Cupid's Advice:

There's a lot to consider when planning your nuptials, and the engagement party is one of them! Cupid has a few ideas that may help:

1. A formal lunch: If you're having a large wedding with a lot of guests, consider having your engagement party at a restaurant that will cater to your needs. For instance, consider a family style Italian restaurant as opposed to a hole-in-the-wall gourmet French restaurant. Ordering individual meals in a small space probably isn't the best plan.

Celebrity Break-Up: How Jennifer Lawrence & Darren Aronofsky's Age Difference Led to Their Split

By Rachel Sparks

We're sad to see this celebrity couple split. Jennifer Lawrence, 26, and celebrity ex director Darren Aronofsky, 48, broke up just one month after the release of mother!, the movie where they met. According to People.com, a source told the magazine that the age difference between Lawrence and Aronofsky was likely the cause for the end of their relationship. The source says that though the couple was extremely infatuated with and respected each other, the differences in life experiences was the cause of this celebrity break-up.

This celebrity break-up happened back in September, but we are just now getting some more details. What are some factors to consider when it comes to age in a relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

When Cupid strikes, rationale is forgotten. It's not always logical who we fall in love with, but sometimes it's important to sit down and evaluate a relationship. Age doesn't have to be a negative factor between two people. The Olsen twins are notorious for dating older men, and despite what critics may see, the longevity of their relationships speaks to their happiness. There are things to talk about with your partner to ensure that age will not have a long-term effect between you two. Here is Cupid's relationship advice:

1. Children: Let's knock the biggie out right off the bat. Sometimes older partners may not want kids, may not be able to have them, or already have some. Children are a huge factor in many people's relationships. Are you and your partner on the same page in regards to this? Age doesn't have to have any impact on the ability or desire to have children, but be sure both you and your partner are open and honest about what you want when it comes to children.

Related Link: Celebrity Baby: Mary-Kate Olsen & Husband Olivier Sarkozy 'Really Want a Baby'

2. Friends: We all tend to hang out with people who are similar to us. While ages may vary in friendships, more often than not we gravitate to people who are close to our age because, generally speaking, life evolves on similar paths. If you're around a bunch of older friends, will you be intimidated or inspired? Will you feel left out or will you grow and feel like part of the group?

Related Link: Celebrity Wedding: John Stamos & Girlfriend Caitlin McHugh Are Engaged

3. Life-experiences: Older ages have dealt with kids, divorce, education, careers, health issues, etc., while younger people are likely still trying to figure out life. Sometimes moments occur where there's tension because of these differences. Age differences are not impossible to work with in a relationship. The older person likely places more value on the relationship because of their past experiences, adding more depth to the relationship; however, there will be challenges. Just be certain this is something the both of you are willing to work through.

By Marissa Donovan

Jennifer Lawrence recently shared her feelings towards director and boyfriend Darren Aronofsky. According to an interview with Vogue.com, she felt connected to the director immediately and explained that she does not feel confused while dating him as she did in past relationships. The Hunger Games star seems to be in love with the Mother! director.

This celebrity couple has a 22-year age difference. What are some things to consider about age when it comes to dating?

Cupid's Advice:

For some people age is just a number, but others find that a difference may come with challenges. Here are some things to consider when there's an age difference between you and your partner:

1. Different outlooks: Age gaps in relationships may define each of your perspectives when it comes to life. The older person in the relationship may see the world from a different lens than the younger person. Outlook can shape a relationship and hopefully you and your partner can sometimes see eye to eye.

2. Separate tastes in humor: Like an outlook, humor might be different between you and your partner when it comes to age. Sometimes you or your partner may laugh at something that the other person may feel is insensitive or not amusing. Laughter helps a relationship, but surely you can both find something to giggle over.

Movie Review: Mother!

By Melissa Lee

Word has been buzzing around Jennifer Lawrence's upcoming film Mother!, though most details have been kept on the down-low. What we do know, however, is that her boyfriend, Darren Aronofsky is the director, with actors like Michelle Pfeiffer, Kristin Wiig and Ed Harris starring in it. This psychological thriller isn't set to be released until October 13, but keep your eyes peeled for more specifics.

Although this movie is greatly under wraps, Cupid still has details on the movie along with some relationship advice!

Should you see it?:

This thriller film centers around a couple who unexpectedly receive guests at their home, ultimately causing turmoil and disorder. With a star-studded cast (Lawrence, Wiig, Pfeiffer, Harris, Brian Gleeson, Domhnall Gleeson) and a fascinating plot, mother! doesn't sound like a movie you're going to want to miss.

Who to take:

This movie may not be ideal for a first date, but this shocking film could be fun to see alongside your best friends.

Cupid's Advice:

In mother!, complete chaos wreaks havoc on the couple due to unpredictable guests entering their home. Although this plot isn't the most relatable, it is possible to have other people affecting your relationship's stability. If this scenario sounds familiar, Cupid has relationship advice for you:

1. Avoid over-thinking: If you're constantly paying attention to what other people are potentially saying or thinking about your relationship, do yourself a favor and avoid these thoughts altogether. Over-thinking and over-analyzing can be a tumultuous factor that can ultimately ruin your relationship, so be sure to take a step back and collect yourself before letting your thoughts run wild.

2. Confide in your partner: Don't face this problem alone, especially since it's not only affecting you, but your significant other as well. If there are specific people that have a rather negative impact on your relationship, communicate the problem to your partner and talk about it. It's important to reassure one another when either person reveals their concerns, but above all, it's even more important to be talking about the issue in general.

Related Link: Relationship Advice: 5 Communication Keys Every Relationship Needs

3. Cut the person out: If you've done both of these things and this person is still affecting your relationship's stability, maybe it's time to just cut ties with them. Realistically, you don't need a negative person actively trying to ruin things for you or your relationship – that's just unnecessary. However you choose to shut the person out, make sure that you're completely at peace with your decision and doing it for the right reasons.

Celebrity Looks: 3 Easy Ways To Dress Like a Celebrity

By Rayne Parvis

What do red carpet rock stars like Adele, Kerry Washington, Jennifer Lopez and Jennifer Lawrence all have in common? They have expert wardrobe stylists to make them look extra gorgeous from the front, back, side and in every photo. However, don't throw in the towel just because you can't afford a stylist, don't have time or don't have a Red Carpet event to attend.

You can feel like a celebrity in your own home, at work and in your social life. After all, the definition of a celebrity is the state of being celebrated. So, let's celebrate you!

Consider a few of my favorite style tips to give you celebrity looks and avoid settling for frumpy fashion:

1. Looking Put Together Doesn't Have to Take Hours

Fortunately, fashion doesn't have to be all or nothing. Not every fabulous woman spends endless hours primping. One of the sexiest women I know wears jeans, boots, casual t-shirts and rarely spends any time on her hair. This messy yet extremely stylish look works for her! She has sex appeal, with minimal primp time, that you can't buy. It's simply her being herself – down-to-earth and unique.

What is your style essence? Is it romantic, feminine, minimal, creative, classic, dramatic, business with boldness, flirty or an array of colors that project a serene aura? I challenge you to find your personal style. Does your closet reflect your style personality? Getting ready in a reasonable time is easy when you have a wardrobe where everything works. And yes, I mean everything! Like any other skill you took effort in learning it will get easier and become second nature.

2. The Most Successful & Influential People In The World Put Great Thought Into Their Wardrobe

Oprah, George Clooney and many more top influential people put careful consideration into their wardrobe. Even someone who may be considered the least fashionable man, Steve Jobs, wore black turtlenecks and Levi's 501 jeans. He had a plan. He put effort into making this very simple look his signature uniform. He even had his turtlenecks designed by Issey Miyaki, one of the most popular designers. Again, his look isn't for everyone...but it worked for him.

You may not have one million followers on Instagram or a multi-million dollar business, but you can influence the people around you in a positive way. Messages are better received from a prepared and polished package. If wardrobe planning works for successful, popular life changing public figures, it can work for you!

3. Style is a Visual Representation of You

Your personality is not the first thing people see. It's your image. In three seconds or less we are summed up. Your choice of wardrobe can either add or take away from life's opportunities. Knowing your style personality, what colors complement you and what cuts fit and flatter your body shape will keep you looking good and feeling great in no time at all! If your fashion is a challenge, simplify your wardrobe. Find a few styles and cuts that work for you and replicate.

Cupid’s Advice:

There’s nothing worse than having a crush on someone who is already otherwise involved with someone else. Cupid has some tell tale signs your crush isn’t up for grabs:

1. He’s standoffish: Obviously being standoffish can mean more than one thing, but if you know he’s a friendly guy and he shies away a little when you try to flirt with him, that’s a red flag. At that point, you should probably ask around to those close to him to see if he’s got a significant other or at least a love interest already.

2. He’s non-committal: If you keep casually suggesting a hang out session with your crush and he keeps coming up with lame excuses, it’s definitely time to consider the circumstances. He might not be able to hang out because he already has a girlfriend! It’s time to do some digging.

3. He's treating you like one of the guys: If your crush is asking you to play a pick-up game of basketball with a group of guys, or asking you to have lunch with a big group of friends, it's time to start thinking about why he's not asking you to spend quality time with him alone. Chances are, he's otherwise involved.

Lawrence Says She's 'Lonely Every Saturday Night'

By Mackenzie Scibetta

Surprising, and slightly comforting, celebrity news coming from Jennifer Lawrence this week as she revealed to Vogue magazine that she deals with loneliness just like everyone else. According to UsMagazine.com, the single celebrity said “no one ever asks me out. I am lonely every Saturday night. Guys are so mean to me.” She even added how guys try to assert their dominance and make her feel insecure. It’s shocking to believe that the Oscar-winning actress struggles with finding a genuine guy, but this goes to show even celebrities need love advice!

This celebrity news is super surprising! What are some ways to find the “nice guy”?

Cupid's Advice:

Having feelings for someone is now considered a sign of weakness, and being attached to someone is deemed too clingy. With these societal norms spreading it's more difficult than ever to find a happy relationship. But don't give up hope yet! Contrary to popular belief all of the “nice guys” haven't fallen off the face of the Earth just yet. Cupid is here to help you find a man worth falling for:

1. Be yourself from the very beginning: By never hiding your true self a guy will know immediately the expectations he has to live up to and the standards he has to meet. On the first few dates women tend to let a lot of things slide in order to come off as easy-going, but sometimes letting the guy know exactly who you are and what you want will make it clear to him how to act like a gentleman.

2. Stop playing games: After middle school there's no valid reason why men and women should continue to play mind games with each other. Making your partner guess if you like them or calculating when to text back is feeding into this concept that dating is a game. Nice guys won't want to participate in these games so just leave them at home.

3. Respect yourself: Treating yourself with dignity will be a great example for any man to follow. Say no when you want to say no and don't allow yourself to be stepped on. Don't ever bend over backwards trying to please a guy because a relationship should be a two-way partnership with balance.

Celebrity exes reunited! How do you know when you've moved on enough to be friends with your ex?

Cupid's Advice:

Going through a break-up is emotionally hard; feelings are hurt and the relationship and love is over. If that person meant a lot to you, you may still want them in your life some way. Here are some ways to know if you are ready to build a friendship with an ex:

1. You have forgiven: A great sign that lets you know you're still not bitter about the ending of the relationship is if you have forgiven your partner. If you are able to recognize that whatever they did to cause the break-up or to hurt you is in the past, then you are ready to reach out to your ex.

By Katie Gray

Jennifer Lawrence has moved on with her boyfriend Chris Martin of Coldplay, and her ex-boyfriend Nicholas Hoult has been dating Glee's Dianna Agron. This celebrity couple is keeping things casual. Why is it smart to keep a relationship low-key at first?

Cupid's Advice:

A reason relationships and love sometimes fail is because things are rushed. Keeping a relationship casual – like this celebrity couple – can be a fantastic idea, especially when it's new. Cupid has some love advice to consider:

1. No pressure: When people are dating, they often feel unnecessary pressure from their partner, their family and friends, and even themselves. There is no need to rush into marriage though; you should go at your own pace!

3. No strings attached: One of the best things about keeping things casual in a relationship is that there are no strings attached. You and your partner get to create your own rules and guidelines. This takes away the unnecessary stress that relationships tend to have when things get too serious, too soon. Go at your own pace, and decide how you want things to be!

Love Advice: Can Jennifer Lawrence and Bradley Cooper's Work Marriage Work?

By Dr. Jane Greer

The on-screen chemistry shared by actors Jennifer Lawrence and Bradley Cooper is so true to life, it's hard to believe it isn't real. The two can be seen everywhere from Silver Linings

Playbook to American Hustle to their upcoming project, Serena. Both admit to being each other's work spouses, but insist there is no sex in their faux celebrity marriage. Having a close relationship with someone at work can happen to anyone, not just celebs. You don't actually have to be "playing" husband and wife on screen to feel like you are just that, to an extent. It can happen in any job setting.

The love advice question is, how entangled can you become with a work spouse, and where do you draw the line so the relationship doesn't negatively affect other parts of your life?

Define Boundaries

Defining the boundaries and being clear about how far and where you can take the connection can, in fact, make the friendship better and allow you to fall into the zone where flirting can be fun, but safe. It also makes room for your chemistry to kick in because it eliminates the constant question of whether or not you're going to take this relationship to the next level. You know the answer is "no," so that gives you room to express yourself more freely.

Attraction is Good

Many friendships between men and women are punctuated by attraction which is never acted on, but keeps the relationship exciting and alive. In the end, though, it isn't just about that energy and flirtation. It is more about knowing each other well, working well together, having each other's backs, and especially experiencing the security of the trust you share. While people often joke that the relationship has the dimensions of a marriage, it is, in fact, really about the camaraderie.

Know the Limits

The most important piece of love advice when it comes to work marriages is if you aren't in a romantic relationship outside of work, knowing the limits of your "work marriage" is important so you won't end up disappointed if it never goes beyond what it already is. If you are dating or married to another person, knowing those limits is even more important so it doesn't spill over the walls of the office and create jealousy or a perceived threat to your partner. With that in mind, if you are spending time with your "work spouse" outside of work, invite your significant others to join you. That way they will feel included in your friendship instead of excluded. Along those lines, if you spend personal time together, make sure it is work-related, rather than simply going out to have a good time, so that there is no question about what you are doing when you're together.

As "work spouses" and actors, Jennifer and Bradley might be put in more questionable situations than most who are close and share an office because of the specific roles they are playing. Even so, as long as they hold onto the agreed upon boundaries, they will be able to leave their "work marriage" on the set and live their personal lives without complications.

Lawrence Says Bradley Cooper Is Her Work Husband

By Jenna Bagcal

Having a work husband or a work wife is a great relationship to have at your job. The chemistry between you and your work spouse can promote productivity and create an overall welcoming and pleasant work environment. In the latest celebrity news from UsMagazine.com, Jennifer Lawrence referred to newly single celebrity Bradley Cooper as her “work husband.” Cooper’s celebrity break-up from model Suki Waterhouse was reported after the famous couple had been dating for two years. Lawrence and Cooper have been known for working together on a number of films, and the two have a mutual respect for each other’s craft with “no sex” in their relationship, according to Lawrence.

This celebrity news is no news in this case! What's the difference between a real husband and a work husband?

Cupid's Advice:

These stars made celebrity news for their status as “work spouses,” but this trend happens in regular offices as well. While the term “work husband” may be a little misleading, there are differences between your work husband and your real husband that you should be aware of. Here are Cupid's tips for differentiating between the two:

1. You don't have a sexual relationship with your work husband: Although you may spend hours on end with your work husband and have great chemistry with him at the office, there are boundaries that should not be crossed. You should not engage in any kinds of sexual behavior with your work spouse. Your relationship with your work husband should be strictly professional, making sure to not blur the lines between your work relationship and your marriage.

2. Issues with your real husband should be resolved between the two of you: Arguments and drawn out fights with your husband are inevitable. However, this does not mean that you should bring your issues you have with your husband to your work spouse. When you have a disagreement with your husband, work it out between the two of you at home instead of telling Brian from work how frustrating your partner can be.

3. Don't spend alone time with your work husband outside of work: If you eat lunch with your work husband during your break, that's one thing. But grabbing drinks with him during happy hour is something that should be avoided, because it crosses the line between your work relationship and your romantic relationship with your husband. Always remember that while you have a great relationship with your work spouse, it's something that should be limited to the office.
