

Celebrity Break-Up: Olivia Wilde Ditches Engagement Ring After Jason Sudeikis Split

By Nicole Maher

In the latest celebrity news, Olivia Wilde has removed her engagement ring after her celebrity break-up with fiancé Jason Sudeikis. According to UsMagazine.com, Wilde was first spotted without her ring while spending some time at a horse stable in Los Angeles, California. The couple began dating in November of 2011 and announced their engagement in January of 2013.

In celebrity break-up news, Olivia Wilde is no longer sporting the engagement ring she got from ex Jason Sudeikis. What are some physical ways you can cope with a break-up?

Cupid's Advice:

One of the hardest things to deal with in a break-up is letting go of some of the physical reminders of your relationship. If you are looking for some physical ways you can cope with a break-up, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Lose the jewelry: Whether it's an engagement ring or a necklace, taking off any jewelry that was given to you by your ex is a good first step in removing physical reminders of your break-up. This will also give others the clue that your relationship has ended without you necessarily needing to tell everyone verbally. After some time has passed, you can decide what to do with the jewelry long-term.

2. Clean your social media: In the modern age, nearly everyone in a relationship has shared some pictures with their partner on social media. Another physical way of coping with a break-up is to clear that person from your field. This can include archiving pictures of you two together, removing tags from past photos, and muting or unfollowing your ex's account.

3. Put away past gifts: While you may have a sentimental attachment to some of the gifts your ex has given you in the past, it is a good idea to remove these gifts from view. Just like with jewelry, placing the gifts you've received in a box and putting them away for a while can help take your mind off the break-up. Once your emotions have settled, then you can decide what to keep, return, and get rid of.

Olivia Wilde & Jason Sudeikis Welcome a Celebrity Baby Girl!

By Kayla Garritano

This celebrity news has us going Wilde! Celebrity couple Olivia Wilde and husband Jason Sudeikis welcomed a second child into their family. Their new celebrity baby girl, Daisy, was born on Tuesday, October 11. According to UsMagazine.com, Mama Wilde shared a post on Instagram on October 15 of her new daughter with the caption, “There goes the neighborhood. Daisy Josephine Sudeikis. Born, like a boss, on #internationaldayofthegirl.”

This couple welcomed their second celebrity baby. What are some ways to prepare differently for your second child versus your first?

Cupid’s Advice:

Having children is a beautiful miracle. However, preparing for the first child may be a little different than preparing for your second. Cupid is here to help you get ready for child number two:

1. Prepare the older sibling: Now that you're extending your family even more, you need to think about your first child. Since they are becoming a big brother or sister, it will be exciting, but there may be a little jealousy. Just make sure that you pay attention to your first child, even though having a newborn is a lot of work. Neither of your children should feel neglected.

2. Hand-me-downs: The good thing about having gone through pregnancy and birth already is that you still have all your old equipment. First of all, you still have your maternity clothes, so you don't need to go shopping again. But there's also the benefit of having a crib, baby clothes that your first child grew out of, a stroller, etc. You get to save some cash when having a second child, which will be important in the long run.

3. Less parenting books, and more hands-on experience: When preparing for your first child, you spent most of your time reading pregnancy, birth and parenting books to ensure your child was healthy. However, now that you already have your first child, you've experienced what it's like to be hands on with your child. You know how to hold your baby, how to put them to sleep, and how to feed them. Hopefully, this will make you a little more at ease when you're expecting your second child.

Olivia Wilde and Jason Sudeikis Enjoy Boston Getaway

By Sanetra Richards

Parents-to-be Jason Sudeikis and fiancée Olivia Wilde seemed to have enjoyed themselves in Titledown, also known as Boston, during their weekend getaway. Wilde stylishly joined Sudeikis on set as he was in the process of filming for the upcoming romantic comedy Tumbledown. According to People, the couple was no stranger to the well-liked neighborhood coffee shop Haute Coffee (they ordered haute lattes with almond milk and a house-made syrup of honey and cinnamon). A bystander described the pair as 'very cute,' whilst an employee said, "They're very casual, very down to earth. They couldn't have been nicer. It's just a pleasure to have them here." The actress also shared they are expecting their little bundle of joy in about four weeks.

What are some ways vacation can make you closer as a couple?

Cupid's Advice:

Getaways with your honey are well-needed not only during the rough patches, but also just to keep the spark alive or possibly light the fire even more. Cupid has a few other ways a vacation can help strengthen your relationship:

1. Alone time: One of the biggest perks about a vaca is the isolation spent with your partner. The world back at home is cancelled out for that period of time. Your primary focus is having an enjoyable break and giving all of your attention to each other. Maybe tension between the two of you is slowly taking a toll and you feel a barrier shaping, take a simple vacation to ease away the stress.

2. More experiences: Whether it is a trip to you all's favorite spot or somewhere fresh, completely new memories will be created. You and your significant other will see things that you have never seen before, forming a tighter bond in the relationship. When you are back at home one day, you may see may come across something that triggers a memory from the vacation, and (hopefully) you will smile at the thought of being with your partner.

3. The afterglow: Post vacation romance can definitely keep a relationship going. You may even catch yourself wanting to relive the moment.

A woman's body goes through a lot of changes during this time and it can sometimes feel overwhelming. Cupid has some advice on how to keep your lovebird feeling beautiful.

1. Compliment her: This is a simple and easy task. The woman is carrying your child; you should make her feel loved and beautiful and one-way to do it is by showering her with compliments. Olivia Wilde and Jason Sudeikis Are Expecting a Baby!

By April Littleton

Reps for both Olivia Wilde, 29, and Jason Sudeikis, 38, confirm to People that the happy couple are expecting their first child together. “They are incredibly happy. They’re very excited to welcome a new member into their family,” said a source who is close to the lovebirds. The two met in 2011 during the Saturday Night Live finale and began dating six months later. They got engaged in January.

How do you decide the right time to have a child with your partner?

Cupid’s Advice:

Starting a family is an exciting time for a couple in love. Trying for a baby has its own set of challenges, but the outcome is worth it. Before you bring home a little bundle of joy, there are a few things you should think about first. Cupid has some tips:

1. Communication: You won’t know if you’re ready to have a baby with your significant other if you don’t ask. Sit your partner down and have a long discussion about your future together. What you're ready for might not be the case for your honey. You can't create a child by yourself, so make sure you and your companion are on the same page before you start loading up on baby clothes.

2. Finances: One of the worst mistakes a person can make is bringing a child into this world when they're not financially ready to care for one. It wouldn't be wise to start a family when you and your partner are living paycheck to paycheck. Babies need more than just your love. Children need food, clothing, shelter, regular visits to the doctor, etc. Keep that in mind the next time you catch yourself having baby fever.

3. Stable relationship: A baby won't help save an already failing relationship. Make sure the commitment you have with your significant other is strong and long-lasting before you decide to add to your family. If you and your honey are headed toward a split, work on the issues at hand before you choose to make any life-changing decision, like having a baby.

What are some ways to plan the perfect proposal?

Cupid's Advice:

How, when and where you propose is something your partner will never forget. In addition to the pressure of the planning the perfect proposal, you also have to remember she will be telling the story countless times, to all of her friends and family. We know you want to look good! If you are clueless in the realm of romantic proposals, here are some excellent—and simple—ways to create a proposal that she will never forget:

1. Choose the perfect ring: Choosing a ring can be extremely intimidating—and expensive. Add in the pressure that she will be wearing this ring the rest of your and her life and you have a recipe for stress. There are excellent ways to find the perfect ring without giving away the surprise. Ask her friends. There is not one woman in this world that hasn't shown her favorite ring to her friends. Additionally, technology has severely favored the dating world. There is a great website called Pinterest. Women constantly Like and post pictures of rings they like. Use that for inspiration, but throw in a touch of yourself as well.

2. Be personal: Everyone gets engaged under the Rockefeller tree, at Disney World, on the beach or on Valentine's Day. You and your significant other have a relationship all your own. Why not personalize your proposal to your relationship instead. If you and your sweetie like to hike, find a quiet spot at the top of the mountain where you can pop the questions. If you enjoy walking the dog together, do it then. Personalize the proposal by fitting it into your relationship, not fitting your relationship into the proposal. It will be way more romantic and make for a great story.

3. Pay attention to her likes and dislikes: Some men try so hard to have the most outrageous, romantic and original proposal out there. However, don't lose sight of the woman on the other end. If she doesn't like sports, don't propose to her on the Jumbotron. If she hates public display of affection, don't propose to her in the middle of a crowded train station. Find what works for both of you. Start by noting all of the things she likes and dislikes. It will help you narrow down the perfect venue and timing for your proposal.

Olivia Wilde Opens Up About Relationship with Jason Sudeikis

By Jennifer Ross

At a recent Glamour magazine hosted event in NYC, Olivia Wilde gushed to the audience over her new boyfriend, Jason Sudeikis, although she didn't name him directly. When comparing Sudeikis, 37, to the likes of say David Beckham, the House

M.D. star said she “would drop him [Beckham] off at the pound.” This in no way was a jab at Beckham, but rather an example of how smitten she is over her new beau. During her monologue reading, Wilde spoke about the raw truth on personal matters such as her divorce, her body and her strong feelings for her partner.

How do you know if you're really into someone?

Cupid's Advice:

When you begin to fall in love with someone, it can be one of the best times of your life. Your thoughts wonder to where he is and what he's doing. Your heart beats faster when he first approaches you. His eye contact takes your breath away. Here are a few tips that point to the fact that you might be falling in love:

1. He's Your Go-To Person: If you find yourself in a challenging work situation and immediately text/email your new partner about it, you are probably into him. Having the urge to tell him what's going on throughout your day, moments that can be considered unimportant or urgent, is a sign that you are thinking of him constantly and want to be near him.

2. You Open Up About Your Past: Sharing personal stories about your youth, especially ones about your awkward stages, relays a message that you feel comfortable enough to express your vulnerable side. Vulnerability is not easy for many people to show and is normally reserved for those who you've known a long time or people you trust in your heart. When you start opening up, it is a clear indication that you want more than a temporary partnership with the person you're dating.

3. Your Friends, Family or Co-workers Have Met Him: One of the most obvious signs that you are into someone is when you introduce him to your friends, family or co-workers. This is definitely big! Attempting to incorporate your new relationship into your personal life shows him and yourself that you want him around often and you want others to know he exists.

Sources Say Jason Sudeikis and Olivia Wilde Are 'Inseparable'

By Nicole Weintraub

Olivia Wilde and boyfriend Jason Sudeikis are starry eyed and in love, according to UsMagazine.com. The pair have been “inseparable” says an insider; the couple of nine months have been attached at the hip. The two are living together after only dating for a few months, but they are smitten. Though, the two are in no rush to tie the knot as Wilde divorced her former husband Tao Ruspoli last September after eight years. Sudeikis himself separated from his wife Kay Cannon after six years of marriage in 2010. Since the two have a ‘been there, done that’ attitude, they are in no race to the altar. Rather, the two enjoy squeezing time in to see one another in between hectic work schedules.

How do you know how much time to spend with a significant other?

Cupid’s Advice:

A new relationship has a honeymoon phase where all you want to do is be with your new partner. Though, where is the line between enjoying each other’s company and suffocating each other? Cupid has some advice:

1. You feel the suffocation: If you are beginning to feel that you are trapped or have no privacy, it’s probably time to put a little distance between your outings. There is nothing wrong with wanting to spend time with your partner, but the two of you also need some space.

2. Nothing to talk about: If the two of you are constantly together, attached at the hip, eventually you are going to run out of things to talk about. You won’t be able to tell them what is new or how your day went, because they already know.

3. Don’t miss them: You need to be able to miss each other. If you do not have space and time to yourselves, the spark is going to disappear. You cannot miss your partner and appreciate the time you truly spend together if you are constantly with one another.

Kissing On Screen: Do Celebrities Get Jealous?

By Che Blackwood

In the real world, most couples are uncomfortable with the idea of their partner locking lips with a co-worker. Since infidelity is one of the leading causes of divorce and emotional cheating is grounds for a split, it's hard to imagine anyone condoning an out-of-relationship make out session; that is, unless you're in Hollywood. Stars have contractual obligations to kiss their co-stars, and their partners have to be understanding in order for their relationship to work. To avoid jealous outbursts and maintain healthy and loving relationships, celebrity couples make sure to follow these simple tips:

1. They work together: Whether they met on or off screen, famous couples like Kristen Stewart & Rob Pattinson and Olivia Wilde & Jason Sudeikis have managed to share the silver screen with their real life partners. Getting paid to kiss your romantic interest is a sure fire way to keep the jealousy tamed.

Related: 5 Ways Playing Hard to Get Can Damage Your Love Life

2. They visit each other on set: While stars can often be away from their honeys for months at a time, the truly devoted grab every possible opportunity to see one another. Loving couples, like Shia LaBeouf and Karolyn Pho, know that absence can make the heart grow fonder ... at first. But too much time apart is a relationship killer.

Related: Four Ways to Make Your Long Distance Relationship Work

3. They're supportive: You don't have to understand your partner's career, but the couples that last know that you do have to be supportive. By rehearsing together and staying connected through the ups and downs of stardom, Tinsletown twosomes are able to keep their love strong, regardless of occupation.

4. They vacation together: Couples that play together, stay together. After long stints of work, lasting duos like Prince William and Kate Middleton know the best way to keep the fire burning is to get away from whatever was blowing it out.

5. They communicate: By far one of the most important parts of a relationship is communication (or the lack thereof), and it can make or break a relationship. Kris Humphries and Kim Kardashian prove that without a healthy dose of conversation, busy and stressed stars won't get far in their quest for love. By staying open about their feelings with one another, the rich and famous can get rid of jealousy altogether. In the end, when you're with the right person, no amount of on-screen kissing will break your bond apart.

Valentine's Day Advice: Follow Famous New Yorkers

By Jeryl Brunner

Someone once told me that when it comes to dating, especially early on, it's important to place you and your date into the epicenter of something fun and amusing. So, in case you aren't clicking or the conversation is generally going south, the environment around you can pick up the slack, offering instant entertainment.

So this Valentine's Day, instead of going for the quiet table at the dimly lit restaurant, opt for something a bit more lively that will spark conversation. Honestly, I've been told that the circus makes a nice date option, and is good for people watching and observation. ("Look at that clown juggle 14 plates! Get a load of that tightrope walker!") But since the circus isn't in town, I turned to famous New Yorkers and their favorite romantic New York City spots for advice:

1. Let me sell you a bridge

For the ultimate people watching and architecture viewing, do what makes John Oliver and Ana Gastayer go breathless: Walk across the Brooklyn Bridge. “Something as simple as walking across the Brooklyn Bridge can be a heart-stopping experience,” explains Gasyeyer. “As a New Yorker there are a few moments that you can repeat over and over again that echo the original experience of coming here if you weren’t born here.”

Related: Take a Walk on the Wild Side of the Caribbean

2. Be a karaoke king (or queen)

Pals Jason Sudeikis and Will Forte say there’s nothing like bonding over karaoke in a private room. The pair and their friends will hit Sing Sing or Boho Karaoke and belt REO Speedwagon standards like “I Can’t Fight This Feeling,” TV theme songs (think Family Ties and Good Times) or tunes from Shrek. As Sudeikis notes, “You sing six or seven songs in an hour and can take chances. You can take risks.”

Related: Justin Bieber Serenades Selena Gomez During AMA Rehearsal

3. Pizza, much hotter than you think

How about a road trip for pizza and more compelling people watching? Kevin Spacey prefers Joe’s, while Daniel Boulud says Di Fara rules. Owner Dom DeMarco, says Boulud “makes each pie one by one. People line up out the door to get in. It’s the old-fashioned Brooklyn pizza—thick, breaded dough, good tomato sauce ... He adds more cheese after it’s cooked and lets it melt over the hot pizza, rather than cook the cheese too much.”

4. Never underestimate the zoo, sing-alongs and gardens

For interesting people (and animal) watching, head over to Alex Rodriguez’s go-to spot, the Central Park Zoo. Then, mosey on over to Meredith Vieira’s beloved Strawberry Fields and sing along with the musicians crooning Beatles tunes.

Combine that with a trip to the Conservatory Gardens, Bette Midler's favorite locale. The six-acre tucked away refuge is filled with bronze sculptures and fountains.

5. Drink in that view

Thirsty? Follow Gayle King's lead and have a drink at the 35th floor Lobby Lounge at the Mandarin Oriental Hotel. Nothing enhances date buzz like a killer view with the twinkling lights of Manhattan as your backdrop.

So go ahead, step out of the same old heart-shaped box this Valentine's Day. You may just discover some seriously cool shared treasures.

New Couple: Are Olivia Wilde and Jason Sudeikis Dating?

When beautiful women claim they love a guy with a sense of humor people often scoff, thinking that looks matter much more. However, Jason Sudeikis has proven the theory true with his ex-girlfriend January Jones and current fling Olivia Wilde. While single, Wilde had been linked to stars such as Justin Timberlake and Bradley Cooper, but this time could be the real deal. Wilde and Sudeikis were recently spotted when they went to a University of Kansas Jayhawks basketball game, which is a team that Sudeikis considers his own, according to Hollyscoop. To show her support, Wilde even sported a KU beanie with a fuzzy ball on top.

What are some unique sports-related dates you can go on as a couple?

Cupid's Advice:

Sporting events are a great way to loosen up with your mate for a common cause. Cupid has some unique sports-related dates:

1. Join a team together: Instead of just watching a sporting event unfold, you can be part of it with your partner. Sign up for a recreational soccer or flag football league in your area, and let the competitive spirit bond you as a couple.

2. Check out a less popular sport: You don't necessarily have to check out the NBA, MLB or NFL if you want to go to a sporting event. Consider going to a sport you know little about, like rugby, broomball or curling.

3. Sunday football at home: Put on your jerseys and chill out at home with some homemade nachos and wings. Sometimes the most fun you can have with your partner is the easiest solution.

What are other unique sports-related dates? Share your ideas below.

Are Scarlett Johansson and Jason Sudeikis Dating?

Actress Scarlett Johansson and SNL's Jason Seudeikis are not dating, People reports. The two were spotted at dinner together along with Seudeikis's former SNL cast-mate, Will Forte. The duo claims the dinner was just friendly and not romantic. Johansson recently separated from her husband of two years, Ryan Reynolds and filed for divorce shortly after. Her rep says that she is not dating Seudeikis, or anyone else for that matter.

Is it truly possible to be “just friends”?

Cupid's Advice:

Why is it okay to have boy-friends as a kid, but it's considered weird as an adult? Cupid thinks you can be just friends with someone of the opposite sex:

1. If it starts at work: If you meet someone of the opposite sex at work, it's a lot easier to keep it on the friend level. There's no expectation to take the relationship past being friendly, because a work environment keeps romance out of the equation.

2. If you grow up together: If you've been friends with him or her from the time you were little, it's easy to stick with your close friendship. When you meet someone at a bar, it's tough to start a friendship, as there are expectations of making it more. Knowing someone from back in the day takes away that expectation.

3. It just happens: Some people simply have an easier time making friends with the opposite sex and connecting with them on a friendly level than they do with someone of their own gender. No one goes out in hopes of landing themselves a great friend of the opposite sex. It's something that happens without even realizing it.
