By Ahjané Forbes

This will be Jenna Dewan's second child. The celebrity parent had her first child with her heart throb co-star and ex-husband Channing Tatum. According to UsMagazine.com, Dewan's celebrity ex was crying while she was giving birth to their daughter. The Magic Mike star told the magazine, "I probably went to the bathroom four times [at the hospital] and had a crying fit. Like, I'm just like, 'I don't know what to do!'" Tatum later added that "seeing the one you love in pain makes you feel bad, Men are useless, but we are really useless during [the delivery process]."

In celebrity baby news, Jenna Dewan is preparing to welcome her second child – her first with Steve Kazee. What are some ways to prepare for the birth of your second child?

Cupid's Advice:

Welcoming a little one into the world can be very time consuming and stressful if you aren't prepared. Having your second child should be easier, right? Not exactly! Sometimes it can be easier if you have the same gender as you did previously, especially if you have a lot of baby clothes and bottles left over. Babies have a mind of their own just like humans. They can't directly tell you how they're feeling, but you'll catch their drift once they start crying. The second can be tricky and different for everyone. Cupid has some tips and tricks to help you through this journey:

1. Don't assume this will be easy: Every child and pregnancy is different. Try to keep an open mind, especially with the second child. Even though this is the second child, there's still a lot to learn about being a parent. Also, if you aren't the one having the child, be there for your partner.

2. Don't compare the two children: When the baby is born, it's okay to assume who they look like and whose personality they might have. It is important that you try to not compare your children in the beginning stages of life. Yes, they might do some of the same things that older brother or sister do/did, but it's not a good habit to keep comparing the two. You want your baby to be their own person and not a younger version of your first child.

3. Relax: Everything will work out fine if you are less stressed. The baby will come and you'll be fine. Don't overthink anything or expect the worse. Just hope for a healthy and happy baby, because that's truly all that matters.

By Megan McIntosh

Spring is all about rebirth and renewal. After a harsh winter of keeping your hair and body covered, it's time to let your hair down. There's no better way to step into Spring and Summer than by sporting a new hairstyle. Every new season, old hair trends come back into play. You'll see them on everyone from the locals to celebrities on TV and in movies. This Spring, some hair beauty trends have made a comeback on celebrities like Zendaya and Chrissy Teigen, but it's clear it's all about making the cut.

With a new season, comes the time to cut into a new hairstyle. Cupid has many new Spring hairstyles for you to debut with a bang.

It's not always easy to make the cut when it comes to your hair. Sometimes it can be hard to even give yourself a trim. But it's clear that snapping off some inches is the trend this season, so what better way to build that confidence than to emulate the most confident of stars?

1. Sweeping bangs: Sweeping bangs are so named because they're not as harsh or as much of a commitment as full-on bangs. They're all the fun of a fringe with none of the regret. Because these bangs are able to sweep to the side, you can have bangs on the days you want and go without on the days you don't. It's clear though, bangs are here to stay this Spring.

2. Get blunt with a bob: Blunt bobs have made a comeback this Spring season. There's something sophisticated yet wild about this look. You can rock this hair cut in the office or a night on the town. Jenna Dewan and Sarah Paulson make it look easy, but just make sure that the blunt bob you go for fits your face shape and jawline.
