

Celebrity Baby News: Keira Knightley Welcomes First Child with Husband James Righton

By Courtney Omernick

Here's the latest celebrity baby news! Celebrity couple Keira Knightley and James Righton have welcomed their first celebrity baby. People.com reported that both Keira and James have not revealed the baby's sex yet.

A new celebrity baby joins the ranks! What are some ways to welcome your first child to the world?

Cupid's Advice:

With this latest celebrity baby news, Cupid started thinking about some great ways that expecting parents can welcome their first child into the world. Below are some tips that we hope this celebrity couple is following:

1. Find a helpful houseguest: Hopefully, this person will be your significant other. Find someone to help you with the baby that is willing to pitch in and not be a burden. This houseguest needs to be willing to roll up their sleeves every day!

Celebrity Couple: Keira Knightley and James Righton Return to London Post-Honeymoon in Corsica

By April Littleton

After tying the knot May 4 in Mazan, France, People reports Keira Knightley and her new hubby James Righton, a keyboardist for The Klaxons, returning to London after spending their honeymoon in Corsica. The couple met after being introduced by fashion correspondent Alexa Chung. A year after being spotted together, Knightley and Righton got engaged in May 2012.

How do you decide as a couple where to honeymoon?

Cupid's Advice:

Your honeymoon is one of the most important trips you will go on. After all, it is the first of many trips you and your partner will take together as man and wife. After all of the stress of planning a wedding, the honeymoon is the time to relax and unwind with your beau. Many couples have a hard time deciding on the destination of their honeymoon, but not to worry – Cupid has some tips:

1. Set a budget: The first thing you should do as a couple is work out a budget. Both of you should agree on how much money you're willing to spend on the honeymoon. Can you afford that dream honeymoon in Fiji, or should you be looking at locations closer to home? Whatever the case, don't be discouraged if you can't go all out for the honeymoon. There are dozens of locations within an affordable price range just for newlyweds.

2. Research: You and your significant other should think about what kind of honeymoon you want. Do you want to spend most of the time relaxing by the pool and drinking cocktails, or do you want to live on the adventurous side? Once you figure out what kind of setting you both will enjoy, then you can narrow down your location search.

3. Get some help: Discuss some of your options with a couple who's been in your situation before, or get in touch with a travel agent. Mention your budget and what you're expecting out of the honeymoon. Not only will you get some valuable feedback, but you might also get information on other possible destinations you and your partner didn't think of!

Celebrity News: Keira Knightley Ties the Knot with

James Righton in Low-Key Ceremony

By Jessica Conigliaro

On Saturday, May 4, actress Keira Knightley married Klaxons keyboardist James Righton. The couple kept the day very low-key, UsMagazine reports. They exchanged vows in an intimate ceremony in the south of France before just a dozen or so of their closest friends and family.

What are some ways to keep your wedding low-key?

Cupids Advice:

Marriage has always been one of your life goals—but the wedding part, not so much. You were never the type of person who enjoyed having the spotlight on you. Cupid here to give you some advice on how to make your wedding day more low-key:

1. Keep it small: You decided to spend the rest of your life with the man you love—who's to say you have to share that moment with hundreds of people. You want your wedding day to be shared amongst the people that matter most to you. Invite 40 of your closest friends and family and avoid that big wedding you've always dreaded having. This way, you won't have to make small talk with distant relatives you barely know, or haven't seen since you were a baby.

2. Short dress: Wearing a big and tiered wedding dress was never how you envisioned walking down the aisle. Save yourself the pain of putting on the overly laced dress and find something you are more comfortable in. You may even decide to wear an off-white dress, or one that has a bit of color in it. Ignore the typical wedding rules and find something that suits your personality—after all, it's your big day!

3. Backyard wedding: After looking at countless venues, you can't seem to find a place that seems right for your big day. They all seem too big and don't have the right feel for you. Skip the hassle of looking around for a location and consider having the party right in your backyard. You grew up there and have so many memories—why not add one more? Your guests will love the homey feeling associated with your wedding—and so will you.

James Righton and Keira Knightley Love Being Engaged

Keira Knightley and her musician fiancée James Righton are among many young, hot Hollywood couples. The Pirates of the Caribbean veteran and her talented man seem to be over-the-moon happy and in love since the announcement of their engagement in May. A source close to the pair tells UsMagazine.com, “Honestly, they’re great for each other. They love being engaged.” The future bride and groom have been dating publicly since April of last year.

How do you know when it’s time to propose?

Cupid’s Advice:

Deciding when you should propose can be tricky, even if all the feelings seem to be there. Here are some signs that can help making your decision a little easier:

1. Your heart: Follow your heart. If you cannot imagine your life without your honey and are madly in love, you should take the next step without hesitation.

2. Hints: Hints are a girl's best friend; whether she's ready for a ring or wants a specific birthday present. Taking advantage of these moments can prove helpful in the future.

3. Long relationship: A pair who has been together for quite some time knows each other inside and out. Don't waste any more time, and go after what you want while you have it.

Keira Knightley Is Engaged to James Righton

Sorry guys, Keira Knightley is officially off the market, according to UsMagazine.com. After only a year of dating, the Oscar-nominated actress is engaged to the Klaxons keyboard player, James Righton. Knightley's publicist, Sara Keene, confirmed the engagement to the Associated Press, but revealed the couple wanted to remain hushed regarding the details of the proposal and the wedding planning. This will be the first marriage for both Righton and the Pirates of the Caribbean actress.

What are some ways to tell that your partner is “the one”?

Cupid's Advice:

Finding “the one” is more than just finding a good kisser or someone who's willing to spend a lot of money, but not enough time. Here are some ways you can tell if you have found your best match:

1. You enjoy each other: If you and your partner can lounge in the house all day eating pizza and mint chocolate chip ice cream while catching up on all the episodes of Weeds, you may have found your match. It's not every day that you come across someone who can truly enjoy your company when you're having a relaxed and lazy day.

2. They love him: By "they," we mean family, friends... heck, even your beloved canine. If you love him and the most important people in your life love him, too, it's a win-win situation.

3. You can be yourself: You sometimes can't truly be yourself around everyone you meet, but, when you find the one person that you can wake up next to each day, not put on any make-up and they still think you're the most beautiful person in the world – that's "the one."

Keira Knightley Talks Balancing Love and Her Career

Focused on balancing her work life with her personal one, Pirates of the Caribbean star Keira Knightley was spotted smooching her new man, James Righton, in a park in East London. Righton is the keyboard player for the Klaxons. According to UsMagazine.com, the actress and the musician were introduced by a mutual friend, Alexa Chung. This is the first major relationship Knightley has had since breaking up with her boyfriend of five years, Rupert Friend. “It’s hard to have a relationship when I’m working so much,” she told Marie Claire. “But then you have to think, ‘What is actually important in life?’ Is career your only thing? That’s sad, because there’s going to come a day when you’re left lonely. It’s a difficult compromise. I think you’ve got to strive for balance. It’s the striving that counts.”

How do you maintain balance between work and a relationship?

Cupid’s Advice:

Keeping a balance between your career and your love life is one of the most difficult things to achieve. Though it may seem impossible at times, having a balanced life is possible by managing your time and keeping open lines of communication:

1. Mix business with pleasure: If you're having a drink with your co-workers after work, invite your partner to come along. This can help bring these two very different aspects of your life together in a casual setting.

2. Set time aside: Time management is the key to solving many of life's problems, and it can significantly help balance your love life with your career.

3. Be each other's advocates: Support your partner in his or her career and show understanding when he has to spend more time at work than you would like.
