

Celebrity Break-Up: Channing Tatum & Jenna Dewan Tatum Are Still Living Together Post-Split

By Carly Horowitz

In latest celebrity news, Channing Tatum and Jenna Dewan Tatum have announced their peaceful separation. Although, according to UsMagazine.com, the two haven't been lovey dovey in a while. "They haven't been 'together' for a while. They are best friends and still support each other and go to each other's events and live in the same house," a source said. Apparently the former celebrity couple seems to be better as friends than as romantic partners at the moment, and there are no hard feelings about that.

This celebrity break-up took us all by surprise, and the duo are still co-habiting. What are some ways to decide who will move out after a split?

Cupid's Advice:

When you have been together with someone for a long time, moving out can be a very upsetting experience. You have come to a point where you are so comfortable with each other. How can you decide who is going to move out? Cupid has some words of wisdom on how to handle this situation:

1. Decide legally: You can go the simple route and whoever's name is on the lease gets to stay. Although sometimes, it is more complicated than that if both of you two have your names on it.

2. Get a counselor: You don't need a counselor just when you are working to try to make your relationship better, you can still use one once you two are officially apart. It doesn't hurt to have a professional help you decide where to go from here.

3. Don't let your emotions overtake: Have a rational discussion with your ex-partner to figure out what would make the most sense to do. Try not to become too attached to the small things. Have an open mind and realize that you now have this opportunity to either move out and start a beautiful new life in a wonderful new place, or you get to redecorate the home you are in now! Either option is an opportunity for growth.

Celebrity Couple News: Channing Tatum Recalls 'Cruel' Proposal Tactic

By Melissa Lee

Channing Tatum recently reflected on his plan to propose to his now wife, Jenna Dewan Tatum, which ended up being... well, pretty cruel. According to UsMagazine.com, Tatum wanted to propose in 2008 but when he thought his wife was onto him, he tried to throw her off. "I basically told her I never wanted to get married," Tatum reveals. "I told her, 'I don't believe in the institution of marriage and I don't think I ever want to get married.' She basically broke down crying." Apparently Dewan Tatum's reaction broke his heart, because he realized he had to propose sooner than later. Thankfully, she said yes, and the celebrity couple have been married since 2009.

This celebrity couple news has us shaking our heads at Channing Tatum. What are some ways to throw your partner off the scent when you're about to propose?

Cupid's Advice:

If you're attempting to keep your proposal a secret, there are better ways to do so instead of taking your partner on an emotional rollercoaster (sorry, Channing!). Head below for some of Cupid's advice on throwing your lover off when it comes to the big proposal:

1. Stay quiet: Instead of bringing up any hints of marriage or proposing, just stay silent about the topic. This way you aren't even bringing the thought to their attention, plus it'll make it seem like you aren't even thinking about it. Don't do this for too long, though – you don't want to pull a Channing and have your partner think that you're not even interested in getting married!

2. Make it a complete surprise: Try to surprise your partner with the proposal by having them think you're doing something simple. For example, take them out on a date night and then propose at the end of the night, making it a memorable yet quaint night. You could also go on a weekend getaway and plan a romantic surprise, catching them off guard entirely.

3. Do it when they're least expecting: On the other hand, you could also propose when they're least expecting it. Make your partner breakfast in bed and pop the question just as they're done digging in. If your lover is into a more simple approach, surprise proposals would be picture perfect.

Her and her husband may be considered one of the hottest celebrity couples, but this celebrity mom is pretty down-to-earth when it comes to how she feels. According to People.com, the actress recently joked that she doesn't know how other mothers leave the house with their makeup done, much less keep up with all of their products. This celebrity mom has to be creative with her baby to prepare for the day. What are some ways to entertain your child while you get ready?

Cupid's Advice:

A child changes your daily routine in more ways than you could ever imagine. Something as simple as taking a shower or fixing your hair must be carefully planned according to your baby's schedule. Here, Cupid reveals three ways to entertain your kid while you get ready for the day:

1. Keep them busy: It's easy enough to move your baby's toys from the playroom to the kitchen...to the bathroom. Spread out a blanket and grab their favorites books and blocks. As long as they're having fun, they won't care that you're curling your hair or carefully applying your lipstick.

2. Ask for help: If your partner has a flexible work schedule, don't be afraid to ask him to stick around for a few extra minutes in the morning. A healthy habit in love and relationships is to partner on certain tasks, such as parenting. It'll be a good opportunity for him to bond with his child, and it'll let you have a moment to yourself before your busy day of parenting begins.

3. Turn to technology: While not all parents allow their children to watch television or play on an iPad, if you're

How do you keep outside pressures from affecting your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

It can be difficult not to listen to the opinions of your loved ones since they mean so much to you, but this is your relationship. Your relationship is between you and your partner so therefore you should focus the energy between you and your partner alone. Check out these tips for handling external pressures that may be weighing on your relationship:

1. Filter what you hear: It's definitely important to listen to what people are saying about your relationship, because there is usually an underlying truth. But people are people and they tend to exaggerate the details of most stories and conjure some pretty extensive rumors. Don't let the words of others get a rise out of you when you know your partner probably better than most anyone else. Stay strong and listen to what is said, but only do what your heart says is right.

2. Talk about it: Talking with your partner is key to a healthy relationship. Whether it's financial struggles, social issues, or any other problems, an open communication line is the best tool to have under your belt. By talking to your love about what is on your mind the both of you can work together to diminish the issues that may be surfacing. It's important to set boundaries and fully understand each other's opinions to come to a conclusion that you agree on. Together you'll emerge stronger than ever as a united front.

Related: Benji Madden Says He's 'Lucky' to be Dating Cameron Diaz

3. Don't stress over little messes: The more you talk about a problem, the bigger the problem gets. If you find yourself constantly bringing up a past issue it won't stay in the past. By making it relevant again you invite the stress back into your life. Also, by making a huge deal out of a little situation, such as not walking the dog two days in a row, you'll begin to pick fights with your partner. Destress by learning to sort the big pressures from the little ones, and you'll find yourself in a stronger and happier relationship.

Celebrities Who Lose Baby Weight Fast

By April Littleton

We're all envious of the women we see on the front cover of magazines who seem to lose all of their baby weight as soon as they deliver their child. Some of us blame Photoshop because there's no way these celebrities can drop those pounds so quickly. While other readers credit the rapid weight loss to plastic surgery. This method might be used among some of the famous stars we know, but some of them still enjoy getting their bodies back in the right way:

1. Jenna Dewan-Tatum: Just six weeks after giving birth to her first daughter Everly last May, the Witches of East End star was back to work – in a size zero. “I wasn’t one of those girls who’s obsessed with losing weight, but that was a pretty good motivator. I thought, I’ve got to fit in the clothes I wore before!” she said in an interview. Dewan-Tatum managed to lose her baby weight so quickly due to the strict diet and regiment she stuck to while pregnant. “I think a lot of women find out they’re pregnant and are like, ‘Let’s go crazy and eat ice cream every day!’ To me, it was, ‘I’m growing a human being, and I want to give this little soul the best nutrition I can,” she said.

3. Gwyneth Paltrow: The Iron Man 2 actress is also known for her commitment to physical fitness. After giving birth to daughter Apple (born 2004) and son Moses (born 2006), Paltrow worked out for two hours a day with celebrity trainer, Tracy Anderson. “It was not easy and, when I started it, it was by far the hardest thing I have ever done – but I really was seeing results so it motivated me to just work through it,” she said, according to the Press Association.

5. Gwen Stefani: This singer has the perfect body before and after pregnancy. Stefani is a mother to two boys, Kingston and Zuma. Channing Tatum and Wife Jenna Spotted at LAX Airport with New Daughter

By Kerri Sheehan

White House Down actor, Channing Tatum is falling into fatherhood quite splendidly. He was spotted cradling his newborn baby girl, Everly, at LAX this weekend with wife Jenna Dewan-Tatum. According to UsMagazine.com, the first time father has described fatherhood as terrifying. “Nothing is more important or scary than protecting a daughter,” said Tatum.

How do you know if your beau is daddy material?

Cupid's Advice:

Being a dad is a big step that some men may not be ready for yet. Cupid has some ways for you to know if your beau is up for the task:

- 1. He wants to be a dad: If he claims he's ready to take on Dad-hood without any prompting then he most likely is. Forcing your guy into saying that he's ready doesn't count!
- 2. Nurturing: When you're sick does your man bring you soup, give you a massage, and help you take care of the things that you can't manage? If the answer is yes then he is probably up for the task of fatherhood.

3. Thinks of the future: Everyone knows babies are expensive. If your guy makes an effort to save up for a house or a baby-safe car then he's looking towards the future and may see a baby on the horizon.

Channing Tatum and Jenna Dewan-Tatum Introduce Baby Everly

By Petra Halbur

Two weeks after the birth of their daughter, Channing Tatum and Jenna Dewan-Tatum debuted their baby girl on Facebook. According to People, Tatum posted a photo of himself holding baby Everly beside his wife with the words, “First Father’s Day with my girls.” Dewan-Tatum described her daughter as “our lil angel” on her own Facebook account. What are some ways to introduce your newborn to family and friends?

Cupid’s Advice:

You’re overjoyed to be a new parent but you know that your family and friends are just bursting to get their first glimpse of your little bundle of joy. How best to debut your newborn to the world? Cupid has some ideas:

1. Use social media: Thanks to the internet, you can share photos of your baby with family and friends mere minutes after birth. Be cautious of going overboard, though. As beautiful as your newborn is, flooding your Facebook account with photos of your baby sleeping will get tedious.

2. Skype: Skype is a fantastic option for showing off your little one to relations who live far away. It offers an intimacy that posted photos cannot recreate.

3. Visit in the flesh: Unless there's an outbreak of cholera or bubonic plague in the area, there's no reason why you can't debut your baby in person. Go ahead and introduce your new son or daughter at the house of a friend or relative. This way, everyone gets the chance to hold the baby and say, "hello" in person.

Channing Tatum and Jenna Dewan-Tatum Welcome a Baby!

By Petra Halbur

On May 30, Channing Tatum and Jenna Dewan-Tatum became parents to a baby girl in London. Unfortunately for the couple, there will be very little downtime to enjoy parenthood in the upcoming months as both mother and father will begin filming separate projects in July. "We're going to actually have the baby in London while I'm shooting [Jupiter Ascending] and then there will be no downtime whatsoever after that," Tatum told Ryan Seacrest in a recent interview. However, a source assured UsMagazine.com that Tatum and his wife's highest priority will be their daughter. "The baby will get top billing as far as priorities go," the source said. "Channing is going to be the most adorable, hands-on daddy ever and do whatever is necessary to make sure Jenna can balance it all."

What are some ways to balance your career and parenthood?

Cupid's Advice:

"A baby changes everything." If you're expecting, you've probably been told this. Overused though that phrase may be, it is true. As a parent you will have to decide how to balance your career with your child's needs. Cupid is here to help:

1. Consider the longterm: Ask yourself, in 18 years, what will you regret more: the sacrifices made to your career, or the time you missed with your child? There's no right or wrong answer. Be honest with yourself and act accordingly.

2. Know that you can't do everything: So many parents wrack themselves with guilt when they realize they can't be full-time parents and full-time professionals simultaneously. Don't do this to yourself. Accept your limitations. You're not a failure. You're human.

3. Decide what YOU want: Don't let other people tell you what's best for your family. If you decide with your spouse that you want to be a stay-at-home parent or continue with your career, then that's what's best for your family.
