According to UsMagazine.com, the celebrity wedding took place on Saturday at the Little Brown Church in Studio City, followed by the reception at Stamos' home in Beverly Hills. The magical day will be one of many considering McHugh is pregnant with the happy couple's first celebrity baby.

This celebrity wedding was one for the books. What are some ways to honor your unborn child at your wedding?

Cupid's Advice:

In today's day and age, there's no shame with being a pregnant bride! Cupid has some ideas on ways to give some recognition to your little bundle of joy:

1. Include a personal vow to your unborn child: If the wedding guests already know you're prego or you wish to deliver the news right then and there, then this is a great way to honor your unborn baby. It's a sweet way to do a blessing for your baby at a wedding. It makes your wedding day about a whole family-to be, instead of just the couple.

2. Show off your baby bump: Look majestic AF in a beautiful gown. Flaunt that baby bump by choosing the right maternity dress for you! And flaunt the other parts of you that may be getting bigger as well. This is your big day and you need to show all of your glory to your wedding guests. Honor your baby by not trying to hide the baby bump, unless you're trying to keep it on the down-low for now.

Celebrity Wedding: John Stamos & Girlfriend Caitlin McHugh Are Engaged

By Rachel Sparks

According to UsMagazine.com, former Full House star John

Stamos proposed to his girlfriend, actress and model Caitlin McHugh, on Sunday, October 22 and she said “yes.” The happy ex-bachelor posted on Twitter, Instagram, and Facebook an image of a couple in front of the Disney castle with an emoji of an engagement ring. Stamos, excited about his own upcoming celebrity wedding, tweeted, “And we lived happily ever after.”

It's about to be a Fuller House with this celebrity wedding in the works! What are some unique ways to pop the question?

Cupid's Advice:

Your own proposal may not be the latest celebrity news, but that doesn't mean it shouldn't be special. Today everyone is finding creative and fun ways to pop the question. Cupid has some ideas:

1. Dinner at home: We're not ditching the dinner proposal, just modifying it. Cook up an amazing dinner at your own pad or rent a special location. You have control over the environment, unlike in a restaurant, so set the mood with lighting, scents, music, and artwork. Make a pillow fort in front of the TV for after-dinner relaxation and cuddle time.

John Stamos and Girlfriend, Leah Marsh Move Relationship toward Marriage

It looks like Uncle Jesse may be getting ready to settle down (again). John Stamos, star of Full House and ex-husband of supermodel Rebecca Romijn, is taking the next big step with his longtime girlfriend. E! Online reports that Stamos and gal pal Leah Marsh have moved in together. “It really is that serious,” a friend of the couple says. The two have managed to keep their relationship out of the spotlight for almost three years, spotted only rarely while walking the red carpet together. Marsh owns a Pilates studio and runs a yoga space in Santa Monica.

What are the benefits of living together before marriage?

Cupid’s Advice:

Moving in together first is a good way to test if you and the one you love are ready for marriage. Cupid has some ideas on why you should consider living together before getting married:

1. Learning their habits: When you live with someone, you learn about all of their idiosyncrasies and bad habits.

Before you two tie the knot, decide whether or not you can live with someone who never takes out the trash!

2. Figuring out finances: A huge part of getting married is figuring out how to merge your finances. Shacking up together first can help you establish ground rules when it comes to money as well as overcome any financial hurdles before you take a walk down the aisle.

3. Seeing their other side: Everyone acts differently in a public vs. private setting. At home, your partner might be a completely different person, and you need to know both sides of your mate before you make a big commitment.
