Should you and your partner sign a prenup?

Cupid's Advice:

- 1. Bring it up: Broach the idea of a prenup gently because it's a sensitive subject. Stress that this would protect both of your finances, and ensure that what you build together is shared in case, God forbid, anything happens that could dissolve your marriage.
- 2. Ask and answer a lot of questions: This request can hurt the other party's feelings, but it can protect both your assets, and prevent future complications should a divorce happen.
- 3. Get legal advice: Both parties should see their lawyers to learn more about how a prenup would benefit them.

Hilary Duff's "Imminent" Wedding

Ex-Disney star

Hilary Duff and fiancé Mike Comrie of the Edmonton Oilers have planned a quiet affair for their upcoming wedding, E! News confirmed last Friday. The two have been engaged since February, and a source close to the couple told E! News that the wedding is “imminent.” The couple is finalizing their preparations for the big day, which is happening this month. What finishing steps do you need to prepare for your wedding?

Cupid’s Advice:

Duff and Comrie have been taking dancing lessons to get ready for their nuptials, but there are a few key steps that many couples might overlook during the hustle and the bustle before the big event.

1. Beautify: This should ideally take place a week or so before the wedding. Haircuts and final teeth whitening appointments should happen while there is still time to correct any mistakes.

2. Game plan: There are certain aspects that even the best wedding planner might not know to prepare for. Does the best man have a tendency to make raunchy comments when he’s drunk?

Have an aunt who's a bit of a cougar with her eye on one of the groomsmen? Prepare for these situations ahead of time.

3. Happy honeymoon: The last thing you're thinking about as your wedding approaches is the idea of the aftermath, but it's a key ingredient, too. Make sure you have all the plans set for getting from wedding mindset to honeymoon mode without a hitch.
