In celebrity news, Ronnie Ortiz-Magro recently apologized to daughter Ariana Sky and girlfriend Jen Harley during an episode of Jersey Shore: Family Vacation. The episode showed him jumping into a hot tub with Lindsay aka "Jewish Barbie," a friend of Angelina Pivarnick's. Ortiz-Magro wrote in an Instagram story, "Obviously the last episode has made it seem like I was into Jewish rag doll. It edited to make it look worse. I was in a bad place in my life and my relationship and

I acted out of anger & immature resentment.” He continues to say, “Since then (sic) I’ve grown & wouldn’t want to hurt my girlfriend or my daughter, everyone makes mistakes and you’ll see next week that I learned from mine,” Usmagazine.com reports. The celebrity couple started dating in July 2017 and welcomed a daughter in April 2018.

In celebrity news, Ronnie Ortiz-Magro is cutting the drama and apologizing to his significant other and their child. What are some ways to make it right with your partner after a fight??

Cupid’s Advice:

Fighting with a partner, friend or family member is never pretty. It can be hard to recover from a bad fight in a relationship. Cupid has some ways to make it right with your partner after a fight:

1. Don’t be petty: After a fight, your emotion might still be running high, so let the dust settle after a fight. You may feel like throwing in some last-minute shade, passive-aggressive jabs or get back at them. But all that does is prolong the nastiness of your fight. The best thing is to let it go and work out your problems.

3. Communicate productively: You know what they say about communication! Communication is the key to any relationship. To get back to a good place with your partner, it's very important to talk about it with your partner. It's also important to understand where each person is coming from and where you stand. It may be hard to communicate openly and honestly but if you love each other you will try. A few things to keep in mind; give up the need to be right, don't be defensive, deal with one issue at a time, no hitting below the belt and be kind to each other.

Fitness Trend: Get Motivated in Group Classes

y Ivana Jarmon

The catalyst for change is often due to a new year approaching and a little thing called New Year's resolutions, a tradition in which millions of people take stock in their lives to make positive changes. An example is making the decision to get in better shape through exercise. But, we know that it's easier said than done. We can all relate to the promise we make at the beginning of the new year. An excellent way to motivate yourself to stick to your fitness-related resolution is by joining a group class. Group fitness classes have many benefits such as structure, motivation, proper form, and variety. Cupid has some fitness tips on what classes you should take this coming year.

Fitness Trend: Check out our top five favorite group fitness classes!

1. Cardio classes (The Art of Strength): This is a circuit of strength-based exercises using kettlebells, logs, and ropes. Twenty-second micro-sets are followed by one-minute rest periods. It's intervals at their finest.

You need to go, you need a vacation,’” the rapper shared with Erin Lim. “So, he actually flew me out to the Dominican Republic and he took away my phone.” The rapper doesn’t mind her hubby chastising her for working too much or going on rants on Instagram. She joked that in response she just tells him: "Sorry dad. I swear to God he is like a dad." The celebrity couple has been together since 2017 and welcomed a daughter on July 10, 2018.

In celebrity news, Cardi B relies on her significant other to help her de-stress. What are some ways you can help your partner relax and unwind??

Cupid's Advice:

Inevitably, life gets stressful. It's easy to go off on your own to get some alone time. But, when you're part of a pair, it's important to find ways to be together and relax at the same time. Cupid has some ways you can help your partner relax and unwind:

1. Phone-free vacation: Whether it's at home or somewhere tropical, a vacation without cell phones can work wonders for you and your partners' attitudes. It may sound simple, but you can't imagine how many people allow their phones to distract them on a daily basis. This is the time to reconnect during a peaceful vacation. There are vacation spots around the world that don't allow any cell phone or Wi-Fi use.

Cupid's Advice:

Even the most successful partner needs and wants to be built up. Whether your partner is winning at life every week or struggling, they need you to be their greatest fan. Cupid has some way to support your partner's career wins:

1. Build up your partner: The best gift you can give your partner is your own belief and confidence in them. Let them see how amazing they are in your eyes. You do that by giving them positive feedback when they succeed and/or struggle. Your belief in them will motivate them to keep going this in return will have the same effect when it comes to you when you need it.

Parenting Advice: Ways to Cope With The Terrible Twos

y Ivana Jarmon

Welcome to the terrible twos: a time when your once cute-as-a-button baby becomes a living nightmare. Your child may present with the following symptoms: temper tantrums, screaming, kicking and biting, fighting with siblings, total meltdowns and their vocabulary being dominated with the single word “no!” But don’t worry! The terrible twos are a time of rapid growth- mentally, socially and physically. It’s a time when toddlers begin to develop their sense of self and start to want to do things for themselves. This trying time will pass, and while there is no quick fix for unwanted toddler behavior, you can take steps to help things go more smoothly when the terrible twos begin. Here are some parenting tips on ways to survive the terrible twos.

Parenting Advice: Check out our parenting advice on ways to cope with the terrible twos.

1. Give them responsibility: At the age of two, your toddlers are developing their senses of self. A two-year-old can do a lot around the house: pick up their toys, empty their plate, and set the table. By giving them mini chores, this will help them build their confidence and will show that you trust them.

Related Link: Parenting Advice: How To Get Your Child Back On The Right Track

2. Consequences: A child going through the terrible twos is constantly testing limits. No parent likes to give out a punishment, but consequences are a way to show your child that there are expectations, and that if they’re not met there will be trouble.

Related Link: Parenting Trend: Baby-Safe Teething Jewelry

3. Patience: As a society, we don’t like to wait for anything, and we especially don't like waiting for a difficult situation to get better. A child going through the terrible twos is going through so many psychological and physical changes that they have a right to go a little crazy. As their parent or guardian, this means recognizing that and giving them the opportunity to pass through this stage without getting angry all the time. It's easier said than done, because it's very hard when a child is constantly having tantrums or fighting you on everything. Getting angry will only make things worse and will escalate the situation. So, take a deep breath and respond; don't react.

Cupid's Advice:

Rumors have a way of catching fire once lit; it's information that can't be trusted. Rumors give room for doubt in a relationship. Cupid has some ways to shoot down false rumors about your relationship:

1. Confront the source: If you know who spread the rumor, you should talk to them. Be civil and keep your head high and talk to this person honestly. If you don't want to face them alone bring a few friends. Don't put yourself in harm's way or a dangerous situation if you know that talking to this person in question will try to do you no good.

Cupid's Advice:

Life has a way at chipping away at a relationship. Cupid has some ways to keep the romance alive in your marriage.

1. Make date night a priority: Dating is what made you fall in love in the first place. So, it would make sense to keep at it to stay in love. But as we know life gets in the way. So, remember date night does have to elaborate or over the top, it could be something simple as a picnic. Just set aside time for each other each week for just the two of you to reconnect.

2. Don't give up: A relationship is a roller coaster, full of ups and downs. Romance in marriage is about choosing each other again and again. It's also about learning, growing and forgiving. It's about falling in love with each other over and over again no matter how hard it gets. Love only weakens when we stop giving it our all. So never stop.

3. Never lose the PDA: At the beginning of a relationship, you probably couldn't keep your hands off each other. Constantly holding hands, sneaking in an extra kiss or two, cuddling. Ask yourself how affectionate are you now? After a long period of time and kids' things can get a little trickery when it comes to the PDA. It's important to maintain that closeness that PDA provides. Physical touch should happen on a daily whether it's a peck on the cheek, holding hands or a slight pat on the butt. By maintaining the PDA you will be able to keep the romance alive.

Dewan has also moved and is now dating Steve Kazee, UsMagazine.com reports.

These celebrity exes are still friends and co-parents. What are some ways to keep things civil during a divorce?

Cupid's Advice:

Divorce is a literal death of a marriage and is an emotional and stressful ride. Cupid has some ways to keep things civil during a divorce:

1. Communication through a neutral party: A divorce unleashes a flood of emotions including grief, anxiety, fear, anger, and pain. A response like this is normal, over time the intensity of your feelings will subside. To avoid a yelling and screaming match try seeking a trusted friend, family member or therapist who can help you communicate.

2. Focus on the future: Talking about why you broke up or who's to blame will not solve anything. Try avoiding these conversations with your soon to be ex. Keep your discussions focused on there here and now. Such as what needs to be done, and if there are children, focus on their needs and schedules.

Related Link: Celebrity Couple News: Find Out Why Kyle Jenner & Travis Scott Might Be Ready for Marriage

3. Remember the good times: Remember that you loved each other very much at one point—and just because your divorcing it doesn't mean that love goes away. This will make it easier to be co-parent if there are children involved. Maintaining that love and respect for each other will guide you on a better path.

Parenting Advice: How To Get Your Child Back On The Right Track

y Ivana Jarmon

Keeping a child on the right track can be hard, especially in a world with so much ugliness. It's easy to steer away from the right path. Your child may be acting out or maybe you've noticed they're behavior has changed. As a parent, this is very concerning. You may make rules for your kids, only to abandon these rules when they don't work. We have some parenting advice to help you get your kid back on the right track.

Parenting Advice: Check out our parenting advice on how to get your kid back on the right track!

1. Honest conversation: Have an honest and real conversation with your child. Treat your child as an equal instead of pulling rank. “I’m the parent you’re the child” will not work if you want things to change. To have an honest conversation, it’s important to take turns talking and listening. By pulling rank, you may miss out on an opportunity to hear how they truly feel. It’s important that you hear each other out.

Parenting Trend: Baby-Safe

Teething Jewelry

y Ivana Jarmon

The latest parenting trend you should be looking into is baby-safe jewelry. Every parent must watch their child struggle with growing pains, such as cutting teeth. As a parent, watching your child in pain is the worst. One of the ways to help your toddler is by giving them something to chew on such as teething jewelry, a product made to offer a sanitary, safe option to handheld teethers.

Here are some reasons why you should choose baby safe jewelry such as teething jewelry.

1. Sanitary option: Teething necklaces can offer a more sanitary option than handheld teething rings. This option can spare parents extra cleaning. Also, you wouldn't have to worry about your child always dropping their teething ring on the floor every second.

by Ivana Jarmon

In celebrity news, Olivia Culpo kept her distance after spotting celebrity ex Nick Jonas' new fiancée, Priyanka Chopra at a pool party hosted by JBL in Las Vegas. A source told UsMagazine.com, "Olivia did not want to see Nick, and she missed Priyanka's arrival by mere minutes. The source also said, "Nick didn't show up because she was there." The celebrity exes dated from August 2013 to June 2015. He started dating Chopra in May 2018 and proposed two months later. Culpo has recently rekindled her romance with Danny Amendola, Miami Dolphins wide receiver.

Nick Jonas' celebrity ex Olivia Culpo isn't interested in running into who he's moved on with. What are some reasons to stay away from your ex-partner's new significant other?

Cupid's Advice:

Break-ups are never easy, especially when your partner moves on before you. Cupid has some tips on some reasons why you should stay away from your ex's new significant other:

1. Unwanted feelings: Seeing an ex's new partner may ignite some unwanted feelings such as jealousy, anger, resentment or, worse, wishful thinking. Plus, it might ignite some awkward exchanges between the two of you. The best course of action if you run into your ex's new partner is to act cordial and keep on moving ahead.

Wedding bells are ringing for supermodel Karlie Kloss! In celebrity news, Kloss tied the knot to her businessman boyfriend Jared Kushner. According to sources, the celebrity couple tied the knot in an intimate Jewish ceremony held in upstate New York. Kloss confirmed her engagement via Instagram, saying, "I love you more than I have words to express. Josh, you're my best friend and my soulmate. I can't wait for forever together." The couple got engaged three months ago, and the proposal came during a trip to upstate New York, EOnline.com reports.

This celebrity wedding must not have taken long to plan! What are some benefits of a quick engagement??

Cupid's Advice:

Long engagements are the norm when it comes to getting married, but short engagements are the new trend. Cupid has some benefits of a quick engagement:

1. You get married sooner: By having a short engagement you get to marry the person you love faster. If you truly love your partner, what's the point of delaying something truly beautiful?

Related Link: Celebrity Couple News: Gwyneth Paltrow Gushes Over Newlywed Like with Brad Falchuk

2. Less time to quibble over decision making: With a short engagement, you are limited, which isn't necessarily a bad thing. What that means is that your options are limited on vendors, dates etc. When you have less options, it makes it easier to make a decision. It also means less time to battle over every pro and con on your wedding.

Celebrity Break-Up: Pete Davidson & Ariana Grande's Relationship Was Strained After Mac Miller's Death

y Ivana Jarmon

In celebrity news, after the recent split from celebrity ex, Ariana Grande, Peter Davidson “does not blame himself for his split,” a source close to Davidson told UsMagazine.com. The source continued on to say, “He’s really sad about this split, and he only wishes the best for Ariana, but their relationship was really complicated with the passing of Mac Miller. It put a tremendous amount of strain on their relationship.” Grande dated Miller for nearly two years before their breakup in May. Miller died at the age of 26 after an accidental overdose in early September. Grande announced during that time that she would be taking a break to take the time to heal and mend.

In celebrity break-up news, speculation continues about the cause for Ariana and Pete’s split. What are some ways to keep the details of your split from becoming gossip?

Cupid's Advice:

Splitting up with someone is hard, but having your breakup become a hot topic can be even worse. Cupid has some tips on ways to keep the details of your split from becoming gossip:

1. No social media: During a break-up, social media can be your worst enemy. By putting your business out in the public, you give people power to gossip about your existing or non-existing relationship. But by keeping your relationship out of the public eye, no one can say anything if they don't know anything.

Travel Tips: How to Live Like a Local

y Ivana Jarmon

Most travelers spend their time ticking off every bar and restaurant, going on tours, and going to the best clubs; there's nothing wrong with that! But, there is another way. We hear it all the time in the travel advice: live like a local. It's great advice, but if it's your first time traveling or you're in an unfamiliar city, it's easier said than done. Acting like a local in a new city means behaving like you would if you were at home. If you want to make your trip unforgettable, you'll need to think like a local.

Here are a few travel tips to live

Like a local:

1. Ditch the travel guide: Travel guides are wonderful, but they don't tell you about all of the hidden gems within a city. Change it up and go to a random restaurant you walk by, or take the train and get off at a random stop and see where it leads you.

2. Forget the hotel: Locals don't sleep in hotels, so why should you? Try renting a home from services such as AirBNB, or try out a hostel.

3. Learn the lingo: Communication is always key. Interacting with the local people in an unknown country relies on one thing and that's you. If you are a proactive traveler and ignore your linguistic failings, you will always meet a variety of interesting people. Also, the more time you spend with the locals, the more fluent you become in their language.

4. Embrace every offer and talk to everyone: Traveling you meet people keen to show you their city. (However, be cautious.) Such invitations often lead to the most wonderful travelling experiences. Deviating from the usual tourist hub may lead you to interesting local joints. Remember to chat to everyone, because it's a great way of practicing the language and a way to help them learn English.

5. Just enjoy yourself: Don't try too hard just focus on enjoying yourself. There are definitely urges to try and blend in and experience the less touristy parts of the city. But it's ok to fall into the occasional tourist trap. Find what works for you, stay on the beaten path or get off. It's up to you, you are a tourist after all. Mix up your trip. Live like a local and a tourist. If you're in Paris for the first time, don't ignore the Eiffel tower because you're too focused on living like a local.
