According to EOnline.com, the Keeping Up With the Kardashians star was recently spotted at a Philadelphia 76ers game supporting her alleged man and celebrity ex. She's been flying in to see him whenever she can."

In celebrity news, Kendall and Ben may be giving their romance another chance. What are some factors to consider before giving your ex a second chance?

Cupid's Advice:

When you break up with someone, it's meant to be a final decision. That said, sometimes things change and there are good reasons to consider giving your ex a second chance. It's important to make sure you're doing it for the right reasons, however. Cupid has factors to consider:

1. Why you broke up in the first place: There's a wild difference between breaking up because your partner cheated on you to splitting because you were both busy with your careers. If a trust issue was at the heart of your issues, it may not make sense to jump back into things. If it was simply a lack of time that led to your break-up, you two could very well be in a different place now, making it okay to give things a second chance.

2. What page you're both on now: It's crucial to have an open and honest conversation about where you both are in your lives right now. If the issues that led to your break-up before are still very real, there's no point in giving it a second shot, hoping for a different outcome. If some key things have changed that will make things easier this time around, that's great!

3. The reasons you want to be in the relationship: When we break up with someone, it leaves a hole in your heart that your partner used to fill. Not only are you missing the romance, but you're missing that person you told everything to and who you spent the most time with. When you're deciding whether to get back together with someone, you need to make sure you aren't just doing it because you're lonely. The only reason to date someone is because you really see yourself with them romantically and they'll add to your life in a positive way.

Staying in the room, known as the "torture chamber," is a challenge, but by going in with your partner, you'll push yourself to last until the final minute. Don't forget to bring along a bottle of water to keep yourself hydrated and a towel to wipe the sweat out of your eyes!

Don't forget to bring a cozy blanket to keep you warm!

1. Always be open and honest with your kids: There's nothing worse than lying to your children, even if they're little white lies, because eventually the truth will come out. They'll appreciate it in the end.

Dating Advice: 5 Reasons Why Men Text Instead of Call

By Jessica DeRubbo

Jessica DeRubbo

“Wanna go out tonight?” may be a simple text that most men feel is harmless, but it’s something that drives women nuts. What happened to the days of in-person conversations, or perhaps picking up the phone and calling, so you can get to know people, hear their voices, and truly sense how they are feeling? It seems that texting is no longer a trend and has become the norm, and it is getting on the nerves of women everywhere!

The question is, “Why do men text instead of call?” Cupid did some digging for dating advice, and here are five iron-clad reasons:

1. It’s quick and easy: If it comes to simple things like what time the two of you are meeting up, or where to go for dinner, shooting off a text takes a lot less time and effort than an actual phone call. Julie Spira, creator of CyberDatingExpert.com, agreed with this idea, saying that many men are busy executives and don't have time to hold an over-the-phone conversation. Sending a text takes less than a minute. Also, it takes away some of the pressure of having to come up with a plan instantly, since through texting, you have time to sit and think about what to type, as opposed to an awkward silence over the phone.

Related Link: Dating Advice Q&A: What Does Texting On A Date Say To Your Partner?

2. They are copying women: A few men gave Cupid their opinions on why they opt to text now-a-days rather than calling, and a common response we received was that they are simply following what they see women do. Dan Nainan, a comedian/actor, claims that it seems like the only way to ask women out is through text messaging, because no one wants to talk on the phone anymore. So, if guys are copying what they are seeing, maybe women need to stop sending the wrong message, and start picking up the phone once in a while instead of sending a text.

3. Fear of rejection: Just like women, men fear rejection, and what's more embarrassing than making the effort to pick up the phone and call a girl, just to be turned down? Many women seem to forget how intimidating dating is, especially for guys. Dr. Zach Hill, of AdultDatingHistory.com, explained, saying, "Dating can be intimidating, and hiding behind the screen of a cell phone makes conversations less intimidating. Telephone calls with someone you are not comfortable with just yet are just as intimidating. When you text someone, you have time to think about what you are going to say, how you are going to word it, and you have the advantage of looking it over to make sure everything sounds right. Whereas when you make a phone call, you are put on the spot to speak, and the idea of fumbling your words, saying the wrong thing, speaking too fast or slow, or any other option that may make you appear like an “idiot” is much more probable.” I guess when you see it from this perspective, women can get a sense of why men do text instead of call.

Related Link: Dating Advice Q&A: Is It Appropriate to Play Hard to Get Via Texting?

4. They don't know it bothers you: If you allow men to continue texting, and you don't say anything about it, then why would they feel anything needs to change? There are easy ways to get your point across, without being too direct. Carole Lieberman M.D, a psychiatrist, says that in order to have your guy call instead of text, simply respond to their text with something cute like, “Hey, would love to hear your voice, give me a call.” This will give men the confidence to pick up the phone and actually call.

5. Men think it's okay to text: Because texting has become such a common part of everyday life, men have started to think it's fine to just text women instead of calling. Dave Grossman, of CanoodleOnline.com, says, “In this era of text messaging, men have decided it's OK to text the women they are dating,” and he even admits to doing this himself, but has now become more cautious of it. It's hard to break a habit that has become a part of everyday life, so women need to try to break men from this habit by showing them how much more personal a phone call can be.

1. Be direct: You might be in shock, but the best approach is to simply be direct about things. If this person is no longer an interest of yours, tell them. There's no point in skirting around the issue, as it will just prolong the inevitable.

2. Keep it lighthearted: There's no reason to get into a drama filled or heated conversation when your fling with this person was short-lived. Obviously you've both moved on since you had your fun, so making light of things and indulging in just a little small talk before moving on is all that it takes.

Rumored Celebrity Couple Nick Cannon & Chilli Get Steamy on Camera for Music Video

By

Jessica DeRubbo

Apparently we're getting a glimpse into the rumored celebrity relationship of Nick Cannon and rumored girlfriend Rozanda "Chilli" Thomas. The Mariah Carey's ex and TLC crooner have been spotted together quite a bit lately, and the word on the street is that they're a celebrity couple. In fact, E! News obtained an exclusive photo of the two in a new music video for Cannon's new music video for "If I Was Your Man," according to EOnline.com. In the photo, the pair are wearing matching sleepwear, and Cannon is rapping to the camera with his open silk pajamas, while Chilli is behind him wearing matching lingerie. About the potential couple, a source said, "Nick loves how chill Chilli is. Chilli is very family oriented and into God. She is also a very spiritual person with a kind soul. She is not drama and that's important for him."

This rumored celebrity couple is going public with their romance in a big way. What are some defining ways to show your friends and family you're in a new relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Formally announcing your new relationship to family and friends seems a little bit too awkward and official. Cupid has some similarly defining ways to get them in the know without making an awkward announcement:

1. Ask to invite them to a family dinner: If you have a standing day you meet up with your family for dinner, ask if you can bring your partner along. Unless you specifically tell your fam that this is a platonic invite, they'll connect the dots all on their own. Plus, once you get there, make sure to do a little light PDA to bring things into focus for them. Even a pat on the leg or a hug of the shoulders will do the trick.

2. Bring them up in daily conversation: If you bring up your partner in normal conversation on a consistent basis, your family and friends will get the picture. Eventually they might ask what the deal is, but even that is better than having to make a formal announcement out of the blue.

3. Post a photo on social media: You don't necessarily need to update your Facebook status to "in a relationship," but simply posting a cute photo of the two of you on Instagram will put the message out there, especially if you're somewhat cozy in the pic. At the very least, it'll spark some conversations with your loved ones, which will make the announcement a lot more natural.

Celebrity News: Find Out Why Rob Kardashian Lashed Out at Blac Chyna

By

Jessica DeRubbo

There's never a dull moment in the world of the Kardashians! Most recently, the social media world has been buzzing about the drama happening between celebrity couple Rob Kardashian and his fiancée Blac Chyna. According to EOnline.com, Kardashian removed all trace of Chyna from his Instagram account, but according to sources, it's nothing to be alarmed about. Apparently it's just the aftermath of a fight the two had. A source said, "Rob and her have been getting into little tiffs and Blac Chyna flipped on Rob. He was so pissed at how she spoke to him, so he deleted everything about her to hurt her." So, it looks like there may be trouble in paradise. We'll have to see what happens next in this duo's celebrity relationship!

This celebrity news has us getting drawn into Kardashian drama again! What are some ways to keep your relationship issues private?

Cupid's Advice:

There's no doubt that though relationship drama between the Kardashians may be entertaining, it's not very pleasant when you experience it yourself! Plus, it gets even more taxing when those around you know your private business. Cupid has some tips to keep things between you and your partner:

1. Avoid social media: Social media is good for a lot of things, but keeping your private life private isn't always one of them. Avoid social media when you've just had a disagreement with your partner at all costs. You may be tempted to air your dirty laundry, but you'll almost always regret it in the end.

2. Keep details from your friends: Again, it may seem therapeutic to air your frustrations to those closest to you, but resist the temptation! Often times, word will get around. Other times, your friends will simply get the wrong impression of your relationship and think it's bad all the time if you complain too much and fail to tell them about all the good things to balance it out.

3. Come to an agreement with your partner: The fact is, just because you don't tell people about any relationship issues you may be having, that doesn't mean your partner won't. When you're both calm, have a conversation about some relationship ground rules. Come to an agreement that you will not speak to those around you about any relationship issue you're having, unless you agree on it.

Celebrity News: Khloe Kardashian & Trey Songz 'All Over Each Other' in Vegas

By

Jessica DeRubbo

In latest celebrity news, it looks like Khloe Kardashian is moving on from her past relationship drama and celebrity divorce from Lamar Odom. The reality star was recently spotted getting hot and heavy with Trey Songz at Topgolf in Las Vegas on Sunday, according to UsMagazine.com. According to a source, the duo were “all over each other. It was really obvious they were together.” The source continued, saying, “They were with a group of friends right in the heart of the fourth floor for all to see.”

This celebrity news has us realizing that Khloe Kardashian isn't looking to hide her new love interest. What are some benefits to keeping your relationship out in the open?

Cupid's Advice:

You have two choices when you're going into a new relationship. You can either embrace it and bring it public right away, or you can keep your privacy and stay in hiding. Cupid has some relationship advice as to why keeping things open might be the way to go:

1. Less work: The fact is, keeping everything on the down low can be exhausting after a while. You're always worried someone is going to find something out or disturb your privacy. You must go above and beyond to keep PDA to a minimum and refrain from talking to your close friends about your relationship.

2. Your friends and family don't have to guess: When you stay in hiding and keep relationship details to yourself, your friends and family might let their imaginations run wild and fill in the gaps with their imagination. If they always know where things stand and see that you have nothing to hide, that simply won't happen.

3. You can have more fun: If your relationship is in the open, your social circle will know they can invite you to fun things. If you're keeping everything hidden, you'll have less opportunity to hang out with friends and lead a social lifestyle.

Dating Advice: Is Spring the Time for a New Fling?

By Samantha Mucha and Jessica DeRubbo

Now that the winter slump is over, Valentine's Day is long gone and the holidays are a thing of the past, it's time to add some excitement to your love life. Perhaps a fling is just what you need! Consider this dating advice, and allow yourself to relax and let loose with spring fever this season, because change can lead to positive alterations in your life.

Here are some things to consider when you're trying to decide if you're ready for a spring fling:

1. You're tired of your daily routine: Doing the same thing every day is tedious and tiresome. Adding some romance to your life may be a piece of relationship advice to really focus on. Work, the gym and your girlfriends will still be there for you no matter what, so take some time to meet a new cutie. You might meet your sweetheart at the gym or while grabbing drinks with the ladies this weekend. Whatever the activity may be, open yourself up to new opportunities.

Related Link: How About We...Find a Date This Spring

2. You just got out of a relationship: Coming out of a relationship after months or years of relationship problems is full of tears, stress and Ben and Jerry's ice cream. If this sounds like you, then it is most likely not the best time to jump into a spring fling. That does not mean you should turn down every opportunity that comes your way. If you are going to dive head first into a new fling, make sure you've sorted through your options and have chosen someone you can actually see yourself with, not the first guy to buy you a drink at the bar.

3. Your busy level: Staying late at the office on Friday nights can majorly interfere with your love life. If work is your first priority, a new romance is most likely not on your to-do list. This can be both a good thing and a bad thing. If you love your work and that is what is making you happy right now, then by all means, more power to you. That said, if you're sick and tired of working day and night, a new relationship is exactly what you need to brighten your life and keep you from 80 hour work weeks.

Related Link: Love Advice: Give Your Relationship and Love Life a Spring Cleaning

4. The right person: Is the guy you've been chatting up to your girlfriends the same cutie you were talking about two days ago? If your love interest seems to be changing on the regular, then you are probably not ready for a relationship. Finding the right person is a challenge, but when you do, it will be a challenge well worth it. So ladies, stop falling for the same tricks, and find the guy who doesn't say "you're the happiest thing about happy hour," because we have all heard that before.

5. Emotional security: Think about your emotional status the past few months. If it has been full of downs, and few ups, then you need to make sure you are ready to handle someone else in your life. If you are finding it challenging just to deal with your own life, then taking on someone else's may not be the wisest of choices. However, if you feel content, but maybe not your best, a steamy spring fling could be what takes you to the high road.

Celebrity News: Kylie Jenner & Kourtney Kardashian Hang with Rob's Ex

By

Jessica DeRubbo

Apparently there are no hard feelings in the mix with this scenario! According to UsMagazine.com, Kylie Jenner and Kourtney Kardashian were recently spotted hanging with Rob Kardashian's ex girlfriend, Adrienne Bailon. This celebrity news comes on the heels of Kylie's Instagram post picturing the three girls, with the caption, "Cause we are sistersss." Celebrity exes Rob Kardashian and Bailon dated for two years, from 2007 to 2009, when their celebrity relationship ended. In a 2010 episode of Keeping Up with the Kardashians, Kardashian admitted he was unfaithful to Bailon. Apparently Bailon doesn't have hold that against Rob's two sisters!

This celebrity news comes amidst a lot of Rob Kardashian happenings lately. How do you know whether you can be friends with your family member's ex or not?

Cupid's Advice:

It's a dicey situation when it comes to your family and their exes. If you're on the fence about whether it's okay for you to keep a connection with your family member's ex, Cupid has some tips:

1. Time since the split: If it's been a long time since the break-up occurred, your family member has probably had plenty of a chance to cope. The best way to find out if that coping period is over is to simply ask. You probably know your family member well enough to detect if there's any hesitation in his or her answer whatsoever. If they seem okay about it, then go for it.

Related Link: Kendall and Kylie Jenner Make Celebrity Gossip Headlines Cozying Up to Chris Brown and Trey Songz at Party

2. The reason for the break-up: If the reason for the break-up is that the relationship simply ran its course and it was a mutual parting, you're probably more okay keeping contact with your family member's ex than if something horrific happened at the end of the relationship, like a cheating scandal. Definitely consider the facts before making a decision.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Scott Disick Has Breakdown Post-Split from Kourtney Kardashian on 'KUWTK'

3. How "over it" your family member is: It's not necessarily all about time. Your family member may have good reason to be completely and utterly over the relationship he or she was in. It may have only been a month, but your brother or sister has already moved on to greener pastures. If they're over it, they shouldn't have an issue with you continuing to remain friends with their ex.

Celebrity News: Gwen Stefani Says She's 'Only Had Two Boyfriends'

By

Jessica DeRubbo

In latest celebrity news, it turns out that Gwen Stefani doesn't have a type, because, well, she's only had two boyfriends, ever! According to UsMagazine.com, Stefani said, "You know I've only had two boyfriends, right? So I'm not like – when you say that, it just sounds funny. It's just so limited. No, I do not [have a type]. That's a funny question. I'm gonna just stop right there." Blake Shelton's current love was in a celebrity relationship with and married to Gavin Rossdale for 13 years (whom she apparently doesn't count as one of her two boyfriends). Prior to both Shelton and Rossdale, she dated her bandmate Tony Kanal for seven years.

This celebrity news is pretty surprising! How do you know when you've begun dating around too much?

Cupid's Advice:

There are definitely merits to playing the field, but then again, too much of a good thing doesn't usually turn out positively. Cupid has some signs that you've been dating around too much:

1. You can't name your last three dates: If you're having a hard time remembering who you last went on a date with, and who was before that, and who was before that, you might have an over-dating problem. If you're looking for a relationship and aren't just dating around to date around, consider taking things a little bit more slowly and trying to get to know your dates prior to going out with them.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Are Gwen Stefani and Blake Shelton More Than Friends?

2. Kissing has begun to lose its meaning: At the end of most of your dates, you're no doubt giving them a kiss goodbye, if there's at least a little spark of attraction there. If this is just run of the mill for you and no big deal, then it's probably time to take a step back and reassess your dating life. Kissing should be meaningful!

Related Link: Blake Shelton and Gwen Stefani Returns to 'The Voice' Post Celebrity Divorce News

3. He never called, and you didn't notice: If, after a date, someone doesn't call you, usually you're hyper aware of that. If you don't even notice, that's a bad sign! It means you're not invested in the dates you go on and you're just playing the field for no reason. Consider pumping some feeling back into the game!

Kris Jenner Gives Her Best Dating Advice

By

Jessica DeRubbo

Kris Jenner was all about giving some important dating advice on Elle.com recently, according to UsMagazine.com. Among other things, she discussed how the best way to live within singledom is to be yourself. She said, "Don't try too hard. Because if you're not your true self and putting on a lot of airs, then I think what's going to happen is when you finally come up for air, it's going to be really uncomfortable trying to keep up with that." For the past two years, the reality TV star has been in a relationship with Corey Gamble, Justin Bieber's former tour manager. She's been through heartbreak with Bruce Jenner, and she's certainly qualified to give important relationship advice to the masses.

This celebrity news shows those who have been through a lot are often times the best at giving dating advice. How do you know if a source is reliable for relationship advice?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes you're floundering in your relationship and you need reliable advice. The fact of the matter is, not all dating advice is created equal. Cupid has some tips that the advice you're getting is legit:

1. It's substantiated: Whether it's through academic research or tons of experience, the advice someone is giving you needs to be substantiated in some way. Don't just take someone's word for it. Always ask, "Why?"

Related Link: Dating Advice: How To Get Noticed on Dating Sites

2. The book is published through a big name publisher: If you're getting your advice by reading a book, it's often a good sign if the book was published by one of the well-known publishers. Often times independent publishers release 100 copies of a book, and those aren't the ones you want to take as a say all end all.

Related Link: Dating Experts Share Best Online Dating Advice

3. You're close to the person giving the advice: Obviously family and friends only want you to be happy, so they aren't going to purposely steer you in the wrong direction. What they say probably holds more truth than someone who's a stranger and is spouting off ideas.

Cupid's Advice:

Dealing with the loss of a loved one is no easy task, and when it's partner, it can be even worse. Cupid has some advice:

1. Allow yourself time for mourning: No one is expecting you to move on immediately as if nothing has happened. Allow yourself that time to grieve for your partner so that it doesn't end up hindering you down the line.
