They say that your 40's are the best years of your life! Think women over 40 don't have a place in Hollywood? Take a look at a hit series like Desperate Housewives. After reading this list, you'll see that it simply isn't the case. While The Moviefone Blog and other sites have continuously come up with 40 actresses over 40 that are killin' it on the big screen, Cupid has narrowed it down to our top 10. 1. Jennifer Aniston (47): Though Aniston was constantly singled out as the icon for unmarried and over 40 women until recently (which some tabloids didn't necessarily view as a good thing), she continued brushing it aside and continued to make us laugh alongside funnymen like Adam Sandler and Ben Stiller. She continued her comedy streak in Horrible Bosses, which included a cast of Jason Bateman, Jason Sudekis and Jamie Foxx. After her divorce from Brad Pitt in 2005, she focused on her career and was a powerful single woman. Now, she is recently married as of 2015, to Justin Theroux. She shows us that being single is definitely a good thing, so you can focus on your career and then settle down with the right one!

She was married from 2013-2015 to Oliver Martinez, her co-star in their film, Dark Tide. Though they announced their impending celebrity divorce, it's not officially over yet and the pair have a son together that they are raising.

3. Sandra Bullock (51): This actress won a Razzie for her comedic flop All About Steve, an Academy Award for The Blind

Celebrity Couple Predictions: Jennifer Aniston, Caitlyn Jenner and Elizabeth Olsen

By Shoshi

The latest celebrity news has been brimming with romance gossip. Recently, these famous couples have made headlines for their relationships and love, whether it be Jennifer Aniston's secret celebrity wedding, Caitlyn Jenner's budding romance, or Elizabeth Olsen's new beau. Check out my predictions for the three celebrity couples below and find out what's next in their love lives!

Celebrity Couple Predictions and the Latest Celebrity News

Jennifer Aniston and Justin Theroux: Fans of Jennifer Aniston let out sighs of relief when it was announced that she finally married Justin Theroux. We were all wondering if this marriage was ever going to happen! Now that the two have walked down the aisle, the media can finally stop making the actress look pathetic when it comes to love. I never believed that she was as miserable as people wanted her to be. She dated quite a few cuties along the way – why should she have to settle down?

As a relationship expert, I see good energy for this celebrity couple. Everything should work out if they are committed to making their marriage work when they hit bumpy times. Soon, there will be celebrity break-up rumors, but pay no attention to them.

Theroux has seen a dramatic upgrade in his living situation since he started dating Aniston. That is not to say his bank account is anything to side eye. When it comes to money, the Friends alum is clearly the one with more. I see a big prenuptial agreement in place if this marriage ever takes a turn for the worse. It looks like there is a cheating clause, which is ironic since it is speculated that Aniston may have swooped in on Theroux when he was in a relationship. All the best to these two! May that prenup gather dust and never be used.

Caitlyn Jenner and Candis Cayne: Caitlyn Jenner has faced her share of relationships rumors. Now, everyone wants to know who she will date: men or women, maybe even both. All eyes are currently on the relationship that she has with Candis Cayne. Are they dating or not? As I take a look at these two, what I see is really close friendship. At least for now. You know how things in the Kardashian world can change! Jenner can learn from Cayne as well as talk to her about things that her family cannot understand. That being said, like most people who are brought into the Kardashian mix, Cayne is benefiting from being Jenner's best girlfriend. It is a win-win situation for both of them. Just don't look for them to step out as a famous couple. It's unfortunate – they would be so hot together!

Elizabeth Olsen and Tom Hiddleston: It looks like Mary Kate and Ashley Olsen's little sister Elizabeth is dating British actor Tom Hiddleston. The two haven't confirmed that they're dating, but photos are showing that they seem pretty darn close. The alleged famous couple met while playing husband and wife on the set of I Saw The Light, a movie about Hank and Audrey Williams. While they make a good-looking pair, it looks like it will only be a casual romance. Olsen broke up with her fiancé at the beginning of this year, and a serious relationship is not on her mind right now. She wants to have a bit fun instead. As for Hiddleston? He is becoming hot in the business, so he will add a few gorgeous starlets to his little black book to fit right in with the other eligible bachelors in Hollywood.

Cupid’s Advice:

Whether you don’t want to attract too much attention or get a rush from adding the element of surprise – a secret wedding can be the right choice for you. Cupid has some relationship advice:

1. No one knows: A major benefit of throwing a surprise wedding is that no one will know, and nobody has to find out if you don’t want them too. You are completely in control. You don’t have to worry about paparazzi or unwanted party crashers. You don’t have to worry about people being offended for not getting an invite or stressing over which entrée guests should choose from. It takes away the aspect of stressing over every little detail. In the end, it’s all about the bride and groom to be, because that’s all that matters.

2. More intimate: Often, if you are throwing a surprise wedding it is going to be more intimate and romantic. That is the most important component of a wedding. Focus on making your wedding special and a true celebration of love. It's not about getting everybody else's opinions, all that matters is what you want as a newlywed couple. It's your big day, not everyone else's. You have the freedom to make it perfect for you and your spouse!

3. Love is the focus: When it all comes down to it, a wedding is not about the cake or the flowers or the dress. What it truly is about is love and two people making a commitment to spend the rest of their lives together. That is what really matters. When you are doing a surprise wedding, love is at the center of attention – just as it should always be whether you throw a surprise wedding or not.

Jennifer Aniston's Celebrity Engagement: How Long is Too Long?

By Dr. Jane Greer

Actors Jennifer Aniston and Justin Theroux celebrated their celebrity engagement in August of 2012, and their wedding has been much-anticipated by their many fans. However, reports last week revealed the two have been fighting and are now living separately. Justin has asked Jennifer to be patient, but being no closer to a celebrity wedding date after being engaged for over two years “makes her feel like a fool.” Couple that with the fact that they both have incredibly busy schedules, and it’s no surprise that they are having a hard time scheduling their wedding.

The fact that this celebrity couple has been planning to get married for over two years raises the question, how long is too long? Is there a shelf life to an engagement?

What's holding you back?

That may depend on whether the issues getting in the way are practical ones or emotional ones, and if the couple will be able to give themselves time to work through and get past them. Consider first what is holding you back from setting a date and walking down the aisle. If you both have full-time jobs, for example, or are celebrities like Jennifer and Justin, the demands of the office and of upcoming projects might make it very difficult to plan a wedding.

Where will you live?

On top of that, there's the expectation that once you are married you will share a home base. If you are living in separate parts of the country or world, or have a work assignment far away from where your partner spends most of his or her time, deciding where to call home might not come so easily. Sometimes that requires one person to compromise and make a choice that could end up feeling like a sacrifice he or she isn't ready to make. So whether it is a work commitment, or even an illness in the family that is time-consuming, and thereby keeping you from saying, "I do," you might find yourself in a perpetual state of engagement.

Are you used to your long engagement?

You may even adjust to a long engagement, and it can become what you are used to. So if it works for both of you, then there may not be any rush. Sometimes the end goal of marriage is no longer front and center, and you might not feel compelled to take the next step. You are each happily doing your thing, and haven't taken the time to figure out how to officially merge lanes. Getting married would be nice, but right now it doesn't feel necessary. If that is the case, the shelf life on an engagement can be evergreen.

Are your feelings in the right place?

If the thing that is holding you back has more to do with your feelings than with logistics, take stock of what is going on so you can better understand it and deal with it. Has one of you been married before, maybe even suffered a betrayal as was the case with Jennifer, and therefore may be feeling afraid to take the plunge for fear something similar might happen again? Or, like Justin, has one of you never been married? If that is the case there is the possibility that the fear of a change in identity and the concern over what there is to lose, such as personal freedom, is what is creating the roadblock.

Practical vs. Emotional

Layer the two together, the practical piece and the emotional piece, possibly even throwing in a financial piece, and it is no wonder some people take longer to get to the altar. If one of you is pushing to do it sooner than the other, things might get complicated. But if you are both willing to wait it out, and you are able to work through some or all of these issues, then there is really no downside to waiting. The bottom line is, there is no clear expiration date on an engagement unless you plan to call off the relationship itself. As long as you are on the same team, and are aware of what is keeping you from taking the plunge, you could stay engaged for years or even decades.

Only time will tell if Jennifer and Justin fall into the category of both being okay with the long engagement, or if they will start to move apart in terms of what they each wish for. Hopefully, though, they will be able to move forward in their joint life together, proving their commitment to each other is enduring whether they are married or not.

5. Kristen Stewart and Robert Pattinson: The on- and off-screen lovers were a favorite in the eyes of the public. Their characters of Edward Cullen and Bella Swan on Twilight will forever remain happy in love, but in real life, people don't always work and have to go their separate ways.
