so, then you know what celebrity exes Perry and Mayer are going through right now. If you don't know if it's time to rekindle the flame, here's some dating advice to help you figure it out:

1. Either one or both of you has changed: Whether he's finally decided to commit or you learned how to handle your inner control freak, the circumstances that led to the break-up can no longer exist in order for it to work out. There's no point in entering the same relationship only for it to end again, so make sure that if you do reconnect with your ex, your issues from the past are gone.

2. You can talk about what went wrong: It's very important in relationships and love to be able to communicate about what's working and what's not. If you get back together with an ex, discuss what led to the break up so you can avoid it the next time around.

3. You're willing to go slow: Don't pick up right where you left off. Take it slow, and treat the relationship with the same respect you would a new one. Cupid's Advice:

The end of a relationship is a bittersweet feeling, to say the least. You go back and forth with yourself wondering if the right decision will be/was made (most of the time it was). The signs are always there and it is up to you to pay close attention. Cupid has some advice for you to see the signs:

1. Tones and attitudes: Do not ignore the tension in the room that is thick enough you could cut it with a knife. If you begin to notice more aggression between you and your partner, address it. If the problem repeatedly continues, consider calling it quits.

2. No evolving: As a couple, you both should grow individually and together. Be able to recognize and commend your partner's steps of growth. Remember, it is about progression. If one is constantly gaining and the other is constantly losing, consider calling it quits.

3. Disappearing emotions: There should always be some sort of heartfelt emotion involved in your relationship. A glance at your love gives you butterflies, or maybe even you see stars – whatever the feeling, it should remain. Let your significant other know of the issues you are having. If the butterflies are stuck as caterpillars or the stars are not glowing, consider calling it quits.

What are some ways to showcase your love?

Cupid’s Advice:

You’re in love and you want everyone to know it! Showing your love someone doesn’t necessarily mean spending all of your money or displaying too much public affection. You can just as easily show your partner you care for them with subtle gestures. Cupid has some tips:

1. Quality time: Show your significant other that they’re a priority in your life by spending some much needed time together. You don’t ignore the person you love, or make excuses to why you can’t see them on a regular basis. If that special someone in your life is important to you, show them by making time for them no matter how busy your schedule is.

2. Say it: You don’t need any fancy gimmicks to show your partner you care. All you really have to do is say those three magic words. Some couples forget how good it feels to hear and say “I love you.” All the gifts in the world couldn’t replace hearing your loved one actually tell you how they feel. So, tell your honey you love and them and do so often.

Katy Perry Says She and John Mayer Had Long 'Courtship' Before Dating

By

Gabby Robles

According to UsWeekly.com, Katy Perry and John Mayer took their time before jumping into their blossoming relationship during summer 2012. Katy stated that she and her counterpart exchanged love letters for a long time before taking their relationship public. This couple has been getting quite seriously. An insider spilled that, “it’s just a question of when John will propose.”

What are some advantages to moving slowly at the beginning of a relationship?

Cupid’s Advice:

When you move too fast in a relationship, you miss a lot of key things that couples should go through together. Wondering what some of the advantages are to moving slowly? Cupid has your back:

- 1. You get to know each other better: Jumping into a relationship means you’re just taking the person as your partner without fully knowing who they are. When you go slowly, you get a better understanding of who this person is.
- 2. You learn what their intentions are: Going too fast leads to getting too intimate too quickly. You won’t get to know more of what their true intentions with you are. Moving a bit slower means you get a better chance of insuring a permanent relationship.
- 3. You get those cute, romantic moments together: When you move slowly, you guys can share those sweet moments and memories together. The quirky, fun, exciting times are what makes lasting impressions which leads to a stronger relationship.

A source tells UsMagazine.com that John Mayer is ready to pop the question to girlfriend Katy Perry. "They realize they must be together. They Skype and text all day," the source added. The couple has been together for 15 months and they are ready to take their relationship to the next step.

How do you know when you're ready to pop the question?

Cupid's Advice:

Deciding whether or not to propose to your significant other can cause a whirlwind of emotions. So if you are looking for some guidance, Cupid has some advice to lead you in the right direction:

1. You've discussed the future: If you've taken the time to talk about family vacations or where you two want to end up in 10 years from now, then you are definitely ready to commit to a lifelong adventure with your partner.

2. Friends and family: Are you family and friends a fan of your partner? If they are that's a good sign. You've definitely dated one or two people who your friends and family haven't approved of, so if they like you two together it's safe to take the next step.

Katy Perry Opens Up About Divorce from Russell Brand

By

Kerri Sheehan

Barbara Walters should never be kept waiting. Pop princess Katy Perry learned that the hard way when she was running late for their December 2011 interview. At the time the 'Roar' singer was going through an extremely rough time in her life. UsMagazine.com reported that the 'Firework' star dished to Billboard in a new interview, "I shouldn't have done the interview: I was playing Madison Square Garden that same night, and I knew that the end of my marriage (to comedian Russell Brand) was coming." After the divorce Perry found herself depressed and fighting off suicidal thoughts. Perry is now worlds away from where she was two years ago. She has been enjoying her life with boyfriend and singer John Mayer. Perry gushed over her new beau saying, ""He literally is a genius, as is evident from his songwriting!"

What are some ways to cope with a fresh breakup or divorce?

Cupid's Advice:

Breakups suck! Let Cupid help guide you through the rough waters:

- 1. Girl's night: Nothing makes a girl feel as good as a night spent with her closest friends. They can help you make sense of all the emotions you're feeling post breakup and be your rock when you feel weak. Invite your girlyies over for a fun night and don't forget the ice cream and chick flicks!
- 2. Clear out: Get a big shoebox and fill it with anything that reminds you of your ex. Not having these items in plain view will keep your mind from wandering back to your former fling.
- 3. Move on: This point may take a while to get to, but it's so important to get back into the dating game as soon as you feel ready. Seeing what other guys are out there won't keep your longing for your ex.

Celebrity Couple Predictions: Katy Perry, Kate Middleton and Fergie

By Sh

oshi

For today's expert post, I want to look at the energy of three celebrity couples who are celebrating exciting times in their relationships: Katy Perry and John Mayer, who are back together and recently released their first duet; Kate Middleton and Prince William, who welcomed their son, Prince George, in July; and Fergie and Josh Duhamel, who are expecting their first child very soon.

Related Link: Celebrity Couple Predictions: Jennifer Aniston, Julianne Hough and Kim Kardashian

Katy Perry and John Mayer: This musically-talented duo is on again – at least for now. It's becoming difficult to define their love since it tends to change so quickly. Mayer has actually managed to keep his mouth shut about this relationship, unlike his behavior in the past. (Did we really need to know that sex with Jessica Simpson was like a drug?)

When looking at the energy around the couple, it seems like they're having fun. While they do enjoy each other's company, what keeps them getting back together is their ability to relate to one another. It's a level of comfort that they both need at this time.

There's been buzz about their new duet – and for good reason! Mayer sings that he can see himself growing old with her. How adorable is that? The only thing is that gushy love eventually ends. The soulful singer has a habit of quickly becoming attached to the woman he's dating, so only time will tell if they survive past the honeymoon stage.

In their duet, he also wrote that he couldn't run anymore. He's finally starting to show signs of getting serious about his love life. During his relationship with Perry, she will help him grow up a bit. Even so, Mayer will become bored and soon move on to the next lady.

Kate Middleton and Prince William: Ever since Kate Middleton and Prince William announced their engagement, the world has been enchanted with the lovely couple. When Kate announced she was pregnant with a royal bundle of joy, we couldn't wait for the baby to arrive!

We can all finally relax: Prince George is here and has been presented to the world. The Duke and Duchess's marriage appears to be going strong; in fact, they've never been better. Surrounding their relationship is the energy of Princess Diana, as if she watches over them and guides her son. Without a doubt, these two are best friends. They want to keep a low profile and simply enjoy their lives together.

There is another baby energy circling Kate. They want to wait a bit before their next child, but they may not have a choice. Don't be surprised if she's soon pregnant with baby number two, which will bring them a daughter.

Related Link: Will Harry and Pippa Be Named Godparents for Prince George?

Fergie and Josh Duhamel: Fergie and Josh Duhamel cannot wait until the arrival of their son. The energy in their relationship has shifted for the better since Fergie got pregnant. Rumors had been circling about Josh's activities with other women, but now, he's a bit more centered and focused on family.

Fergie has just legally changed her name from Stacy Ann Ferguson to Fergie Duhamel. It is said that, when you change your name, you change your destiny, so the newly-annointed Mrs. Duhamel has shifted her energy on many levels.

Josh is going to be really close to his son – it'll be hard to find him in a photo without him. It will cause him to want to work less, while Fergie will be inspired with material for a new album dedicated to the two men in her life and the love she has for them. It's a very happy time in the Duhamel household. All the best to them!

John Mayer Dedicates Love Song to Katy Perry

By

Kerri Sheehan

John Mayer and Katy Perry haven't called it quits just yet! The two have recently rekindled their romance and Mayer made the audience melt when he dedicated a song to Perry on the opening night of his tour. The song, "A Face to Call Home," is a serene love song from his Born and Raised album. According to People, Mayer said the song was for, "Katy, who is my face to call home."

What are some ways to use music to show your love?

Cupid's Advice:

Everyone identifies with music in some way. Use it to show your love. Here's some advice:

1. Dedication: If you and your partner have a night out then make a song request and have it dedicated to your significant other. Music can often say the things that we can't put into words.

2. Radio: You can also call in to a radio station and have them play a request for your lover. This idea is good for if the two of you aren't in the same place. This will show your partner that you're thinking of them even if they're far away.

3. Write: Whether you're a good singer or a bad singer your significant other will still appreciate the effort and thought put into the song. You can even make it short and sweet if you have trouble finding the words.

Celebrity News: Is John Mayer's New Song 'Paper Doll' about Taylor Swift?

By

April Littleton

"Paper Doll" was released Tuesday, June 18 and is from Mayer's upcoming sixth studio album, Paradise Valley.

What are some ways to use music to cope with a breakup?

Cupid's Advice:

Getting over a breakup can be a long and hard process. Your heart might feel like it's broken into a million pieces. Sometimes, using music as a soothing agent, can be the perfect thing to help ease the pain. Cupid has some advice on how to use music to keep you distracted and focused something else other than your ex:

1. Listen to songs by strong women: The best songs for a breakup are ones sung by strong, independent women. Women like Gloria Gaynor and Lara Fabian sing about different types of breakups, but they all have one thing in common – survival. If you're ready to stop crying yourself to sleep listening to the blues, change your tunes to songs like "Survivor/Independent Woman" by Destiny's Child or Christina Aguilera's "Fighter". These women will help you push through the pain and look forward to a brighter future.

2. Learn how to play a musical instrument: Forget about just listening to music, you want to create your own. If you'd rather take a more active approach to getting over your breakup, find an instrument you see yourself becoming interested in and get some help learning how to play. Start out by learning your favorite song and soon you'll see a change in your attitude. You'll be back in the dating game in no time.

3. Do a Taylor Swift: If you're already musically inclined, go ahead and write all of the emotions you have toward your ex down on paper. Turn those words into lyrics and think of a melody. Once you're happy with your little creation, try your hand at performing the song in front of some supportive friends. Whether you belt out words of hate or love, any kind of creative outlet you use to express yourself will help you work toward moving on with your life.

Katy Perry and John Mayer

Hang with Friends

By

Petra Halbur

Katy Perry and John Mayer were spotted with friends at a nightclub on June 7. According to People, the two singers spent their Friday night together at West Hollywood's Chateau Marmont along with around 15 other friends. It seems that Perry and Mayer are still on platonic terms, as the two sat apart all night. "I'm on the same journey as everyone else," Mayer told Ellen Degeneres when he appeared on her show in March. "Coupling is a tricky thing."

How do you know whether to get back together with an ex?

Cupid's Advice:

"To date or not to date." That is, indeed, the question that many people ask themselves about their exes, especially if they are on friendly terms with them. But how do you know if it's the right choice? Cupid is here to help:

1. Are you better as a couple: Just because you and your ex are best friends does not mean that romance is the next logical step. Platonic compatibility and romantic compatibility are not the same thing. Before you make a move on your ex, think carefully about how you two would get along as lovers, again.

2. Are problems resolved: Think back to what caused the break up in the first place. Are those issues resolved? If not, then there is no reason to give this relationship another shot.

3. Do you have the right motives: Do you want to get back together just to be in a relationship, again? Remind yourself that it's better to be single than to be miserable.

Celebrity News: Exes John Mayer and Katy Perry Are Spotted Flirting at Memorial Day Party

By

Kerri Sheehan

Ex flames and singers John Mayer and Katy Perry were spotted canoodling at a Memorial Day Party two months after their second breakup. UsMagazine.com confirms that Mayer was in attendance of the barbeque held at Perry's home in the Hollywood Hills. One fellow attendee said, "They seem to be back together – or back together-ish, they were very flirty and having a really good time together. They have good chemistry."

How do you decide whether to get back together with an ex?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes the guy that you count as down in out can turn out to be your Prince Charming. Cupid has some advice on how to tell if you dud has transformed into a keeper:

1. Make it your decision: A lot of women can fall into the trap of following what other think as opposed to listening to their own hearts. If you're really going to reunite with an ex it has to be your decision and no one else's. There's a difference between people giving you advice and full on telling you what to do.

2. Forgiving is easier than forgetting: If the reason for the original breakup was a transgression committed by your ex you have to acknowledge that it may not be as easy to forget as you think. If you still store pent-up hate for an ex's wrongdoing then there's no way you can move beyond that and reconcile in a healthy manner.

3. Do a Mental Rewind: Go back to the beginning of your relationship and figure out what originally attracted you to your partner. Are those traits still present in your ex? If he has changed for the worse then it may not be worth it to take your ex from the bench to the field.

Katy Perry Calls Divorce From Russell Brand a 'Very Tiny Elephant'

By

Meghan Fitzgerald

UsMagazine.com reports that a year after her divorce, the 28 year-old singer, Katy Perry is now more comfortable talking about her past relationship. According to Hollywood Reporter, Perry stated, "It's a very tiny elephant . . . It's like a little Tchotchke now," referring to her divorce. "The Big D – you can say it." Since her split with Brand, Perry has been in an on-and-off again relationship with John Mayer.

How do you cope with the aftermath of a split?

Cupid's Advice:

Coping with the aftermath of a split is not always the most graceful or welcoming thing to do in life. Although it is not an ideal situation, it is best to pick yourself up and move on. Of course moving on is one of the hardest aspects of life. But you can make it work, and eventually you will. Cupid has some more advice:

1. Get rid of belongings: So you just had a split from your partner, what is the next step you might ask. Get rid of everything they ever gave to you. You will never be able to even begin the coping process if you are frequently seeing him all over your room, and your house. Either give their belongings back, or be a dramatic rom-com and burn it all. The burning part releases some repressed emotions so if that's you, go purge.

2. Stay busy: Make sure you keep yourself busy with anything besides thinking of your split. Call your parents. Call your friends. Make lunch plans and follow them. Don't stay inside day and night. Get there and experience life. Even if your life may seem like it's over, it is not. Do not be a hermit, go and be with other people. Always try to be with other people after a breakup.

3. Rebound: You just went through a breakup, go and rebound it up. Of course it is not really healthy, and you may feel crappy about yourself afterwards. But you will get your mind off of your ex. This rebound relationship is a distraction from your life and thoughts about your past relationship. It's a quick fix, and something fun to do while your heart is trying to mend together.

Have you coped with the aftermath of a split? If so, how? Explain below.

Insiders Say Taylor Swift Was “Really Bitter” That John Mayer Performed at the AMAs

By

Meghan Fitzgerald

April 7th was the night of the Academy of Country Music Awards, and 22 year-old singer, Taylor Swift was spotted in a eye-capturing gold dress and was planning on performing with Keith Urban and Tim McGraw. UsMagazine.com reports that Swift's ex, John Mayer took the stage first at the event in Las Vegas. According to PerezHilton, a source revealed, "She said she had to go on earlier than him. John just being there irked her." Apparently Swift put a "stink" on about her ex-boyfriend's performance.

What are some ways to let go of a past relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Letting go of a past relationship isn't easy to do. You most likely still cling on to text messages, what ifs, old clothes, every minute thing about them. This is not the ideal situation to be in, however, it's realistic. There are numerous ways to let go of this relationship. Although it is hard to do, it's possible. Cupid has some more advice:

1. Closure: To completely let go of a past relationship, you will need closure. You may not wish to speak to your ex whatsoever but you need to. It is essential that you discover what went wrong and why you officially let things end. Give your ex any belongings you may have of theirs. It will make you feel better by not seeing them. If you must, delete them from social media sites, your phone. Any thing you have to do to not see them in your life.

2. Forgiveness: A key component of letting go is to forgive not only yourself, but your ex. If you think there is no forgiveness to be had, think again. The countless nights you spent obsessing about your relationship, the amount of Ben & Jerry's consumed, the fights you may have got into. Forgive yourself for all of them, you are human and are allowed to feel. Even if you don't wish to forgive your ex, do it. It makes the moving on process quicker.

3. Focus on yourself: You need a time period after your breakup to focus solely on yourself. It is essential for letting go. Take a day off of work and your daily responsibilities to go to the spa, or walk around the park. Treat yourself to a new gift. Call your parents. Celebrity Couples Who Are Unlucky in Love

Andrea Surujnauth

Celebrities' love lives are made public for the whole world to see and to judge. But even though some celebrities are all over the place with their love interests, that doesn't mean that there is no hope for them. A big celebrity that we all had our doubts about was Jennifer Aniston. From a broken engagement with Tate Donovan to a relationship with Paul Rudd to a failed marriage with Brad Pitt to a brief fling with Paul Sculfor to short relationships with both Vince Vaughn and John Mayer, Aniston has a long list of past unions that simply didn't work out. Now Aniston has finally found her leading man, Justin Theroux. The two started dating in 2011 and got engaged a year later. So although we thought Jennifer Aniston couldn't find love, after all these years she has finally found "the one."

The question is, are celebrities really that much different than us? Or do their love lives just look dysfunctional because they are always in the public eye? Let's take a look at a few more celebrities who have had trouble finding love and you can decide for yourselves:

Britney Spears:

Britney Spears became a pop idol sensation during the early 1990's. She began a relationship with Reg Jones from 1995 but ended it in 1997. She had a brief fling with Jason Geddart in 1997. By 1998 Spears moved on to begin her infamous relationship with Justin Timberlake. Their relationship lasted four years, and then Spears then moved on to her producer and dance choreographer, Wade Robson. They were together from 2001-2002. By 2003, Spears was rumored to be dating Tom Brady, Fred Durst, Nick Carter, Jared Leto, and Columbus Short. 2004 was Spears' wildest year yet. She got married...twice! First up at the altar was Jason Alexander, who was Spears' childhood friend. They were hitched during a drunken night in Vegas and annulled the marriage a few days later. Husband number two was Kevin Federline, one of Spears' background dancers. The two were together for three years and had two kids together. Spears then dated J.R. Rotem, Issac Cohen, Howie Day, Criss Angel, and Adnan Ghalib. Spears then found love with Jason Trawik. The two were engaged for three years, but decided to call the wedding off. Lately, Spears has been seen with a new boyfriend named David Lucado, an employee at a law firm.

Taylor Swift:

Taylor Swift may be young, but she already has quite a reputation with the fellas. Swift first began a romantic relationship with Joe Jonas of the Jonas Brothers in 2008. This relationship didn't last very long because Swift moved onto her "You Belong With Me" co-star, Lucas Till. By the summer of 2009, Swift switched over to new boy toy, Taylor Lautner. The relationship was over by December of 2009. In 2010, Swift fired up a relationship with John Mayer, which only lasted a few months. Jake Gyllenhaal was Swift's next victim. They broke up in 2011. Conor Kennedy was the next heartthrob to date Swift. This relationship lasted a few months as well. She went on to One Direction's Harry Styles and the two broke up after a while.

John Mayer:

John Mayer has quite a long list of love interests. Here is only a handful of the women on Mayer's list...just to name a few. In 2002 John Mayer was reportedly dating actress Jennifer Love Hewitt. The relationship was short-lived. He then moved on to dating Jessica Simpson in 2006. However, by the next year, Mayer began dating Minka Kelly. That only lasted a few months as well because by the year after that, 2008, Mayer began an on-again off-again relationship with Jennifer Aniston. He was apparently serious about her since he reportedly told Rolling Stones that the breakup "was one of the worst times of my life." He bounced back pretty quickly since by a little while after the breakup, he began dating Taylor Swift which lasted from 2009-2010. He then moved on to Katy Perry. The two seem to have an on-again off-again relationship going on. Lets see how long this one lasts!

In 1980, Moore was married to Freddy Moore. Their marriage lasted 5 years. In 1985, she became engaged to Emilio Estevez. The two had plans to wed in 1986 but called it off. By 1987, Moore was married to husband number two, Bruce Willis. The two were married for 13 years and had 3 daughters together. They were divorced in 2000. She then began a relationship with Asthon Kutcher who is 16 years younger than her. After dating for two years, Kutcher and Moore were married in September 2005. The marriage lasted a while but the two announced their divorce in 2011. Infidelity was rumored to be the cause of the divorce.

Celebrity Couple: John Mayer and Katy Perry Split for the Second Time

By

Andrea Surujnauth

It seems as though John Mayer and Katy Perry have hit a bump in the road...AGAIN. The famous couple has broken up for the second time. Is the split permanent? According to UsMagazine.com, it may not be. A source mentioned, "It's sad. It's not over until it's over. You have to see how things play out." Another source added, "She's leaving the window open. They have both been so focused on work." Perry had previously been married to Russell Brand, but their divorce was finalized by February 2012. Perry began flaunting her relationship with Mayer as early as March 2012. Although the two split up for a little while, they were back together by September 2012.

How do you know when an on-again off-again relationship is over?

Cupid's Advice:

On-again off-again relationships tend to feel like a never ending black hole. You just keep falling deeper and deeper into it and there doesn't seem to be any way out. How can you tell when the time has finally come to just get away from the relationship and never look back? Cupid has some advice:

1. No more satisfaction: When you're in this on-again off-again relationship, every time you and your beau are back on, you do not feel the same happiness and satisfaction that you once felt. You start asking yourself whether you are happier when the relationship is off rather than on.

2. No resolution: If you two are just getting back together without resolving the problem that caused you to break up in the first place, you probably should not be together. If you can not find the solution to a problem that was big enough to cause you to break up, then the relationship will continue being a roller-coaster ride for you and your partner. You both better get off of the ride before one of you throws up.

3. Think of your needs: Think about whether this relationship is healthy for you. Are you happy with the constant bickering, breaking up, crying, and then eventually getting back together knowing that it will happen all over again later on? If this relationship is getting in the way of your school, job, and happiness, then it is time to let it go and move on.

Find Out the Scoop Behind Katy Perry's New Ring from

John Mayer

By

Jessica Conigliaro

This Valentine's Day, singer-songwriter John Mayer showed girlfriend Katy Perry just how much he cared for her. The couple was seen leaving Vincenti, an Italian restaurant in Los Angeles Thursday night. Perry left wearing a red heart shaped ruby on her ring finger, People reports. Although it has not been confirmed to be an engagement ring, Mayer certainly went out of his way to make her feel special that night.

What are some ways to show your partner you're serious about a relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Now that Valentines Day is over, you are left wondering how to continue making your partner feel loved. Getting them a box of chocolates last week was a good start! Cupid has some great ways to keep them feeling special:

1. Include them in your life: Although you spend a majority of your time together, there are days you don't see each other at all. Talk to your partner about the things you do when you are apart. Invite them to any sporting events you're involved in—they will cheer you on the entire time and feel important doing so.

2. Invite them to family functions: Bringing someone home to meet the family is not an easy task. They can be judgmental and over curious about the new person at the dinner table. In these instances, your boyfriend should be more nervous than you are—he's the one being interrogated by your uncle! Keep inviting him to family events so they can get to know and respect him—your boyfriend will appreciate that.

3. Talk about the future: Mentioning future plans and aspirations in any relationship can be tricky. You don't want to scare them away with talk of marriage and kids. Instead, discuss smaller steps; the possibility of moving in together may be a good start. By doing this, you will let your partner know how committed you are to the relationship and hopeful for your future together.
