By Hope Ankney

In our latest celebrity news, Jenni 'JWoww' Farley and Zack Carpinello are back together! After the celebrity couple split only two weeks ago, it seems like the two have mended their relationship. According to UsMagazine.com, the reality star and wrestler were seen together twice after they announced their break-up. This is when they spent time at Universal Studios in Florida on October 18th, and when Carpinello hung out with Farley's children on October 12th.

In celebrity couple news, this split didn't last! What are some ways to decide whether to get back together with an ex?

Cupid's Advice:

Getting back together with an ex can be a difficult decision. Let's be honest, it's much easier to patch things up with an ex instead of finding someone new because it means we must get to know someone new which, usually, isn't something we want to do. As you've probably broken up for legit reasons, it usually doesn't stop lingering feelings from keeping the flame alive. But, it's important to know when these feelings aren't just the normal process of missing a past relationship. If you're unsure of whether to give your ex another chance, don't worry. Cupid has some relationship advice that can help you decide:

1. Listen to your gut: The first thing you must do when reconsidering an old flame is to listen to what your gut is telling you. A past relationship could've ended because you chose to ignore major red flags or never followed what your gut felt. If you're choosing to give this person a second chance, make sure you're willing and able to trust your instincts if things start to slide back into the same territory.

2. Address what ended the relationship: Sometimes, partners like to jump back together without discussing what made them split in the first place. But, those issues seem to always creep back into a relationship if they're not dealt with properly. It's important for a couple to build on their new relationship by learning from the problems that occurred in the past that led to their break-up. It'll help you both to understand each other's perspective on the situation, and it will stop similar issues from arising in the future.

3. Time has passed: Time heals all wounds, right? Or, so they say. It's possible that your relationship ended because both of you just needed some time apart from one another. Sometimes, one needs to go soul-searching. Sometimes, both of you just need to learn to live life without one another to see if the relationship is right. It's often that when time passes, you have matured and grown as people. So, when you do find your way back together, it's like your relationship has recharged, and you've realized that you'd rather be with no one else.

By Emily Green

In the latest celebrity baby news, Roger Mathews of Jersey Shore, defends his estranged wife Jenni 'JWoww' Farley via Instagram on Monday, in the midst of an overflow of negative comments regarding their co-parenting skills. These negative comments come after new celebrity couple Farley and boyfriend, Zack Clayton Carpinello, were seen celebrating Memorial Day in Las Vegas, according to UsMagazine.com.

In celebrity baby news, Roger Mathews is supporting his ex JWOWW through criticism about their parenting. What are some ways to keep parenting criticism from affecting your children?

Cupid's Advice:

As a parent, receiving any criticism about how you are raising your children can be hard to hear, especially if it's from an outside source. These criticisms can make you begin to question if you are truly raising your children in the "right way." Every parent has their own unique way that they want their children to be raised. Here are Cupid's advice on remembering that your parenting style is the "right way" for you:

1. Ask yourself about their intentions: Some parents are what some would call "too confident" in their parenting style, thinking their way is the only right way to raise a child. Consider where their criticism is coming from: are they a random stranger that wants you to do things a certain way, or are they a close friend or family member offering advice? Through experience, you will find the parenting style that works best for you and your family.

2. Everyone is different: No parents are going to have the exact same type of parenting as others. Every household is different, with different parents and children, with different morals and ideals. If you are not sure about how to go about a situation, that's okay! Reach out to your partner, any close friends or family members, even do some research! It takes time to figure out exactly how you want to raise your children, so don't be afraid to try new things or ask for help.

3. You know your children best: No one knows your children better than YOU! You've been the one who has seen them grow up first hand, so you know how they react and adapt to certain situations and experiences. If you want to change up something in your parenting to better fit your family, that's fine! Just stick to what you know will benefit your family, don't conform to any criticisms from any outside perspective. You know what is best!

What are ways to prepare your relationship for a child?

Cupid's Advice:

Whether you're newly engaged or have been with your partner for several years, having a child is a huge step in any relationship. Though beautiful creatures, a child will challenge and push you to your limits. The best thing you can do for your relationship when expecting a child is knowing what's ahead and preparing yourself for the future:

1. Expect change: It's no longer just you and your significant other; you have a new family member to take care of and think about. And this member doesn't care how much sleep you got before, how you gave up your home office for a nursery, or the weekend getaways you can no longer go on. Accepting early on that there will be changes in your lifestyle will make the transition easier.

Jenni "JWoww" Farley Tells Off Her Boyfriend Roger Matthews

Arguments between reality-TV star Jenni "JWoww" Farley and her boyfriend of two years Roger Matthews have been heating up since the start of JWoww's Jersey Shore spinoff: Snooki & JWoww. While in Mexico with her pregnant co-star Snooki, the couple got into a fight regarding the fact that Roger had made plans the day that Jenny was supposed to return to the U.S. The argument continued to get worse until Roger suggested that Jenny reunites with her ex-boyfriend, and alleged abuser, Tom Lippolis, reports UsMagazine.com. In a sneak peek of the upcoming episode, JWOWW can be quoted saying, "By telling me I should be with my ex, you can go f—k yourself! And you can burn in hell." The two have been through many ups and downs throughout their relationship, but this argument may prove too hard to come back from.

What are some ways to avoid heated arguments in your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes, a problem can get out of hand between you and a loved one. Cupid has some advice on how to avoid an argument with your partner:

1. Be open with your feelings: When your partner says or does something that upsets you, be honest. Don't assume that they will understand why you are upset; it is your responsibility to explain what they are doing wrong and why it hurts your feelings. Open communication is one way to not only stop arguments, but to avoid them all together in the future.

2. Stay calm: One thing that will escalate an argument is yelling at your partner. Make sure to explain the problem calmly. If you raise your voice, your partner may feel attacked and the need to defend their actions can lead to a full-blown fight. If you can explain your side peacefully, your partner is much more likely to listen and take in what you say.

3. Watch your words: Words can be hurtful, especially when in the midst of a heated argument. It is important that no matter how mad you are, you try your best not to say something you will regret. Saying something you don't mean can make an argument much worse, and lead to a breakup, so try to be honest and don't say something merely to hurt your partner.

JWOWW's Ex-Boyfriend Speaks Out About Her Dating Advice Book

Jersey Shore star Jenni “JWOWW” Farley is catching some heat in response to her new relationship advice book called, The Rules According To JWOWW, according to RadarOnline. Her ex-boyfriend, Tom Lippolis, is anything but supportive of her newest endeavor, as he calls her book “laughable.” “How could she write a book about dating when she’s done nothing but cheat on her boyfriend on national television?” Lippolis asks. Although Lippolis and JWOWW were the only couple to last through more than one season, that ended during season 3 of the hit reality show when Lippolis saw a picture of his girlfriend kissing tattooed trucker, Roger Williams. “If her dating book is about infidelity, disrespect, and/or lack of self-respect in a relationship then I think it will do well, definitely her expertise!” says Lippolis.

Who should you trust to give you reliable relationship advice?

Cupid’s Advice:

Choosing who to love and spend your life with is an incredibly important decision, and wanting to get advice and opinions on the matter is a natural result of that. There’s no lack of opinions in this world, however, so make sure you only trust reliable sources when it comes to relationship advice:

1. Longtime friends: It takes a long time to truly get to know someone. Instead of trusting the advice of someone who has only known you for a short while, seek the opinions of those who have known you the longest. Plus, they’re likely to have your best interests at heart.

2. Family: Your family members have not only known you your whole life, but they’re more likely to be straight with you. Instead of the “tactful” filter that’s in place with your friends, they’ll be blunt with you about their true feelings on the relationship in question.

3. Experts: Check credentials. When you’re in the market to hire someone for a job, that person must submit a resume of past experiences to prove he or she is qualified. Take the same approach with relationship advice. Make sure the person giving you advice has experience to draw from.

What makes a reliable dating expert?

Cupid's Advice:

A dating expert can really be anyone. Cupid has some suggestions on what to consider when you're looking for relationship advice:

- 1. Who knows you best: Trust the advice of the people who know you well, such as family and close friends. At least you know that they always have your best interests at heart.
- 2. Credentials: Bloggers, authors and talk show hosts have usually gotten to where they are by proving their understanding of relationships. Consider their resume before trusting their advice.
- 3. A gut feeling: Your own gut is probably the best dating expert to consult!

Snooki & JWOWW Tell Sammi the Truth

As of Season 2 Episode 4 of Jersey Shore, nothing has changed between Ronnie and Sammi. Ronnie continues to act single every night at the club only to go back home and get in bed with Sammi. While fully aware of what Ronnie is doing, everyone else in the house remains afraid to tell Sammi the truth due to their friendship with Ronnie and their desire not to hurt Sammi. Though Sammi suspects that something is up and even questions Angelina, no one brakes their silence until JWOWW suggests they write her an anonymous note. Snooki and JWOWW then go over to an internet cafe to type up the letter detailing all of Ronnnie's actions with other women so far this season.

Should you tell a friend when their boyfriend or girlfriend is cheating on them?

Cupid's Advice:

No one likes being the bearer of bad news, but when cheating is involved, telling the truth is the right thing to do. Though your friend may be upset at first, they will be grateful in the end that you told them what was really going on.

1. Friends don't let friends live a lie: If you were being cheated on by someone who you thought loved you, you would most likely want to know. It's usually best to treat others the way you want to be treated. Think past the awkwardness of the conversation in favor of the greater good.

2. Say it in person: The girls of Jersey Shore were doing the right thing by breaking their silence and telling Sammi the truth. However, receiving an anonymous note can raise more questions than it answers. A face-to-face conversation, although difficult, may be the respectable way to go.

3. Be a shoulder to cry on: You are probably telling your friend about their significant other's infidelity because you care about and respect them. But your job as a friend isn't over once you've dropped the bomb. Talk them through their feelings and show that you are there for them both now and always.
