

New Celebrity Couple: Jim Carrey Is Dating Ginger Gonzaga

By

Lauren Burczyk

In celebrity news, it has just been revealed that actor Jim Carrey is dating his Kidding costar Ginger Gonzaga. According to UsMagazine.com, the new celebrity couple made their red carpet debut on Saturday, January 5 at the 2019 Showtime Golden Globes Nominees Celebration in West Hollywood. The Hollywood couple held hands and beamed during the event, overjoyed to finally make their relationship official. The Ted actress confirmed the new celebrity couple's connection with a photo of herself and Carrey on Instagram, bearing the caption, "Most partial to this talented nominee. #goldenglobes."

In celebrity couple news, Jim Carrey has a new girlfriend, and made it red carpet official! How do you know when to introduce your new partner to co-workers?

Cupid's Advice:

It can be tricky to decide when to introduce your new partner to your co-workers. It is important to find the perfect time to have your significant other meet your peers. Cupid has some recommendations:

1. Make sure your significant other is comfortable with the idea: When trying to find the right time to have your new partner meet your coworkers, it is best to wait until you are both ready to make the relationship official.

Latest Celebrity News: Jim Carrey 'Shocked and Deeply Saddened' By GF Cathriona White's Suspected Suicide

By

Kyanah Murphy

This is not an easy pill to swallow. The latest in celebrity news, it appears that not only did Jim Carrey recently become celebrity exes with his girlfriend, Cathriona White, but she is also suspected of having committed suicide. According to UsMagazine.com, a note was left in White's residence, and she was pronounced dead at the scene. The note appeared to have alluded to the recent celebrity break up between Carrey and White as well. In response, Carrey states that he is "shocked and deeply saddened" by this tragic event, saying that White was "a truly kind and delicate Irish flower, too sensitive for this soil."

The latest celebrity news is the opposite of uplifting. What are some ways to support your partner through tragedy?

Cupid's Advice:

Celebrity news or otherwise, it's a difficult time for everyone when it comes to dealing with tragedy. Cupid has three tips for supporting your partner through tragic events:

1. Offer a listening ear and shoulder to cry on: When something awful strikes, people feel their emotions intensely and have a lot running through their minds. Offer a listening ear so they can let their emotions out. Just remember to set boundaries.

2. Therapy may be needed, so be encouraging: Depending on the tragedy, therapy may be needed. After you've set your boundaries, suggest they talk to a professional about the tragic event that occurred. For many, therapy can be scary and is taboo to speak about, so be encouraging and supportive of the decision. Keep an eye on your partner and know that the National Suicide Prevention Lifeline at 1-800-273-TALK (8255) is available.

3. Let your partner deal with what happened at their own pace: Everybody heals at their own pace. Some may heal faster while others need more time. That is OK. Don't try to rush the healing for your partner. Respect their healing process and give them space if they need it. Or again, the ear and shoulder they need.

10 Celebs Who Made It Through Tough Times

By

Courtney Omernick

When you think about the glamorous life of a celebrity, it can be hard to imagine that, in many times, they didn't always have it as easy as they do now. Believe it or not, tabloids weren't publishing the latest celebrity news on some of these people when they were growing up.

Below is our list of 10 celebrities who've made it through challenging times.

1. J.K Rowling: Before her success with the Harry Potter series, Rowling was divorced and on government aid. She was so poor that when sending her book to publishers, she manually typed out each version because she couldn't afford her own computer, or to photocopy the book. It was rejected dozens of times before becoming a best seller.

2. Jim Carrey: At 14, Carrey's father lost his job, and the family lived in a van on their relative's lawn. Carrey worked an 8 hour factory job after school to help make ends meet. He worked on his comedy routine, starting at age 15, and never quit. In 1995, he made over 10 million dollars when he starred in his first major gig, Dumb and Dumber.

3. Emily Blunt: Growing up, Blunt had a speech impediment that kept her from talking to others. In high school, a teacher encouraged her to try theater. From there, she was able to completely get rid of her speech impediment and move on to being the actress she is today.

4. Charlize Theron: At 15, Theron witnessed her mother kill her father in self-defense. Instead of letting that incident stifle her talent, she went on to make a name for herself. She is the first South African actress to win an Academy Award.

5. Jay-Z: Coming from a rough, Brooklyn neighborhood, no record label would sign Jay-Z as a rapper. So, Jay-Z went on to make his own successful record label. His net worth is estimated around $500 million.

6. Oprah Winfrey: As a child, Oprah was repeatedly sexually abused by her own family members and gave birth at 14 to a baby boy that died two weeks later. Winfrey went on to excel in high school and college and became the icon that she is today.

7. Shania Twain: Shania started singing in bars at the age of 8 to make extra cash for her family. When she was 21, her mother and stepfather were killed in a car accident, and she raised her siblings until they all graduated high school. Then, she decided to pursue her dreams.

8. Sarah Jessica Parker: The actress is one of eight children and took up singing and dancing to help create a better income for her family. At age 11, her family took a trip to New York so Sarah could audition for a Broadway play. She got the role and went on to make millions in her career.

9. Richard Branson: Richard is dyslexic and struggled for years in school. So, he used his personality to get him where he is today. He is the fourth richest person in the UK.

10. Bill Gates: Even the richest person in the world wasn't always rich. Bill's first business failed miserably, and the product he tried to sell didn't even work! However, that didn't stop him from trying again.

5 Low Profile Online Dating Strategies

By

Heidi Lee Munson

Dear Heidi Lee,

Help! I think I'm a Toad!

I'm on an online dating site, and I lie about who I am ... I use my sister's photo. I play down my interests – leaving out that I'm Jim Carrey's ex and a former Playboy model. I feel guilty for lying, but I can't be honest because of stalkers, psychos and creeps. I want a regular, low-key guy who can throw back a burger and a beer in a bowling alley ...

Don't these guys have the right to know up front that my world is paparazzi and tabloids? Do I have the right to lure them with false promises of an All-American romance with the girl next door?

Who am I to lie to these men? A Toad?

xoxo,
Jenny

Dear Jenny,

Even asking such a question shows that you are a strong, lovely and thoughtful woman. Whether a Big Screen Celeb or a Midwest Farmer's Daughter, you and your future Prince Charming have the right to be honest with each other now.

Fortunately, my friend, you've found a Midwestern girl. I understand your unique need for privacy within the Toad Kingdom as well as your pull toward the rugged sexiness of the strong, meat-eating types. In small towns, we are all celebrities in our own right. Toads who recognize us may be interested in our career status, income or somewhat gullible reputations. So, Ms. All American in L.A., let me share a few small town girl strategies to help you avoid the Toad label :

5 Small Town Strategies for a Celebrity

1. Communicate proactively: Initiate conversation first to have control over the flow of it, and reveal yourself as early as appropriate.

Related: How to Communicate to Get What You Need

2. Go au natural: Use a natural picture of yourself – a naked face with a warm smile – preferably with a shadow from a tree or a ball cap shielding your true identity.

3. Minimize exposure: Hide your profile when you are talking to a handful of promising men.

4. Use geographic camouflage: Register your account using a zip code outside of your location to throw the Toads off your trail.

5. Be a rhinoceros: Grow a thick skin, doll. Even the best laid plans have holes. Not only does a rhino have thick skin, but he or she can crush the Toad in one mighty step.

Most importantly, have fun! I'm proud to hear that you chose online dating to meet “the one”. We Citizens of the Toad Kingdom share good company having you here. Thanks!

Warmest Regards,

Heidi Lee

P.S. May I offer you a copy of my eBook, How To Toad Proof Your Online Dating Profile?

Jim Carrey Professes Adoration for Emma Stone in a Video

For actor Jim Carrey, age is only a number. The Mr. Popper's Penguins star posted a video on his official website declaring his love for Emma Stone, reports People. The 49-year-old told Stone, "Emma, I think you're all the way beautiful. Not just pretty, but smart and kind-hearted. And if I were a lot younger, I would marry you." Carrey went on to say how he wished he was "the appropriate age" for Stone so that they could have "chubby little freckle-faced kids." Carrey ended his video by stating, "I think you're very special and I wish you continued success and artistic fulfillment. But most of all, I wish you love and contentment."

How do you tell your partner you love him or her?

Cupid's Advice:

Saying "I love you" is one of the biggest milestones in a relationship. Here are a few suggestions as to how to go about it:

1. Go out: Take your mate out for a nice dinner or a romantic date on the beach. The classic romanticism of the night will make for a memorable revelation.

2. Be casual: If overly romantic dates aren't your style, then be casual. Have your partner over for a movie night and profess your love as you fight over the popcorn. The casual atmosphere will be romantic in its simplicity.

3. Wait: If you can't gather the courage to tell your significant other how you feel, wait for him or her to tell you. There's no rule that says you have to be the first to speak up. While you may be holding on to your secret for a while, it's best not to feel pressured into telling your partner how you feel before you're ready.

Jenny McCarthy is Dating a New Man

Jenny

McCarthy is taking a break from the Hollywood dating scene by casually dating entertainment-sports attorney, Paul Krepelka, according to People. McCarthy split from boyfriend of five years, Jim Carrey in April. She rang in the new year with Ryan Seacrest in Times Square as part of Dick Clark's New Year's Rockin' Eve with Ryan Seacrest, where she received a New Year's kiss from her new man.

How do you keep your new man under wraps?

Cupid's Advice:

If you are in the public eye or simply just a private person, you may want to keep a new relationship to yourself. Cupid has some tips:

- 1. Avoid social media: Information travels fast online. Don't slip up and announce your relationship on Facebook when you aren't ready to announce it in real life.
- 2. Frequent less conspicuous places: If you don't want everyone to know your business, don't go on dates in the locations you normally do. Branch out.

3. Keep it all behind closed doors: Even better than not visiting the locations that you normally do, don't leave the house! It's perfectly possible to have a romantic dinner and movie within the confines of your home. Plus, there's close to no chance of a peeping tom.

Jenny McCarthy Tries Honesty With New Guy

After splitting with Jim Carrey, her boyfriend of five years, Jenny McCarthy has found love again. People reports that the actress is very happy with her new man, Jason Toohey, 35, a Las Vegas-based pirate performer. McCarthy, 37, says she has learned a lot from her previous relationships. "I was a girl who pretended. I would say I liked things when I didn't," she says. "I knew if I wanted to grow, I needed to make myself happy before I could begin to have an equal relationship with another man." And the most important lesson she learned? Honesty is the best policy. "If he wants Chinese [food] and I don't, I say it," she says. "If he wants to go out and I want to stay in and watch Dancing with the Stars, I tell him so... Our relationship is stronger because of the honesty." How can you have an equal relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Aretha Franklin had it right when she sang, "R-E-S-P-E-C-T, find out what it means to me!" In order for a relationship to work, you need to have mutual respect and equality. Cupid has some ideas on how to make sure you and your partner are on equal footing:

1. Decide together: If one of you is making decisions for the other person, you're not in an equal relationship. Make sure that you listen to each other's ideas so you can come to mutually beneficial conclusions.

2. Tell the truth: Follow Jenny McCarthy's lead and be completely honest and open with your partner. These two things are essential in any healthy relationship. Make sure he doesn't always get his way or vice versa. If you don't want Chinese tonight, tell him!

3. Money matters: Financial issues are often the biggest source of relationship inequality. While you don't both have to make the same amount of money, make sure that the relationship doesn't become a financial burden. If it seems like your mate is overextending himself, try to even the score.

Jenny McCarthy Explains Split With Jim Carrey

Jenny McCarthy was full of explanations about her recent split with actor Jim Carrey on 'Oprah' this week, according to People. The couple, who dated for five years, separated on friendly terms and still express admiration for one another. "The first thing is, when it's not fun anymore, you need to start investigating and do an inquiry into the relationship," said the former Playboy model. McCarthy is at peace with the breakup, explaining, "I always got back on my feet, and I know especially this year who I am." But will the couple ever get back together? McCarthy admitted that she "didn't even think about" the possibility of rekindling her romance with Carrey.

Is a relationship over when you stop having fun?

Cupid's Advice:

There is inevitably a point in every relationship where the "newness" wears off. Things become more of a routine, and you have to work harder to keep your relationship exciting. Cupid has some things to consider:

1. Abandon ship: If you deem the relationship completely unsalvageable, then resign yourself to a breakup. However, if you feel that the relationship could be saved, then devote yourself 100 percent to making it work.

2. Rough periods: All relationships have tough times, where it seems the two of you just can't connect. However, these periods pass, so be sure not to give up on the relationship too soon.

3. Analyze the problem: You need to ask yourself, "Why aren't we having fun?" If the answer is a problem such as money or stress, then stay strong. The problem will most likely pass. If it's a bigger issue, such as conflicting goals in life, it may be time to call it quits.
