Cupid's Advice:

Fighting with a partner, friend or family member is never pretty. It can be hard to recover from a bad fight in a relationship. Cupid has some ways to make it right with your partner after a fight:

1. Don't be petty: After a fight, your emotion might still be running high, so let the dust settle after a fight. You may feel like throwing in some last-minute shade, passive-aggressive jabs or get back at them. But all that does is prolong the nastiness of your fight. The best thing is to let it go and work out your problems.

2. Stay off social media: A relationship, for the most part, only involves you and your significant other. Do not bring your arguments and issues to social media. We will all remember what happen with Ron and Jen. Someone once told me, “never tell your friends what your significant other does, because, when you are over it and move one, they will remember.” Sounds about right.
