By Ashley Johnson

In the latest celebrity break-up news, Katie Holmes officially made solidified her split from Jamie Foxx after six years, on Monday, August 19. Just four days earlier, Foxx had been spotted out with a mysterious blonde, and then not too long after was spotted with singer Sela Vave in Hollywood. According to UsMagazine.com, a source said, “It has been many years of him stepping out with other women. He’s disrespectful and their lives were different. His partying ways don’t fit with hers as she’s focused on raising her daughter and working.”

In celebrity break-up news, Katie Holmes had her reasons for breaking things off with “disrespectful” Jamie Foxx. What are some ways to know your partner is respectful?

Cupid’s Advice:

Break-ups can be hard, especially when it involves Hollywood couples in the spotlight. Luckily, Cupid is here to give you relationship advice on how to know if your partner is respectful, so you can avoid having relationship problems like Katie Holmes and Jamie Foxx:

1. Makes room for 'quality time': Everyone has busy lives and a multitude of responsibilities to deal with on a daily basis. However, if you and your partner can prioritize your relationship and make time for each other, that shows you two truly respect the relationship. You can tell your partner really makes an effort to spend quality time with you when they stick to important plans and don't constantly try to reschedule, or when they make an effort to show up on time for special events.

2. Appreciates your differences: Each and every one of us are different: we all have different personalities, pet peeves, needs, desires, etc. While it is unlikely that you and your partner are going to agree on everything or have the same exact perspective, it is important that you and your partner embrace the differences between each other. If your partner really respects you they will try to understand your way of thinking, if not completely agree with it... they may even learn something new if they are willing to appreciate the differences between you two, rather than discourage them.

3. Supports your goals: Your partner should be your #1 supporter, and if they are not, maybe they are not the best person for you to share your life and dreams with. Having a support system and someone who believes in you is essential in any relationship. If your partner doesn't rain on your parade and does nothing but shower you in love and support, then they are probably a keeper.

This celebrity couple has stayed almost entirely out of the Limelight. What are some ways to keep your relationship on the down-low?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes, it's better to keep your relationship between you and your partner. If you're looking to keep your relationship quiet for the time being, read these tips straight from Cupid:

1. Keep it offline: In a world ruled by social media, it's important to refrain from posting or sharing anything related to your personal relationship! While your personal life might not be as documented by the tabloids, people in your news feeds will definitely talk and share the news with those around them. If you don't want others to know, keep it off the Internet until you're ready.

2. Stay in on weekends: Weekends are the days when most people go out, so if you're wanting to keep your relationship quiet, it's better to stay in. If you and your partner want to do things together out in public, there always is a risk of seeing somebody you know. Have day dates (if you can) or go out during the weekday, when most people are at home!

3. Don't talk: Loose lips sink ships! If you feel like your best friend or members of your family will spread the news of your new relationship to everyone in their general vicinity, don't share it with them! It's your relationship so if you're not ready to talk about it – you don't have to.

This celebrity news has us rooting for this mysterious couple. What are some ways to keep your relationship away from prying eyes?

Cupid's Advice:

In today's world, keeping a relationship on the down low can be a bit tricky. Here are the top tips for keeping things between you and your significant other private:

1. Stay away from social media: If you're looking to keep your relationship private and away from prying eyes, the first step is to make sure your social media is in line with that goal. If you're constantly snapping romantic pics of your partner and posting them on the web, people are going to put two and two together. Still want the experience of sharing your special moments, but want to control who gets to see those posts? Make sure your privacy settings on apps like Facebook and Instagram are set in such a way that you can limit who gets to take a peek into your private life.

2. Practice polite shutdowns: We've all come face to face with a nosy person in our lifetime who is way too interested in the intimate minutiae of our private lives. If someone is trying to press you for more information than you're willing to give about your romantic relationship or anything else, practice kindly but firmly indicating that that information is private and you'd like to change the topic. For instance, try something non-confrontational but clear at first like, "Thanks for your interest, but honestly I usually like to keep those details private. Would you mind if we talked about something else?" And if the person keeps pressing? There's no harm in simply saying, "Like I said, that's not really something I want to discuss right now,” and extracting yourself from the conversation.

3. Choose your friends wisely: If you’re trying to keep your relationship more private, be mindful of the people with whom you share the details of your life with. If you have a friend who loves spreading the latest gossip and posting photos of people without their knowledge or permission, then you might want to think twice about sharing news of your relationship with them. Focus on finding the people in your life who will respect your wishes to keep things quiet and make sure before you go on a double date or take your significant other to meet your friends that you’re sure everyone there is willing to help you keep your relationship private.

Have you ever tried to keep a relationship quiet and low-key? How did it go? Did you keep it private or did the news get out? Let us know in the comments!

Celebrity Couple Predictions: Katie Holmes, Gigi Hadid and

Miranda Lambert

By Shoshi

If you're looking for the latest celebrity news on Hollywood romances, you've come to the right place! Below, I consider the future of three new celebrity couples.

Shoshi's Predictions For These Celebrity Couples

Katie Holmes and Jamie Foxx: If you believe the media, Foxx and Holmes are secretly in love with each other. The thought of that makes me giggle. I always think that Tom Cruise has sent Foxx in to be his spy to find out what Suri is up to. While they would be a weird couple, it could also work. Foxx has always been tight lipped about who he's dating and Holmes never reveals if she's dating anyone. Both of them seem to spend more time with their children than anyone else. Could they be the perfect pair? I don't see Holmes and Foxx in a steady relationship. However, I do see friends with benefits. They're both sexy and single. Why not participate in some extracurricular activities from time to time? Don't believe the media hype, but just know that we'll be the last to know if they are officially a couple. Neither of them are going to talk.

Gigi Hadid and Zayn Malik: All media eyes are on model and personality Gigi Hadid and former One Direction singer, Zayn Malik. It even looks like they spent New Year's Eve together. At least, that's what their photos would lead us to believe.

Isn't that what "couples" do? With all of the time they've been spending together, we should file them in the couple category. At least for now. Hadid has the attention span of a gnat when it comes to her relationships and love. She is fickle, but she's perfectly entitled to be that way. She's young, hot, and figuring it all out. If I were her, I would do the same thing. This relationship will run its course soon enough. Hadid doesn't have time for a serious relationship since she tends to be busy modeling and hanging with the Jenner's. Right now she's having fun causing a stir on Instagram with Malik. Guess they don't have anything else better to do.

Miranda Lambert and Anderson East: We all know that Blake Shelton is currently dating Gwen Stefani. But it looks like his ex, Miranda Lambert, is now seeing Anderson East. A photo on Instagram captured the two of them cuddling with the caption, "The snuggle is real." As if we needed the clarification. Just who is this Anderson East? A rhythm and blues singer from Alabama. I had never heard of him until Lambert's selfie. By the looks of it, this new relationship is the most interesting thing about him. When I look at this new celebrity couple, I don't see much to the fling. I predict the main reason that she's seeing him is to keep up with Blake and Gwen. The celebrity exes are playing a game of who can move on quicker. The media is falling in love with The Voice co-stars as they go on adventures around the globe. The last thing Lambert wants is to look pitiful and brokenhearted. Blake is all over the place having fun, it's time for her to start posting her own "moving on" pictures. That's not to say that she isn't generally into East, I'm just not fooled by her calculated move. Lambert will move on when she finds someone better. If the rumors about her are true, East shouldn't get too attached to her. As soon as someone better comes along Lambert will move on.

What are some ways to keep your relationship under wraps at first?

Cupid’s Advice:

If you are in a new relationship and trying to keep it on the down low there are a few things you can do so people don’t question your relationship. So what are some ways you can keep your new relationship under wraps? Cupid has some advice for you:

1. No PDA: If people see you holding hands, hugging and kissing in public there is no fooling anyone. If you are trying to keep your relationship under wraps at first try steering away from excessive PDA.

2. Spend time apart: It’s definitely okay to spend time with your new partner, but also remember to spend time with friends and family. If people start seeing you two together more often than not people are going to start thinking that things are getting more serious than just being friends.

3. Hang out in groups: Hanging out with your new partner with your other friends or with your family is a good way to take the attention off of you and your relationship. Hanging out with your new partner in a group setting will make it harder for people to suggest that you are dating each other.
