How can you keep your divorce under wraps?

Cupid’s Advice:

When you decide to part ways with your spouse, sometimes you just need some privacy for a little while. Here’s how to keep your divorce confidential:

1. Talk to your spouse: You and your ex-partner should agree on when to go public with your divorce. Make sure you're on the same page so that your mate doesn't tell anyone too soon.

2. Don't say the D-word: If friends and family start noticing something has changed in your relationship, just tell them that you and your spouse are going through a difficult time, which is true.

3. Keep your records private: Most people don't realize that divorce records are public information. If you don't want the public to be able to access your papers, file a motion to have your divorce documents impounded.
