

Celebrity Exes: Teresa Giudice Honors Estranged Husband Joe on Father's Day

By Alycia Williams

In latest celebrity news, reality tv star Teresa Giudice honored her estranged husband Joe Giudice on Instagram for Father's Day. According to UsMagazine.com, Teresa's post was of Joe and their four daughters captioned, "Happy Father's Day, the girls miss you today & everyday!" Joe commented under the post and said, "Thank you for being my angels, for showing the world you are superstar."

These celebrity exes may be estranged, but they're keeping their parental duties front and center. What are some ways to keep things civil with your ex for your kids?

Cupid's Advice:

A break-up is never an easy thing, and a lot of the times you never want to see your ex again, but if there are kids involved, then that's out of the question. If you are looking for ways to keep things civil with your ex for your kids, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Only talk when you have to: If you and your ex ended things badly and you have kids together make sure that the only reason that you both are communicating is the kids. Keep every conversation, phone call, or text message pertaining to the children. Don't talk about what went wrong in your relationship, it'll just create bad blood between you two.

3. Don't try to be in control: Walking all over your ex when it comes to decisions about the kids is not helpful, and it won't be good for your co-parenting relationship. Keep the communication gate open when it comes to the kids and make sure that you both make decisions for the kids together.

Celebrity Breakup: Teresa & Joe Giudice Talk Divorce in Interview with Andy Cohen

By Hope Ankney

In the latest celebrity news, Teresa from Real Housewives and husband Joe Giudice held nothing back as they discussed their relationship in a tell-all interview with Andy Cohen. According to UsMagazine.com, the celebrity couple stated that they had talked about divorce before. Joe even admitted, “If we stay together, we stay together. If we don’t, we don’t. We’ll see.” He even went on to say that Teresa needs to find another man since she is “high maintenance.”

In celebrity break-up news, things aren’t looking promising for Teresa and Joe Giudice. What are some ways to decide whether to call it quits on your marriage?

Cupid’s Advice:

Celebrity breakups aren’t much different than ours. Even though there’s fame and money, it doesn’t change a lot about the dynamic when it comes to relationships. If you’re on the rocks with your partner, and you don’t know whether or not you should end the marriage, don’t worry! Cupid has some love advice on when it might be a good idea to reevaluate your relationship:

1. No communication: The most important aspect of a relationship is the ability of both parties to be able to communicate with one another. If conversing openly and honestly with your partner has deteriorated, this might be a sign that the marriage needs to be reassessed. This is only if attempts to strengthen the communication has failed before.

2. Lack of respect: Joe dissing his wife Teresa by saying she needs to find another man that can handle her and her “high maintenance” tendencies is a very disrespectful thing to say about your partner. If you’re in a marriage that shows levels of disrespect toward one another, your relationship has some layers of toxicity. Sit down and discuss why you’re both saying such hateful things about one another, and if you cannot reach common ground, it might be a good idea to start packing your bags.

3. Low affection: This is something that can sometimes be harder to catch if both you and your partner have gotten into a routine that makes this behavior normal. If your marriage has faded into nothing, but low levels of attraction of intimacy, this may indicate a bigger issue. Try to figure out if this problem is fixable, and if it isn’t, neither one of you deserves to be in a marriage that doesn’t show the other the affection they need.

Celebrity News: Teresa Giudice Says She Will 'Miss the Passion' When Joe Goes to Prison

By Brooke Crawford

In latest celebrity news, Real Housewives of New Jersey stars, celebrity couple Teresa and Joe Giudice were sentenced to jail time for bankruptcy fraud and conspiracy. Teresa was recently released back in December after serving 11 months of a 15 month sentence. The Real Housewives of New Jersey reality star opened up about how difficult it will be to live life without her husband of 16 years. In a recent interview with Entertainment Tonight, Teresa Giudice explained that she was going to “miss the passion” and being close with her husband the most.

This celebrity news proves that this couple doesn't need any push in the right direction. What are some ways to put the passion back in your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes the passion has a way of seeping out of your relationship and love life. Cupid has some ways to put it back:

1. Write love letters: Love letters can be an effective way to share some of the deepest feelings with your partner. It takes time and effort to pour your heart out on a page. A letter is a personal way to show that special person you care. Remind that special person why you fell in love with them. Share your favorite memories and why they mean so much. Sometimes a person needs to be reminded of all the reasons they are loved.

3. Challenge yourselves: After a while, you have gotten to know your partner very well and feel as though there is nothing else to know. Trying something challenging can allow partners to incorporate each others skills and abilities to overcome a challenge together. The rush of completing the challenge will leave you feeling closer and more attracted to one another. Working as a team to overcome challenges helps build communication skills and opens you up to new sides of one another.

Teresa and Joe Giudice Ask Judge for Separate Trials

By Brittany Stubbs

The Real Housewives of New Jersey stars, Teresa and Joe Giudice, are facing up to 50 years in jail for 41 counts of fraud including loan and bankruptcy fraud. The couple recently filed motions to conduct separate trials in the federal indictment against them, People reports. According to the court document: “Should the trails be severed, Mr. Giudice has affirmed his willingness to testify as to Teresa’s involvement in the alleged criminal activity. He would be unable to do so in a joint trial wherein his Fifth Amendment rights are invoked.” Simplified, Joe’s declaration states that he will testify that his wife had no knowledge or involvement in the fraud. Although there is currently no word as to whether or not their request for separate trials was approved, the couple will return to court on April 9.

How do you support your partner through legal troubles?

Cupid’s Advice:

While marriage by itself has many challenges, adding a court room and lawsuits definitely taxes on some issues. It is during these times you must remain supportive and remind yourself of those vows: for richer or poorer, for better or worse:

1. Keep communicating: You most likely have many other voices in your ear right now, whether it be lawyers, family members, or friends. Remember your partner's voice at this time and the importance of your communication. Whether you feel unstable, scared, or emotionally drained, it's important that you and your partner can both discuss these feelings with one another.

2. Keep your life as normal as possible: Although there are obvious changes that occur with legal troubles, you can show your support by continuing to be there for your partner just like you always have been. Whether that means cooking them dinner, leaving sweet notes, or simply asking about their day, it's important during unstable times to make life at home feel as secure as possible.

3. Don't talk to the media: Maybe you don't have photographers and reporters following you around like the Giudice family, but you still have your own "media" you must choose your words carefully around. Sharing personal information about legal troubles in a marriage can often result in tension in your relationship. There's always the possibility of repeated information or rumors that will only harm an already difficult situation. So turn your attention away from others and focus on supporting your partner.

Teresa and Joe Giudice Say 'We Have Never Lived Beyond Our Means'

By Kerri Sheehan

Teresa and Joe Giudice have finally broken their silence after last month's fraud indictment left them facing fifty years in jail. The Real Housewives of New Jersey couple opened up to Andy Cohen on Sunday night's episode of Watch What Happens Live. The Giudice's are being accused of lying about multiple income sources, bankruptcy fraud, and bank fraud. People reported that Joe, 43, defended his family's spending saying,

“We have never lived beyond our means. Whatever I could afford to buy I would buy. We work hard, so what, we are allowed to make money. It’s part of what we do, I’m a businessman and I make money.” The couple will appear on the next Housewives reunion on October 6th.

How do you keep money issues from causing drama in your relationship?

Cupid’s Advice:

Money problems can drive a hole in any relationship. Let Cupid help you stick together in rough times:

1. Stick together: When it comes to finances you and your hubby are in this together. If you come across any financial problems you should work through them together rather than placing the load on one person’s shoulders.

2. Keep track: The easiest way to keep money issues from causing drama in your relationship is not to have money issues at all! Watch closely where your money is going so you know whether or not you can cut costs in certain areas. This will keep you and your partner from falling into a financial hole

3. Find free fun: It’s likely most of your fun activities cost a lot of money. Finding way to have fun without breaking the bank will help you save money in the long-term.

Financial Woes Strike Teresa & Joe Giudice

Reality star Teresa Giudice and her husband Joe are facing the reality that they have money problems. According to OK! Magazine, the Real Housewives of New Jersey couple is planning to sell their personal belongings in a public auction on August 22. The two filed for bankruptcy last October. A recent article in the New York Post claims the couple owes nearly $11 million in debts, including over $100,000 in credit cards.

What should you do if money problems are weighing on your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Relationships can be hard enough without the added stress of financial failure. In fact, several studies say money is the number one reason couples fight. While handling this situation is often easier said than done, Cupid has some advice to help ease the burden:

1. Money talks: Money is often a subject couples shy away from. While we all know the saying “money talks,” it’s important that you and your partner actually talk about it. Understand the numbers you are dealing with so you can spend responsibly and make financial decisions together.

2. Watch the spending: This step may sound like the most obvious, but it’s often the most difficult. Make decisions on how much you can allocate each month to daily expenses and towards non-essential spending. Here are some interesting stats from a 2004 study commissioned by SmartMoney and Redbook to help put things in perspective.

3. Turn to a financial planner: It never hurts to talk to a professional who can lay out your expenses and help set up a spending plan. Speak to friends and family for references, or contact the Financial Planning Association to find a qualified planner.
