duff, who announced last December that she and husband Matt Rosenberg are expecting their first celebrity baby. In honor of their child, Hilary threw a beautiful flower-themed baby shower, complete with cute pastel-colored cupcakes and ice cream for the mom-to-be.

We love the idea of a fancy flower-filled celebrity baby celebration! What are some ways to amp up the style at your shower?

Cupid's Advice:

You don't have to be part of a celebrity family to have a stylish baby shower. Listen to Cupid's tips about how to throw a chic baby shower worthy of any celebrity baby:

1. Come up with a theme: Choosing a theme for your baby shower can make the party that much more fun and cohesive. Start on the internet and go to Pinterest to gain some inspiration. Get decorations that go along with that theme, and also come up with a fun color scheme for all the shower decor.

2. Plan fun activities: Having a stylish party does not mean that you can't also have some fun! Plan activities that both you and your guests can enjoy. Decorate some onesies with fabric paint and cool craft supplies, or have your guests write cute and funny messages on your baby's diapers. Don't forget to take lots of pictures to document all the fun.

3. Serve simple, but elegant food: When thinking about the food you want to serve your guests, plan to serve dishes that are both delicious and aesthetically pleasing. You don't want to have messy sloppy joe sandwiches at your stylish affair. Instead, serve up some frozen yogurt cups with an array of toppings, a colorful and vibrant fruit salad, or a tray of delicious pastries.
