Finding the essential beauty product that can hydrate your skin without leaving your face feeling greasy or worse than before is a struggle for many. We see Hollywood celebrities with flawless skin, even without make-up and beauty products on! The question becomes how to achieve this flawless skin from the comforts of your own home. But, this process can become restless trying to separate the good facial products from the bad. With the help of Jojoba's beauty products, your hunt can end. Jojoba is a golden liquid wax (often called jojoba oil) that is made from the jojoba bean. A plant native to Southwestern North America, it was highly valued by the Native Americans of the Sonoran Desert as a potent balm for skin ailments and a skin restorer.

Jojoba is the perfect remedy for hydrating skin and can make you feel like a Hollywood celebrity from the comforts of your own home!

100% Natural Australian Jojoba

This particular product is the perfect base for your skin care, and it's a complete home remedy kit! It contains antioxidants, Omega 6 and nine essential fatty acids, and Vitamin A, D and E, which nourish and enrich the skin. It can be used multiple times a day and is only $22.50.

100% Natural Jojoba + Rosehip Oil

With the same benefits as 100% Natural Jojoba, adding the rosehip oil adds a deeper level of nourishment. Adding rosehip oil allows the product to get deeper into the skin where just the natural jojoba alone cannot. This product works amazing on scars and stretch marks and costs $29.95.

100% Natural Ultimate Jojoba

For $39.95, only $17 dollars more than the 100% Natural Australian Jojoba, you can start to not only hydrate your face, but can also begin to get rid of unwanted wrinkles. It has all the multi-vitamins your skin needs and helps make your skin feel youthful again!

Natural Pigmentation Oil

Ever worry about trying to cover up or hide uneven skin tones, pigmentation or age spots? The natural pigmentation oil deeply moisturizes the skin, makes it more even, and reduces age spots. With a retail value of $39.95, this is a must have!

Hydrating Day Cream

Trying to find a good cream that can help hydrate your face while wearing makeup every day is challenging at best. This hydrating day cream is only $32.95, is lightweight and quickly absorbs into your skin making it the perfect product to wear daily.

With five products you can have the perfect facial hydration kit right at home. No more dry skin, red spots and age spots, your skin well never be more thankful!
