According to Williams, the celebrity news of her Ledger's overdose became her hell. Williams's relationship advice: keep moving forward. When she had given up on the fairytale of a happily ever after, dating celebrity ex Jason Segel, Williams finally found the one. In a very quiet relationship avoiding being part of celebrity gossip, Williams and Harvard graduate Andrew Youmans, a New York financial consultant enjoy vacations with Williams's daughter Matilda.

In celebrity news, Michelle Williams finally found a fairytale love 11 years after Heath Ledger's death. What are some ways to move on after a loved one?

Cupid's Advice:

The celebrity news about Heath Ledger's death had us all heartbroken, as if the teenage version of ourselves had been his wife. Dealing with our own losses are even more difficult, a battle that is both exhausting and daunting. When you've lost everything, how do you move forward? Cupid's Pulse has taken some love advice from Michelle Williams:

1. Focus on what matters: Matilda, Williams and Ledger's daughter, grounded the single mother in what mattered: Williams had to move forward in order to raise her. You and your lost loved one may not have had kids, but there was some sort of legacy left behind. Honoring someone's memory through what mattered to the both of you can ground you in the present, help you accept the loss, and start healing. Whether it's children, hiking in Peru, or building birdhouses, there is some way to stay busy and move forward while honoring your loved one.

2. Let go of expectations: Like Williams, we all have expectations of love. When our partner dies, our perception of love and the world shifts drastically. Sometimes, we lose hope. Sometimes, we hold onto something false. Don't expect to find anyone like the person you had; they were one of a kind, after all, but realize that there is still something and someone special out there for when you're ready.

3. Fight for your support network: No matter whether you're ready for love or not, having a support network is critical. Williams kept Ledger's family around for a long time. In more recent years, a decade after her husband's death, she has friends her fight for her solitude and privacy amongst the glaringly nosey celebrity world. Find people who will fight for you when you don't have the strength to do it for yourself.

Want an A-List Wedding? 10 Celeb Wedding Officiants

By Molly Jacob

Wedding dress? Check. Flowers? Check. Jonah Hill reading your vows? Check! While you may want to be friends with your favorite celeb, what if you were married by him or her? Some A-list celebrities have acted as officiants for some Hollywood couples at glamorous celebrity weddings and even sometimes for those of us who are not part of a famous couple.

See which celebs acted as wedding officiants, and start planning for you own A-list wedding accordingly!

1. Jonah Hill:

Funny man Jonah Hill and superstar Adam Levine have been pals since middle school, so when Levine was getting married to Behati Prinsloo in July 2014, it was only fitting that Hill act as wedding officiant for this celebrity wedding.

2. Conan O'Brien:

In November 2011, O'Brien celebrated the first anniversary of Conan on TBS. During this big episode, this funny celeb acted as the officiant for an on-air wedding of his show's costume designer, Scott Cronick, and Cronick's partner, David Gorshein.

3. Lady Gaga:

The famous performer has acted as officiant for several weddings, including her yoga instructor's nuptials. She has considered presiding over gay marriages at her concerts as well.

4. Jason Segel:

Abbie Thorner and Jason Wood, just a regular couple about to get married, ran into issues when the person who was supposed to marry them suddenly could no longer do so. They spotted Segel at a West Hollywood bar and asked him to do the honors, which he did during his appearance on The Tonight Show.

5. Ian McKellen:

The famous English actor helped out his good friend and X-Men costar Patrick Stewart in 2013 when he presided over the Star Trek celeb's marriage to Sunny Ozell.

6. Victor Garber:

Garber helped Alias costar Jennifer Garner and Ben Affleck tie the knot at their celebrity wedding in 2005. That's not his only tie to this (soon-to-be divorced) couple – he's the godfather of their daughter, Violet.

7. Emma Stone:

Not only did Stone introduce her publicist Holly Shakoor to future husband Ruben Fleischer, director of Zombieland, she also presided over their 2012 celebrity wedding! This Hollywood couple was probably very grateful for all Stone did to help their relationship.

8. Kevin Smith:

Got $5,000 to spend? Hire Kevin Smith to marry you! The Clerks star will officiate for anyone that pays a $5,000 fee that includes a venue for the wedding. Memorable weddings include the time when he married a couple at their hockey-themed nuptials, who said their vows while wearing jerseys.

9. Benedict Cumberbatch:

The Imitation Game star helped out two of his friends in 2013 when he acted as officiant for their picturesque wedding set on the island Ibiza.

10. Tori Spelling:

When a couple was getting married at the bed and breakfast Spelling owns with her husband Dean McDermott, she was more than happy to officiate. The celeb told The Today Show that it was her “scariest moment” because she didn’t want to let them down.

Jason Segel Steps Out with New Girlfriend Bojana Novakovic

By Petra Halbur

Five months after his separation from Michelle Williams, Jason Segel has found a new love in actress, Bojana Novakovic. The two have been spotted eating lunch together in Los Angeles and shopping together arm-in-arm. "They hang out often," a source told People. "They have fun together and Jason seems to be really happy."

How do you know when it's time to move on from a past relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Although breakups are painful and often times take some time to get over, there's a point at which you need to move on and make yourself happy. Cupid has some advice:

1. No chance of reconciliation: At the end of the day, if you're not going to get back together, you need to move on. Clinging to the hope of reconciliation may be comforting, but it's not healthy.

2. Your partner has moved on: Your partner can serve as a good litmus to see how long the recovery process should last. If he or she has started seeing other people, it's probably time for you to as well.

3. You're not happy: Sometimes it really is that simple. If your attachment to your ex is making you unhappy, then it's time to let go and move on.

Relationship Advice: 7 Secrets to Make a Long- Distance Relationship Smokin' Hot

By Dr. Diana Kirschner

You meet a hottie and it is a glorious, soul mate relationship. You are dreaming about an amazing future with this great match, who definitely feels like the One. The only problem is, he or she lives a long way away from where you are, and you are afraid that this will be the kiss of death for the whole relationship.

Your fear is well founded—long-distance relationships have lots of built-in obstacles. Consider what recently happened to Michelle Williams and Jason Segel. Jason couldn't let go of his successful LA life to come and be with Michelle in Brooklyn. And by most reports, this played a big role in Michelle breaking up with him because she felt that in this kind of a distant situation she simply could not commit to him.

You wonder: Just how do you keep a long-distance relationship smokin' hot so you can have the happiest-ever-after you are dreaming about? Here are seven secrets:

1. Bookend your days with connection. Each morning and every night make sure you talk with your Beloved on the phone. This will cement you in as a regular part of their day.

2. Utilize technology. Use Skype or the phone strategically to bond with your partner and keep the spark alive.

Related: How to Find Love Online With Non-Traditional Dating Sites

3. Text or call throughout the day... so that you are in contact and talking about what is happening for each of you.

4. Take turns coming to stay with each other. During this time make sure you have a lot of fun and intimacy, which releases oxytocin, the bonding hormone. Over time make these visits longer so that you can see how you do as a couple when you are living together.

Related: Tips for Making a Long Distance Relationship Work

5. Be supportive. If your Beloved has a crisis, drop everything and be as supportive as possible. Show him or her that they come first in your life.

6. Consider making a sacrifice. If the relationship is growing for a year or more in a way that feels more intimate, committed and nourishing, consider making the sacrifice of giving up the life you have in order to move in with your long-distance partner. If you do this, take time to work out a contract about what your partner will do so that he or she is supporting you and making his or her own sacrifices to establish your new life together with the least stress possible for you.

7. Make it possible for your partner to move. If you do feel that the relationship has been developing well for a year or more, but moving in with your partner is not feasible: discuss with him or her what you would be willing to provide in terms of financial, emotional, networking, job search or other support if your partner would consider moving in with you or into housing together in your area.

When you use some of these tips, a long-distance relationship can work out to be your happiest-ever-after! So give it a try and see if you and your Beloved can grow together despite the obstacles involved. True lasting love is well worth it.

Celebrity Couple: Michelle Williams and Jason Segel Call It Quits

By Andrea Surujnauth

Michelle Williams and Jason Segel have decided to end their long-distance relationship. According to UsMagazine.com, Williams and Segel called it quits earlier this month. Williams, actress in Oz the Great and Powerful, lives in New York with daughter Matilda, 7, from her relationship with the late Heath Ledger. Segel, star of How I Met Your Mother, lives in Los Angeles where his CBS sitcom is filmed. In March 2012, Us Weekly broke the news about their secret relationship, and the two were always extremely hush-hush about their romance. Their sudden split is apparently due to their distance from one another.

What are some things you can do to make your long-distance relationship stronger?

Cupid's Advice:

Long distance relationships are a real test of love. They can be very difficult and trying on a relationship. Luckily, Cupid is here with some advice on how to have a successful long-distance relationship.

1. Be on the same page: Make sure you both agree on the definition of “relationship” and identify what standards you need to uphold while away from one another. If you decide that you’re exclusive, you need to agree on not dating other people and set ground rules on what is allowed and what isn’t.

2. Bond: Try doing things together even though the two of you are apart. Watch your favorite television show while on the phone together. Make sure you chat with each other everyday; you can even talk while doing your day-to-day activities. Keep each other updated on what is new in your lives to help prevent you from growing apart despite the distance.

3. Skype: What a great invention! Skype is a program that allows you to talk, message and see one another over the Internet. You can download it on your computer or even on your smart phone. Think it can’t possibly get any better? Well, Skype is free. Seeing each other will make you feel even closer.

Shrinkwrap: When Are You Exclusive?

By Jane Greer, Ph.D. for GalTime

Taking Your Relationship to the Next Level

From recent reports it seems that actors Michelle Williams and Jason Segel have quietly crossed that line between playing with the idea of being exclusive and committing to being a couple.

At a recent premiere party to celebrate Segel's film The Five-Year Engagement, they were seen holding hands and gazing into each other's eyes. They are both known for taking their time when it comes to romance. It raises the question, how does a hopeful pair get from one point to the next? When do you actually become an exclusive couple?

Related: 6 Things to NEVER Say to Your Man

One of my patients was pondering this recently, and she asked me about when it's appropriate to have the conversation and negotiate the terms of becoming a committed couple. I told her that in order to gauge that, you want to look at what is going on between the two of you.

Being exclusive is the exciting hill everyone wants to get over in a new, promising relationship. And there will be definite signs that you are successfully making that climb. One example might be if you begin to refer to each other, and to introduce each other, as boyfriend and girlfriend. Other clues are when you start to show your affection in public by holding hands and touching, making the statement that you belong together, or you start to say, "I love you." And the best indication of all is that you no longer want to date other people, or even leave that door open for the possibility. When it becomes clear that you are focusing your energy and heart on that one person, and that it is a mutual choice, that is a good time to check in to determine if you are now being exclusive.

Related: 5 Things to Give Him a Pass on this Summer

Once you decide you are each other's one and only, you will be able to usher in the emotional and sexual trust and safety that most people crave. You want "the talk" my patient was referring to, and even more important, the move toward steady dating, to be an acknowledgment of what is already happening between the two of you rather than a negotiation to put something in place, just as it seems to be for Williams and Segel.

Jason Segel Spends the Weekend with Michelle Williams and Matilda

Is Jason Segel finally serious in the dating world? The 32-year old actor has been playing daddy for 6-year old Matilda, Michelle Williams's daughter, ever since he and Williams became a couple. Segel, Williams and Matilda were spotted leaving the Broadway musical Jersey Boys before doing a little shopping together one afternoon. Later, they were all spotted having lunch in Brooklyn. Segel is showing a lot of commitment by acting as the father figure to Williams's little girl. A source for UsMagazine.com claims, "He's been doing all sorts of 'dad stuff' with her, like drawing and playing music." The two seem in love, and adding in a third for a trio doesn't seem to be a problem for their relationship.

How do you bond with your partner's child?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes relationships can get even more complicated by adding a child. Here are some ways to bond with your partner's child and help ease up that often-troubling situation:

1. Be honest with them: Children are curious, so if they're old enough to ask you personal questions, they most likely will. Tell them whatever they want to know about yourself, and be sure to be honest. It's likely to bring you two closer together.

2. Find things in common: Try to pick up on things that the child likes to do, and use that to bond with them. If they like sports or movies, take a day to do those things with them.

3. Include them on some of your couple's activities: Children always enjoy being included in any plans you have with their parent. Bring them along on some of your dates and make them family activities. You'll still have a romantic time while also being able to connect with your partner's child.

Michelle Williams and Jason Segel Take a Romantic Stroll in NYC

Michelle Williams seems to be no joke to the ever-so-comical Jason Segel. The two were seen strolling on quite the lovely day in downtown New York City last weekend. Williams was rocking a lightweight, white top and cut off jean shorts while Segel sported a button-down with pants. But this isn't the first time the two have been spotted spending quality time together. The stars were also caught getting cozy back in March. The news of their day out in NYC came just in time after a source told People just days before that Williams "hasn't been this happy in forever" and Segel is "totally smitten" with the 31-year old actress. With that said, feelings seem to be running mutual with this unexpected couple.

What are some very basic yet extremely romantic date ideas?

Cupid's Advice:

Romantic dates often keep the firing burning in both new and old relationships, but it is possible to keep them simple. Here are some great ways to have a relaxing, fun date still filled with romance:

1. Picnic in the park: Picnics in the park are always a fun, romantic idea. You don't need a ton of candles or a tux and evening dress to create romance. The thoughtfulness behind the picnic speaks for itself.

2. Carnival trip: Going out to a great local carnival with your sweetie is perfect for a romantic night. Share a funnel cake and take a lovely ride on a ferris wheel with the lights shining all around you.

3. Drive-in movie: Take your honey to see a classic love story at the drive-in. The drive-in keeps the date personal and romantic.

Source Says Michelle Williams' Daughter 'Loves' Jason Segel

Despite some his more humorous roles, according to sources and UsMagazine.com, Jason Segel is “ready to be a grown-up.” As he and Michelle Williams’s relationship goes more public, this is undoubtedly a good thing. Williams isn’t the only one enamored with the comedian-actor, as her daughter “loves Jason” and Jason Segel definitely knows how to “entertain children.” Having your partner’s kids like you, is definitely a good step toward a more serious relationship.

What are some ways to bond with your partner’s kids?

Cupid’s Advice:

Once you start to get serious with a partner who has kids, it’s crucial to start bonding with them too. Cupid shares some advice:

- 1. Ask them about themselves: Kids like to talk just like anyone, so ask them about their interests and get to know them.
- 2. Do what they want to do: Take them to the park, the mall or a concert. Do the things they want to do, and further build that relationship.

3. Be good to your partner: It might seem obvious, but be good to these kids' parent. They like when their parent is happy, and will automatically respect someone who can make that happen.

'The Five-Year Engagement' is the Rom-Com of the Season!

Jason Segel and Emily Blunt star in this romantic comedy about a couple who keep having to put off their engagement for reason after reason. Coming from the director of Forgetting Sarah Marshall, one of the funniest movies of the last decade, this movie seems to have a lot of laughs just in the trailer. Much of the film's appeal comes from the two leads, who both have great chemistry no matter who they are playing off of. The two of them together can only mean good things.

Should You See It? Yes, this is a comedy not to be missed just before the big summer blockbuster season.

Who To Take: Anyone really. Guys will like the comedy. Girls will like the romance. This is a great date film on all accounts but also one that you could take a group of friends to. It should be noted, however, that the film has an R rating, so you may want to steer clear from taking your mother in case there are raunchy scenes that might be awkward.

Are you in a relationship with someone who just won't commit? Here are some tips on easing them into territory they might not be so comfortable with.

In The Five-Year Engagement, Jason Segel and Emily Blunt keep finding reasons to put off their wedding date. But eventually one decides that enough is enough and that after five years now is the time. This of course leads to some conflict. Check out our tips on how to prevent these problems.

1. Make your intentions clear. Perhaps they don't want to scare you away by saying exactly what their intentions are for the future. So make sure that they know exactly where you want this to go so that there can be no confusion when the time for commitment comes.

2. Don't guilt them into anything. If you are ready and they are not don't push them. You will make them feel trapped and that could very easily cause the relationship to end.

3. Be patient. Good things come in time. Of course there is a point where two people just do not work together, but if you truly believe in the relationship, be patient and full commitment will come in time.

Michelle Williams and Jason Segel Show PDA at Movie Premiere

Everyone is talking about Hollywood's newest couple, Michelle Williams and Jason Segel. The two attended the premiere of Segel's new movie, The Five-Year Engagement at the Tribeca Film Festival. According to People, they didn't leave each other's side for the entire after party at the Museum of Modern Art. The couple looked very happy holding hands, snuggling and whispering sweetly to one another for the entire evening. When asked about his own potential engagement, Segel said, "My plan is to get her to marry me as quickly as possible before she finds out who I really am. I'll do it romantic, but I'll do it like over a three-day weekend. We'll meet on Friday, have our first date on Saturday, engaged on Sunday and married on Monday."

How do you know when it's OK to show PDA?

Cupid's Advice:

PDA is okay as long as it's done in a casual setting and isn't overdone. A kiss and a warm touch here and there is perfectly cute and acceptable, but once you feel the need to get a room, you need to tone it down. Cupid has some tips:

1. Stay away from PDA in a business setting: When you bring your partner to meet your co-workers or to the company holiday party, this is never the time for PDA. Keep it professional.

2. At the beach: No one can resist their partner in a swimsuit. So, PDA at the beach or poolside is perfectly acceptable. Feel free to hold hands, steal a kiss or wrestle in the waves.

3. After a big achievement: When your partner has just won an award or scored a point in a sports game, this is the perfect time for PDA. Show your congratulations and affection with a kiss.

Michelle Williams to Reportedly Avoid Heath Ledger Mistakes With Jason Segel

Michelle Williams is ready to get serious with new boyfriend Jason Segel. It's been a tough past couple of years for Williams, having mourned the death ex-fiance, Heath Ledger.

An insider told UsMagazine.com, "She is a romantic and always felt partly responsible for not being able to help Heath."

But, Segel has done the single mother some good, and now she's reportedly in love! The 5 Year Engagement star is ready to commit, and having learned from past mistakes with Ledger, the two are moving forward.

What are some ways past mistakes help future relationships?

Cupid's Advice:

The best part of a faulty past relationship, is that it's in the past. You now have control of your new relationships and know exactly what to avoid. Here are some ways past mistakes can help you in the future:

1. You know how to avoid silly arguments: From past relationships, you realize that all of the little fights you had were pointless, and you know to just avoid those all together in the future.

2. Improve communication: The biggest aspect of a relationship is communication. A lot of the time, arguments are started because there was a miscommunication. So in your new relationship, you know exactly how to say things and when to say them.

3. Don't let a relationship take over: As you can see from past faulty relationships, sometimes things just don't work out. Now you know to keep that balance between your normal life and your new beau.

What are some other things you can learn from past relationships? Share your ideas below.

Michelle Williams and Jason Segel: A Serious Couple?

It seems that things are heating up between My Week With Marilyn star Michelle Williams and actor Jason Segel ... and many people didn't see it coming. However, according to UsMagazine.com, friends close to the couple are surprised it didn't happen sooner. The couple have known each other for years and met through Williams's good friend Busy Philipps, who starred with Segel in Freaks and Geeks.

How do you know when your relationship has turned serious?

Cupid's Advice:

Even when you both have feelings for one another, labeling your relationship as "serious" can be difficult. Here are some signs that it's approaching that label:

- 1. You're Facebook official: Once you've both announced your relationship to your friends via your social media circles, it's safe to say you're serious.
- 2. You've met the family: Meeting your partner's family and introducing them to yours is a huge step for a couple. It's one that you don't take unless you're serious.

3. You're moving in together: Signing a lease together is a big step that's never to be taken lightly.

New Couple: Michelle Williams and Jason Segel Are Dating

Longtime friends Jason Segel and Michelle Williams are the newest celebrity couple. According to a source, “They are smitten and very serious.” The duo was caught taking a romantic stroll after a meal at Frankie Spuntino in Brooklyn this weekend, reported UsMagazine.com. A source says, "They seemed very relaxed." The day after the pair's stroll and meal, Segal was spotted playing with Matilda, Williams' 6-year-old daughter. Living on different coasts makes their relationship challenging, but the source says the couple is "trying to make it work. She hasn't been this happy in a long time."

How do you stay close to your long distance mate?

Cupid's Advice:

Being in a relationship is hard enough as it is, but what about when you are in separate states, or even separate countries? Here are some tips on how to stay as close in a long distance relationship:

1. Skype: Skype is a lifesaver for long distance relationships. Seeing your sweetheart's face every day makes the distance seem much more bearable. Even if you chat for only five minutes, talking face-to-face will keep your relationship alive better than any text message could.

2. Share photos: Send each other pictures. Even if it's only what you had for lunch, share your life with your partner. Send pictures of things you would normally laugh about together, or something you tried for the first time together and are passing in the grocery store. Keeping your partner in the know will make reuniting seamless.

3. Make countdowns: Countdowns can definitely help you through a long distance relationship. If you have visits planned, count down to those. Or, if you have a birthday coming up, count down to that. The smaller and simpler the count down, the better they will make you feel, until the ultimate countdown of being able to be together for good.

‘Bad Teacher’ with Cameron Diaz, Justin Timberlake and Jason Segel

After being dumped by her sugar daddy, outspoken junior high teacher (Cameron Diaz) starts making drastic attempts to woo a studly colleague (Justin Timberlake). The Bad Teacher's approach to getting his attention takes an unexpected turn as she slowly starts to get better at her job, and the decision causes her to be up against a highly respected co-worker.

Is it healthy to be in a relationship with a colleague?

Cupid's Advice:

Every school has that cute teacher couple, but it's not always as easy as they make it seem. If you're thinking about dating a colleague, Cupid has some things to consider:

1. Little privacy: When you're dating someone you work with, there's sure to be gossiping around the office. Not only do your co-workers constantly see the two of you during the day, but you or your partner are sure to tell someone about your Friday night. If you really want the relationship to work, look into transferring. Otherwise, you're sure to be the hot topic at the water cooler talk for a long time.

2. Pressure: If you think there's pressure at work now, working with your significant other could do a number to your stress level that no deadline could. From wanting to look nice to being better at your job, you'll find yourself focusing more on impressing your mate than getting any work done.

3. Awkward: Even though we avoid it all all costs sometimes, you have to look to the future. What if you break up? Having to see each other every day could be painful and awkward. If your partner is really worth the risk, it won't kill you to figure out a more healthy working situation.
