

Celebrity Parent: Find Out More About Jesse Williams' Fight to Privately Parent

By Rhodesia Williams

In celebrity news, Jesse Williams is still dealing with custody issues after his celebrity break-up. According to EOnline.com, Jesse Williams' celebrity divorce from his ex-wife, Aryan Drake-Lee is costing him way more than a pretty penny. Although the celebrity couple filed for divorce in April 2017, they are still going at it when it comes to custody of their kids. Unfortunately, the celebrity exes are going tit for tat and it doesn't seem like it will end any time soon.

This celebrity parent is battling to parent in private. What are some ways to keep your custody battle out of the limelight?

Cupid's Advice:

When you break up or go through a divorce, fighting can be inevitable. Although fighting is never good, it is much better to argue in private rather than cause a show for people to watch. Cupid has some advice on ways to keep your custody battle out of the limelight:

1. Agree on privacy: If you can't agree on anything else, try to agree on keeping things between the two of you. When going through a sensitive time, keeping things private allow you and your ex to face the issues at hand without interference. Not only that, as heated as arguments get, people won't see how "heated" you can really get. We all do things out of anger so why advertise it just to regret it later.

2. Keep it short and sweet: Think about it. When someone asks about your current situation with your ex and you calmly say you aren't seeing eye to eye, they won't know what to say. Usually people rant and rave and tell people details and sometimes, that's just what people are looking for. While I'm sure you have one or two people you can trust to keep quiet, going into details with other's is an invitation to have your business spread.

3. Keep Calm: Sometimes you just want to break your ex's windows or bleach their clothes. Well, don't. Keeping calm during this time will just let people assume everything is fine, which isn't a bad thing. Reframe from doing anything that will cause attention because it will do just that, not cause any attention. Attention will bring more confusion and during a sensitive time like this, you don't need that. As upset as you are, you don't want people or your children to see it. Children repeat everything and all you need is for them to repeat something.

New Celebrity Couple: Jesse Williams Is Dating Sports Reporter Taylor Rooks

By Rhodesia Williams

In celebrity news, Jesse Williams is now dating Taylor Rooks. According to EOnline.com, Jesse Williams, well known for his role in Grey's Anatomy, is now dating Taylor Rooks, an anchor for SportsNet New York. After Williams' celebrity divorce, he dated actress Minka Kelly. After they called it quits earlier this year, Williams met Rooks. The new celebrity couple were seen Memorial Day weekend in Atlantic City, attending Kevin Hart's comedy show.

Celebrity couple alert! Jesse Williams has moved on after his divorce. What are some ways to know you're ready to date after a split?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes you don't want to start over, but in most cases you have no choice. Cupid has advice on ways to know when you're ready to date after a split:

1. You need time: Nine times out of 10 if you think you are ready to date after breaking up with someone a day earlier, you aren't ready. Once you've taken a good amount of time for yourself, then you will be ready. There is no specific amount of time, but when you are ready, you will feel it mentally and emotionally. Don't be afraid to take time for yourself; date yourself. It sounds cheesy, but this will help you in the long run because we all know you will kiss a few frogs before you meet your prince.

2. Listen to your feelings: Are you waking up every day with a smile or a frown? When you finally start waking up with a smile and are able to go about your day, you are just about ready. On the contrary, if you are still hurt and cry a lot, you may not be ready. Some say the best way to get over someone is to jump back on the horse, but sometimes we are just not emotionally ready. Be mindful and careful because just like you don't want to get hurt, you don't want to hurt someone else either.

3. Check your vibes: Putting time and feelings together pretty much makes up your vibes. What kind of vibe will you be giving off? When you project positive vibes, you usually get them back. Will you be able to go out on a date without mentioning your ex? Will you be able to mention the break up without getting upset? Your vibes have to be just right because people will pick up on them. Nobody wants to go on a date with the person that constantly brings up their ex or, once they mention the break up, the mood of the date changes. The best practice is with friends and family.

Minka Kelly is not here for anyone's rumors or gossip, as she shut down a fan's comment right away. On Thursday, someone commented on Kelly's Instagram asking if the cheating rumors surrounding her and Jesse Williams' celebrity relationship were true. Kelly responded, saying, "They're not. Hate for you to be disappointed. Glad I could clear that up for you. Now f—k off," according to UsMagazine.com. The rumors come from a celebrity news break of Kelly and Williams' recent relationship. Their relationship began shortly after Williams and his estranged wife began their celebrity divorce process in April.

This celebrity news has us cheering for Minka Kelly. What are some ways to keep lies from affecting your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Everybody loves drama and gossip when it's not about them. People love following other people's lives and spreading rumors because it is entertaining to them. When that gossip is directed at you, here are a few ways to keep those lies from affecting your relationship:

1. Ignore it: More often than not, the rumors people spread is minor and will go away as fast as it began. When this happens, the easiest thing you can do is just ignore it. If you don't give people the satisfaction of letting it get to you, then eventually they will give up. Instead focus on your relationship and keeping it strong.

2. Confront it: When the rumors get too bad and are starting to affect your life, then it is time to step in. Confront the source of the gossip and set the record straight. Let them know exactly what is going on and make it clear to them what the facts are. Then, they will no longer have a reason to speculate on your life and then can go back to focusing on their own.

3. Communicate: In a relationship there are only two people who have the final say in how things play out—you and your partner. If gossip and lies are starting to creep in to your love life, then you need to have a talk together. Sit down with them and discuss the stuff being spread and be sure there are no miscommunications. As long as you and your partner know what is true, then it doesn't matter what other people say.

celebrity divorce. What are some ways to keep jealousy from destroying your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Jealousy can be extremely detrimental to a relationship. With these tips you can make sure you or your partner's jealousy doesn't get in the way of the relationship:

1. Reassure: Jealousy often stems from feeling insecure and just not getting enough confirmation for your feelings. Once a day telling your partner how much you mean to them can really help relieve some of the jealousy.

What are some ways to keep your relationship romantic post-baby?

Cupid’s Advice:

When a baby is added to the picture, spending quality time with your significant other can be tough to do. Yes, the well-being of your newborn should be the most important thing to you, but you also want to make sure your honey knows the love is still there. Cupid has some tips:

1. Spend time together: For the first few weeks of your newborn's birth, spending some alone time with your partner might be a little impossible to do. When things start to calm down and you feel more comfortable in your new routine, try to spend at least five minutes with your honey. Give him/her a hug, or just chat for a little bit. Any time you share with your significant other from here on out is precious and shouldn't be taken for granted.

3. Dine together: When you find the opportunity to do so, eat dinner with your significant other. The meal doesn't have to be anything expensive or huge, but the few minutes the two of you share together while dining will mean the world to the both of you. You can choose to cook together, or simply order takeout if you're too exhausted from handling baby duties all day.

'Grey's Anatomy' Star Jesse Williams Is Expecting First Child

By Kerri Sheehan

The doctor is in! Jesse Williams of Grey's Anatomy is suiting up to be a first time dad! His wife, Aryn Drake-Lee, is pregnant. After dating more than five years, the couple finally tied the knot last September in Los Angeles. According to UsMagazine.com the baby is due in December.

How do you know when you're ready to have a child?

Cupid's Advice:

Dating is one thing, but parenting is a whole other story. Let Cupid help you decide if you're ready to have a child:

1. You're financially stable: Having a baby is expensive. Before multiplying make sure that you and your significant other can comfortably take care of yourself before you add a third body into the mix.

2. Baby proof your relationship: Having a child is like putting your relationship in a boot camp. If the two of you didn't get along pre-baby then you're doomed.

3. Be happy: Bringing a life into the world is perhaps one of the greatest things a woman can do. However, if you're not happy at where you are in life then having a baby will not solve these problems. Make sure you're 100% happy with yourself before you have a child.

How do you know if someone is into you for the right reasons?

Cupid's Advice:

Dating is one of the most difficult adventures, especially trying to figure out who is trustworthy. Here are some clues on how to find out if someone is interested in you for the right reasons:

1. Through thick and thin: If someone truly has feelings for you based on your personality and not your bank account, they will be with you through it all. Whether you are having a good day or a bad day, a person that is truly into you will be by your side through the good times and the bad times.

2. Give and take: A true relationship is a partnership in which both people in the relationship give and take. If someone is only looking for presents and fancy dinners, they are only looking for the value of your bank account. Someone that is with you because they value you as a person will be around for the expensive nights out as well as the quiet, low key events.

3. A deeper meaning: If the deepest conversation you can have with someone is when the next paycheck comes around, it's time to start looking elsewhere. A deeper connection goes well beyond money, presents and expensive dates. Whether it be a shared interest in a hobby or a friend in common, the more you can relate to the person, the deeper the connection will be.
